UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS A TRAP TO USE TRUSTING AMERICANS IN ABOLISHING THE UNITED STATES

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, Inc. . . . Letter 231

America faces one grave danger rarely touched upon by commentators who list proposals to come before Congress.

This danger lies in the schemes for "world government." Their proponents are going to press one or another of them at this session. And it might go through.

This world government idea is, in a nutshell, that the United States should throw in its lot politically with other nations, and therefore be governed no longer by Congress, but by an international Authority. In that Authority the United States would be a hopeless minority.

WHO ARE

UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS?

Perhaps fifty thousand people belong to United World Federalist chapters throughout America. Many are sincere Americans who are persuaded "world government" is a step toward universal peace. With their yearning for peace we, of course, agree. We will show how completely they are misled, and by whom.

For the leadership of UWF is a different story. Although a few eminent and patriotic Americans have lent their names to this movement, yet most of the leaders are left-wing.

Consider some of those that met three years ago to organize UWF: Stringfellow Barr, A. Philip Randolph, Raymond Swing, Glen H. Taylor, Vito Marcantonio, James P. Warburg, Carl Van Doren, Mark Van Doren, Norman Corwin, Norman Cousins, Robert Sherwood, Clifton Fadiman, Sholem Asch, Rex Stout, Harlow Shapley, Waldo Frank, Robert L. Humber, Lewis Mumford, Upton Sinclair, Van Wyck Brooks, Charles G. Bolte, Emanuel Celler, James B. Carey, Walter Wanger, Rabbi David De Sola Pool, Elmer Rice, Rex Tugwell. There was Thomas Mann, who last summer addressed a large meeting in communist East Germany. There was Albert Einstein, world-renowned scientist, who began identifying himself with left-wing activities before he had learned English. These, and others, met at Asheville, N. C., February 21, 1947, and merged several existing organizations into UWF.

Among the above mentioned and others who attended this meeting were affiliations with as many as THIRTY-ONE groups that have been branded as subversive Communist fronts by the Attorney General, the FBI or the Tenney Committee of California. Among these groups are, or were: Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, American Student Union, Progressive Citizens of America, League of Women Shoppers, Council on African Affairs, League of American Writers, American Friends of Spanish Democracy, and Films for Democracy. Many of the persons named supported Henry Wallace in 1948. Glen Taylor was Wallace's running mate!

The first President of UWF was Cord Meyer, Jr. He has been its main spokesman. We know of no communist connections of Mr. Meyer. But if he does not recognize the kind of people who

HOW LONG BEFORE THE ANTI-CHRISTIAN MARXISTS TEAR THIS DOWN?

Who Rule U.W.F.?

Zionists are the brains and controlling power behind Communism, and Zionists are the real driving-force behind United World Federalists. Communism and a "one world" plan have this in common—either would give Zionists and Marxists world domination.

Following the already established Communist-front pattern, the Zionists are cleverly staying in the background of United World Federalists. While using "world peace" as a lure, they entice prominent, innocent, well-meaning Christians into that un-American organization. These civic-minded Christians, generously lending their good names, then do the Zionists' work of trapping other unsuspecting persons into the U.W.F. net.

Invariably these stooges are not Communists. They are—in street language—"sucker bait."

COMMON SENSE knows that the main Zionist and international banking firms, with their headquarters at 1 William Street and 52 William Street, New York City, help finance and further the expansion of Communism throughout the world. There, too, are found the roots of United World Federalists.

We challenge top Zionist authorities and United World Federalists to meet us on the public platform.

We say to all good Americans who have been tricked—better read some booklets on the background of U.W.F. and learn who is backing the plot to hang the hammer and sickle over our Stars and Stripes.

Cleverly-Worded Resolution For World Govt.
Is Kept In Committee

CONTAINS THREAT TO U. S.

Subtle Scheme Has Catholic Support But Ignores
Papal Conditions For Peace

The Legislature at Albany this week narrowly escaped committing the citizens of New York State to a plan to abandon the Constitution of the United States in favor of a World Government.

On Thursday of last week, an innocentsounding resolution was presented in both houses of the Legislature to memorialize the United States Congress "to call a convention for the sole purpose of proposing amendment of the Constitution to expedite and insure the participation of the United States in a world federal government, open to all nations, with powers which, while defined and limited, shall be adequate to preserve peace. . . ."

The introduction of the subtly-worded resolution was part of a highly organized nationwide plan to secure the endorsement of World Government by 32, or two-thirds of the State Legislatures in order that a convention might be called to "amend" the Constitution. If 36 states approve the resolution, the convention will be mandatory.

Twenty-three State Legislatures have already given their endorsement. New York State would have been the 24th.

It is believed, however, that some States will rescind their approval after realizing the significance of the misleading resolution they have adopted.

Text Is Deceiving

The resolution itself, which is printed below, is carefully so worded as not to arouse the invariably busy legislator to study its contents too intently.

The first eight whereas's are generalities unlikely to be seriously challenged. They oppose war and the cost of armaments, proclaim the need for world peace based upon law and order, and recognize that the United Nations under its present charter is incapable of restraining major nations from fostering or fomenting war.

The ninth will undoubtedly be described as misrepresentation should the resolution unhappily and inadvertently be permitted to reach the floor of either chamber. It declares that many States have memorialized Congress "to initiate steps toward the creation of a world federal government reserving to the nations and to the people those rights not specifically granted as surround him, then he is lacking in awareness. . . . does recognize the nature of such associations but sees no danger in them, the quality of his leadership is in question.

In November, 1949, Mr. Meyer was made chairman of the executive committee and a new president was chosen.

We quote from the Washington Times-Herald for November 9, 1949:

"The United World Federalists, an outfit dedicated to the extinction of the American Republic, recently trotted out a retreaded New Deal war time propagandist as its new president and mouthpiece. The spokesman, Alan Cranston, former chief of the foreign language division of the office of war information, made a pitch before a congressional committee in behalf of the program of uniting America with every other country in the world, Russia included, and replacing national citizenship with world citizenship.

"It is a rather remarkable fact that the government goes out of its way to prosecute leaders of the Communist Party for seeking the overthrow of the United States, but that leaders of movements which would achieve the same result in a different direction are given a respectful audience by Congressmen.

"Because Mr. Cranston, during the war, was discovered by another congressional committee to have been most interested in suppressing any criticism of Russia, it is possible to wonder whether his ultimate intention differs materially from the party leaders convicted under the Smith Act."

Now, some of the leadership of UWF are earnest Americans with no sympathy with Communism or Socialism. But, in accounting for their presence, it is well to remember that it is ordinary communist technique to give such a salt-and-pepper appearance to organizations they hope to find useful. And, of course, the presence of such sincere, naive persons makes it easier to convince the average American that an organization is "liberal" and broadminded enough "to include all points of view."

WHAT IS THEIR PROGRAM?

The UWF proposes a constitution which will set up a world federal government. No nation, once admitted, may secede. The world governing body would possess only delegated powers. In the words of a UWF leaflet, "point 2" of their program would "guarantee to each nation its right to maintain its own domestic, political, economic, social and religious institutions." That is, Russia (which UWF wants included) could still be Communist and maintain its coercive society; dictatorships would be as much a part of the set-up as would free peoples. "World law" would be binding upon all, and could be enforced directly upon individuals—by world courts. The world federal government would enjoy "direct taxing power independent of national taxation." "Reasonable provisions" are to be made for amending the world constitution.

The material put out by UWF engages in some slick double-talk. This is essential—to cover up a dilemma for which UWF has no solution.

The first deals with representation in the world legislative body. If each country were given one representative per million inhabitants, the nominally free people of each—a small minority—would have less than 500 votes out of a total of some 2,000. Actually, the really free peoples, number less than ten per cent of the world population.

The leaders of UWF see this problem. How can they persuade the free minority (principally the United States) to enter a political arrangement in which they would be dominated by the dictators who already hold the vast majority in bondage? Their problem is not simple. It is like a salesman attempting to persuade free people to pay cash for the right to a life prison sentence.

So UWF leaders talk around this problem. They say: "Representation in the legislative body should be determined upon a just formula, recognizing population, economic development, educational level and other relevant factors; each representative to vote as an individual." Obviously, if these words mean anything, they insinuate that some less populous countries will get large delegations, while others with large populations will be content with small delegations. So we shouldn't worry!

That such a suggestion could be seriously made shows either that UWF is naive, or thinks the American people are. We do not think the real UWF leaders are naive. For two facts stand out: First, the art of gerrymandering could hardly devise a formula whereby the really free ten per cent could outvote the subjugated ninety-per cent. Secondly, why would the dictators of three-quarters of the earth's population enter a world federal government unless they could control it? The hint that they would not control it, in order to persuade Americans to surrender their independence, is just sucker-bait.

How frantically UWF attempts to evade a straight answer to this situation is found in a mimeographed UWF release called Answers to Questions About World Government, dated July 18, 1949. It says:

"The answer to this question [whether the U. S. would be outvoted] would be yes only if the United States contingent in the world government always voted against world peace. The world government proposed by UWF is designed to preserve the peace. If the United States wants peace, it will find itself voting with the majority who also want peace."

As an insult to American intelligence, this reply would be hard to beat. UWF's point 5 says: "Bill of Rights: The world constitution should include a bill of rights assuring equal and adequate protection to persons affected by the constitution and laws of the world federal government."

A casual reader might think that this guarantees liberty for everybody. But it does no such thing. UWF's point 2, already quoted, guarantees that despotisms can remain despotisms. This double-talk is a slick attempt to implant an idea while not actually stating it—a method characteristic of UWF propaganda material, as of all Communist propaganda everywhere.

The UWF program, when once established, is rigorously simple, even if likewise clad in double-talk. All national armies and navies are to be abolished. The only armed forces in the world, except for domestic police, would be the armed forces of the world-state. Atomic energy and all "other scientific developments" easily diverted to mass destruction would be under strict control of the world-state. This would mean practically all science and invention.

Do you Americans want to give up your army, navy and air force?

As to "other powers," there is further double-talk. "We recognize," says a UWF hand-out, "that although some world federalists believe that such limited powers would be sufficient as a beginning, others are convinced that any world organization to be effective, even at the start, must have broader powers to bring about peaceful change in the direction of a free and prosperous world community."

What can this mean? Remembering the horde of Marxists infesting UWF and the Marxist thesis that wars and economic distress are caused by class struggle, then clearly, if world power were placed in their hands, the World Federalists would proceed to root out economic freedom. In one fell swoop American private enterprise and American liberty would be wiped out.

Do you Americans want to substitute Russian slavery for your freedom?

WHAT ARE THEIR METHODS?

UWF methods are typical of left-wing "high pressure" groups. We would not wish to deprive UWF of the opportunity to convince Americans its cause is worthy. But, by the same token, UWF should not object when what it offers is publicly tested and weighed.

UWF has a three-pronged approach. First, through general propaganda, by printed word, radio and meetings. Second through local groups, of which there are now nearly a thousand. Third, it works actively on state legislatures and Congress to advance the tangible steps they hope will commit the U.S.A. to enter world government before the people know what it's all about.

UWF propaganda has capitalized on fear, especially fear of an atomic war. Over and over it says atomic war will end civilization, if not the human race itself. The only way out, it cries, is world government! UWF also plays on the sense of idealism, so easy to touch in most Americans. This is a noble ideal, says UWF. It will bring Tennyson's dream true:

"Till the war drums throb no longer, and the battle flags are furled
In the Parliament of man, the federation of the world!"

And the way to do it is to become an advocate of World Government! Join the parade of forward-looking people!

The UWF technique is the logical leap, carefully concealed from the unthinking, from the premise to the conclusion. It is an argument with the proof left out: Why does the fear of atomic war demonstrate that world government is any solution at all? Why does the fact that a truly peaceful world-society is a noble ideal lead to the conclusion that the specific program of UWF will bring realization of that ideal, and not plunge us into some form of totalitarian world bondage? We are not told.

It is in meaningless generalities that advocates of UWF shine. Bring them down to specific cases and they murmur, "Oh, that's a detail that does not need to be settled now." Yet it is those very details, as they call them, that would make all the difference between a world of freedom and a world of tyranny. We think most of the leaders of UWF have very specific ideas of the way we should go, but do not want to share them with the public at this time.

As for the local groups, UWF has unerringly gone to circles where idealism is strongest—such as Christian churches, women's clubs, student groups—and has sold the "ideal" without too much bother over how the ideal is to be realized. It has harped on the power of "world government" to stop war, with little emphasis upon what KIND of "government." Government, in itself, has no moral character. Yet UWF consistently sets forth simply "government"—government per se, as the cure-all for the ills of humanity. "Give us world government," it cries in effect, "but don't bother us by asking what kind, whether free or tyrannical. All we need is more and greater government!"

THE HUMBER RESOLUTION

Several years ago Robert Lee Humber, a lawyer of North Carolina, drew up a form of resolution expressing vague and general approval of the idea of world government, and began sending it to state legislatures. (Humber is now a member of UWF's executive council.)

State legislatures often cheerfully pass vague resolutions on almost any subject, unless some member who knows about it happens to object. So, before almost anybody else but Mr. Humber knew or cared anything about it, his resolution was "adopted" by the legislatures of Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Virginia, Washington.

Done mostly without debate, it is doubtful whether ten per cent of the members of these legislatures could recall what the "Humber Resolution" is about. Some of them never heard of it, or so they declare. Of course, no resolution which calls for the end of American independence could be adopted in any state legislature without a fierce struggle, provided the members knew the meaning of the resolution.

The Humber resolution had propaganda value. But it was only a preliminary. UWF had something more potent up its sleeve. It had another resolution that was more than a pious wish—a proposal that a convention be called to amend the Constitution of the United States "to expedite and insure the participation of the United States in a world federal government, open to all nations . . ."

This resolution contains eleven paragraphs, NINE of them pious "Whereas" paragraphs. The real teeth show only in the tenth, and then only if one reads carefully. A number of state legislators who actually voted "aye" on this one thought it was either the Humber resolution or something like it. Legislatures of six states have passed this latter resolution: California, Connecticut, Florida, Maine, New Jersey and North Carolina. After the California resolution had been passed, heroic efforts were made by Senator Jack B. Tenney and others to rescind it—efforts which failed after a terrific battle.

Now if the legislatures of thirty-six states can be induced to pass this or some similar resolution, the calling of a constitutional convention for the purpose of ending the independence of the United States will be MANDATORY. The "Humber Resolution" does not count in this computation, but already legislators of states that have passed it have been told that since they have already committed themselves to world government, they will naturally want to pass the new resolution too.

In the national field, UWF has secured assent to its program from many senators and congressmen—including a majority of the members of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs! Last year a Concurrent Resolution was introduced in both House and Senate declaring that "It is the sense of the Congress that it should be a fundamental objective of the foreign policy of the United States to support and strengthen the United Nations and to seek its development into a world federation open to all nations with defined and limited powers adequate to preserve peace and prevent aggression through the enactment, interpretation and enforcement of world law." In the House this resolution was introduced by ONE HUNDRED AND FIVE Congressmen, in the Senate by a small group. Hearings were held by the House Committee in October. At first it was planned to hear only the proponents. The National Economic Council, however, insisted upon being heard—and was heard.

WORLD FEDERALISM'S FATAL MISTAKE

All who fall for world federalism labor under a monumental misapprehension—the UWF group most fatally of all. This misapprehension is that governments create societies. But all history proves that societies create governments. There is today no world society, in the sense of a world community sharing a common culture, tradition and philosophy of human freedom. World governmenters say world government will create a world society. But this shows they are either babes-in-the-woods or very shrewd deceptions.

A real world government, if men are to remain free, will need to be preceded by centuries of preparation. And eventually a more intelligent, less gullible age than ours may reject the whole philosophy of big government, and prefer a community of independent nations. But to create such "government" now, in the present ideological world chaos, would be to force it upon hundreds of millions of people, and to strengthen tyranny everywhere. It would mean world "government" only in the sense that a conquering despotism is called "government." It would dwarf the Ghengis Khans, the Napoleons and the Hitlers into significance.

Only the Central Authority would be armed. It alone would possess A-bombs and guided missiles to crush rebellion. But it would be composed of men subject to human passions and desires. Under its rule, human beings everywhere would experience the summit and deification of tyranny.

Are Americans ready to hand themselves over to such a despotism?

A REAL PROGRAM FOR LIBERTY AND PEACE

While a world despotism might abolish war in the old sense, it would also abolish human freedom. It would be the peace of the "lifer" in prison. The World Federalist thesis is acceptable only to those who think it better to have an enslaved humanity and no war, than freedom with the risks of war.

But there is an alternative.

The first step is to preserve freedom within the United States by curbing statism and reasserting the rights and obligations of the individual. This means a rediscovery of the principles of the American Revolution and putting them into dynamic practice. Freedom must be not merely preserved in America: it must be actively practiced if its tremendous internal energies are to continue to be released. If freedom falls here, it will fall everywhere.

The second step is to preserve and actively assert the independence of the United States. Instead of surrendering her liberty of action, America should guard and exercise it.

The third step is to make the Americans impregnable. Communist fifth columns should be mercilessly rooted out. This step can be taken only by sheer realism which will end once and for all the attrition of our resources by financial, diplomatic and military over-extensions throughout the world.

The fourth step is for a free, strong and prepared America to sit where she is and ride out the storm, giving to all mankind (as she formerly did) the example freedom provides. If she does so, there need be no third world war in our life-time. If we ourselves refuse to over-extend, but permit the Soviet Union to do so, the Soviet system in less than a generation will fall apart, leaving an intact America to lead the world back to a better day. If the USSR and the U.S.A. fight within the next fifteen years, neither can conquer the other, but both may be wounded to the death.

In the choice between a slave world under supreme power, even without war, and the maintenance of freedom with the risk of war, we vote for freedom. If "peace" is to be purchased at the cost of liberty, the price is too high.

We urge every American to write his Member of Congress about World Government. We ask every member of Congress to think hard on the choice between freedom and the peace of slavery.

necessary to the establishment and the maintenance of world law and order." Sponsors and supporters of the resolution have the responsibility of interpreting the clause; it can be safely stated they will not do so in clear and unequivocal terms.

As this issue goes to press, the resolution at Albany is still in committee. It is reported that demands are being made upon the legislators for an open hearing on the issue before the resolution is sent to the floor.

105 Sponsors In Congress

A similar resolution was introduced into the House of Representatives June 7, 1949. United World Federalists, the organization prompting it, publicly stated a few weeks ago that the following Representatives from New York State are among the 105 sponsors of the resolution in the House:

William T. Byrne, Emmanuel Celler, John C. Davies, Ralph W. Gwynn, Louis B. Heller, Jacob K. Javits, Arthur G. Klein, Kenneth B. Keating, Abraham J. Multer, Adam C. Powell, Jr., R. Walter Riehlman and Anthony F. Tauriello.

The United World Federalists, as presently organized, was formed three years ago. Among those who took part were James P. Warburg, Rep. Vito Marcantonio, Sholem Asch, Rex Tugwell, Senator Glen H. Taylor (running mate of Henry Wallace in the 1948 election campaign), Norman Corwin, Professor Harlow Shapley, Rex Stout, Rep. Celler, Norman Cousins and Charles G. Bolte. Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and Senator Claude Pepper are among its advocates.

Literature on the proposed World Government is deliberately couched in generalities. When specific answers are sought at meetings of the local units, said to be near 1,000, the usual reply is that details can wait until later.

Official publications, however, have some statements which indicate the extent of the power to be given the World Government.

One of them, for example, says: "World Law shall be enforceable directly upon individuals," and the World Government "should have authority to raise dependable revenue under a . . . direct taxing power independent of national taxation." The consequences of these proposals to each American need not be amplified.

Representation in the proposed World Government will give peoples of the still free nations about ten per cent of the voting power. When a question concerning the insignificant vote accorded to Americans was posed directly to the United World Federalists the letter's official reply was:

"The answer to this question would be 'yes' only if the United States contingent in the World Government always voted against world peace. The World Government proposed by United World Federalists is designed to preserve the peace. If the United States wants peace it will find itself voting with the majority who also want peace."

The United States would also be compelled to scrap its military and naval defenses under the World Government which would "possess provisions prohibiting possession by any nation of armament and forces beyond an approved level required for its internal policing." America would, therefore, depend for its protection on an international army responsible only to the World Government. The latter would be in the present state of the world, in control of Communist, or at least Socialist, delegates.

It is also to be understood that all immigration, tariff and other barriers would be removed.

Catholics Used As Fronts

The United World Federalists, in their propaganda campaign to "educate" the public away from patriotism, which they condemn as "nationalism," have openly approached Catholics and Catholic organizations for support. They feature the names of priests and Catholic laymen on their literature.

The movement, however, ignores the conditions laid down so many times by Pope Pius XII for world peace. Especially notable by its absence is the fundamental condition emphasized by the Holy Father: ". . . an open acknowledgment of the rights of God and of His Law, or, at the very least, of the natural law on whose solid foundation are anchored the rights of man."

In making that statement on Nov. 12, 1948,

W fight communism with common sense to members of the European Union of Federalists, Pope Pius added the question: "Isolated from religion, how can all these rights and freedoms assure unity, order and peace?"

Text of Resolution

Following is the text of the resolution for a world federal government as introduced into the State Senate by Senator Walter Mahoney of Buffalo:

"Whereas, Modern science has produced weapons of war which are overwhelmingly destructive and against which there is no sure defense, and war is now a threat to the very existence of our civilization; and

"Whereas, The high taxes and huge deficits resulting inevitably from the arms program we must pursue as long as the possibility of aggression exists threaten us with bankruptcy and the destruction of the American way of life; and

"Whereas, The effective maintenance of world peace is the proper concern and responsibility of every American citizen; and

"Whereas, The people of the State of New York, while now enjoying domestic peace and security under the laws of their federal, state and local government, deeply desire the guarantee of world peace; and

"Whereas, All history shows that peace is the product of law and order, and that law and order are the product of government; and

"Whereas, The State of New York, as the home of the United Nations has a particular responsibility to support and strengthen that organization; and

"Whereas, The United Nations, as presently constituted, although accomplishing great good in many fields, has not been given authority to enact, interpret or enforce world law, and under its present charter is incapable of restraining any major nations which may foster or foment war; and

"Whereas, The charter of the United Nations expressly provides, in Articles 108 and 109, a procedure for reviewing and altering the Charter; and

"Whereas, Many states have memorialized Congress, through resolutions by their state legislatures or in referenda by their voters, to initiate steps toward the creation of a world federal government reserving to the nations and to the people those rights not specifically granted as necessary to the establishment and the maintenance of world law and order; and

"Whereas, Many states have already applied to Congress for the identical purpose proposed hereinafter in this resolution; and

"Whereas, Several nations have recently adopted constitutional provisions to facilitate their entry into a world federal government with powers adequate to assure peace; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved (if the Assembly concur) That application is hereby made to the Congress of the United States, pursuant to Article V of the Constitution of the United States, to call a convention for the sole purpose of proposing amendment of the Constitution to expedite and insure the participation of the United States in a world federal government, open to all nations, with powers which, while defined and limited, shall be adequate to preserve peace, whether the proposed charter or constitution of such world federal government be presented in the form of amendments to the charter of the United Nations, or by a world constitutional convention, or otherwise; and be it further

"Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Senate of the United States, the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each member of the Congress duly elected from the State of New York and that the latter be urged to devote themselves to the task of accomplishing the purpose of this resolution."

Delay N. Y. World Government Vote

Republished from N. Y. Journal-American, Jan. 25, 1950

A move in the Legislature at Albany to commit the State to participation in a "World Government" plan was locked in committee today.

Mounting protests from patriotic societies and veterans' organizations, militantly opposed to any plan that would relegate this country to a minor status in a world group, are believed responsible for keeping the resolution from reaching the Senate and Assembly floors.

Sponsored by State Sen. Mahoney, Buffalo Republican, a resolution has been introduced which would memorialize Congress to take action on the world government movement. Mahoney is chairman of the Finance Committee, where the resolution now rests.

In view of increasing civic opposition, committee members are believed wary of reporting it out for a vote.

Could the resolution be pushed through—without fanfare and specifically without a public hearing at which protest groups could aid their views—New York would become the 24th State to adopt it.

Should 32 States act similarly, then Congressional action would be mandatory. The Mahoney resolution proposes an amendment to the Constitution that would:

"Expedite and insure participation of the United States in a world Federal government."

In effect, a "world government" would submerge this country to a virtual nonentity.

As the N. Y. Journal-American has pointed out repeatedly:

"If each nation (there are 64) has one vote, as in the United Nations, the vote of the United States will be equal only to the vote of Siam."

"But the British Empire will have five or more votes. And what is far more serious, Soviet Russia and its satellites will control a larger number."

Typical of organized protest against the resolution is that from the board of directors of the American Coalition—an association comprising 85 leading U. S. patriotic societies.

"We declare emphatic opposition to submergence of the United States in a world federation," the association stressed at its annual convention.

"This project is politically impractical, fraught with disastrous economic possibilities for the American taxpayer, and militarily a menace to American liberty."

Tomorrow and Friday of this week, the Woman's Patriotic Conference, representing 3,000,000 women, is expected to blast the resolution in a meeting at the Hotel Statler in Washington.

Someone has said that the road to Hell is paved with good intentions, but he did not tell us whether those who have paved that road go to Hell.

It would be interesting to know whether the well-meaning perverter of truth, the betrayer of those whom he loves, and the destroyer of that which he seeks to build are judged by their intentions or by the results of their actions,—when the Great Judge renders his final verdict.

We need not answer that question here, but it is important to know that motives, no matter how good, cannot prevent operation of the law of cause and effect.

The doctor who mistakenly prescribes arsenic to cure heart trouble does not thereby prevent the poison from killing his patient, no matter how earnest his hopes that the patient get well.

The architect does not prevent destruction of the house he builds if he ignores the laws of physics in trying to save money for his client.

The teacher who loves his students does not thereby change the laws of psychology which wreck the boy who is mistakenly taught to rely entirely upon others.

So with the political and economic policies of a nation. We know that the communist wants to destroy capitalism and thereby tear down the prosperous economic structure which we have built in the United States. He wants to set up government control over our lives and subjugate the individual to the state. He sees Jesus of Nazareth with his gospel of love as the mortal enemy of Karl Marx with his doctrine of class hate.

But the communist is too wise to attack in the open with clear avowal of his real purpose. He makes the attack in the name of democracy and humanitarianism, seeking to enlist for his fell purposes the aid of the very elements he seeks to destroy.

And so, many a devout church member, or worker for good, accepts the extravagant spending and accumulation of public debt as means to foster the welfare of individuals less fortunate than himself, and to provide easy help for the projects he would serve. He does this out of love for his fellow man, to establish the reign of plenty for all men on earth.

But, whether the purpose behind the extravagant spending, subsidies, government control and piling up of debts be to wreck the capitalistic system quickly, as is the aim of the communist and his socialistic pals—or whether it be in the name of democracy to promote humanitarian purposes, as is the hope of the devout and the good—THE END RESULT IS THE SAME in either case. It brings destruction to our traditional American freedom and self-reliance, the setting up of bureaucratic controls which ultimately enslave the individual, lower his standard of living, and, ultimately destroy the Church itself.

So the devout church member can become fellow-traveler to the communist without realizing it, and neither the purity nor the nobility of his motives prevents him from serving as ally to the destroyers of his country and its basic freedoms. His methods defeat his purpose.

Sheer love for humanity does not save humanity when those who love it use the methods that ultimately destroy the objects of their love. It then becomes loving betrayal.

OTHERS

Lord, help me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray
My prayers will be for OTHERS.

Help me in all the work I do
To ever be sincere and true
And know that all I do for YOU
Must needs be done for OTHERS.

Let self be crucified and slain
And buried deep, and all in vain
May efforts be to rise again
Unless to live for OTHERS.

And when my work on earth is done
And my new work in heaven begun
May I forget the crown I've won
While thinking still of OTHERS.

Federal World Repeal Praised

Republished from N. Y. Journal-American Jan. 25, 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—Daughters of the American Revolution today praised the Georgia Legislature for rescinding its previous backing of the world federation movement.

The Georgia Senate voted 34 to 8 to repeal a resolution passed two years ago calling for a world government.

The Georgia House previously passed the repeal legislation unanimously.

AIDED BY VETS

Mrs. Lola Lee Bruington, executive secretary of DAR's national defense committee, said Georgia is the first of 22 states on record to reverse its endorsement of the plan to replace national sovereignty with an international federation.

Mrs. T. Earle Stribling, DAR state chairman for national defense, led the fight for repeal. Veterans organizations, including the Veterans of Foreign Wars, aided.

"THE GREEK CATHOLIC PATRIARCHATE JAFFA (PALESTINE)"

Jaffa, August 4, 1948

Mr. Delegate,

I wish to inform you that my Church has been desecrated by the Jews. It was on July 28. Armed Jewish soldiers broke through the Church door. They stole two chalices and sacred vases containing the Holy Host, three crosses, a patena plate, two altar spoons, several gold and silver ex-votos, and a leather case. That is what I have been able to trace as missing. Then they threw away the icons of Jesus-Christ and the Holy Virgin in the garden next door.

When I went to complain to the commandant of the nearest military post, the soldiers laughed at me and would not let me see their chief.

I cannot remain silent when faced with so great a crime. I now wish to protest against so hateful a desecration. We are constantly hearing Jewish leaders make high-sounding statements that they respect churches and religious leaders. Such acts do not follow their words.

I am acquainting you with facts of which the Christian world at large is unaware. I beg of you, Mr. Delegate, to convey those facts to my religious chiefs in Jerusalem, at the Greek Catholic Patriarchate. Likewise, I should be grateful if you could communicate those facts to the Apostolic Delegate.

That, Mr. Delegate, is what I believe was my duty to report to you.

Respectfully yours,

G. REZK,

Greek Catholic Church in Jaffa

Effective immediately, subscription rates to COMMON SENSE have been reduced to $1.00 a year. The battle we are waging against subversives and anti-Christians is so serious we have lowered our price in an effort to reach a wider audience. As many people as possible should learn the TRUTH.

At the trifling cost of $1.00 per year, COMMON SENSE should be within the means of everyone who wants to know all the news which is kept out of print. If you already have a subscription, subscribe for a friend.

America's situation is so critical everyone who can read should read COMMON SENSE for the truth behind the world situation today.

THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION A Surrender To The Invisible Government

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, Inc. . . . Letter 232

The so-called Genocide Convention is before the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate. The National Economic Council is promised a hearing shortly. But citizens everywhere who value the American way of life should acquaint themselves with what this convention will do to them and their country and should express their views to their Senators.

From the standpoint of vital American interests, it is a suicide convention. The full title is "Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide."

WHAT RATIFICATION WOULD MEAN

If ratified, this Genocide Convention will, under the Constitution, become the supreme law of the land. So far as they may be inconsistent, it will supersede the Constitutions of the forty-eight states and the statutes that have been or may be passed thereunder; and, it will similarly nullify the statutes of the United States. Opinions differ as to whether it would also supersede any inconsistent provisions of the Constitution of the United States.

Hence, this proposed treaty is a matter of first importance.

The Genocide Convention has been drawn up and approved under the General Assembly of the United Nations. Clearly it is just one more illustration of the disposition of UN and the so-called alphabetical agencies, which are in some way related to UN, to tie the whole world in knots. To us Americans it is one more proposal to hand over an important part of the sovereignty of the people of the United States to an international committee in which the United States would be in a hopeless minority.

It is thus an important link in the chain of proposals to dismember the American Republic, and to reduce the American people to slavery under a communist-controlled world government.

Like all similar proposals, it is the work of a minority that knows exactly what it wants.

A BRAND NEW WORD!

What is Genocide? The 1948 edition of Webster's dictionary does not list the word. Like so much of the jargon of the past few years it has been thought up and coined by the internationalist smart boys—obviously to serve a very special purpose.

What does the Genocide Convention do, and how does it propose to do it?

Clues are given in the opening provisions that read as follows:

"The Contracting Parties (that is the nations that ratify),

"Having considered the declaration made by the General Assembly of the United Nations in its resolution 96 (1) dated 11 December 1946 that genocide is a crime under international law, contrary to the spirit and aims of the United Nations and condemned by the civilized world;

"Recognizing that at all periods of history genocide has inflicted great losses on humanity; and

"Being convinced that, in order to liberate mankind from such an odious scourge, international cooperation is required,

"Hereby agree as hereinafter provided."

At the very beginning it is obvious that

THE AMERICAN WAY

Caught In The Act

VENGEANCE AT NUREMBERG?

On December 17, 1942, Mr. Eden, in the House of Commons, gave a "Declaration" about the Jews in the name of the United Nations. As far as I know this is only the second time the word "Declaration" has been used by a British politician . . . Mr. Eden's Declaration was specifically and exclusively limited to the Jews and said "Those responsible for these crimes shall not escape retribution." No single word was given to the crimes committed against Czechs, Poles, Serbs, Frenchmen, Hollanders, Norwegians, Greeks, Belgians and others . . . We formally tell the Germans from the House of Commons that anything they may endure at our hands will be solely in behalf of the Jews. We have lent our names to the threat of a Jewish vengeance.

It seems to me that through the manner of the verdicts and hangings, this threat was carried out. What seems to me to be a most significant event at Nuremberg; where the world's press gathered, passed without mention in the mass-circulation newspapers.

The dates of SENTENCE AND EXECUTION WERE JEWISH FESTIVALS. Rosh Hoshanni, the Jewish New Year and day of repentance, fell on September 26th, 1946—Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, on October 5th; Hoshana Rabba (when the Jewish God, after an interval during which he considers his verdict on

Robeson Could Demand Peekskill Police Force Be Brought To Trial By UN

Incredible? Not at all!

Under the Genocide Convention, now before the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate, Paul Robeson—known to be affiliated with some 50 Communist front organizations—could accuse the Peekskill police force, and other Peekskill citizens who protested Robeson's riot-rally, of "genocide".

Terms of the nefarious, U.N. Genocide Treaty are such that Robeson, claiming mental harm to a minority group, would have the legal right to demand trial of Peekskill police and citizens before an international court. Further, Russia and her five satellite countries, having ratified these genocide treaties, would play the major role in determining whether or not Peekskill citizens were guilty of "harming" Robeson.

On the complaint of any Communist, Zionist, or other minority group, an American politician, speaker or writer who dared criticize such a minority group could be deported to foreign soil for trial by an international jury.

In time of war, should spies or traitors be injured or killed by an F.B.I. agent, U.S. Army officer, or local police, such action could be construed as a crime of "genocide."

Americans! This is urgent! The Communist and Zionist forces, which are doing everything possible to destroy America and wipe out Christianity, have laid this egg. They are now only waiting for it to hatch!

The Genocide Convention, if ratified by the Senate would:

CURTAIN ALL FREEDOM OF SPEECH
FOR CHRISTIANS and SUPERSEDE ALL AMERICAN FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL LAWS.

Americans! You would—legally—be under the thumbs of foreign dictators and Zionist tyrants.

Write your Senator AT ONCE! Tell them you are OPPOSED TO THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION and that it SHOULD NOT BE RATIFIED BY THE UNITED STATES.

FROM EIGHTEEN YEARS OF STUDY OF THE FORCES BEHIND COMMUNISM, WE CAN POSITIVELY SAY THAT IMMEDIATELY AFTER THIS GENOCIDE BILL IS RATIFIED BY OUR SENATE, THERE WILL BE NO FURTHER EFFECTIVE OPPOSITION TO COMMUNISM. THIS BILL MAKES IT ILLEGAL TO OPPOSE THE FORCES WHICH ARE 100% RESPONSIBLE FOR COMMUNISM.

THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION

those at whose instance this Genocide Convention has been drawn, have set forth in true New Deal fashion certain premises whose truth and validity are, to say the least, in grave doubt. The same minority, of course, cooked up these premises.

GENOCIDE DEFINED

Genocide is defined in Article II as—

"... any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such (bold ours):

- "(a) Killing members of the group;
- "(b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group (bold ours);
- "(c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part;
- "(d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;
- "(e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group."

We differ strongly with the premise that "at all periods of history genocide has inflicted great losses on humanity." To be sure there have been some instances of genocide where whole races or substantial parts of races have been blotted out. Thus, when the children of Israel captured the city of Jericho, it is recorded that the entire population of men, women and children were put to the sword.

The murder by Soviet Russia of 11,000 Polish officers, merely on the ground, apparently, that they were Polish officers, was a case of genocide. So was the alleged killing by Hitler of large numbers of non-Nazis, many of them of the Jewish faith or race. It is frequently asserted that Hitler killed six million Jews. It has been shown authoritatively that no such number were in fact killed—that the number was probably not in excess of one million. This was bad enough.

FROM THE AMERICAN STANDPOINT

Now, from our standpoint as Americans, killing off a race, or a part of a race, or the members of a religious cult, deplorable as it is, is still no ground for requiring the United States of America in effect to overthrow to a large extent its form of government, by surrendering part of its sovereignty to an international committee. Every state in the Union has laws for the punishment of murder, whether the victims be one or many.

The point at issue is the real purpose of the Genocide Convention. Is it to prohibit mass murder? Or is it to furnish a means whereby any person of any minority, whether Negro, Jew, Chinese or any other, if aggrieved or fancying himself aggrieved, can bring charges against some individual or group before an international committee—and thus submit the fate of supposedly free Americans to the tender mercies of aliens?

Is it not a short cut to a world FEPC, thus making unimportant the success or failure of FEPC in Washington or the state capitals?

To be sure, provision is made in the "Convention" for states and nations to punish such "offenses." It is provided in Article V that—

"The Contracting Parties undertake to enact, in accordance with their respective Constitutions, the necessary legislation to give effect to the provisions of the present Convention and, in particular, to provide effective penalties for persons guilty of genocide or of any of the other acts enumerated in article III." (Bold ours).

Then it is provided in Article VI—

"Persons charged with genocide or any of the other acts enumerated in article III shall be tried by a competent tribunal of the State in the territory in which the act was committed, or by such international penal tribunal as may have jurisdiction with respect to those Contracting Parties which shall have accepted its jurisdiction." (Bold ours.)

Obviously the words bold are the authority for turning over complete jurisdiction over American citizens to this international committee or tribunal. In fact, under Article VI, the international tribunal could take jurisdiction and entertain a criminal prosecution without waiting for the state itself to act in whose territory the alleged offense was committed.

NOTE THIS DEFINITION OF GENOCIDE

Coming back to Article II, we see that one of the definitions of genocide is—

"... with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national ethnical, racial or religious group ... (bold ours), to cause

"(b) ... serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group;"

Under this definition it is perfectly clear that the doing of any act by any individual—such as refusal of employment, or blackballing a person for membership in a union or a social club, or the publishing of any comment, no matter how mild, with respect to any member of a minority—could be deemed by the "international penal tribunal" to constitute "mental harm," and hence, under the clear provisions of the Genocide Convention, to be worthy of punishment. And if so, no power in the United States would be able to prevent the transportation of a supposedly free American citizen from his home to Paris or Warsaw or Tel Aviv to stand trial.

Now, one of the grievances cited against King George III by the Declaration of Independence was that he had "transported citizens beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses." And bearing in mind the prolonged but never finished "prosecution" in Washington of some 30 alleged "seditionists" several years ago, at the instance of elements now pushing this Genocide Convention—and also the current persecution of Mrs. McCullough in Connecticut, what citizen, thus accused, would even be able to pay the costs of his defense overseas?

WHAT ACTS ARE PUNISHABLE?

Under Article III, among the acts which are punishable are—

- "(c) Direct and public incitement to commit genocide;
- "(d) Attempt to commit genocide;
- "(e) Complicity in genocide."

Under some one or other of these three provisions the slightest reference to a member of a minority race or religion—such as a newspaper identifying a man under arrest as a Negro—might be deemed to be a punishable act. Certain American newspapers already have been "induced" not to identify in their columns an individual by race or color.

The American Bar Association in a report on the Genocide Convention, which it strongly opposes, calls attention to the provision that "direct and public incitement to commit genocide" shall be a crime, and then comments as follows:

"This was adopted in spite of repeated objections of the United States representative that it was a plain infringement of freedom of speech and freedom of the press. Who shall judge if political speeches are incitement to genocide—the civil authorities? ... Who shall judge as to freedom of the press? ... Representatives of many countries insisted that as between genocide and freedom of speech and freedom of the press, the latter must give way. The position of our representative seemed to be incomprehensible to many of them ..."

GENOCIDE CONVENTION—MERELY ONE OF SEVERAL

It is interesting to consider this Genocide Convention not only by itself, but in the light of all the other international proposals made to the Congress of the United States.

There is, for instance, the International Trade Organization Charter (ITO), under which, if ratified by the Senate as a treaty, the control of our foreign trade, and presently of our domestic trade, will be taken away from the Congress and the governments of the several states and turned over to an international committee.

There is the so-called "Right to Organize" Convention of the International Labor Organization (ILO), under which, if ratified as a treaty, the relations between workers and their employers will be under the control, not of the American people themselves through their own Congress and through the several state governments, but of an international committee.

Of course these two agreements do not specifically state that, after ratification, the government of any ratifying country will cease to have any authority and that the authority over these several matters will be vested in international committees. But it is perfectly clear from the contexts of the two agreements that the rulings of the two international bodies will prevail where they differ from the laws of Congress and the Constitution and laws of the several states. And we may be sure that these bodies would constantly tend to increase and stretch every power they could spell out of the language of the convention.

So, in effect, the control is taken away from our domestic government and vested in the international bodies.

Then, there is pending before the Congress the so-called International Bill of Rights, of which Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is one of the authors. This Bill of Rights, if adopted, would supersede that in our own Federal Constitution (of which we have been proud for 160 years), and thereafter the enforcement of the rights of any individuals could be done only through an international tribunal in which the Americans would have a decidedly minority vote. In other words, the protection of our God-given rights reserved to the people would be abolished; and in its place an international committee would tell Americans what their rights are.

Over-shadowing all these alphabetical agencies and the foster-parent of them all, is the United Nations. This organization, the brainchild of Franklin D. Roosevelt, was drafted in a preliminary way at the Dumbarton Oaks Conference at which the executive secretary was one, Alger Hiss. Then it was referred to the San Francisco Conference in the late spring of 1945. The Secretary General of the San Francisco Conference was Alger Hiss. Alger Hiss, as we well know, had also been the right-hand adviser of Mr. Roosevelt at the Yalta Conference, at which the totalitarian views of Stalin dominated the disastrous proceedings.

WHAT MADE AMERICA GREAT

All this furnishes a clue. The serious people of the United States believe the astounding development and progress of their country arose out of the individual freedom they reserved to themselves by the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights. Thomas Jefferson said that "The government is best which governs least." With minds untrammelled by government controls, and moved largely by the simple precepts of the Ten Commandments and regard for their neighbors, they built not only the freest and richest, but also the most philanthropic and charitable nation that ever existed.

Those who conceived the current ideas of national and especially international controls, did not get their views from American history. And since the teaching of American history had been largely superseded in many important American institutions of learning, these ambitious planners were able to hide from the present generation that they, the planners, had borrowed their ideas from tyrannical systems overseas. They got most of them straight from the teachings of Karl Marx, whether by way of Soviet Russia, or the British Fabian Society of Socialists, which latter, as John T. Flynn has shown so well in his book The Road Ahead, are the present-day British Socialist Government.

STOP A MOMENT AND REFLECT

When one sits down and soberly reflects, why in heaven's name should the Americans, of all people, be willing to scrap their traditions and their principles and throw them into a common pot with all the socialistic, half-bankrupt nations of the rest of the world? The idea is fantastic. It would be comic if the efforts of these totalitarians back of UN, ITO, ILO and all the rest had not already made considerable progress and threaten to make further progress. Indeed, their plans are so well laid that we find their propaganda in practically all organizations of any consequence—including even business organizations.

WHO IS BACK OF GENOCIDE?

What kind of people are back of these proposals?

First, a large number of college professors in the universities and teachers in the schools. Part of their motive is clearly idealism; part of it is general unfamiliarity (even though they are professors) with the relation between the American form of government and the prosperous system under which they, as college professors, are drawing now on the whole, quite satisfactory salaries. And, too, of course there are the many professors who are more or less avowedly left-wingers, and who really think that Soviet Russia, or at least bankrupt Socialist Britain (now continuing to exist because we give them a billion dollars a year), offers a better way of life than America has afforded.

Then, many labor union leaders, some of them outright Communists or willing to play with the Communists, and many more with the Socialists, have consistently backed the socialistic and communistic schemes of the International New Dealers. These are among those minorities that so many Republican leaders have continued to toady to—although the instances in recent years when these labor leaders have thrown any

FEPC and The Minority Machine

AT LAST THE CRISIS IS HERE — 1950 IS A DECISIVE YEAR In The Struggle For Human Freedom vs. Secret Police Rule

Major Robert
H. Williams

Momentous issues are before Congress and the President—FEPC, immigration, world government, Socialism, the fifth columns of Communism and Zionism, the threat of a third world war.

All these measures are intimately related. If Congress is tricked or pressured into voting wrong on these issues—if you and I elect the wrong men to office this year—we will, within another year or two, find ourselves under a terrorist regime by the Invisible Government which holds the Russian people in its grip and even now wields a terrible power over the White House.

Startling information reveals clearly at last the backers of Communism and Zionism—a small clique, mostly American citizens of a single race, utterly ruthless, maniacal in their quest for world power. These men expect to join hands with old friends and associates, who now rule Russia and Israel, in a world dictatorship. They lure gullible Americans in the name of world peace. If their plan succeeds, we will presently see our cities inundated with millions of Asiatics. Industrial cities will be converted into slave labor camps like those in Russia and Christian civilization, along with the white race, will vanish.

The decision is almost sure to be made, pro or con, in 1950 or 1952.

Such are the findings of Robert H. Williams, wartime Counter Intelligence officer, now a major in Military Intelligence Reserve, in his latest booklet: FEPC AND THE MINORITY MACHINE, just off the press.

The Author of The Anti-Defamation League and Its Use in the World Communist Offensive, The Untold Story of State Medicine, a contributor to Encyclopedia Britannica's "Ten Eventful Years," and called by Upton Close "as conscientious an officer as Military Intelligence ever had"—Major Williams once more scoops the field of journalism in presenting the clearest, simplest, most fearless analysis of the world crisis.

One who read the manuscript called it "a political education in 30 minutes."

This small booklet is MUST reading NOW, at the beginning of this politically critical year. Read the names—the plans! Genocide Convention support to the Republican Party are rare indeed. Yet election returns, if nothing else, have frequently shown that vast numbers of working people, many of whom had been forced to join the unions, have little sympathy with the radical political and social views of their leaders.

Then there are the ministers of the Gospel, huge numbers of whom have been persuaded by subtle communist propaganda, the source of which the ministers in question often do not suspect, that the Gospel of Christ requires them to go political.

Fourthly, there are people like Alger Hiss—young men and women who came out of college (often the Harvard Law School) and, frequently without any other experience, entered government service.

The United States is the only large solvent country remaining in the world today. We owe a direct debt of 257 billions—plus some 200 billions of indirect debt. We have an annual budget of 42 billion dollars. Some 30 per cent of the income of all Americans goes to pay for government.

Yet we still have most of our freedoms. The principles underlying individual freedom, and private enterprise, private property and individual initiative had become so thoroughly ingrained in the people that even the devastating effects of the pouring out of precious lives, of national resources and materials in two world wars, and the reckless spending of the two socialistic governments of Roosevelt and Truman, have still left it the richest, most stable country in the world.

Strong as we are, however, yet there are limits beyond which even this great country cannot go. Should confidence be undermined (and there are several ways in which this might happen), the country could slip fast into a bankrupt, totalitarian state. For much of our wealth consists in the fact that as a country we are a going concern. Our wealth is not so much in what we have, but in what we produce.

OUR "WORLD RESPONSIBILITIES"

The assertion is frequently made that the United States "must assume its world responsibilities." So far as this has any meaning, it is a thought and utterance of the international Socialists. For the United States for fifty years past has assumed far greater responsibilities than the people of any other country. During the interval between the world wars, when left-wingers here and abroad were dubbing us "isolationist," we spent many billions of dollars in Europe in the effort to repair the damage done by war. Since the end of World War II we have spent 30 billions of treasure in Europe and other countries.

Clearly, "isolationist," in the language of international left-wingers, means merely unwillingness to give away all we have and descend to the economic and social level of the rest of the world.

If we are to help other nations and peoples to rebuild themselves, the greatest responsibility we have is to repair our own damage, reduce our debt, remain solvent—in fact increase our solvency. We must put our own house in order. For like a strong man, only a strong country can help others.

For decades, as a free Republic we have been an example to all mankind. We are out of character when we weakly yield to the international Socialists and recklessly pour out our wealth for schemes that will destroy both our prosperity and independence.

Hence this nation should highly resolve that it will make no more general international commitments of any kind, for the carrying out of such commitments will water down our material wealth, weaken the fibre of our people, and undermine our liberties.

HERE'S WHAT TO DO

This Genocide Convention should be dropped out of the window and forgotten altogether. The internationalist agency that cooked it up should be told to take it away. To adopt it would merely make present day confusion worse confounded. It would let loose an avalanche of international laws and rulings on top of our national, state and local laws. It would increase the cost of living and the burden of life for every American. In addition, it would build up a new international bureaucracy manned, probably for the most part, by the members of the very minorities who thought up the scheme.

We urge the Senate of the United States not to ratify the Genocide Convention.

We urge every American who values his liberties to write his two Senators and express his views.

From Smoke To Smother

By Douglas Reed

(360 pgs. cloth bound, $3.)

Occasionally there comes to our desk a book carefully written and chillingly discerning in its analysis of world events—FROM SMOKE TO SMOTHER is one of these. Mr. Reed, the brilliant English journalist, writing from first-hand experience in Europe since 1933, traces the pattern of political Zionism in the last two World Wars and in English Socialism today.

There was, he says, a war within World Wars I and II, an unknown war which was "that of spreading chaos, and destroying Christian nationhood in Europe."

He writes: "It seems to me that the case is proved. The Black Religion and its organization exists... its literature and teachings during two centuries may now be compared with the pattern of events... the real aim would be to complete the destruction of Europe; to set up some evil 'World Government', straddling the world from Fort Knox to Jerusalem and to use the men and money of the last great states of Christendom for that purpose."

There's a smile or two in Mr. Reed's book—a few tears, too—but, most important of all, a chill of apprehension as one realizes the truth of the plot for Christian destruction; a plot so nearly completed.

The News and Courier
Charleston, S. C.
Gentlemen:

If any gentlemen or ladies think they are free, and that this is a free country, I just want them to read their Income Tax papers carefully; and if they still think so, they have a wonderful imagination. And of many of them, their employers take heavy toll from their pay checks, without saying even, by your leave.

All the money is squandered, and vast sums poured down foreign rat holes, where it is not appreciated, increases foreign Communist strength, and lowers the American self respect.

The Sixteenth Amendment is the guilty one in this instance. Write your Senator and Congressman to fight for the repeal of or a change in the Amendment, to make it read something like this—

The nature of my business is my own affair

My total receipts were $.....

My total cost to make it were $.....

My net income is $.....

Exemptions: Married persons and all single persons $2,000.00 each, and $500.00 for each child under 21 years of age; all disabled, or blind persons, and all persons 60 years old and up.

Tax rates, up to $2,000.00 no tax, and no returns necessary, $2,001.00 to $24,999.00, 10% of net income; $25,000.00 and up to as much as a man can make, 20% of net income.

Who minds how much a man can make, if he has the ability, it is his. Besides this will save hundreds of carloads of paper.

As one lawyer has expressed it, "The Sixteenth (or Income Tax) Amendment is being used to Communize and Impoverish the United States of America, to finance Socialism in England and to spread Communism over the remainder of the World at the expense of the American tax payers."

Sincerely,

(Signed) D. F. JAMISON.

THE FABLE OF THE FUNNY BUSINESS

A more than moderately bright boy was graduated from what is called an institution of higher learning. He had decided on his Career. He intended himself for Public Life. He did not consider submitting himself to the will of the electorate. That might require too long a buildup. He did not wait to run for office. He decided to serve in national and international affairs by appointment to an office, preferably in the department of state where he could wear the appropriate Dress and meet Interesting People.

To prepare for this appointment he joined the Communist party. He was, as has been said, more than moderately bright. He knew if he joined the Republican party the Democrats in office would have no truck at all with him. If he joined the Democratic party he would be in a patronage scramble and he wouldn't get anything unless a Boss thought the appointment would do him some Political Good. But if he joined the Communist party a job handling Confidential Matters and Secret Papers would be coming his way.

And it so happened. When the young man was found copying secret documents it was enough for him to explain that he liked to do his homework in the fileroom. He was a frequent visitor at the Russian embassy and went strolling in the park with a pretty secretary. He went abroad twice on forged passports, and once drank vodka with Molotov. He found occasion to perjure himself five or six times but Enjoyed the Confidence of his superiors.

The Russians did not quite make him out. They couldn't figure him or others like him or their superiors. The picking was too easy. How did they know it wasn't a plant? No country could be so much of a Pushover.

Mr. Stalin thought there must be a lot of Funny Business going on because he did not have to slip any money to persons who worked in filerooms and walked in the park. He knew that nearly all the people of the United States were hep to communism as a bloody fraud. Yet so many of his few could get appointments allowing access to information of supreme importance!

The Moral of this Fable is that Truth may be stranger than Fiction but it has to Exert itself to keep up with Mr. Truman's state department.

every single human being, and may still pardon sinners, delivers his final judgment) on October 16th.

Judgment at Nuremberg was pronounced on September 30th and October 1st (between the Jewish New Year and Day of Atonement). The executions were carried out just after midnight in the morning of October 16th, Hoshana Rabba. For Jewry everywhere there was an unmistakable significance in these dates. To Gentiledom everywhere they meant no more than any others.

The trial and executions took place in the American zone. It appears to me that these symbolic dates must have been deliberately chosen and that their selectors were in a position to make the American authorities do their bidding.

One British journal (the Manchester Guardian) gave space to a letter from a reader who said of the trial: "The four nations... have now openly renounced Christianity through their leaders... There was a direct choice to be made between 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth' and 'hewing Agag in pieces' on one side and 'Vengeance is Mine' on the other. Britain, America, France and Russia have made that choice in favor of savage pre-Christian rites."

AN OBSERVER IN SINGAPORE REPORTS:

"Russian policy is now crystal clear: make business unprofitable—more trouble—more regulations and more regulators, then more expense and more taxes—more inflation... keep things in a turmoil until the one strong nation, the UNITED STATES; has a breakdown."

Let all patriotic Americans compare the above with the program which the Truman administration is following and let their common sense and love of country tell them how to work and vote against any and all adherents of the Truman Welfare State.

The battle for America will be won or lost at the next Congressional election, so examine carefully the record and deeds of each candidate lest he be one selected by the socialistic coterie.

Zionist Ruled Hungary Sentences Vogeler To 15-Year Prison Term "American Businessman Called Spy"

Robert A. Vogeler, 38, an assistant vice-president and central European-manager of International Telephone and Telegraph Co. of New York was sentenced, on February 21, to 15 years in prison to charges of spying and committing sabotage against the Hungarian government.

Two of Vogeler's Hungarian associates were sentenced to death. Edgar Sanders, British businessman tried on similar charges, was sentenced to 13 years in prison. István Justh, a Catholic priest and Kelemen Domokos, a factory director, received 10 year terms, while Edna Doery, a bar operator, drew a five year sentence.

Following the three day trial, at which all seven defendants pleaded guilty, the court ordered confiscation of Vogeler's and Sander's assets in Hungary. Both men the court added, should be expelled forever from Hungary after their sentences were served. The Hungarian defendants lost all political right and their property was confiscated.

While COMMON SENSE has no information relative to Judge Vilmos Olthy's Zionist connections, it was he who also presided at the trials of and sentenced Cardinal Mindzentsy to life imprisonment and pronounced the death sentence on the only Christian among Hungary's "top" men—the late Hungarian Foreign Minister, Lázlo Rajk.

Concerning the rulers of Hungary, however, there is available data—data which clearly emphasizes the pattern of world events and sharpens our pointed remark that the only difference between Communism and Zionism is in the spelling of the words.

As Russia swept through Hungary, during World War II, she left the big towns under Jewish Commissars; the city of Szeged had the

United World Federalists Put On - The - Spot By Common Sense

Representatives of COMMON SENSE attended a United World Federalist meeting at the Milburn High School on January 25, 1950, at which Alan Cranston, acting President of UWF spoke and answered questions. It seems a shame that so many (about 350) well-meaning people should pay an admission fee of $1.00 to an organization dedicated to the extinction of the American Republic.

Painting a very beautiful picture of a future world of absolute peace, with no atom bombs, no army, navy or air force, less taxes due to elimination of defense arms, Mr. Cranston admitted a UWF members, ip of some 40,000 members, with 700 branches throughout the United States. He showed how wonderfully a united world would work out with everyone having a vote—it would really be a world democracy.

Mr. Cranston, in his address, capitalized on fear of an atomic war which, he stated, would be the end of civilization—if not the human race itself—and claimed the only answer was world government. How this would solve anything is hard to figure out! But, playing—as Cranston does—on idealism it is not difficult to understand

By V. Altenstadt, a prominent German citizen who is well-qualified to write authoritatively on the European situation as regards the present Communistic crisis.

(Translated from German)

(Editor's Comment: Our State Department has for years been using cunning strategy to condition China for Communism. Mr. Pat Hurley resigned as ambassador to China because the State Department forced cooperation with Communist forces in China despite his protests. General George Marshall was then appointed as ambassador and Marxist stooge, and spent thirteen months breaking General Chiang Kai-shek down for Communists. Now thanks to the State Department directed by Marxist Felix Frankfurter 400 million Chinese are at the mercy of Marxists. To condition Germany for Communism calls for a different strategy, but the State Department uses the same trickery and cunning to prepare Germany, the heart of Europe, to be taken over by atheistic Communism. Through orders from our State Department, hundreds of peacetime factories have been demolished, throwing thousands of Germans out of employment so that the United States taxpayers must support their families, and Germany is made weaker. How can a weak Germany resist Communism and drive by Soviet Union forces sweeping over it? Any informed person knows with a Communist Germany, the whole of Europe is hopeless, and the United States will face a Communist world. Every day in Western Germany this demolishing of factories continues. Our anti-Christian Marxists in Washington have marked 138 more factories for destruction,—Machinery given to Marxists and buildings destroyed by dynamite. Only American public opinion can stop this insane Morgenthau plan idea.)

Slowly the old world is realizing that the effects of the last war are being felt not only by the two nations which were originally involved, but by the whole family of nations. Asia is again lining up for an assault on western civilization, which has been launched at previous occasions, only that this time the danger for the west is much more acute. Genghis Khan's gang pene-

Treason Now

By George Van Horn Moseley
General, USA, Retired.

You may remember UNION NOW and just what that plan contemplated. The leader was Clarence K. Streit, a Rhodes Scholar, one of those birds envisioned in the dream of Cecil Rhodes, who established a Foundation to bring selected students from all over the world under the spires of Dear Old Oxford, England, there to be indoctrinated with the point of view of the British Empire. Thereafter, they were to return to their homelands inspired with the plan to bring their respective countries under the British Crown. In other words, we in America were to scrap our sovereignty. Unfortunately for these dreamers, the British Empire crumbled and fell apart before the plan could be advanced far.

But the plan of these traitors is not dead by any means. It still appears under several names, one of the latest being the plan of the World Federalists to establish a World Federation. Strange that the proponents of this plan do not seem to realize that they are playing right into the hands of the Soviet Union and its agents all over the world, as Russia builds a great empire while the rest of the world crumbles under the pressure of her treachery. What consideration why his theory appeals to the naive.

He admitted that the UWF has many opponents such as the Chicago Tribune, Hearts publications, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Daughters of the American Revolution, Gerald L. K. Smith, Myron Fagan and Merwin K. Hart. Before the meeting was over, he found another opponent in COMMON SENSE.

Despite the main idea which Mr. Cranston was trying to put over, that busy Americans should trust these propagandizing UWF stooges, and turn our destiny over to the Marxists masterminds behind world government, he found the question period somewhat difficult. He seemed at a loss to explain how a world government could prevent Russia, for instance, from using the atom bomb even if she did join the UWF scheme. His only explanation was that he could not guarantee the UWF would work, adding lamely that "nothing has worked to date."

When asked how the "police force" of 250,000 (more or less) would be selected, Cranston seemed momentarily at a loss. He regarded his composure quickly to say that that was merely a detail which would have to be worked out. The cost of the police force, also to be worked out, would be—OF COURSE—shared by all nations. (Editor's note: This means the U. S. taxpayer would pay all, one way or another!)

To add insult to injury, the Editor of COMMON SENSE asked Mr. Cranston if he knew the strong men behind the UWF were the same strong men behind Communism. Mr. McGinley stated that he would be glad to prove his statements on a platform in public debate, but the offer WAS NOT ACCEPTED. Mr. McGinley was, however, invited to the platform and given five minutes to prove his point.

While such a limited amount of time was insufficient for presentation of full information, Mr. McGinley told the audience, among other things, that Vito Marcantonio, Harlow Shapley, Edward M. M. Warburg, James W. Warburg and Albert Einstein (just to mention a few of the backers of UWF) all had Communist-front affiliations—many were Zionists—and that Warburg's company (Kuhn, Loeb and Co.) secretly financed the Communist Revolution in 1917 and have since supported Marxist plans all over the world.

Needless to say, the meeting was anything but a success for the U.W.F.

SEE DOOM OF U. S. IN "WORLD UNION"

By Dan Markel

Washington, Jan. 30—Atlantic Union and all world federation movements have been denounced by the Women's Patriotic Conference of delegates from 35 national organizations with an aggregate of 3,000,000 members.

By unanimous resolution the conference declared:

"Destruction of the United States Government would be accomplished by the stroke of a pen, thus serving the aim of the Communists," if any form of world government, world federation or world union were accomplished.

trated deep into the South and West and left their marks of blood and fire. They conquered China and they spread far towards the west. The Turks, driven by fanaticism, crossed through Africa and the Balkans, and they attacked Europe from the East and from the South. Today Russia is carrying on where they left off. China and the Balkans have already become victims. Russia penetrated towards the west and now the gates of Europe are open. Western civilization has brought forth one theory after the other, but Soviet Union has shown action instead. First they murdered, stole and raped. They impressed other people with terror and fear, which has been their most powerful weapon since ages, and after that they pushed people around and reduced the population. In that fashion one is creating vacuum space where people can be forced to do slave labor. And what is Europe doing?

As long as Europe realized its mission it has fought the evil influence of the east. Although Europe could have relaxed with its fortunate climatic conditions, its raw materials and other resources, it never ceased to be on guard against the horrible danger threatening from the east, a danger which could be unleashed at any time and at any point along its open borders. Therefore, Europe fortified its borders by increasing the population around these sections, and by giving them arms to defend themselves. Today nothing of the sort is being done. Europe no longer believes in its own strength and instead of organizing for power, each little country wishes to enjoy life and keep the other countries asleep, because now Europe is relying on American aid. However, America is a continent all by itself. America has a mission all of its own. Although in America one finds a highly developed state of science and industry and although America has a lot of money and raw materials which are much needed in Europe, it can not defend Europe, unless the Europeans realize that their little conflicts are nothing compared to the deadly danger threatening from the east.

This time Asia is not satisfied with robbery and death for this time Asia wishes to take over new territory and it means to keep it too. Even though today we might find indications of revolts within the eastern states among the chiefs—whom we prefer to call statesmen in our time—the plans which have already been drawn up will not be changed. The only possible obstacle which could cause serious trouble to Asia's wishful thinking is the European, especially the German. Therefore, the constant flow of people who even now penetrate through the iron curtain and the arrests which lead to imprisonment in the new concentration camps of the interior parts of Asia, are all within the plan. The remaining population will consist of either a few people who are tied to their soil and who are anything but revolutionary, or a group of workers who have long ceased to rely on their own strength. Everybody who can turn his back towards Asia is leaving the Eastern zones. Only a few Europeans recognize the danger in its total impact. Mostly, the endeavours of the Europeans to save western civilization meets with resistance caused by trivial matters. The Europeans who have lived far away from the Eastern sections where the danger has always been felt more keenly, have lost their understanding for this situation completely, because they are used to live behind the protecting walls of the Eastern Europeans in a state of relaxation and peace. Now one can see, however, that Europe can not be defended in America, and not even at the Rhine or Elbe rivers, but only on those very border places where the struggle has been waged since centuries.

Europe will have to defend these borders herself. America may give Europe all the modern weapons of war and thereby fulfill its obligations towards the mother country called Europe, but since its statesmen have sold out over one third of Europe to Asia, they will not be able to save Europe. Those among them who have long ago recognized the danger threatening Europe and who are ready to fight for Europe's unconditional victory, must soon take over and they must unify Europe to defend its tradition and faith. These men must proclaim that any further struggle between European nations will make it easier for Asia to advance towards the goal of the ultimate destruction of Europe. Only a unified Europe, supported by the power of the United States of America, can stem the end of western civilization.

It's a deadly danger and it has penetrated deep into the heart of Europe. Where are the men who have attained such greatness as to be equipped to lead us to a solution of this problem?

Zionist Ruled Hungary-Sentences Vogeler To 15-Year Prison Term "American Businessman Called Spy"

Jew Komlosi; Debreczen had the Jew Maisky.

Today, Hungary is completely Zionist controlled. Here are the leaders:

Reputy Prime Minister (and real ruler of Hungary)—Zionist, Rakosi (Roth)

Minister of Defense—Zionist, Farkas

Minister of State—Zionist, Gero

Minister of Public Culture—Zionist, Reval (real name Rabinovitch)

Secretary Economic Council—Volton Vass, Zionist

Secretary General Natl. Planning Office—Andor Berei, Zionist.

Assistant to Berei—Irma Vajda, Zionist

Head of the Gestapo—Gabor Peter (Benjamin Auspitz), Zionist

Considering then that the Communist leaders of Hungary are ZIONISTS, what is the motive for the Cogeler trial? How does the conviction of Vogeler tie in with American events?

Vogeler's "confession" as read before the Hungarian people's court stated that he admitted to being guilty of seven and one-half years of spying. This, despite the fact that in 1940 Vogeler was employed by the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply Co. of La Grange, Illinois. Toward the end of World War II, Vogeler rejoined I.T. and T., but it was not until August, 1945, that he went to Vienna as central European representative of that company.

It is unlikely that Vogeler, a graduate of Annapolis and Massachusetts Institute of Technology would be careless of such a startling discrepancy of time unless he had suffered the horrible tortures of the Hungarian gestapo.

Former business associates of Vogeler have speculated that the underlying purpose of the trumped-up trial was to furnish an excuse for the Communist-dominated government to seize I. T. and T. properties in Hungary. That line of thought was fine—as far as it went. It didn't go far enough!

I. T. and T. (it's American initials are A. T. and T.) is one of the few major United States' corporations almost solely Christian owned and controlled. In the United States, A. T. and T. has been, and is at present, attacked through the Red dominated union, Communications Workers of America, CIO.

The Red CWA union has been persistent in its pushing of telephone and communications workers; having them make all sorts of "demands"—the foremost demand being a closed shop. In this connection, it is interesting to note that the New Jersey branch of CWA, now negotiating with telephone company authorities, had its case brought before a "fact finding panel". This panel, headed by Zionist Dr. Emanuel Stein of New York, advised that the telephone workers should not receive an increase in salary or a cut in hours. What it did recommend was THE CLOSED SHOP. Why?

The Reds in America cannot wipe out A. T. and T. with a mock "spy" trial, but with a closed shop they CAN control America's communication system. Workers now employed by Bell Telephone branches anywhere would have to follow the "party" line of CWA or quit their jobs. It would be compulsory that a telephone worker belong to the Red dominated CWA, even if a loyal American did not like the union's tie-in with radical ideas.

CWA Red leaders are striving for a stranglehold of the American communications system—a stranglehold as deadly vicious as Hungary's sentence of Vogeler. Over the communications system of Hungary and America hangs the shadow of the Red Internationalists—the Zionist Internationalists.

Washington, D. C.

Honorable Sir:

I notice in the newspaper that your Associate Justice William O. Douglas, has become Vice-President of the UNITED WORLD FEDERALIST, Inc.

In my opinion, no Justice of the United States Supreme Court has any ethical, moral or political right to belong to such an organization. I trust that you will consider this matter and act on this protest.

could we expect as a minority member in a world federation, outnumbered from every point of view—Christians in an atheist dominated organization. Bear in mind that Communism is not a political creed. It is a plan to revolution and battle for world dictatorial control. The plan of revolution involves, among other things, the abolition of private property, the destruction of constitutional government as we understand it, and the abolition of religion. Our Federal Union has been a great success, for we are a Christian nation. The atheists and the non-Christians are few in number as compared with the whole. Oriental races that could not properly be assimilated in a Christian nation, have been excluded. Bear in mind that one of the first acts of a World Federation would be to destroy the protection we have resulting from our immigration laws.

The present-day proponents of World Federation will tell you that the proposed world government would deal only in great international questions, avoiding all local issues. That is a plain lie, well established in the words of the plan itself and in the explanation put forth by its advocates. They prattle much about world peace but a study of their history and current plans show clearly that what they really want is economic control on a world-wide basis.

The first traitor in this field was Benedict Arnold, who attempted to destroy our sovereignty when it was in its formative state. He avoided being tried and shot as a traitor by escaping into the enemy's lines. Let all such embryo traitors now in America bear in mind that our people are finally awakening and the day is drawing near when it will not be safe for those who in one way or another are attempting to destroy our individual freedom or our national sovereignty.

Years ago, when the Hague Court was organized, the theorists of that day pointed to it, saying that in that august body all world problems would be solved. Unfortunately, the nations concerned would not accept the decisions except in minor matters about which they did not give a tinker's damn. THEODORE Roosevelt said, in effect, of that Court (in later years I was closely associated with him): "We are the very first people in the world who would resist to the extent of war if necessary any decision by a world court inimical to any one of our national policies." We exemplified this in our attitude when Japan objected to our exclusion acts, and the laws of California, in reference to the holding of property by Orientals. But in that day we had real men in high office and state rights were recognized and protected by our Constitution, which was then in full force.

We gave moral support to the League of Nations, a league that stood idly by while Finland and Ethiopia were invaded and raped. We did our best to prevent the dismemberment of China, but our efforts were defeated principally by our ancient enemy, the British, whose government pleaded the Japanese case against us. Finally, the performance of the League was so lacking in all character, justice and force, that it was laughed off the world stage and forgotten. U. N. was to give us world cooperation and peace, but the ink on the charter was hardly dry when we had to organize a league to stop, in battle if necessary, the forward march of an aggressor nation that boasted of its plans to dominate the world by bloody revolution. As a result, there is no peace today. We are living in a state of armed neutrality which, at the best, can lead only to a balance of power.

Much can be written exposing the treachery of this proposal of the World Federalists. The important thing is to attack it NOW—TODAY. By secret underground methods, the World Federalists have succeeded in having their plan approved by the legislatures of many states. Let everyone who reads this statement inquire immediately—was the plan approved in my state? If so, go to battle at once and have the resolution exposed, vetoed and withdrawn. If it was not passed by the legislature of your state, don't sit down and do nothing, but bear in mind that the traducers are working secretly in the hope of forcing the resolution through. Kill it before it gets started. Help in other states where you may have friends and influence.

In the list of proponents of this treacherous plan, you will see some prominent names. How strange it is with us today, that almost any radical plan, even one involving our destruction, will attract a lot of dreamers, publicity seekers, character-less Ministers of the Gospel, and individuals of their ilk. In this particular case, several

Langer Hails DP Law Change; Senator Scores Foes Of Broadened Act

Senator William Langer (R.N.D.), attacked opponents of his amendment to the original Displaced Persons Law of 1948 in an address here last night.

The Senator's speech highlighted a meeting sponsored by the United Action Committee for Expellees, the Catholic Volksverein of Philadelphia and the United German-Hungarians of Philadelphia and vicinity.

At the meeting in United German-Hungarian Hall, Langer was greeted by a number of Danube-German refugees who recently came to this country as a result of the new amendment, which offered the opportunity to migrate here to persons of German ethnic origin, excluded under the original law.

Senator Langer criticized foes of the amendment who still insist upon excluding persons of German ethnic origin.

"It is honest, hardworking, God-fearing men and women like yourselves," Langer said, pointing to the new arrivals to the country, "whom certain forces in America would like to exclude."

Langer said the Senate Judiciary Committee has withstood terrific pressure of powerful groups who "would spread false propaganda throughout the country." One of these groups, Langer said, "has to this date registered under the Lobbying Act expenditures of more than $875,000." These groups have scattered propaganda all over the country which has misled many well-meaning organizations and individuals," he said.

Speaking of the 12,000,000 surviving persons affected by the Potsdam Agreement of 1945, Langer asked why these pressure groups do not speak a word on behalf of these people of German ethnic origin.

He said their only crime is that they and their families for generations were living in the countries of eastern Europe where they were an obstacle to the designs of Communist Russia."

of the leaders are Rhodes scholars who, evidently, by their efforts are trying to repay their Oxford tuition advanced years ago by Cecil Rhodes.

Go to the battle on a national scale. Ferret out these Benedict Arnolds and give them the punishment Benedict Arnold would have received had he not escaped into the protecting arms of the enemy of that day. THE LAWFUL PUNISHMENT FOR TREASON IS DEATH.

100% INCOME TAX?

By DeWitt Emery

(Editor's Note: DeWitt Emery is president of the National Small Business Men's Association.)

Do you realize that no matter how much or how little money you can earn or how you earn it, whether as a factory worker, a farmer, an executive, a salesman, or what have you, you do not have a constitutional right to keep even one penny of your earnings?

Your right to worship as you please is guaranteed by the Constitution.

Your right to free speech is guaranteed by the Constitution.

Your right to freedom of assembly, to meet with your fellow men for any peaceful purpose is guaranteed by the Constitution.

Your right to have your day in a free court is guaranteed by the Constitution and so on and on. But under the Constitution you do not have any right, because you earned it or for any other reason, to keep any, not even one thin dime, of your income.

Also, if you own an incorporated business or own stock in a corporation, any corporation, that corporation does not have a constitutional right to keep any of its income.

I know this is hard to believe but nevertheless it's true. Here's what the law says, the law in this case being the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States which became effective on February 25, 1913:

"The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration."

That's the Sixteenth Amendment. That's what it says and if you can find anything in this amendment which says that Congress cannot lay a tax equal to 100% of the income of every individual, every partnership and every corporation in the country, you are better than I am. There just isn't any limitation, which means that whatever portion of your income you are permitted to retain is not because you have a right to it, constitutional or otherwise, but rather is by "courtesy of Congress."

It's pretty silly, isn't it, for us to go to great lengths to establish and maintain justice through an elaborate system of municipal, state and federal taxes?

"We Must Abolish The United States"

The Hidden Facts Behind the Crusade for World Government.

By Joseph P. Kamp

Here is the book true Americans have been waiting for! Mr. Kamp, who ordinarily does a very good job in exposing Reds and Red frontiers, surpasses all his previous writings in this latest book which so clearly tells the histories of backers of United World Federalists. A complete chart is given listing the Red front connections of those who would tear down the American flag.

In his book, Mr. Kamp quotes Professor Milton Mayer, one of the World Government leaders who on February 17, 1947 told a Syracuse, N. Y. audience: "We must haul down the American Flag . . . haul it down, stamp on it and spit on it."

Not only does COMMON SENSE recommend this book to all its subscribers, but we name it a MUST for speakers, debaters and all those loyal Americans who are dedicated to the fight to retain American freedoms.

AN OPEN LETTER

To the New York State Chamber of Commerce, New York, New York.
My Fellow Countrymen:

The writer addresses this letter to you because, while I may be wrong, I believe your organization comprises real Americans—not Communists, Fabians and Tories—Anglo Maniacs.

Any reasonably well-informed person knows that our Fabian traitors and their fellow travelers—stooges—men in high positions with high-sounding names are the champions—the sponsors of our Communists. There is no space here to go into the Fabian "Great Design" begun in our schools and colleges about 1890, which aims by teaching American Democracy and Social Studies in reality Fabian Socialism to destroy our republican form of government and its liberties under the guise of democracy except to quote from the warning sounded by far-sighted and wise Pope Leo XIII almost 50 years ago: "American democracy aims at reducing all ranks to the same level, abolishing all distinctions of class and religion and finally introducing community of goods . . ."—From the Encyclical, January 1901. Reminding you that the late Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler wrote in his book: "Why Should We Change Our Form of Government" published in 1913: "To put the matter bluntly, there is under way in the United States at the present time a definite and determined movement to change our representative REPUBLIC into a socialistic democracy . . . It presents itself in many persuasive and seductive forms. It uses attractive formulas to which men like to give adhesion, but if it is successful it will bring to an end the republican form of government that was founded when our Constitution was made and that we and are fathers and our grandfathers have known and gloried in." Prior to 1890, most any school child could recite the Constitution and explain its passages, and the per capita cost of government never exceeded $5.00 a year. This movement in our schools and colleges now headed by Dr. James Bryant Conant has been so successful that less than 27 per cent of the people in this country today have ever read the Constitution—including our public servants. How can our Congress and Senators support and defend the Constitution as they are sworn and are paid to do if they have never read it and know nothing of its meaning?

There is no better way to restore sanity in our domestic and foreign affairs than to give the men in the street a knowledge of the Constitution—the nature of his rights and how to protect them, using a series of leaflets in his pay envelope perhaps?

Quoting the telegram of George Bernard Shaw, "Fabian spokesman: 'The Fabian Society having made Russia a great Fabian State has now to make the United States a Fabian State.' Think of it! George Washington warned 160 years ago: 'I conjure you (my fellow citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican government.' See pages 33 and 35—'The American Republic' (1903) by James A. Woodburn on 'Right of Revolution.' Are we to have a Fabian State or republican government? The American people are slow to move but they are irresistible when aroused and the time and place for moving comes.

In the language of George Washington in the Constitutional Convention: "Let us raise a standard to which the wise and honest can repair: the event is in the hands of God."

So long as the potent influence of George Washington remains alive in the hearts of the American people the Republic will endure. What do you think?

"How few there are,
Among the Thinking few,
Who think at all,
Who only think they do."

Humbly and Respectfully submitted,
JOHN J. FLECK.

ALL CONVICTED TRAITORS SHOULD BE EXECUTED!

By Marilyn R. Allen, P.O. Box 2243,
Salt Lake City, Utah

America stands at a sad and solemn place in her history: tomorrow may see destruction and a blood-bath in our own Country. Creeping paralysis and sleeping sickness afflict most of our people: while galloping gangsterism is rampant in Washington.

The Soviet Union has all our supposed atom-bomb "secrets" (which our traitors have given her); she NOW has a gamma ray defense AGAINST atom bombs, which immobilizes atom bomb attacks on HER cities. She is preparing deadly rocket bombs to be exploded over American cities, containing radio-active dust, the effect of which is even worse than atom bombs.

Virtually ALL ASIA lies in our ENEMY'S hands (again due to treason in high places). Our own Country is being SCUTTLED by gifts to foreign nations, the USA itself is insolvent, while the Truman-Pendergast wrecking crew has appropriated more BILLIONS (for the American taxpayer to dig up) than there is money in all the world.

Nine months' trial of communist traitors in our midst has PROVEN that the Communist Conspiracy is dedicated to the violent overthrow of our Government. Anybody with a grain of sense knows that our whole country is infested and infiltrated by communist subversion. By acknowledging and adhering to a FOREIGN power, flag, and ideology, and by "giving aid and comfort to our ENEMIES", communists ARE traitors under our Constitution—the punishment for which should be DEATH. Furthermore, communists continually publish statements and propaganda inimical to the Government of the USA. It were better that a man were never born than that he should be a traitor to this Divinely-appointed nation, America.

THEN, in the face of all this, I say it is sheer appalling and brazen TREASON on the part of those in Congress and/or the Administration who have phenagled to have the already too light punishment of ten years imprisonment, under the Smith Act, reduced to five years. This reducing of the penalty having been done about a month AFTER the trial of the 11 communists began. Therefore, Judge Medina was forced to sentence these traitors to only FIVE years. TALK ABOUT BENEDICT ARNOLDS! This is a case of compounding treason by the Government itself! This one act proves as nothing else has done, the POWER of this Communist Fifth Column over our Government, and over the destiny of our people. The ONLY way to STOP COMMUNISM and make it UNpopular in America, is to make the penalty steep and awesome, and to fill the traitors with fear. Paul Robeson, and Zionist, Howard Fast, have dedicated themselves to helping these convicted ENEMIES of our country and raising money for them; wouldn't you say THEY themselves deserve exactly the same penalty?

Every attorney, and every genuine American should RISE UP in righteous wrath and demand the DEATH PENALTY, both for the 11 convicted communists and for those who brazenly make TREASON a minor offense in America. Those who altered the penalty for treason, to make it lighter, should be vigorously ferreted out, and made guilty along with their proteges. WHY are we bankrupting ourselves to STOP COMMUNISM ABROAD, while we cuddle up with it at home?

The penalty for the low crime of treason should be death; and a thousand times more so, in this day of America's deadly peril, her safety may depend upon such action. Why do our poor dumb betrayed people acquiesce in their own destruction? And what must foreign nations think of our asinine stupidity? Americans, RISE UP and protest, while there is yet a thin sliver of time between you and ETERNITY!

If you are not a subscriber to COMMON SENSE you will, by subscribing, at once give encouragement and strength to anti-Communist, pro-American forces. You will be helping to save our wonderful Country.

100% INCOME TAX?

eral courts and not have any protection at all on any part of our incomes, not even enough to provide food, clothing and shelter for our families?

When the Sixteenth Amendment was being debated on the floor of the Senate, one senator said he was against it because the tax might someday amount to as much as three or five percent of an individual's income. His colleagues laughed at him for being unduly apprehensive and pointed out among other things that it would be impossible for the Federal Government to spend that much money. It's too bad this senator isn't around today so he could know that his worst apprehensions on the amount of the tax were more than justified. Also some of those who laughed at his fears should be around to see our Federal Government spending more in a month than they thought it would ever be possible for it to spend in a year.

What's the answer? The answer is to pass another amendment to the Constitution, putting a top limit of 25% or 30% or certainly not more than 40% on the amount of taxes which can be laid on incomes under the Sixteenth Amendment.

What can we do about it? We, each and every one of us, can let our congressman and both of our senators know that we want them to support such an amendment. If enough of us do this the amendment will have more than enough votes to pass both houses by a two-thirds majority.

Personally, I'm very much in favor of a graduated scale of income tax with a top limit of 25% on both individual and corporations.

FIRM STAND ON FDR PART OF HIS "HERITAGE"

Freehold, N. J., Aug. 4 — A codicil of the will of the late John Wellie Hooper, which was probated today, said:

"I also hereby bequeath to my children and their descendants down through the ages to come, a priceless heritage—the knowledge that I, their father and grandfather, had no share, not even once, in the installation or perpetuation of the Roosevelt (F.D.) dynasty, the most shameless and profligate administration in the history of the world. With this knowledge they may always hold up their heads in pride."

Hopper died May 31. He was mayor of Neptune City from 1940 to 1944. He left his substantial estate to his widow and children.

State Department Mystery

TAX FRAUD

By Congressman Wm. Lemke

Last week the House indulged in an open discussion on the reduction of excise tax. The Democrats criticized the Republican 1947 tax revision. The Republicans pointed with pride to the fact that this law took 7,500,000 individuals in the lower brackets off the tax list entirely and reduced the remaining lower and middle brackets another 12 percent. These were not the rich. They were the people in the lower brackets. In addition, the Republicans pointed out that they had a surplus of several billions while now we have a deficit of some five billions.

Neither the elephant nor the donkey has much to boast about. The taxes are altogether too high. Rome fell when one-tenth was taken for taxes. The federal, state and local governments now take about thirty-two percent of all the earnings of all the people. They take fifty-seven percent out of every dollar on which you pay income tax. No nation can long stand that kind of tax extortion. There will be a financial and political collapse unless some way is found to halt the ever increasing tax burden.

If this Congress did its duty they should not only repeal the entire excise tax but reduce the income tax and plug the loopholes through which tax dodgers escape. The President asked for a reduction in some excise taxes and at the same time asked for an increase in corporation tax. I am satisfied, however, that there will be no great reduction—it is simply self deception, leaving a few pennies in one pocket and taking all there is in the other.

The corporations will not pay this additional tax. They will pass it on to the consumer in higher prices. That is what they do with all taxes. They act simply as the indirect tax collectors for Uncle Sam when he is too timid to do it direct. There should be a revision and simplification of our entire tax system. There should

WORLD GOVERNMENT LEGISLATION OPPOSED BY NEW JERSEY D.A.R.

At the annual two-day State conference in Trenton, on March 16, the New Jersey Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution took a stand against world government. Condemning world government because of its susceptibility to control by "relentless and sinister forces of despotism and the Red terror," the D. A. R. presented a petition which read:

"The citizens of the United States would be hopelessly outvoted in a world federal government by the horde of almost two billion Asiatics, Africans, and Eastern Europeans dominated and held in bondage by the relentless and sinister forces of despotism and the Red terror."

The petition also asked that the New Jersey State Legislature adopt a new resolution rescinding the 1949 resolution favoring world government. It further stated that the new resolution should "scornfully reject the pretense that we face the alternative of world government and peace or national sovereignty and war," and "gloriously proclaim that a strong and free America united for mutual defense with other free and friendly nations is our surest guarantee for peace."

Before Senate Foreign Relations Committee

Dean Acheson—stooge for the Invisible Government.

There is no advantage in causing Dean Acheson to resign unless he is replaced by one who has NOT pledged his loyalty to Zionist-Marxists. Unless Truman makes a "clean break" he must appoint a man approved by the Zionist-Marxists Invisible Government. Henry Morgenthau, Felix Frankfurter and Bernard Baruch are all Zionists.

By the time the public becomes wise to a new stooge, we will be further down the road to war and bankruptcy. Former Secretaries James Byrnes and George Marshall carried out orders from the Invisible Government just as Acheson has. To refuse would mean suicide—like the cases of James Forrestal, Former Ambassador Winant and Lawrence Duggan. Sumner Wells, former Secretary of State, tasted some of this.

EIGHT SPEAKERS AT YOUR SERVICE

If you are a leader of a group of students—business men—women's club or Veterans, one of our speakers will gladly explain the workings of Marxism and conduct a question period. Our group includes those who challenge leaders of all Marxist fronts such as United World Federalists to defend themselves on the platform.

Lenin says, in "What Is To Be Done?"—"The theory of Socialism grew out of the philosophic, historical and economic theories that were elaborated by the educated representatives of the propertied classes, the intellectuals. The founders of modern scientific Socialism, Marx and Engels themselves, belonged to movement; it arose as a natural and inevitable outcome of the development of ideas among the revolutionary Socialist intelligentsia."

Recent disclosures by Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin that the State Department employs, numerous Communists, Communist-fronters and Communist dupes have hit the headlines. American people want to know which public servants are involved and to what degree America has been betrayed.

While Senator McCarthy's work is extremely laudable, it will be no surprise to COMMON SENSE if all the Reds in the State Department are white-washed and absolved of their traitorous activities . . . unless Americans back up the Foreign Relations Committee now making the investigation and demand that the top officials, who are guilty of loading the State Department with Communist agents, are brought out into the open. It is the Zionist-Communist clique in Washington which is responsible for the present state of affairs, and without the aid of that clique the pro-Soviet employees could not retain their jobs.

It was as early as May 25, 1946 that we wrote: "Which department do you think has the most Reds: The State Department or the O.P.A. A tip: Estimates on the State Department run from two to four thousand."

A few months later, August 18, 1946, we headlined: "Seventy-nine members of the State Department fired when Jimmy Byrnes sees Red. Acheson was obviously color-blind." The article continued: "We have been constantly stating our belief that there are three or four thousand Reds in the State Department. Two weeks ago, Under Secretary of State, Dean Acheson, said he would like to know of even ONE. Now comes a statement from Secretary of State Byrnes that seventy-nine members of the State Department have been fired—26 of these are aliens, forty were found to have close connections or involvement with foreign governments or their organs."

This was followed by our remarks of February 9, 1947: "We are convinced that Felix Frankfurter, although on the Supreme Court, has been and is Secretary of State. We are also convinced that Dean Acheson, who makes daily trips to Frankfurter for instructions and Benjamin V. Cohen (now a U. N. official) will continue to run it for Felix Frankfurter: It is well to remember, in this connection, that Frankfurter and Harold Laski, the London Communist and brains of the labor government, were pals at Harvard and have been working closely ever since."

We repeated our warning on February 23, 1947, with these words: "The State Department is, of course, saturated with Communists in Washington and the Kremlin in Moscow is better informed of our affairs than is the average American citizen."

Another headline, "Acheson fools Americans by 'talking' anti-Russian," was over an article of March 2, 1947 in which we said: "Dean Acheson pushed Under Secretary of State Grew out of the State Department because Grew opposed Communist infiltration. Acheson, assisted by Benjamin V. Cohen, and other Reds, protects more than 2000 Reds under him. Acheson has served Stalin's interests and defended Communist moves all over the world for years."

People thought we were "talking through our hat." A year passed and on September 5, 1948, we again threw out a warning. "Communists know Frankfurter has placed many judges; they know he has also run the State Department through Benjamin Cohen, Alger Hiss and others." Did we feel rewarded when Hiss got his? Still, the source of the disease had not been located and on April 1, 1949 we quoted the following remarks, concerning Dean Acheson, by Charles W. Phillips, editor of The Individualist:

"In our previous studies of Mr. Acheson's background, it was learned that his government career, as a protegee of Justice Felix Frankfurter, has been marvelously adapted to the development and growth of what has been designed as an "International New Deal" or just plain "world government" of some sort or another.

State Department Mystery

"In addition to the agencies of government having direct charge of the controls of our domestic economy in years past, our State Department also seems to have served as a catchall for the cluster of Harvard graduates who followed Felix Frankfurter to Washington and who made up the little inner circle within our government.

"The way all this came about was that for many years Professor Frankfurter picked Harvard Law School graduates to be assigned to both Justice Holmes and Justice Brandies. Some of these former graduates, who have since moved from their secretary assignments to important posts in the 'New Deal' Administration included: Dean G. Acheson, James M. Landis, Donald Hiss and Alger Hiss."

Today Acheson, as always, is talking out of the side of his mouth when it comes to dealing with Russia, and it will stand in history that it has been through his authority that China was abandoned to the Marxist-Communist puppets of Soviet Russia. "If America is not to suffer the fate of China, it is imperative that every Red, of any shade, not only in the State Department, but every Government Department, be instantly removed.

What is more important, the investigation must be made to show—and eliminate from government office—those officials who were responsible for the hiring of the Soviet agents, and those officials who have consistently conspired to prevent the arrest and indictment of the Soviet agents.

It is the "mysterious power" of the Zionists which must be brought out into the open and exposed for the deadly, treacherous, pro-Soviet "line" it is.

There is only one way to arrive at a practical solution of the Marxist mystery of the State Department, which will not only save thousands of dollars spent for so-called loyalty investigations (which can't be touched), but will also save our wonderful country from slavery to Marxists terrorists. INVESTIGATE ZIONISM. This will definitely establish the fact that no Zionist should be permitted to hold a Government or State position. Thousands of these Marxists are in Government departments, directing non-Zionist termites in destroying America so that Zionists may take over the United States and rule us as they do today in Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Germany, Soviet Union, China (We will gladly furnish the names of these Zionist rulers). It should also be noted that Mr. Strachey, Zionist, has recently been appointed War Minister for England. Here at home Zionist Mark Clark has complete charge of our land forces; Curtis Le May, Zionist, has charge of our bombers; Robert Ginsberg, Zionist, is Public Relations man for the Army, Navy and Air Force; and everyone knows Zionists have been in control of the Atomic Energy Committee since it was established.

A number of patriotic men have exposed the fact that many Communists are in the State Department. Zionist-Marxists and their Christian stooges in and out of the Department have brushed this off with ridicule. And in a way, they are correct. It makes little difference now how many card-carrying or non card-carrying Communists there are in the State Department. At this stage of the Zionist-Marxist plan, the actual Communists are not the dangerous individuals in this plan to take over the world. The State Department is saturated with Zionist-Marxists who are the real powers behind Communism and a dangerous threat to our liberty. As an example, if the Catholic Church were a threat to the country, which would be more important to consider—the number of Holy Name men in the State Department or the number of Catholics in the Department? Communism is only a front organization, just as is United World Federalism and many sister organizations, created by the Zionist-Marxists to help carry out their plan for world conquest and domination. Testimony in the Senate Overman Report of 1919 stated that of 388 Commissars of the first central government based in St. Petersburg, 371 were Jews, one was "a Negro from America who calls himself Professor Gordon" and only 16 were "real Russians." The Christian Russians who were taken over by the Zionist Yiddish-speaking Jews and organized into Communism and used to help crush Germany so that Communism could spread over Europe and China, have now awakened to the fact that the Zionist-Marxists were using Communism to attain their own ends. The Zionist-Marxists in the United States would like to see full Zionist leadership in the Soviet Union so that they could carry on their world-wide conspiracy for Christian slavery. In order to regain full power in the Soviet Union and complete plans in the United States, these master-minds are planning and directing a phoney war between the Soviet Union and the United States, knowing that those who will direct the war in the United States will be the same Zionists-Marxists who will jail or destroy not only their enemies, but all the enemies of the Red New Deal. These Zionists, by bringing on the last war, have broken down the British Empire and all Europe so that it is almost entirely under their control. The coming war is intended to complete their plans by breaking down the United States. This will be accomplished by securing the strategic emergency offices created by the war.

As we move closer into war with the Soviet Union, Communism will become more and more unpopular, and these Marxists do not want to be caught in this position, hence these Marxists are slipping out from Communism as a relay race rider would quit a tired horse for a fresh one.

These Marxists, however, do not hesitate to support such legislation as Socialized Medicine, Civil Rights, F.E.P.C. and other Communist-sponsored moves. Marxists, by criticising Communists, tends to make the average observer separate the two in his mind, and so strengthen both.

To return to our notorious State Department: It is not a question of how many card-carrying Communists there are in the State Department, but how many Zionist-Marxists, et al. There are no doubt several thousand headed by Felix Frankfurter, who has ruled the State Department behind the scenes while James Byrnes, General Marshall and Dean Acheson—three Christian stooges—act as fronts.

Don't let high-sounding names such as Zionism, Marxism, Socialism, Fabianism, World Government confuse you! They are all brothers to their brother, Communism, and all have one ultimate purpose—world domination.

To fully understand the mystery of the State Department and why Acheson must be loyal to Alger Hiss, and why President Truman must be loyal to Acheson and call it all a "Red Herring", read F.E.P.C. AND THE MINORITY MACHINE by former Counter-intelligence officer Major Robert H. Williams.

CATHOLIC STOOGES

By Dr. David Goldstein

Peace will rule the day when right reasoning rules the minds of men in their industrial life, and in international relations. Peace, instead of war, would exist in the relations of labor and management if their differences were settled by conciliation or arbitration, instead of by resorting to strikes. "Victory" in industrial wars nowadays, such as the coal and steel strikes, are at a cost that far exceeds the financial returns to the strikers.

As far as Catholics in trade unions are concerned, they seem more culpable when they allow the rabble-rousing Communists to mislead them than any other class of persons. "Catholics," such as Albert Fitzgerald and Harry Bridges, who follow the Moscow anti-Christian and anti-American line, and others who give aid and comfort to the Communists, disregard the wise warning of Pope Pius XI, that "Communism is intrinsically wrong and no one who would save Christian civilization may collaborate with it in any undertaking whatsoever."

An injury was done to legitimate trade unionism, and our democratic form of government, by the participation of the CIO in the organization of the W.F.T.U. (World Federation of Trade Unions). This was due in great part to hostility towards the A. F. of L., and the pressure of the Communists who formed an influential part of CIO officialdom. This Communist-dominated WFTU condemned the American and British foreign policy, but not the foreign or domestic policy of the U.S.S.R. It called for independence to be given Puerto Rico, but not for the independence of Soviet satellite countries. It condemned unjust economic conditions in democratic countries; but not the slave-working conditions in the Soviet Union. In answering Philip Murray's expression of "regret that the A. F. of L. did not see fit to become a member of the WFTU," Matthew Woll, Chairman of the A. F. of L. International Relations Committee, said: "When free trade unions, like the C.I.O., enter into pacts or partnerships, or international alliances, with 'unions' which are actually a department of the Soviet State, they only paralyze their own freedom and the capacity for action in behalf of the cause of democracy and trade unions the world over."

"It is better late than never!" Therefore we rejoice that consciousness on the part of the C.I.O. of the error of its Communist way, resulted in a bold housecleaning at its Cleveland Convention. Its firm stand against the Red-Red unions is commendable, especially as it is to be followed by the C.I.O. joining with the A. F. of L. in forming a new international trade union organization, made up of simonpure trade unions.

Too bad that Philip Murray and James Carey did not realize their poor judgment, to put it mildly, in joining a few weeks ago with the enemies of Christianity, and other, in partitioning the U. N. to make Jerusalem a part of the Zionist Israeli State, as they realized the poor judgment in furthering the Communist cause by organizing the W.F.T.U. Especially objectionable was this action on their part, when they added their names to the petition as President and Secretary-Treasurer of the C.I.O., an organization made up, in part, of Catholics who stand with their Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, and the American Catholic hierarchy, in favor of internationalizing Jerusalem. "Shoemaker keep to your last." Jerusalem is not a trade union issue.

F. C. SAMMONS, Director

An Open Letter To Senator Taft

March 10, 1950

SENATOR ROBERT H. TAFT

Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Taft:

The enclosed newspaper clipping states that you have joined with Congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt Junior and his un-American mother to act as co-chairman in raising $272,455,800.00 for the special benefit of organized Jewry.

Your action in this matter is a great disappointment to millions of us who were looking to you for leadership and who had hoped that you would not lend your name to such a project and would not attempt to "outbid" young Roosevelt for the Zionist-Marxist New York Jewish vote.

We say this because of the awful calamities that the Gentile and Christian people throughout the world are suffering as a result of Gentile leaders committing themselves to this age-old Jewish Soviet International "bait," and because of the certain calamities that this policy holds in store for us.

It is unfortunate that most Jewish people have been "regimented" by their leaders to support the "One World Soviet Party line." But it is far more unfortunate that the Christian and Gentile politicians are almost forced to follow this Jewish publicity machine, and its unlimited political money power, of which you are now "a front."

It can no longer be denied that the One World Political Money Power of organized Jewry is allied with the Politburo of Soviet Russia, nor can it be denied that Franklin Roosevelt was forced to bind the fate of the American people to the "will" of Mr. Litvinoff (Finkelstein) and the Politburo, as a condition to his becoming the Democratic candidate for President in 1932 in order to receive the "liberal" support of the press. This was accomplished through the Marxist agent William C. Bullitt. (See Litvinoff's biography.)

Candidate Wendell Wilkie was also forced to make a "one world deal" with the Zionist-Communist Politburo in 1940 as a condition to his obtaining the Presidential candidacy in that election. In that election the Politburo took no chances with its war program. It was: "Heads I win—tails you lose," for the Marxists.

The American people must find a leader who will free both the Jew and the Gentile from this Zionist-Marxist-Frankenstein monster which is destroying us with traitors within, while threatening us with the H. bomb from the Soviet Union.

Like his father, young Roosevelt has proven that he has "sold out" to world Judaism. We must have a President who will stand for CHRISTIAN CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT.

The Marxist plan by which JUDAH is enslaving the Gentile world should not receive your support!

Sincerely,

F. C. SAMMONS
Director.

"THE TRUTH ABOUT MY ALLEGED $50,000,000. DONATION"

By - Judge George W. Armstrong

Readers often write us: "Is it TRUE Zionists control the radio, as well as most of the press?" and we have, just as frequently, replied: "Yes!"

Now, documented evidence of the Zionist control over radio is made public, and readers of COMMON SENSE will well remember the entire incident — the Walter Winchell (Lipchitz) bitter attack upon American patriot, Judge George W. Armstrong when it became known that Judge Armstrong wished to establish a Christian college.

Endeavoring to obtain justice and publicly deny the Walter Winchell lies, Judge Armstrong made repeated attempts to secure radio time. He also made known to American Broadcasting Company his wish to sponsor a weekly broadcast on the "State of the Union."

"We do not believe it would be proper for us as licensees to grant the requests," replied Mark Woods, president of A.B.C.

In short, it was "proper" for Winchell to say whatever he wished, but IMPROPER for an American patriot to tell his half of the story. But, the story is now being told. In his latest booklet, "The Truth About My Alleged $50,000,000. Donation," readers will find, reproduced in full, the entire correspondence between Judge Armstrong and American Broadcasting Company, as well as other letters showing the workings of the Zionist censorship machine — the machine which keeps TRUE Americans OFF the broadcasting networks.

Which, A Strong Christian Germany, Or A Strong Communistic Europe?

Dr. Austin J. App

Name Society, and the meeting was held at St. Patrick's Parish. Dr. App spent the summer of 1949 in Europe.

He said that the present U.S.-British-French policy of trying to make Germany democratic but to keep her weak, not only militarily but industrially and commercially, is as impossible as squaring a circle, and is calculated to soften up what is left of Germany for a strong bolshevism. He said in all the last ten years he had never been as afraid as now that like Poland, and Czechoslovakia and Hungary so the rest of Europe will be betrayed to communism, not to be rescued till its most decent people, its bishops and clergymen, Christian scholars and statesmen, will have been liquidated and martyred, as they have been in all the eight Versailles-created republics that were sold out to the Soviets at Yalta.

Dr. App said the Soviet victories did not come from selling atomic secrets to the Soviets but from selling the spirit of Morgenthauism to the American government. "It will have to be noted," he said, "that the pro-Soviet perjurer, Alger Hiss, still being defended by Secretary Acheson and Mrs. Roosevelt, was President Roosevelt's adviser at Yalta, where almost half of Europe was surrendered to the Soviet orbit."

He cited dismantling, denying to the West Germans airlines and modern passenger and merchant vessels, tearing the Saar from Germany, talk of defending the Rhine instead of the Elbe, discriminating against the German expellees in United Nations relief projects, as inevitably frightening West Germany, and through Germany, Europe, into the hands of the monsters of the Kremlin, unless these lingering Morgenthauistic policies are replaced soon and radically by a revived and honest Atlantic Charterism.

Wake Up Americans!

Wake up Americans . . . it's late
It's later than you know.
In the balance hangs your country's fate
Because of those who would overthrow.

Wake up Americans . . . awake!
To the dangers that lie within—
Freedom—Liberty—yes all's at stake
From the work of traitors and of sin.

Wake up Americans . . . arise!
Your country and her flag defend 'Gainst a war of propaganda and lies
To bring our Republic to an end.

Wake up Americans . . . and fight—
A might battle ne'er fought before
To prove that God and Truth are right
And Christian Faith—will PEACE restore.

Wake up Americans . . . before too late,
Eternal vigilance—we must pay
To guard our blessed country's fate
Lest those we trust shall us betray.

Anti-Communist Movie Needs Christian Support

"Guilty of Treason," the movie which takes its theme from Cardinal Mindszenty's court trial, has drawn much opposition from the communists. This is understandable since the play exposes the pitiless brutality of communist court circles. Warner Brothers, after filing first rights, surrendered them as a result of pressure through signed and unsigned letters.

There seems to have been no correspondence from Christians demanding that the picture be released. Let's stop talking and DO SOMETHING. Write Freedom Productions, Inc., 5476 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, California asking the company to give the picture country-wide distribution. Tell them millions of Americans will give "Guilty of Treason" full support despite vicious Red opposition.

Christ, The Light Of The World

The state of affairs in the world is marked by confusion and chaos. Individuals everywhere are bewildered, frightened of what the future holds, and despairing over the prospects. Even many teachers are confused, and their teaching is adding to the perplexity of the masses. Most people crave for orientation to a solid and lasting order, for peace, and for security. But many grope in darkness for the guiding hand of the leader and call for the light to show the way. Yet, there exists in our very midst the "true light that enlightens every man who comes into the world". John 1:9. Again it is true for many: "In the midst of you has stood one whom you do not know." John 1:26. This guiding light, looked for, is Christ Jesus, who did say: "I am the light of the world. He who follows me does not walk in the darkness but will have the light of life." John 8:12.

This is MUST reading for those who want to know the inside facts on Dean Acheson—once a lawyer for the Soviet Government—and the cabal which is frittering away America's independence.

America's Strength Of 1945 Lies In Ruins, Says Catholic Writer

"America's 1945 supremacy in arms and moral prestige lies in ruins in 1950" as a result of State Department mismanagement, Richard L. Stokes, former Washington correspondent, charges in the February issue of "The Sign," national Catholic magazine published in Union City, N. J. by the Passionist Fathers.

The article entitled "Defeat for Five Years," reviews recent diplomacy and describes the activities of Secretary of State Dean Acheson, General George C. Marshall, Alger Hiss, Owen Lattimore, Philip C. Jessup and other State Department officials.

Condemning the foreign policy of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, Mr. Stokes declares: "It is as if Molotov or Vishinski had been Secretary of State since 1941, and had ordained this directive, to be pursued at all costs: 'The settled policy of the United States shall be to aid and abet the Soviet Union in creating vacuums of power for occupation by Communism'."

Identifying Secretary Acheson as the "captain of a pro-Russian State Department group in 1944—with Alger Hiss as his chief lieutenant," Mr. Stokes traces Acheson's rise to power and holds him "responsible for the instructions which guided General Marshall's Chinese errand."

Chiang Kai-shek, he asserts, was the "fated victim" of General Marshall's mission in 1944. The General, he says, was "implementing policies drafted by the State Department's left wing cell."

"At Marshall's command," Mr. Stokes asserts, "the Generalissimo accepted an armistice on the brink of triumph over the Communist enemy. He laid down his most potent weapon, the Nationalist Air Force. He unlocked the Kalgan Pass for Red Star troops, who thronged into Manchuria and were armed by Russia with material from Japanese arsenals."

"But Chiang mutinied when he was ordered to invite Chinese Marxists into his cabinet. For that he was punished with an embargo upon shipments of munitions from the United States. That made it positive that sooner or later China would be engulfed by the Soviet policy empire."

Clean Up The State Department!

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, (From Council Letter No. 236)

Constantly one hears some citizen or other exclaim about foreign threats to America today: "How did we ever get into such a hell of a mess?"

More and more Americans would like to know. The only way to find out is for the Congress—more especially the Senate—to find out.

And the Congress can find out. Whether it will or not depends upon whether enough private citizens take the trouble to tell their Senators they must.

The Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate has empowered a sub-committee of its own members to investigate the State Department. No investigation ever conducted by the Congress has been as important as this.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS THE GOVERNMENT

For the State Department has become the Government of the United States. Left-wing infiltration of the State Department alone enables left-wingers to bend and guide, if not to control, the United States of America, to their own purpose. That is how and why the American people have been brought into such peril today.

The State Department has grown beyond any bounds imagined by the Congress itself even ten years ago. It will spend or be responsible for about half the expected 43 billion dollar budget of the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1950. It controls in one way or another our foreign trade under the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, the operation of which Act has a direct effect upon much local industry. It controls all of our foreign and much of our domestic agricultural activities. It controls foreign loans. It controls the administration of Germany and other occupied territories.

The State Department will control operations under the so-called Point 4 program, if it is ever authorized by the Congress. This program will take further American funds and use them for the benefit of other countries. The Department will handle directly or indirectly our relations with the International Trade Organization (ITO), should the ITO agreement be approved; and the operation of the threatened agreements proposed by the International Labor Organization (ILO).

The State Department handles all matters connected with the Marshall Plan; the carrying out of the North Atlantic Pact; the operation of the International Refugee Organization (IRO) controlling the entry of refugees into the United States.

It handles all United Nations activities for this country.

IT IS THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

And apparently President Truman, lacking experience in international as well as in many domestic affairs, leaves the administration of the State Department to Secretary Acheson and his associates. In fact, he has left its administration in succession to each of the three previous Secretaries of State, Messrs. Stettinius, Byrnes and Marshall.

Therefore, we repeat, the investigation of the State Department is of the highest importance. A really thorough investigation, bringing out the whole truth, could be a turning point in the history of the United States—after which America could regain control of her own destiny. A careless or, worse still, a rigged investigation, could spell disaster for the American Republic.

RECENT DISASTERS HAVE COME WHEN STATE DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN IN CONTROL

It is not too much to say that the State Department, in control of Government policy for at least five years, is responsible for the disasters that have taken place.

What are these disasters?

In the Pacific the fruits of our brilliantly fought

Joseph E. Davies, Zionist and former Ambassador to Russia, who carried a highly important letter to Stalin from F. D. R. Here Davies, on June 3, 1943, has alighted from the plane that brought him back to the U.S. with Stalin's answer to President Roosevelt sealed in a brief case.

Davies is one of the powerful Marxists. He is author of "Mission to Moscow" and is credited with stating there was nothing wrong with the Russian spies stealing atomic secrets at the time these spies were caught in Canada. Davies was a heavy contributor to F. D. R. Jr.'s campaign for Congress in the Bronx. Many people have wondered what strange power has caused Senator Millard Tydings to be selected as Chairman of the Senate Investigating Committee and to use such brutal tactics in dealing with Senator McCarthy instead of trying to locate the Communists in our State Department. The answer is probably in the fact that Marxist Joseph Davies, a power in the Invisible Government, is Tyding's father-in-law.

war have been thrown away. They have not been merely dissipated in such a way that neither we nor any friendly country or people have benefited from them. They have been thrown into the hands of our one great enemy, Soviet Russia. They have been thrown there either by the treasonable intent or the unutterable stupidity of those who have been able to shape the policy of the Department. Probably never in history has a nation won a war so gloriously as the United States won against Japan and then sacrificed all the fruits of the victory which was our, with no other country an important factor in helping us win it. Not one particle of these fruits remain. If the United States (and that means our State Department) had been expressly carrying out the policy of Soviet Russia itself, Soviet Russia could hardly have profited more.

And, assuming the premise that the policies of the American Government ought to be in the interests of the American people and the American Republic, the results of our policy toward the German people may yet prove to be as disastrous as our policy in the Pacific. In Germany we have largely followed the Morgenthau plan, doing for a long time everything possible to punish and humiliate the whole German people. We have done this by dismantling plants, by so-called "denazification" of many Germans and by the utterly unprecedented and unlawful Nuremberg trials of German leaders. Even though the cost of the American people of maintaining the American-occupied zone of Germany has been many hundred million dollars a year, yet we have refused to let the Germans get on their feet again and go forward.

WE REFUSED TO PROFIT FROM EXPERIENCE

AN OPEN LETTER TO ROBERT F. MOSS UNITED WORLD FED. CHAPTER PRES.

Mr. Robert Moss
President, Elizabeth Chapter, U.W.F.
Elizabeth, New Jersey

Dear Mr. Moss:

It is only on rare occasions that I do something distasteful to me. This is one of those occasions. Ordinarily, when I discover an individual unknowingly bolstering the ranks of an organization which may eventually be branded a Communist-front, I prefer to approach that party and privately present what evidence I possess.

When, therefore, a man to whom I have offered material in confidence not only refuses elaboration of general statements, but resorts to the public press (said press, all too often, being denied me for the purpose of answering) I am forced to bring matters into the open.

Mr. Moss, above your name in the March 23rd issue of the Elizabeth Daily Journal, it was stated that "charges of Communism in U. W. F. have come from COMMON SENSE." The article implied that COMMON SENSE had no factual information to support its contention that many of those affiliated with United World Federalists are, or have been, associated with Communist-front organizations. Further, the public was lead to believe that it would be wise to dismiss statements I might make before an audience as being irresponsible. Do you, Mr. Moss, recall that — long before you wrote the letter to the Journal — I offered you detailed information? Does my memory serve me right when I say that I actually mailed you some information?

It may be that others also expect me to mount a public platform and pull an entire reference library along in back of me. Such a procedure is impossible. Instead, for all the world to see, I am printing at the end of this article a chart giving the Communist-front affiliations of a few of the persons holding office in, or belonging to, the United World Federalists. To list all the Communist-fronters and the Un-American organizations to which they belong, we would have to write a book.

For the benefit of every patriotic American, I say this: Before joining the U. W. F., carefully study the chart below. Ask yourself this question: Why is it that Communist-fronters are sticking around U.W.F. like bees around a honey-pot?

Remember, too, that "world government" proposals are shrewdly written. They contain countless whereofs and wherebys through which our great American Republic will be betrayed into Communism. Plans already drawn up vary. U.W.F. proposals call for an international police force and direct taxation on the citizens. The Committee to Frame World Constitution's socialistic plot outlines "world government" actual ownership and control of "all business having the character of a federal public service," and a world-wide social security program.

Some "world government" advocates belong to both U.W.F. and the Committee to Frame a World Constitution. One of these is Dr. Albert Guerard, Sr., whose Communist-front affiliations include the American Council on Soviet Relations, and the Free Earl Browder Committee.

It should be obvious to any intelligent American that there are ulterior motives behind the "world government" plotters sugary speeches on "peace." ALL WORLD GOVERNMENT LEGISLATION SHOULD BE STRONGLY OPPOSED IF AMERICA IS TO REMAIN A FREE NATION.

I am willing, at any time, to defend the statements I have made. I have already challenged Alan Cranston, President of U. W. F., to public debate. The challenge has not been accepted. I would like to meet, on a platform, any top official of U. W. F., preferably James Warburg, and give that official a

The Jewish Encyclopedia, (Vol. 8) described Marx' arrest, exiles and Red revolutionary activities in only the most favorable, deferential way, and says: "the great work of Marx's life with which his fame is more enduringly identified is 'Das Kapital'."

The "Encyclopedia of Jewish Knowledge" (Jacob DeHaas, editor, 1938) with equal deference describes Marx and his "great" works.

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by the "Kehillah (Jewish Community) of New York," 356 Second Avenue, N. Y. (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff, head of Kuhn Loeb and Co., for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

What Strategic Positions Have These Marxists Secured All Those Listed Below

FELIX FRANKFURTER

Felix Frankfurter, next to Bernard Baruch and the Warburgs of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., is the most powerful Marxist-Zionist in the U. S. He holds Truman and the administration in a straight-jacket. For 25 years he has been prominent in advising Anarchists and Communists. He was advisor to Sacco & Vanzetti, the anarchists hung in Massachusetts — he was counsel for Tom Mooney, the Communist who served a long term in California for bombing. Frankfurter was a leader in American Civil Liberties Union, which has given legal aid to Communists for years.

An Austrian-born Zionist, Frankfurter has placed many Marxists (mostly former students of his at Harvard) in government key positions. Among them are Alger Hiss — Lee Pressman — Donald Hiss — Nathan Witt and Judge Jerome Frank. At the time Frankfurter forced F.D.R. to appoint him as Supreme Court Justice, some Congressmen charged that Frankfurter was a Communist. His attorney before the Senate Judiciary Committee was Dean Acheson. Frankfurter rules the State Department with an iron hand — using James Byrnes, George Marshall and Dean Acheson to carry out the Marxist plan of leading other countries into Communist booby-traps. Harold Ickes stated that Frankfurter told him that he, Frankfurter, picked Henry L. Stimson as Secretary of War in the plan to crush Germany. Stimson was Chief Counsel to Kuhn, Loeb and Co., which now rules Germany through a former member of Kuhn, Loeb — Benjamin J. Buttenweiser, Assistant High Commissioner of Germany.

The Chicago Daily Tribune of April 25, 1949 quotes Frankfurter, who replied when asked who really runs the U. S.: "The real rulers of a nation are undiscoverable."

Jews As Fronts To Promote Communism-Socialism-World Government- For Rule By Asiatic Marxists? Here Is What They Themselves Say:

"The Jew is a Communist." —Otto Winiger in his book, "Sex and Character," Vienna, 1921.

"The patriotism of the Jew is simply a cloak he assumes to please the Englishman. Jews who pretend that they can at once be patriotic Englishmen and good Jews are simply living lies."

—B. Fells, in a letter to the "Jewish Chronicle," Dec. 8, 1911.

"The 'American Hebrew,' the Nation's most outstanding Jewish weekly, said on September 10, 1920:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

"We Jews, we, the destroyers, will remain the destroyers forever. Nothing that you do will meet our needs and demands. We will destroy because we need a world of our own."

—The Jew, Maurice Samuel, in his book "You Gentiles," page 155.

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands. This revolution will tighten the Jewish domination over all other people."

—Paris Jewish magazine, "Peuple Juif," Feb. 8, 1919.

"Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian Revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews."

—Statement of the Jew, M. Cohen in "The Communist Charkov," April 12, 1919.

"The revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution, a crisis in Jewish history. It is a Jewish revolution because Russia is the home of about half the Jews of the world . . . but the revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution also because Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's empire."

—From the Zionist organ, "The Maccabean," New York November 1905, pg. 250, headline "A Jewish Revolution."

"Our fight goes on, not only for our existence, but for the preservation and the development of our whole Jewish being—our All-World domination which was taken away from us 2000 years ago."

—The "Israelitische Wochenblatt," Leipzig, Jan. 15, 1926.

"We feel, that this—the revolution—is a great triumph for Jews' cause. The anti-Jewish element in Russia has always been identified with the anti-revolutionary party. Jews having always sat high in the councils of the revolutionists, all of our race became inseparably linked with the opponents of the government in the official mind!" . . . Quoted from the "Jewish Daily Forward," New York by the Russian writer, Boris Brasol in his book "The World at the Crossroads," Boston, 1921, pg. 109.

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle. If I'd had charge of executing Christ I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They never could have made A saviour out of mincemeat."

—Ben Hecht, Zionist Writer in Hollywood. p. 20 "A Jew in Love."

"We have exterminated the capitalists and property owners in Russia. We are going to do the same to the intelligentsia of Europe and America."

—Zinoviev, Chairman of the Communist Third International (Congressional Record, Dec. 19, 1925).

DAVID K. NILES (NEYHUS)

Niles (Neyhus), Administrative Assistant to F.D.R. holds the same position with President Truman. Niles, a Zionist, has — through the power of the Anti-Defamation League — been kept close to the White House to direct and report important moves to Zionist rulers. As long as his reports are favorable, showing that Truman does not reject orders from Felix Frankfurter, the administration and Truman will have the support of World Zionism. Several moves have been made by private citizens to remove Niles, who has often used his influence in the State Department on behalf of Communists having difficulty in entering the U. S. It is rumored that when the Departments receive a request from Niles he is considered as the President's mouthpiece. In documents of the Coplon trial it was shown that Niles had intervened successfully with the State Department's passport division in behalf of Philip Levy. The FBI report on Levy, now in files of the Coplon case, states: "Because of possible involvement in 1934 passport fraud, his (Levy's) application for 1945 trip to Mexico was held up until Presidential aid, David Niles, intervened."

CLEAN UP THE STATE DEPARTMENT!

We knew that when the Congress of Vienna refrained in 1815 from penalizing France, which had caused 20 years of European wars, there followed 99 years of general peace in Europe. We knew that Britain's conciliatory policy toward the defeated Boers, just after the turn of the century cemented British South Africa close into the British Empire. We knew that the peace of Versailles in 1919, with its grotesque attempts to punish defeated Germany, led straight to Hitler and World War II. Yet with all this experience to guide us, our State Department and the Administration decided again on a policy of punishment and humiliation toward a defeated enemy.

This fatal decision was wholly dictated by a vindictive minority whose policy has been permitted to be the policy of the State Department and hence of the United States Government. At this very moment, through the continued dismantling of plants, in spite of the agreement that dismantling shall cease, through the agreement to turn over to the French the Saar Basin, one of the greatest industrial assets of West Germany, and through other similar stupidities on our part, the time may not be far distant when West Germany will succumb to the blandishments of the wily Soviet Government and join up with East Germany.

All Soviet Russia has to do in order to insure the conquest of all of the rest of Europe, at least down to the Pyrenees and probably including Great Britain, is to persuade the West Germans to accept unity with the East Germans under the auspices of Soviet Russia. Already the enrollment under the Soviet banner of many East German inventors and scientists has enabled Soviet Russia to take the lead against the United States in her air service and in her submarines. The consolidation of all Germany under Soviet Russian domination or guidance would be an even greater gain to Soviet Russia than the acquisition by Soviet Russia during the past twelve months of all of China. It would strike a death blow at Western Europe—and perhaps at the United States itself.

Several important leaders in Britain (like Arthur Horner, secretary of the powerful coal miners union) have said that in event of war between the United States and Soviet Russia, Britain would be neutral. The several million communist party members in France indicate that France might be even weaker against Soviet Russia than she was against Germany and Soviet Russia in 1940. Yet the State Department insists upon pouring out almost unlimited treasure to both these countries, while penalizing Spain and West Germany, which two countries would be the strongest bulwark in all Europe against the Soviets.

And it is the American State Department and its ramifications that have had practically sole charge of affairs while all this has happened.

So, in God's Name, why should not the State Department be investigated? If it is not thoroughly investigated, it may well be that the days of the American Republic are numbered.

SENATOR MCCARTHY HAS MADE CHARGES

Now, as it happens, Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin, a 40-year-old ex-Marine, has made certain charges. He has said that some 80 of the officials of the State Department have strong left-wing records. So far, he has named a number of individuals, one of whom he asserted had been a member of not less than 28 organizations which other Government agencies have found to be Communist fronts.

Now the Communists are the cleverest schemers we have ever known in the United States. They so far surpass any other politicians of the present day in acumen, energy, intelligence and dishonesty that it is hard for the average person to believe what these fellows are doing. And one result of this has been that it is hard to pin with certainty on any individual (except, of course, an admitted Party Member) the label of Communist. Authorities say that for every Communist Party member in the United States, there are at least ten persons who work with the Communist Party as so-called "fellow travelers" or sympathizers.

One of the best known Communist techniques is the formation of many organizations—literally hundreds of them, each of which is assigned to influence a given segment of opinion. These organizations have come to be known as Communist Fronts. Large numbers of them have been officially found to be such

When Senator McCarthy has said that a given individual has belonged to 28 fronts, he means he has at least permitted the use of his name by those organizations. If such an individual does not know that these organizations are Communist Fronts, he is either careless or stupid, for the fact they are Communist Fronts has been widely published. If he does know it, he is culpable. That's about all there is to it. And the vitally important fact is that the Communist Party has been able to advance its schemes so far in the United States because so many otherwise respectable persons have lent the use of their names.

Dismantling Against Humanity

Former Mayor Fiorello La Guardia of N. Y. Harry Hopkins, (Al Raschid) Maxim Litvinov (Finkelstein).

Three of the Zionists who directed the war with F.D.R. and Winston Churchill as fronts. Hopkins as U.S. Lend-Lease Administrator claps the hand of Finkelstein, Soviet Ambassador to the United States after telling a Russian War Relief Rally at Madison Square Garden, New York on June 22, 1942 that the President sent word that the United States would aid the Soviet forces on the battlefield and that the Russian front would not fail. Zionists, by placing Hopkins as Lend-Lease Administrator, made sure that their friends, the Soviet Union would receive the eleven billion dollars of valuable war material for which they paid nothing. Hopkins was exposed on Fulton Lewis' Jr. radio program by Major George Racey Jordan as the one who supervised the stealing by Soviet spies of tons of confidential letters from our State Department. At Great Falls, Montana, where Major Jordan was in charge during the war, he protested for months and finally opened 30 suitcases full of papers. He testified that seven thousand planes we gave the Soviet Union were loaded with suitcases. These planes were flown from Great Falls to Fairbanks, Alaska, where Soviet flyers took them to Moscow.

Major Jordan found Hopkins' letter written on White House stationery forbidding any interference with the stealing of these valuable papers.

The late La Guardia, whose mother was a Zionist and who was married to a Zionist, later on as UNRRA head, saw that the funds were used to help equip Tito in Yugoslavia.

Herbert Lehman, as head of UNRRA before La Guardia, had also backed Communism with UNRRA funds. Finkelstein, in arranging with F.D.R. for recognition of the Soviet Union by the U.S., promised that the Communists would not propagandize in the United States, but immediately after recognition they launched here in the U.S. 200 communist publications in five languages.

When Finkelstein was asked about his promise to F.D.R. he stated "if Roosevelt was fool enough to take my word in exchange for something valuable I would have been a fool not to have given my word."

We were told we were fighting for freedom of fear, freedom of speech and freedom of religion. It is well to remember that the Zionist strategy in propagandizing is to always state the opposite of what they mean.

The U. S. Imports Treason

By Frederick Kister, Director, Christian Veterans Political Counsel, Chicago.

With the turn of the twentieth century and the influx of new immigrants we have seen a change take place. Some of these men came to America not only to share in a new prosperity and a new freedom but they also desired to shape and control the destiny of the new land. They became citizens of America merely as a matter of form but they never became citizens in heart or mind.

In recent years we have not imported men who desired to be worthy citizens but men who were carriers of hatred, vengeance, and philosophies of destruction. In 1933, when Hitler rose to power in Germany, America became a haven for a new horde of refugees. Among them was a highly over publicized scientist by the name of Dr. Albert Einstein. Dr. Einstein it is reported was associated with many persons who were working for a Communist Germany. When Hitler took power the Communists and their friends

Somewhere in Western Germany, a large group of people—middle aged, as well as younger men and women—stood helplessly and despondently before a rubble heap of a former huge factory which had been the place of their livelihood.

Silently they contemplated this insane and wanton crazy-quilt consisting of huge piles of brick, rusty iron pipes, beams, boxes and machine parts. Some of this material would have been well worth salvaging, but there it was left to rot and rust.

Finally, one of the group exclaimed: "The machines are gone. What are we going to work with? How shall we make a living?"

At this moment, a stranger approached. Grasping a ready-made opportunity, he at once mounted a soapbox and replied: "Don't worry comrades! With hammer and sickle we go on to the new order!" He continued to preach the gospel of the new religion for world-wide revolution against the capitalistic system; Western Powers versus the humanitarian Welfare State of the U.S.S.R. Purposely he left out any mention of "Communism"—knowing well the antagonistic feelings of his audience relative to "Communism."

"What you German workers should do is to join your Eastern brothers to establish a real new deal, hand-in-hand with your powerful neighbor the U.S.S.R. It is your only salvation to get a break and to re-establish your human dignity as free workers. We, the genuine socialistic Welfare State, the U.S.S.R., can provide the real solution to your troubles. Forget the war incidents. The fundamental idea of human rights and existence, the right to work, protection in sickness and old age, are still the tenets of our wonderful Soviet Republics."

Warmed up, the stranger went on: "Communism is not ruthless as propagandized by the Western capitalistic interests. The capitalistic Western Democracies are not fighting for the welfare of mankind, they care nothing for the living and liberty of the workers. Unfair competition, lust for power and greed—these are the trademarks of the Western Powers. You are just like a herd of cattle led to slaughter and starvation. Your problems will not be solved by the Western hypocrites as the dismantling decree clearly indicates. Wake up, comrades! March hand-in-hand with us against the tyranny of the Western capitalists—those parasites of the world!"

And so the tirade went on ad infinitum.

The political blunders of the Western allies provide a clearly laid campaign for the Communist agitators to win the support of the Ger-

It has never been the policy of the Jewish leaders to tell their lesser brethren all that they have in mind—still less to tell their Gentile agents. The truth is they back Communism when it suits them—not because they are interested in Communism but because they are interested in Communist Revolutions, Communist Revolutions enable them to destroy Governments and so prepare the way for a Zionist World Government.

The Plan is revealed in the 'Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion' which fell into Gentile hands over 40 years ago, which the Press refuses to advertise and of which all the Russian copies were confiscated by the Bolsheviks who killed anyone known to possess them.

Mr. McGinley,

"Every issue of Common Sense gives us the amazing facts of the Zionist-Marxist enemy of Christianity. Your work is courageous indeed. Too few have dared to speak up. It requires sacrifice for which the Good Lord will reward you and those assisting. I am sad when I recall Father Coughlin's persecution for warning us and so many refused to listen."

Mrs. R., Chicago.

Dear Christian Friends:

COMMON SENSE and the booklets have arrived and I shall distribute them; sending them especially to Colorado and Nevada. If I can be of any help to you, as long as God spares my life, don't fail to call on me; for as long as I live I shall raise my voice against all Communism and God dishonoring atheism which originates in the pits of Hell. From your friend in Christ—

W. C. — Missouri.

Dear Conde McGinley:

You have, no doubt, heard the results of our General Election. Although returned to power, the Socialists have suffered a great moral defeat. I feel sure that another General Election is very near. Mr. Morrison, himself, has said that the Labor Party will try to carry on "for a year"—a sign that he expects defeat. The Socialists cannot carry on with such a small majority.

One thing is certain; the Socialists will have to cut down on their mad schemes. To attempt further "Nationalization" might spell their defeat. If it had not been for the "Liberals" the Socialists would be OUT. Another good sign. Both previous Communist members have been defeated HEAVILY—in spite of their enormous campaigns.

—R. B. G., England.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed find a small check thanking you for the pamphlets and papers you have been sending me which I distribute as much as possible. I contribute this money out of my pocket and try to do as much as I can. I am 80 years of age but still am pretty active in life, as I think we older people must try to show the younger generation the way to freedom as long as they are so ignorant of the coming future they are running into. As old as I am I still have to make my own living and I would like to send more but cannot afford it.

Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. Conde McGinley,

Dear Sir:

I was very much amused at your comments under the heading of "Anti-Semitism Charged" in last night's Newark Evening News.

Just to enlighten you, the reason Jerusalem is called "Jewrusalem" is because a Jew by the name of Jesus Christ was born there. His Jewish name was Joshua (that's a nice slur).

(Editor's note: The real name of Christ in Hebrew is Jeschua Hanotsri—Jesus the Nazarene. He is called Notsri from the city of Nazareth in which he was brought up. Thus in the Jewish Talmud Christians also are called Notsrim—Nazarenes. Since the word Jeschua means "Savior," the name Jesus rarely occurs in Jewish books. It is almost always abbreviated to Jeschu, which is maliciously taken as if it were composed of the initial letters of the three words Immach SCHemo Vezikro—"May his name and memory be blotted out." But let's get back to M. J. E.'s letter . . .)

The clergyman who informed you that within a year and a half all signs of Christianity will be wiped out of the Holy Land is talking "thru his hat." If Christianity were wiped out, it would be a blessing to the entire world for the greatest tragedy happened when Christianity was born. It is so rotten that it stinks. It teaches hatred, bigotry, not alone of the Jews, but one Christian (Catholics) against another Christian (Protestant).

Christ didn't hate the Jews, like you. He was one himself. One of his teachings was "Love thy neighbor as thyself." How many Christians practice this? If they did the religious wars of the Middle Ages would never have taken place. Jewish blood throughout the ages would never have been spilled and the world would be a better place to live in. What would Christ think if he were alive to see what misery he has wrought upon his own people?

For almost 4000 years the Jews existed before he came into being, yet the Christians think

The Patient Died

Released by George Peck, New York City
By Dr. Alfred P. Haake

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Alfred P. Haake, Ph.D., Mayor of Park Ridge, Illinois, is a noted Economist, Business Consultant, Lecturer and Author.)

We are sinners, all of us, most of us in one respect especially; sometimes unconsciously, sometimes consciously.

While I respect all the Ten Commandments, the one that appeals most to me is that which advises us not to bear false witness.

Many of the world's troubles, if not most of them, grow out of the bearing of false witness. Whether this sin is committed deliberately or unconsciously, the result is identical. It cannot be excused on the basis of ignorance or good intent. It behooves us to bear accurate and correct witness.

Because of the bearers of false witness, many people in the world today do not recognize the disaster that is approaching us. It is hard to understand how anyone at all familiar with history, and of reasonable intelligence, can fail to see that we are repeating in these days the course that history has taken not once but many times in the past; from Rome, under Diocletian, all through the years down to England, under the Socialists today.

That's not because the English people are not intelligent or well-intentioned. They have become enamored of a vision and fail to recognize the real factors and the truth. They have become obsessed with a conviction to such an extent that they do not see the things that are actually happening and the danger in their present course.

As in England, there are many here in America who are putting their trust in economic doctors who know little or nothing about economic anatomy. These same people would not think of permitting a surgeon who does not have a thorough knowledge of physical anatomy, to operate upon their bodies. Why then do they permit these economic quacks, who know so little of the anatomy of society, relationships of human beings and the laws that govern life; to prescribe an operation and proceed to operate upon the body economic?

These pseudo-economic doctors, who are sublimely ignorant of the anatomy of our economic system, are overly zealous to operate upon it. It hurts me to have to say this of some of my fellow-craftsmen in economics, but they are very much like the mathematician who attempts to deal in geometry, trigonometry, algebra or calculus, without first having bothered to study and master plain arithmetic.

That is one reason why our American colleges today are grinding out so many graduates who have no understanding whatsoever of the fundamentals of economics.

You and I must beware of these Do-Gooder socialistic planners, who bear false witness. We must not let them prescribe for us, much less operate.

Somehow they bring to mind the old bromide about the unqualified, inadequately-trained surgeon who performed his first operation.

When asked how it had come out, he replied, "It was a big success."

And to the further question, "How's the patient," his answer was, "Oh! the patient died."

Let's bear in mind that nations, even as individuals, cannot survive the butchery wrought by a knife in the hands of an unskilled surgeon.

Let's not have a successful (?) operation performed upon these United States that will call for the sad, sad answer, "Oh! the patient died."

we should accept him as the son of God. Since God was not a person how could he have a son?

Moses, a far greater prophet than Christ, we didn't even accept as a deity. Therefore, the comparison between Judaism and Christianity is odious.

How can the Jews respect a religion with so many denominations, each hating the other? Each with his own nonsensical rituals? Does that make sense?

If you are an anti-Semite think twice before you spread your poison. Remember the man you worship was a Jew and his religion was Jewish, and not Christian, for there was no Christianity at that time.

—M. J. E., 71 Milford Avenue
Newark, New Jersey.

P.S. Hope you'll live to see the day Israel will be a great nation of Jews. You'll have something to talk about then. (without the help of Christ—our own God.)

fled or went underground. Dr. Einstein eventually came to America.

In the American press Dr. Einstein was painted as a rare genius and like the over-rated comedian, Charlie Chaplin, he preferred to be called a citizen of the world. We have never seen any evidence that Dr. Einstein has allowed his name to be used in organizations which stand in defense of the American tradition. Investigation reveals that Dr. Einstein's name appears with some organizations which have been declared subversive by the Committee on Un-American Activities—organizations like the Congress of American-Soviet Friendship, the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, and the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee.

Communism is not the only subversive movement—the organizations for World Government are equally un-American and far more dangerous because they have been successful in enlisting the support of many gullible Americans who should know better. Dr. Einstein is playing an important part in the propaganda drive for World Government. The strategy of these propagandists is to force the American people to relinquish their sovereignty to a super state through fear—fear of the atomic and hydrogen bombs. Speaking of the new hydrogen bomb Dr. Einstein said: "... if the hydrogen bomb is developed annihilation of any life on earth is within the range of technical possibilities." He called the present armaments race between the United States and Russia, "a disastrous illusion" and called for peace moves to "do away with mutual fear and distrust." Dr. Einstein, playing his hand cleverly for World Government, continued:

"A super-national body would be necessary to carry out nonviolent aims and that international control of weapons would be only of secondary use as a police measure."

We do not doubt the deadly potential of the hydrogen bomb and the world has certainly witnessed the horror inflicted on the Japanese by our use of the Atomic Bomb on defenseless civilian populations. But the new weapons are being publicized for a purpose and that is to destroy the American nation through fear—a deadly fear that will surrender the American nation without a struggle to the greatest band of international gangsters the world has ever seen.

Many gullible Americans will say that the organizations promoting Brotherhood and World Government are not Communist but in fact are opposed to Stalinism. The evidence at hand proves the opposite. Alger Hiss played an important part in organizations for World Government. He also worked hand in hand with the Communist underground in America, supplying top-secret information to Soviet Russia. Einstein has a similar record of Communist association although it has not been proved to date that he has been other than a propagandist.

Representative John Rankin commenting on Einstein's recent statement on the hydrogen bomb said: "One of the greatest fakers the world ever knew is Albert Einstein, who should have been deported for his communistic activities years ago . . . The bunk that he now is spreading about world government is simply carrying out the communist line."

Our nation stands at the crossroads. The American people should have good reason for fear—not because of the atomic or the hydrogen bombs—but because of men like Alger Hiss, Albert Einstein and many others. With the turn of the century we have allowed treason to immigrate and infiltrate our institutions and our national thinking. When are we going to deport treason and return to the faith of the founding fathers?

man workers. Prompted to feel themselves betrayed by the Western world, the German workers are made to believe that the plants are only destroyed to enable the Anglo-Saxon trusts to make bigger profits. This feeling of betrayal is far more disastrous than the production of German home requirements.

No German can stomach the idiotic paradox of the Marshall plan on the one hand, and the deliberate destruction of peaceful productive capacity in Germany on the other, and Communist agitators are convincing large numbers of Germans that economic rivalry in the export market is at the back of it all.

During the winter of 1948-49 many plants were reconstructed and put into productive operation. By hard toil some of the barest essentials of life were procured and people began to live again, filled with hope and courage. Then, like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, a new dismantling order—calling for the destruction of the rebuilt plants—was issued. First bombed out, then rebuilt and put into operation with permission of the Military Government, then destroyed again.

While the world is given the impression that the dismantling problem in Germany is solved, the fact is that the minor units, now in production, will have to cease operation automatically for they are dependent upon the larger units scheduled for dismantling. According to the Inter-Allied Reparations Agency's "Reparation News," of December 6, 1949, there are still 143 German war and industrial plants, "adaptable for peacetime production", still to be allocated as reparation among the western allied nations.

Disregarding the human misery and distress created by the dismantling program, waging a cold war against the embittered German workers (instead of fostering good will, which is supposed to be the object of the E.R.P. Plan and the Marshall E.C.A. Plan) is driving them, in desperation, right into the hands of the Communists. Further, while there is no formal listing of all the German industrial potential put on the other side of all the iron curtain countries, it is known that Russia has collected nearly 14 billion in reparations.

The motive of this destruction of German economic wealth is England's audacious greed for supremacy of European commerce. The war guilt of the German nation was purposely invented by false and malicious libel and widely propagated in order to fabricate a reason for these dismantlings and destruction of productive capacity and thus prevent Germany from waging another war. This fiction provided an opportunity to eliminate a competitor under the guise of protecting humanity's welfare and peace.

An example of this hypocrisy is the fact that, at a time when millions of Germans crowded in bomb-wrecked housing desperately needed soap to prevent disease, the British dismantled one of the biggest soap factories in Germany on the excuse that soap-making produces glycerine from which explosives could be made. The real purpose was to eliminate the largest soap manufacturing plant as competition of the British multi-million dollar soap monopoly. Further, the soap producing plants of Henkel & Cie, Dusseldorf—M. Kappus, Offenbach—and Roehmn & Haas, Darmstadt, are among the 143 "general-purpose industrial plants adaptable for peacetime use," still to be allocated as reparations.

Dismantling of German productive capacities increases the need for Marshall Plan aid and when the E.R.P. terminates by 1952, it will inevitably force Germany to secure an export surplus some way, and some how, in order to make enough money through exports to pay for essential imports of food and raw materials. Or, is the American taxpayer forever to support the European W.P.A.?

Dismantling has already caused the unemployment of nearly two million workers. In view of the cold war we are supposedly waging with Russia, it is paradoxical that dismantled plants and steel mills are still being shipped to Russia.

Rating soap factories as having great potential military value to Germany is ridiculous and does not show good judgment. It is in direct disregard of handling our tax money, because we have had to furnish the soap—that is the money to buy the English soap.

To understand the situation and to realize the importance of German industrial capacity, it's urgent need in European reconstruction and recovery, one should study and read the illustrated memorandum "Reparation" and the E.R.P. versus Industrial Dismantling in Germany. Copy of E.R.P. 50 cents.

The Proteous Of People

Every day that passes further discloses the disruptive forces at work within the United States, with the result that every day brings new recruits into the group of those who realize that some sinister destructive force is at work. Every day more and more of these people determine to exercise themselves in opposing that force. Consequently, the necessity for clearly discerning the nature of that force becomes more urgently important.

A review of the political activity in the Country reveals the existence of many conceptions of the nature of that force in the minds of those who are seeking to oppose it. To some it is "Socialism," and they are "Anti-Socialist," to others it is "Communism" and they are "Anti-Communist," some see it as nothing but the work of the "Bolsheviks" and they are "Anti-Bolshevik," and pass up the subversive activities with a shrug of the shoulders. There are many other theories of its nature. This is very natural, for people react to that particular phase of it with which they come into contact and of which, to some extent, they have sensed the danger.

The time has now come when these different conceptions should be correlated, and the particular characteristics and field of each should be recognized.

Long ago we undertook for our own satisfaction to do this very thing, and discovered that in all of these apparently different systems of ideas there existed a singular similarity. They were all the result of a particular outlook on life; a view which was certainly not the result of Christian thought. It was an outlook which gave supremacy to the material, and the only teaching which we could find of this nature was in the TALMUD. This was an interesting revelation, the value of which was utterly unrecognized until applied.

Only when we had obtained the knowledge of what to look for did we find that, at the back of all these systems of ideas, there was invariably the mind of the Jew suggesting them and, almost equally invariably, Zionist minds directing their course. We were aware of the world-known fact that there existed a power, the sole aim of which is the perversion of the Divine Power, but that there should be a particular body of people who predominated in the activities of this perverted scheme was startling to us.

We found, however, that there was nothing new in the fact of their activity, and that it was not by mere chance that they were so largely in the fore front, operating this perverted power. We discovered that they were a highly organized people deliberately working as a body in opposing the Divine Law.

This discovery was like a magic guidance to the fitting together of the pieces in the jigsaw puzzle of the world drama. Once in possession of this Key, all the otherwise unexplainable mysteries—the application of utterly ridiculous and absurd theories to the practical matters of life—are explained.

The Zionists are revealed as the seducers of nations, the purveyors of "Ideas" which are the elimination of the Divine Law and which, if persisted in, must inevitably destroy them.

A study of the methods adopted by the Zionists to thus seduce Christian peoples to work for Anti-Christ reveals a degree of subtlety incredible to the uninstructed Christian mind. A Jew himself has given us the correct phrase with which to describe their duplicity, or rather "Multiplicity." Mr. Israel Zangwill, in his poem, "Israel," describes his nation as the "Proteus of Peoples," and as "Wearing all colors and none."

Proteus, in the old mythology, is described by Homer as having had Menelaus in his power only so long as Menelaus was unable to grasp him in his true shape. So long as Proteus was able to change his form into any shape he desired, Menelaus had no power over him. And this is exactly the situation in which the Christian nations find themselves with regard to Jewry.

ZIONISM IS THE PROTEUS OF PEOPLES

We assert, therefore, that all these apparently differing systems of ideas have but one origin and one purpose. They originated in the mind of Jewry and are designed to confuse and destroy those who are so misguided as to give credence to them. This being so, it follows that there is but one name to give the destructive agencies—Communism and Socialism—which Americans have to oppose. That name is Zionism.

Zionism and radicalism are one and the same thing. To think of it as being "Socialism," or "Communism," or "Bolshevism," or "Subversiveism," or any other "Isms" than "Zionism" is simply to render ourselves impotent from the

Hail To Our Flag

J. L. Turner, World War Veteran.

Hail, hail to our glorious flag,
Keep pure each star and strand;
Of alien host, fear not, nor yield,
The heritage of our noble land.

We stand where once men sacrificed,
For things of finer mold;
Unfettered then as we are now,
By power of foreign gold.

Stand, stand erect on holy ground,
Stamp out all deep intrigue;
Our Cause—one flag and Unity,
Not union with a Godless league.

Lord of our fathers, for this we fled,
From Europe's hostile shores;
Gave birth to a Nation, with freedom,
And peace from eternal wars.

Stand your ground with high resolve—
Stand firm from coast to coast;
With scourge upraised, God's name be praised,
Drive forth the alien host.

O Ship of State! Sail on—be great,
With men, fear not the shore;
With colors lashed fast to thy mast,
Sail on, forevermore!

beginning. Make no mistake about it, as long as Zionists are able to disguise their activities, so will they produce just as many more "Isms," as they can think of.

ZIONISM—A MINORITY CONTROL

You may say that the Zionists, being only a minority in number within the United States, cannot control our government. The Jews claim only about five million; however, the United States Religious Census for 1930 shows that there were then 4,081,242 active members of Jewish Synagogues. As only male members of the tribe from 18 years and up are eligible to membership in a Synagogue, the census did not include Jewish non-members, half-Jews and moistened (Baptised) Jews. Nor were women and minors—both excluded from membership in Synagogues—covered by the census. Thus, it is reasonable to estimate the total Jewish population within the United States at not less than twelve million.

This closely united, alien population is centered in the key industrial States which have the largest electoral vote, such as New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Massachusetts, California and Illinois. With the Christians more or less equally divided as Republicans and Democrats, the Jews, by throwing their united, controlled and concentrated vote to one party or the other, or one candidate or the other, can control all elections. Further, by concentration of votes in the primary elections of both parties they are able to control both party organizations by electing candidates favorable to their schemes. The Zionists dominate and rule by reason of keeping the Christians divided over petty questions; influencing public opinion through control of the press, radio, screen and theatre, and creating constant unrest by financing and directing all subversive parties and organizations.

DON'T RELY ON THE LABEL

There is one absolutely safe rule in dealing with all "Isms." Don't rely on the label! Open the matter up! Investigate! You will find that the Jewish "labor union" is not what it pretends to be. You will find that the leaders of Socialism and Communism are leaders in Zionism. You will find that "one world idealism" is allied with the Zionist plan for world domination.

Today, the great questions of vital concern to all true Americans, such as Communism, Socialism, "world federation" and the "Cold War," can be understood only when one realizes the effects of the maneuvering of the group, so aptly described by the Jew, Israel Zangwill, as the "Proteus of Peoples."

ISRAELI FORCES DAMAGE CHRISTIAN HOLY PLACES

The Rev. Bro. Raphael Quinn, custodian of holy places, while recently vacationing in Montreal after 28 years in the Holy City, blamed the Israeli forces for the damage done to the holy places. "They were wholly responsible for the defamation, bombing, and destruction of many holy places within the city."

"On the other hand, the Arabs always respected the Christian holy places," he said.

The Franciscan brother termed King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan "a great and good friend" to the Franciscan Order.

HUNGARIAN REFUGEE SAYS ROBERT VOGELER WAS NO SPY

(Editor's Note: Although the writer of the following letter gave us permission to use his name, we are withholding it. We feel that all intelligent readers of COMMON SENSE will see why we made this decision.)

—C. McG.)

Editor,
COMMON SENSE

I saw in COMMON SENSE the article written about the spy trial of Mr. Robert Vogeler, vice-president of International Telephone and Telegraph of Hungary. During the years of 46-47, I met Mr. Vogeler on many occasions in the offices of the U. S. Legation of Budapest, where we had lengthy conversations about the situation of Hungary under the Zionist and Communist murderers. I know positively that Mr. Vogeler was never connected with any spying group, which in these times is very limited in Hungary.

You say that you haven't any information about Judge Vilmos Olthy's and Prosecuting Attorney Alappy's Zionist connections. These two beasts are not Jews; but they and Sandor Halasz, and Gyorgy Sarkany, Prosecuting Attorneys, who prosecuted all the pro-Jewish trials after the war are always in on the Zionist meetings. And, their office staffs are at least 95 per cent Zionist Jews. During the time of the Nyilas (Nazi) era, they were with the "Nyilas". As soon as the Communists took over they, as sadist gangsters, joined up with the Communist-Zionist murderers.

Dr. Alapy, who prosecuted Cardinal Mindszenty, on many occasions served as executioner on the innocent Christian and Jewish prisoners during the Nazi time. Dr. Halasz and Dr. Sarkany are responsible for my arrest and later the conviction in absentia which was held in September against me.

Recently I received word that the secret political police force in Hungary, which was manned by 80 per cent Jewish and 20 per cent renegade Christians, has been dissolved and re-organized entirely by Jewish elements who, during the last war, attended Communist political school in Russia for at least one year. The majority of the older personnel was dismissed as untrustworthy. Many of these ex-policemen tried to escape from the Communist haven to Austria. On March 1st, from one small village on the Austrian border, 36 persons, Christians and "untrustworthy" Jews—tried to cross the border after they removed the mines which protect the lines. But, the border patrol (Russians and Hungarians) found out their escape attempt and captured them. Nine persons were killed and four seriously wounded. The prisoners, including the four wounded, had to walk 14 miles to the nearest Army command where all, without any trial, summarily were executed by the Russian-Hungarian political police. One Jewish girl, 17 years old, on request of the Zionist organization in the city, was saved from the firing squad. Every city or village, as in the 1919 Communist times, has a dictator who, in every instance, is a Jew.

Sincerely yours for Christian America.

Hate

by Nicoli Lenin

We must hate—hatred is the basis of Communism. Children must be taught to hate their parents if they are not Communists. If they are, then the children need not respect them; need not worry about them.—(Lenin, Congressional Record, vol. 77, pp. 1539-40; "MKR" p.123).

"We hate Christianity and Christians. Even the best of them must be considered our worst enemies. They preach love of one's neighbor and mercy, which is contrary to our principles. What we want is hate . . . Only then will we conquer the Universe."

—Anatole Lunarchsky, Soviet Commisar of Education. At speech made in Moscow in 1925, quoted in IZVESTIA (Congressional Record, Vol. 77, pp. 1539 - 1540).

CRIMINAL COMMUNISM MURDERS ALL FREEDOMS

One of the latest disclosures of Communistic "liberty" is revealed in Archbishop Beran's accusation that the Czech government is keeping him prisoner in his Prague palace.

An electrical torture appliance for the tongue of reluctant witnesses is shown to all Lithuanian "suspects" brought into "Interrogation Chambers." The "suspects" are, naturally, anti-Communists.

In "free" Paris, a visitor to Communist headquarters must spend 15 minutes or more in an attempt to pass surly, armed guards. Then, maybe, the visitor is allowed inside.

Communist Prague went so far as to announce that 2,300 priests had joined a communist-founded "Catholic Action" against the Vatican. An examination, however, disclosed that the "members" were long since dead. Included in the list were the names of priests from a Carmelite House which has not existed since the 18th century.

Hungarian bishops are being blackmailed by their Communist government which tells them that Cardinal Mindszenty's sentence will be shortened if they disown the Vatican. But, if the Bishops insist upon remaining loyal to the Pope, the Cardinal's sentence will be—DEATH.

Attention Southern Methodist University: Dallas, Texas—Bulgarian students must listen to Marxist lectures or abandon a college education. Six thousand students have already been expelled from Sofia University because they were not enthusiastic Communists.

Communism's iron fist is even more terrifying in the Baltic states where Stalin does not have to operate under a stooge. The persecuted people in these captive states, which were forced to become Soviet republics, know that 20 penal colonies have been opened with 1,000 to 7,000 persons in each. All the property-owners, officials, civic leaders and ex-Army officers are sent to these slave camps unless they switch to Communism.

Once they've taken over a country, however, the Russians do not, ordinarily, kill for revenge. Sweat is preferred to blood. A dead man can't lay bricks for eighteen hours a day or swing an ax on potato soup meals. No, the "undesirables" are purposely denied a merciful death while they toil as convicts—pitiful, half-starved wrecks of humanity.

Freedom loving Americans! Fight while there is time to fight! Today is not too early; tomorrow may be too late!

LIBERTY is the basis of our independency, and whoever would DARE to stop the foundation or overturn the structure, under whatever specious pretext he may attempt it, will merit the bitterest execration and the severest PUNISHMENT which can be inflicted by this injured country.

George Washington.

When the State is most corrupt, then the laws are most multiplied.

—Tacitus.

The people who are not governed by God will be ruled by Tyrants.

Love

Christ called Himself the "Light of the world." His whole life's work was a mission of enlightening His contemporaries and enlightening all generations to come. His mission began by His becoming identified with family life. By choosing to be born into a family, to grow up there in an atmosphere of virtue and in the love of God and of the family. He established this family of Nazareth as the standard and the inspiration. No wonder it is called the "Holy Family"; no wonder so many have found peace and happiness by following it as the perfect model.

Stalin Is Not The Big Chief

'Jacob Schiff. His Life and Letters' where Adler describes how this wealthy New York Jewish Banker, at that time President of Kuhn Loeb Co., which is now directed by the Warburgs, devoted his life to the promotion of Communism in Russia because the Tzarist Regime was an obstacle to Jewish ambitions. You have only to read the statements of Jews to put the whole story together for yourself. There are now many collections of these statements linked up with world events and leading politicians, and they are available from the Britons Publishing Society. They show beyond any doubt that Stalin has acted as a tool in the hands of others behind the scenes in various parts of the world—how on the whole he has proved less satisfactory to his Jewish masters than they had hoped when they allowed him to remove Trotsky. Trotsky being a Jew and in direct contact with Kuhn Loeb Co. probably knew the final plan.

Readers will know that the split between Stalin and Trotsky was because of Stalin's decision to make a militarist Russia the control centre for the spread of Communism by force of arms. The policy of armed aggression that followed was useful to the Jews in the war against an anti-Jewish Germany. It is being made use of now to bludgeon Western Europe into forming a United States of Europe on republican lines, with Spaak, a typical Jews' man, as "President".

The fear of Russian aggression is thus hastening the creation of a Kerensky regime in Western Europe in which the separate Kingdoms will cease to count and which will bring the Zionist World Government one stage nearer. But in all this there is one disadvantage even for the Jews. Stalin's policy of armed aggression has added to the fear of Communism and stiffened the Resistance against it as a creed.

It has set back the hopes of the Jewish Revolutionists and the Jewish Bankers of starting isolated Communist Revolutions on the lines attempted in Spain. It has made Communism doubly unpopular in Britain. The real world revolutionaries have decided that unless they can be sure that Russia would succeed in a war of aggression the aggression should stop—and that Communism must be given time in which to recover from the bad odour in which Stalin's foreign policy has placed it. Stalin has behaved just like a "bloody baboon" because, not being one of the "Chosen" himself, he knows only half of what he is supposed to be doing. The part that he does not understand is the setting up of a Jewish World State. And it is hardly likely that the Jews will tell him that Moscow will have to take second place, to Jerusalem as the centre of their World Government.

The back-room boys of world revolution, planning their World State while living comfortably in New York on the fat of America and Britain, are also worried on another point. How much longer can they conceal from the world their part in launching Communism upon it? Loud as they are in their condemnation just now of Russian aggression they know they may have to answer charges of being solely responsible in the first instance. They are a sitting target for the Truth.

United World Federalists, Inc., Appears As Defendant In Philadelphia Court Action

Philadelphia Tests Right of Political Pressure Group to Use Public Property in Advancing Program to Abolish the United States of America.

PHILADELPHIA—Legal action, believed to be the first to be directed against organized World Government forces in America, was reported to last week in an effort to restrain UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS, INC., from using the rent-free facilities of the Philadelphia Free Library in furthering its program to abolish the United States of America. The challenge came about in the following manner:

By proclamation of Philadelphia's Mayor, Bernard Samuel, the period of April 23rd to 30th was designated as "World Government Week." As a part of its observance, the UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS, INC., was granted permission to hold three rent-free meetings in the main lecture room of the Philadelphia Free Library—a public, tax-supported institution. Immediate protests resulted.

On April 15th, W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., a native Philadelphian, addressed an open letter to all City Councilmen, calling their attention to the unlawful use to which this public property was to be put. Receiving no response, he submitted the same complaint, by telephone on April 17th, to Franklin H. Price, Librarian. Upon Mr. Price's refusal to consider the complaint, he submitted a written request for facilities where loyal Americans might meet, during "World Government Week," to reassert their allegiance to the Government and Flag of the United States. Altho Mr. Price seemed to approve this request when suggested by telephone, the Board of Trustees of the Library rejected it at an executive meeting on April 20th.

He flattered himself on being a man without any prejudices; and this pretension itself is a very great prejudice.

Anatole France

The above quotation is dedicated to those organizations and individuals who proclaim from the housetops that they are without prejudices—we specifically refer to the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE and individuals like Walter Winchell, Drew Pearson and other hypocrites who spew hatred under the guise of tolerance.

Recently the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE published their annual report (book) on anti-Semitism and discrimination in the United States. We found it a highly revealing book—not for the publicized "expose" that it pretends to give, but rather as an understanding of the groups and individuals engaged in tolerance-mongering.

In our opinion the book clearly shows that the ADL and the individuals connected with it are Professional Jews engaged in a big business proposition. How large a business? According to recent estimates its take runs between seven and ten million dollars each year. Few have heard about the Professional Jew—a man who makes a living out of being a Jew. Arnold Forster, ADL director and author of the current book is but one example.

Senator McCarthy Challenges Marxism

SENATOR JOSEPH R. McCARTHY

Those Americans who wish to live as free men and enjoy Christian worship as they see best, should thank our good Lord for such a man as Joe McCarthy. Senator McCarthy, like all other leaders who had the courage to challenge Marxism, is now attacked by Marxists and their dupes and hatchetmen. Only a few Communists are allowed to admit that they belong to the Communist party and, actually, none have carried cards since 1945. Those 55,000 admitted Communist Party members are only shock troops for the Marxist-Zionists who are the brains and directors of Communism while posing as loving, respectable men and philanthropists.

The Zionists set up Communism in 1917, as one of their fronts, to do a job for them. Zionists use Communism as the aggressive front to secure control of unions and other organizations with huge memberships so that those votes and power can be used to place Christian servants of Zionism in government key spots, to serve the Marxist program.

An Open Letter To All Americans:

Several of our friends have asked us about a book called "A Measure of Freedom," written by one Arnold Forster, an employee of the Anti-Defamation League.

This book, cheap in appearance and poorly written, is merely the annual report of that Zionist organization. We noted in a printed letter which we addressed "To All Americans" on February 15th that Forster's former name was Fastenberg, and that he had worked since 1940 for the Defamation League.

The book purports to be an expose of "hate-groups" in the United States. It discloses how the (Continued on Page 4)

Russia's perfecting the bomb, under the circumstances, at an early date was expected by many an ordinary citizen and by some of the soundest of America's military leaders. Why did it fool Truman and Johnson, the men who determine America's military future?

Evidently these men are surrounded and kept uninformed and misinformed. It is no longer possible to doubt either that U. S. Intelligence agencies are infiltrated by men influential enough to fool the President and Secretary of Defense, or else that civilian advisers are able to explain away and discount the warnings submitted by Intelligence.

One thing is certain about this business: Mr. Truman and Mr. Johnson do not understand the deception and trickery, and the racial character of Communism and its kinship to organized Zionism. These men lack the judgment to know whom they can trust. There is nothing more important in the making of a good executive than such judgment and its lack is a dangerous weakness.

In his recent speech before the American Bar Association Mr. Truman followed the Communist and the Zionist party line (which is the same line in almost every detail) from beginning to end. For example, he belittled Communism in America as a small, despised group, noisy but practically harmless and kept well in hand by Truman's men!

For years it has been part of the Communist and the Zionist line to publicly belittle the influence of Communism in America. During the recent war a lieutenant whose record in my Intelligence files showed him to be a Zionist and also a member of Communist fronts, belittled the Communists as "just a small articulate minority."

Who wrote that Communist speech for Mr. Truman? Who keeps fooling the President about Communism at home and the atomic progress of the Soviets?

Suspicion points to David Niles, born Neyhus, a man whose pro-Communist history is a matter of record. Niles, the son of Russian Jewish immigrants, was described by a not-unfriendly writer in the Saturday Evening Post December 24, 1949, as "Mr. Truman's Mystery." (Continued on Page 2)

Professor Of N. Y. U. Condemns United World Federalists

In his March 18, 1950 column, "Haney Answers Questions," appearing in the New York Journal-American, Louis Haney, Professor of Economics, at New York University, made the following discerning comments:

"New York asks: 'What do you think of the United World Federalists? Is their scheme for world government good?'"

"ANSWER: I think that the so-called United World Federalists organization is part of a subversive movement designed to destroy the free U. S. of America. The reasons why I think so are these:

- (1) The persons who participated in the organization of this thing are the same as those who have been sympathizers with Russia or Communism.
- (2) The propaganda used is much the same as the Communists. They play up the horrors of the atom bomb and atomic warfare. They urge peace at any price. They get women from the League of Women Voters to make speeches.
- (3) The plain logic of the case condemns them. In any such 'world government' the free peoples of the earth would not have a 25 percent of the total vote. Soviet Union would easily be predominant. Thus there would be peace only if we were controlled by the Communists."

Who Fooled Harry S. Truman?

Man." He is an ardent Zionist, instrumental in persuading the President to heed Zionist demands despite their un-American character. He was, for a number of years, the underling of master strategist Felix Frankfurter at the Ford Hall Forum in Boston, whence Soviet loving speakers radiated out all over America.

Niles once was arrested in Boston in connection with a Communist-inspired labor riot. The Saturday Evening Post writer did not mention that. He did, however, say it was Mr. Frankfurter who got Niles into the White House, introducing him to Franklin D. Roosevelt as the kind of strategist the President might find use for. From that time on Niles has been virtually the President's shadow.

NILES, "ACTING PRESIDENT"

The real story of the sinister power behind the administration, which keeps it obliging world Communism, was revealed, perhaps boastfully, by the Saturday Evening Post writer, a tribal kinsman of Mr. Niles:

"In his time, Niles has dispensed Federal patronage, built political machines and honey-combed the Government with his proteges. Many a Cabinet member or other top official today has an uneasy feeling that he might rise or fall on a casual word from Niles. Currently if he cared to, Niles could lay claim to master-minding the independence of Israel and President Truman's controversial civil rights program."

There we have the facts. The exceedingly crafty Mr. Niles, backed by all the power of the rich and frightfully organized minority machine, with Felix Frankfurter and international Jewish bankers James P. Warburg and Senator Herbert Lehman behind him, steers the President's hand as it writes and signs the decrees.

As for the controversial civil rights program, it is the very heart of the Communist-Zionist revolution, which is and always has been a racial revolution, glorifying itself in a cloud of welfare and social (or racial) uplift formulas, not only to hide its racial character but actually to subvert the white race (the "ruling class") inciting minorities to demand "rights" which little by little chisel away the unity and pride and tax the strength of the productive people and chain them down with regulations cooked up by such men as Niles and administered by Christian-hating Niles henchmen, many of them of the races which can be made to hate the white "reactionary" and "fascist" and "anti-Semite". The civil rights program is a rehearsal for the violent revolution.

The Post article revealed what had earlier been revealed by this and other writers: that Niles was the official spokesman to the President for "organized labor and all of the racial and religious minorities." In saying that Niles could claim credit for the civil rights program, the Post writer was saying (to those who understand the revolution) that Niles was father of the President's COMMUNIST program. Was it, then, through Mr. Niles that Moscow, on April 27, 1946, handed this program in its present form, to some 100 Communist fronts and Zionist groups in a meeting at Detroit, as the principal immediate objective? It would not be the first time a presidential adviser had been used by Moscow to shape the President's policies. It was Communist Alger Hiss who advised Mr. Roosevelt at Yalta and who principally drew up the United Nations charter, adopted at San Francisco. Communists do not offer such contributions without orders and guidance from Moscow.

Since the Detroit civil rights conference, the Communist Party's Civil Rights Congress and the Civil Rights Division of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the official Zionist organization, the American Jewish Congress, all have fought hysterically for what presently became Mr. Truman's civil rights program.

The Communists and Zionists could hardly show their hand more clearly if they showed Niles behind Truman in the movies and on television (to which they have such ready access.)

As Mr. Truman grows tired of problems over his head, Niles seems to gain influence. He was the President's constant companion during a three-weeks vacation in Florida, as Associated Press and other reports revealed. He writes some of the President's speeches and helps work over others.

Not long ago Rev. Kenneth Goff and Rev. Lawrence Reilly asked the President for an appointment in order to present a petition of 100,000 signatures asking that the Communist Party be outlawed. Goff is a former Communist, now lecturing and writing to combat the conspiracy. (It was he who last year put a "Murder, Inc." sign on the Soviet Embassy in Washington—and was fined in an American court for the act.) Recently Goff told me that the reply to their letter was on White House stationery, but was signed by David Niles.

"Niles tried for an hour and a half to get hold of our list of anti-Communists," Goff related. "He repeatedly assured us he would deliver it to the President in person. When that got him nowhere, he offered to deliver it to the Attorney General or some other appointee of the President. But Niles wouldn't let us see the President or the Attorney General or anyone but himself."

Here was a Zionist, with a pro-Communist record, with no title but the free run of the White House and the President's mail, holding the power to prevent known anti-Communists from talking with their President about how to save the country from Communism.

With Niles virtually Acting President, we have the maximum security risk. It will be dangerous to enter a war with him there, helping to shape policies and direct military operations.

Mr. Truman continues to appoint men pleasing to the Zionists. When he appointed and the Senate approved Thomas K. Finletter as Air Force Secretary Senator Herbert Lehman, one of the world's leading Zionists, commended the President and the Senate, saying "Mr. Finletter is an outstanding citizen of New York. I have known him intimately for a very long time."

Do you suppose the Senator who recently was able to carry the revolutionary ghettos of New York in an election, would say such kind words about any man who is effectively battling Communism, such as for instance, Senator Joe McCarthy?

The American people must forget about Washington and turn to themselves for leadership. We must proceed on the assumption that Washington either will be a political captive or bombed off the map when the time comes.

What to do to prepare? Patriotic leaders have failed repeatedly ever since the war to build an effective nationwide organization. Zionists and Communists and their plants, posing as patriots, have managed to nullify every effort. When American Action, Inc., was in the making, the smear bundists scared the uninformed and misguided people away from it. Time magazine, which had or has an enormous Communist cell inside its editorial office, ridiculed and misrepresented the patriotic move as if it were a Nazi project.

There is a plan by which we CAN organize with great promise of success if we will. It is similar to that devised by the late Secretary of Defense James Forrestal—who was harassed out of the Cabinet and to suicide by Winchell and Pearson and kept from putting the plan into operation. Forrestal's plan (at a time when the Secretary of Defense also was charged with internal security, before that responsibility was transferred by Niles and Truman to the weakling National Security Resources Board) was to direct police chiefs and sheriffs to organize hand-picked auxiliaries among the people.

ORGANIZE NOW

This is the right plan, except that we must forget about Washington and take the initiative in organizing ourselves round our local police and sheriffs and under our respective Governors.

It is preparation against internal seizure—and, if we are not faced with terrorist efforts to seize our industrial cities and the government when Communism strikes, it will be only because we will have taken suitable preventive steps.

A handful of terrorists, using the all powerful weapon, fear, paralyzed and captured Russian cities, posting their own police and ordinances, backed up by their highly trained goons. If the Russians had understood the revolution and had organized themselves quickly, round their police, and had taken the initiative in trying to recapture and free their cities, they would have crushed the secret police, whom they outnumbered 1000 to one. But they were tricked and did not act with sufficient initiative. The farmers, for example—always anti-Communist—remained largely on the defensive and were caught in small bands or at their homes and disposed of.

The only free power is in the American people. Washington is under a reign of terror, patriots forestalled by Reds and politically ambitious tools.

The Communist plan to capture American cities is one of extreme violence. The plan for seizure of Los Angeles, intercepted some three years ago, shows the pattern. It will be necessary only to turn mobs into the streets, suddenly assassinate a hundred or so generals, Senators, state and local political opponents and patriotic leaders, to paralyze almost all other leaders with fear. After that, 100,000 strategically placed secret police from the Communist Party and propagandists from the Anti-Defamation League can take over, unless we have a plan and organized cadres, led by men who will not be fooled by the enemy.

I say fooled, because the enemy will not attack as a COMMUNIST machine at first.

The victims will be branded as fascist plotters against the government and "democracy". Revolutionary spokesmen, appearing as the most patriotic liberals, will pose as anti-Communist, as heroes whose violence was necessary to prevent a fascist dictatorship. The seizure of power will be made to appear necessary to prevent the rise of some mythical Hitler. Whether the President is destroyed or told that the assassins saved his life by destroying the fascist threat, will not matter.

I present this picture not to be sensational, but because it is without doubt the essence of the plan of the Communist Party and the strategy of the far more powerful Zionist apparatus for taking over this country, and I have reason to believe that the strategists hope for success within the next two years.

One thing which has disturbed them is the successful penetration of the Communist apparatus by FBI agents. Revolutionary leaders evidently are afraid the FBI will intercept the order for action and round up tens of thousands of terrorists, preventing the coup. That is why the Communist National Lawyers Guild—and one of Secretary of State Acheson's old law partners—are trying to oust J. Edgar Hoover and replace him.

With Niles holding so much power, it may be that Hoover's popularity plus the intelligent elements in the military will not be able to keep the FBI head there forever.

The plan by which American citizens can defend their families, farms and cities, the plan which depends on local initiative, organizing round the police and looking to state Governors, is admittedly ambitious. But so is any plan that could frustrate and defeat the most powerful fifth column in history, now inside our borders. It is a sound plan, and we can make it succeed if we will work with city officials, police and community leaders, showing them the danger and offering our services. Here is a real project for the American Legion and the VFW, and you and me, to initiate.

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Enclosed find the usual small contribution to your noble work. I wish to express my deep regard for your courageous work and your unceasing effort to exterminate some of those two-legged rats who are working so assiduously to hand this nation over to Russia. Zionist Version Of The "Last Supper"

In true Anti-Christian fashion, Zionists here depict a mocking version of the Last Supper, so dear to Christians. This caricature, and others of a similar nature referred to in past issues of Common Sense, circulated widely by Zionists leaders in Communist controlled countries, illustrates once more the Anti-Christian character of Marxism, and that the primary aim of Communism and Zionism is to wipe Christianity from the face of the earth.

first World Government meeting (April 24th) neared, Mr. MacFarland issued a last minute written appeal to the Mayor, as the Chief Executive of the Municipality, which was negatively received.

All efforts to obtain an official remedy having failed, Mr. MacFarland inaugurated legal action by way of a Complaint in Equity. This named the City of Philadelphia, the Board of Trustees of the Free Library of Philadelphia, and UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS, INC., as defendants. It asked for a preliminary injunction restraining the later corporation from meeting in the Library on April 24th, 26th and 28th, and for a mandatory injunction preventing the organization from doing so at any time in the future.

In his Complaint, Mr. MacFarland cited the UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS, INC., as a sectarian-political corporation, operating for the purpose of abolishing our armed forces and subordinating our Government, its Congress and its Courts, to the rule of a World State authority. He did not challenge the organization's right to function or to propagate its program, but objected to its use of public property, supported by the tax money of many loyal citizens who are opposed to World Government, as a means of forwarding its proposals amongst the public. He also cited Article IX, Section 7, of the Pennsylvania Constitution, which he argued would be violated if the meetings were to go on. The provision prohibits the use of funds appropriated by the General Assembly by any corporation or individual. It was argued that the Library, by granting rent-free meeting space to UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS, INC., had, in fact, granted the equivalent of a cash subsidy to that group, paid for by the general taxpaying public.

Because of the lateness of the hour, and the death of a prominent Common Pleas Judge during that week, a hearing on the plea was held off until May 1st, at which date all meetings objected to had been held. Common Pleas Judge, James Gay Gordon, President of No. 2 Court, therefore dismissed the request for a preliminary injunction. He refused, however, to dismiss the plea for a mandatory injunction prohibiting future meetings of this kind. The case, instead, has been continued, much to the dismay of the UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS, INC.

Mr. MacFarland, who resides at 876 Granite Street, in Philadelphia, issued the following statement following today's preliminary hearing. He said:

"Our inability to present the case before the Court at an earlier date was a result of my sincere belief that a specific and responsible protest to City Council, the Library's Board of Trustees, and other City officials, would obtain a fair hearing. I would not believe that so flagrant a violation of the law could go unchallenged, if called to the attention of those whose duty it is to uphold the law.

"Now, of course," Mr. MacFarland continued, "we all know how things stand, and any future attempt by the UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS to misuse public property will result in immediate legal action."

Observance of "World Government Week" itself, must have been bitterly disappointing for its sponsors. Attendance at the three Library meetings was extremely poor, and all "question periods" following the speakers' remarks were cancelled. Press coverage of the meetings was extremely limited. A rather impressive police detachment provided curious comment in the quiet lecture room, while the speakers seemed to take special care in avoiding the usual assertions, heard at most World Government meetings, that national sovereignty and national independence stands in the way of world peace. The entire atmosphere bore a heavy, strained quality, while concert music was called upon to fill in a major part of the programs.

Asked what action would be taken in case of a final-dismissal of his plea for a mandatory injunction, MacFarland replied:

"If that happens, I shall ask the City Solicitor to bring this entire situation before a Philadelphia Grand Jury, with the view toward obtaining criminal indictments. If this also fails, I shall consider filing such charges on my own behalf, probably sometime in June."

The World Government Movement has been thrown onto the defensive in the shadows of Independence Hall. Perhaps it has not only to contend with living opponents, but also the stirring Spirits of those departed Patriots who here triumphed over other alien tyrants, more than a century and a half before us.

AMERICA . . . OUR COUNTRY

condemn Marx, Lenin, Trotsky, or the MARXIST PROGRAM. An example of this is the Marxist Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith. Not for five million dollars would the Anti-Defamation League support Senator McCarthy, but to disarm Christians, the A.D.L. poses as an anti-Communist group.

Communism is one of the lower degrees of Zionism. If the public is now becoming wise to Communism it makes little difference if the Zionists have to disavow it. Communism has done a job in conditioning the U. S. for Marxist Rule. Zionists are Marxists. Zionists who set up Communism in Russia find their front man Stalin getting ideas of his own, so like Tito the Zionists would like to bring him back in line, that accounts for the mild criticism forced from Zionist controlled groups.

The important point is: How many Marxist-Zionists are there in our government?

Word has gone out from the Sanhedrin to destroy the patriot, Senator McCarthy. Much money has been expended for snoopers to investigate his past history, in an effort to see if they can find anything embarrassing to McCarthy, in order to "blackmail" him into silence. Maybe he snatched up marbles at the playground at school? How can they frame him? Such Red publications as the New York Post and the Marxist sheet, The Compass, along with numerous parlor-pinks, so-called liberals, and Welfare State supporters, now brand McCarthy as a Nazi who defrauded on income tax . . . conspired as a Judge in Wisconsin to be transferred to another district for some "sinister" reason. Because he turned the spotlight on the Red Queers in our State Department, McCarthy is—so the Reds say—"subjecting our Country to ridicule by other countries." Could any thinking people in Europe still doubt that Washington is presently being run by lunatics and traitors? They must have been laughing themselves silly at the way the Administration has been shoveling taxpayers' money into all parts of the world, while our debt runs up to 260 billion direct debt, in addition to 300 billion indirect debt . . . hurrying us into bankruptcy so that the Marxists, waiting with a "plan", can TAKE OVER. All those whose tails wag at the mention of Karl Marx are against Senator McCarthy.

If each State could send a man to the Senate such as Wisconsin did, America would preserve her freedom.

We must remember that it is not necessary for the Marxists to crush everyone in order to set up slavery for all Christians . . . it is only necessary for them to crush our leaders. We must not allow the enemy to plant distrust of our leaders—those leaders of McCarthy's trustworthiness—in our minds. On the contrary, we must sustain them, or we will ALL go down.

Senator McCarthy has only scratched the surface so far.

An Open Letter To All Americans:

League spends its time and money. As a matter of fact, though we speak only for the National Economic Council, "A Measure of Freedom," is an attack on individuals that opposed American entrance into World War II, that have long opposed Communism, and that are fighting to maintain the American Republic. In brief, what purports to be an expose of hate groups is a self-exposure of the hate the author and his kind have for essential American principles and traditions.

The contents of the book is a rehash of old and dull stuff which is without either significance, or important. By lifting excerpts from their context, it misinterprets statements we have made in the past and thus falsifies the record.

Back in 1943, the late Paul Shoup, then President of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association of Los Angeles, and formerly President of the Southern Pacific Railroad, gave a large luncheon for me at the California Club in Los Angeles. As I sat by him at luncheon he related to me that no less than fifty telephone calls had come to his office the past few days, warning him that I was a "Fascist" and an "AntiSemite." The incident was closed when he, or his secretary, told them that if they had any information, the place to take it was the F.B.I. Mr. Shoup knew that "Fascist" and "AntiSemite" are simply epithets applied by certain elements to persons who oppose Communism.

The book contains outright falsehoods and false inferences. It aims to intimidate contributors to the Council by publicly listing certain names.

If there is to be an Anti-Defamation League for Zionist-Americans, why not one for the English-Americans, the Italian-Americans, the German-Americans, and so on? The answer is, first, that no other group in America takes itself so seriously—none other demands rights (including the "right" to "smear" with impunity) that others do not exercise; and, second, since so many of these Zionists have been in the forefront of movements to undermine the principles of the American Republic, to the advantage of Communism, it is a fair inference that all this shouting about "Anti-Semitism" is merely a smoke-screen to cover what the authors of this Zionist hatred are doing to America.

We have always made the distinction between Zionists and the great mass of Jews, many of whom (like the American Council for Judaism) have been attacked even more bitterly than ourselves by the Zionists.

We are Christians and we hate nobody. But we detest the sly, insinuating, intimidating cowardice that this book and other Zionist writings exhibit and which, we regret to say, is so often practiced the length and breadth of the land, but especially in certain cities on the Eastern seaboard. We note with interest that no daily publication has given wider publicity to Forster's book than the Communist Daily Worker. Still Zionists say they should not be bracketed with Communists.

We think, as many distinguished non-Zionist Jews think, that the Zionists are digging their own grave. The pity is that their selfishness may lead to the destruction of our Republic.

For twenty years we have fought as hard as we know how for the preservation of the Republic. That means the preservation of private competitive enterprise, private property and individual initiative. It means the preservation of American independence.

This country can be saved for the great mass of the American people, most of them men and women of small or moderate means, but who want their children to have the same opportunities they have enjoyed.

We will not stop to turn back. We never have. We will continue the fight—undeterred by the yappings of alien-minded persons who seek the complete control of all America for themselves and care not what means they use to attain their end. We will not be diverted by their falsehood and innuendo. We will tell the truth as we see the truth. And we will be heard.

With the aid of Almighty God and the support of loyal Americans, we will help save American liberty for Christian and Jew alike.

Anti Defamation League

type racketeer who threatened the small business man unless he paid protection money. The ADL seems to operate on the same principle. The ADL thrives through magnifying and distorting anti-Jewish activity in order that it may shake down its fellow Jew under the guise of protection. There are many Jews (but not enough) who see through the Professional Jew and recognize him for what he is. There are a few organizations like the AMERICAN COUNCIL FOR JUDAISM who arouse the wrath of the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE because they refuse to become Professional Jews.

This new ADL book not only attacks persons who are not Jewish but it also attacks Jews who express independent opinions on public matters. On page 96 of the ADL book we find the following: "A scurrilous piece captioned THE WHEEL OF HATE appeared in the March 1949 issue of the monthly magazine PROGRESSIVE. In it Milton Mayer, who is himself Jewish, libelled Jewish Organizations as 'blood-drinkers' for their alleged stand on the Gieseking (famous German pianist) matter. Unfortunately one big city newspaper (Chicago Tribune?) saw fit to repeat the defamation by reprinting Mayer's outpourings in condensed form."

On page 67 we find another attack: "In 1947 (Merwin K.) Hart continued to add to his record of hostility toward Jews. Twice in that year he lent the pages of his ECONOMIC COUNCIL LETTER to anti-Zionist, anti-Jewish diatribes by the peculiar Benjamin Freedman. Born a Jew, Freedman, writing in the December 15, 1947, issue, maligned a large section of the Jewish population by asserting that 'American-Jewish supporters of political Zionism are guilty of un-American activities.'"

On page 80 of the ADL book Mr. Forster writes: "Organized anti-Semitism is any planned activity deliberately designed to undermine the security and welfare of the Jewish community." Mr. Forster does not tell his gullible readers that actually there is no organized anti-Semitism in the United States. That a great many of the "leaders" he attacks "paddle their own canoe."

That many of them are filled with egocentric mania so that organization is utterly impossible. Even the threat of dictatorship from some of the so-called "anti-Semites" would be doomed to failure since these individuals lack the rigid discipline (to the point of self-sacrifice) which the Communist party maintains. In short there is no vitality in the deceptive term which Mr. Forster exploits—"Organized anti-Semitism."

After a careful perusal of the ADL book the reader might ask: "Just who is Mr. Forster kidding?" and the answer (if the reader will think it through) becomes apparent—"Mr. Forster is kidding (shaking down) the people who contribute the seven to ten million dollars each year to the ADL and other organizations and individuals who make it big business by being Professional Jews. The Anti-Defamation League book is called A MEASURE OF FREEDOM. Mr. Forster would have named it well if he had called it A MEASURE OF HYPOCRISY."

Note to our readers: This bulletin and its editor are mentioned in the new ADL report. We have the smear without having the gain—The ADL claims that U. S. anti-Semites raised over $1,000,000.00 last year. Quite a tidy sum with most of it being collected by a few individuals. Since the ADL continues to list us we could very easily give them something to crow about if we were fool enough to fall into their trap. We could quote (on the Jewish Question) from many of the great masters like William Shakespeare, Voltaire, Lord Byron, Charles Dickens, Hilaire Belloc, Major Francis Yeats-Brown, Benjamin De Casseres, Henry L. Mencken, and Feodor M. Dostoevsky to name but a few of the great and honored of the world's writers. But why be fool enough to help racketeers raise more millions.

It is significant in the ADL book that there is no outright condemnation of Communism, Socialism, New Dealism (three shades of Marxism) which threaten the United States and World Peace nor is there any warning against World Government or the other kindred groups which are out to destroy the security and the sovereignty of the United States under the guise of high-sounding but meaningless phrases.

The Trojan Horse In The U. S. A.!

High Treason

By Kenneth Goff, formerly leader in the Communist Party. (While a Communist, he was invited by Eleanor Roosevelt to be a guest at the White House.)

An appalling situation exists today—as anyone who attempts to save our government, by exposing the traitors in its ranks becomes immediately the object of a high powered smear brigade. They bring down upon themselves, the ridicule of many big-wigs in the Federal Government, including the President; and millions of dollars are spent to blacken them in the public-eye. They are branded with the labels: smear-bund, red-baiter, fascist and manufacturer's stooge.

These hoodlum and gangster tactics on the part of the Fair-Deal Leaders is throwing fear into the Anti-Communist camp, and causing many a former Communist who could be a valuable witness for the Government, to remain silent rather than to be exposed to this high-powered abuse.

The latest patriot to become the object of these Red gangsters, and their Fair-Deal pals, is Senator McCarthy. Our hats must go off to this brave Senator, who is willing to walk into this batch of rattlesnakes and attempt to drive them out of the citadels of our liberty.

What Joe McCarthy is attempting to tell the American public is more than true.

These evil bands of Red traitors, have been at work in our State Department since 1935, and during the last 10 years have betrayed into the Kremlin's hands, over one-third of the earth's surface, and have subjected about one billion people to Totalitarian slavery.

For years they have been laying the groundwork for the recent victory of Communism in China. As far back as June 6, 1945, this was brought to light when the F.B.I. raided the Amerasia Office in New York and found more than 100 files of top secrets and highly confidential documents which had been stolen from the State and War Departments; Many of them showing the disposition of all the units in Chiang Kai Shek's Army—information which would be of priceless value to the Chinese Communist. Following the raid, six high officials of the State Department: KATE L. MITCHELL, PHILIP J. JAFFEE, MARK J. GAYN, JOHN S. SERVICE, E. S. LARSEN, and ANDREW ROTH, were arrested.

Although the Department of Justice had the real goods on these traitors; the case was suddenly hushed up. Then came the revelations of Whittaker Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley, concerning a Red Cell in the State Department, headed by Alger Hiss.

Although this testimony was pooh-poohed by Harry Truman and Dean Acheson, a Federal Jury found Hiss guilty of Treason.

Today, the facts are clear that there are over fifty-seven high officials of the State Department who are members of the Communist Party, and over 800 smaller personnel. This constitutes a powerful Trojan Horse in one of the most vital departments of our Government.

The President knows how serious the situation is. He knows that the Federal establishment is literally loaded with Communists, Communist Frontiers, and Soviet Agents.

In refusing to submit loyalty files to Congressional Investigators, is but a little short of condoning treason.

Will Christianity Be Set Back 500 Years?

Marxists Know How To Use Tolerance, "Brotherhood" and Smear as Weapons.

It is obvious that even Christian leaders in the upper strata have become so charmed by materialism and the deceptive propaganda of "tolerance" launched by Marxists that they accept money from those definitely identified with Marxist, anti-Christian forges. These Christian leaders do not realize that the contributions Marxists make to Christian appeals are the means of insuring the silence of Christian leaders who should be fulfilling their responsibility to millions of Christians looking to them for guidance and leadership in this dark hour of crisis. To our knowledge, most of these donors have accumulated their money by evading the law—to say the least.

When Christian Shepherds-of-the-Flock accept large contributions for building or remodeling of Churches, dedicated to the worship of Christ, knowing that the donors are identified with the group of Marxists who have been taught during their young, impressionable years that Jesus Christ is responsible for all their troubles, what can these Christian Ministers believe is the motive for such enormous contributions?

This tolerance and "brotherhood" propaganda is developed and launched by the Marxist forces and carried on by Christian dupes who gladly front for this racket believing that they are doing something worthwhile for goodwill among men. The truth is, this "brotherhood" racket is the most powerful arm the cunning Marxists use for preventing Christians from criticizing the Marxists while Marxists—with Communism as one of their many fronts—condition our United States for rule by the same Godless gang which now rules Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, the U.S.S.R., China, Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia. (Write COMMON SENSE for names of the Zionist rulers in these countries.)

Do not the guardians of Christianity realize Marxism and all its fronts (Communism, Zionism, Socialism, Fabianism, and World Government) are the creation of the same anti-Christian people from whom they accept contributions and that this group of Marxists head every one of the Screaming headlines—day after day. Espionage! Intrigue! Treason! What does it all mean? What has happened during the last twenty years to create such unthinkable conditions in our great nations?

The New Dealers—the Fair Dealers—and their defenders on the radio and in journalism—try to laugh off these amazing revelations of intrigue. This obviously is no laughing matter. Facts have been uncovered—and are regularly being discovered that make thinking people shudder.

The $64 question WHO—and what—is behind all this trouble. Certain things stand out. One is the dates—as revealed by testimony and record. The Communist "underground" began to penetrate Government early in 1934—about a year after Roosevelt's first election—when Harold Ware planted the first Red cell in a Government department. From then on the record unfolds violently up through the New Deal thirties and forties.

Can any thinking person possibly escape the conclusion that this all traces to the Roosevelt-Frankfurter revolution in America? Whittaker Chambers, Louis Budenz, Elizabeth Bentley and all the others who had ringside seats as the Trojan Horse was pulled inside the "gates of Troy" have given us a long list of interesting names. Hiss - Pressman - Witt - Abt - Silverman - Silvermaster - Ullman - and others of similar cast ad infinitum—came pouring into Government jobs through Felix Frankfurter—or with his influence. What we were getting was a Frankfurter Deal—and it was a tragic deal for America.

Every effort has its cause—its source. Look closely. Many of those who served in this strange un-American underworld cabal had good old-fashioned names. That is what makes the problem so confusing and difficult for the average citizen. It is hard for them to believe that old-stock Americans—highly educated and well situated—would want to hurt our country. Actually, few of them would, until they come under the mesmerizing influence of alien conspirators. For 150 years we had essentially no subversive danger in this country. The Communist problem in this nation dates back only to 1919. The "Communists-in-government" threat dates back only to 1933.

It is hard for our people to grasp the meaning of this new and alarming situation. They are waking up—but slowly. Greater factual awareness is badly needed. People are gradually learning about the trickery and meaning of the alien Communist movement. They are finding that it is NOT a political party—that it is NOT a labor movement—that it is NOT a philosophy nor ideology. They are beginning to understand that it is nothing more nor less than an international CONSPIRACY seeking power and control.

For the purpose of our examination here it may be pointed out that this Communist-conspiracy functions on three levels. One—is through organizations known as "fronts"; two—through its "open party" activities (which are not so open); three—through what is called "the underground." (1) The "front organizations" which have high-sounding names to espouse "good causes" are used to bring "liberals" into action in various ways to support objectives that further the Communist purpose. They also serve as "transmission belts" to propel certain liberals on into the Communist Party. (2) The "open party" is that section of the apparatus that functions to give the appearance of being "a political party"—a "labor movement" or the real McCoy of "socialism."

MANY OF THE MEMBERS of this part of the Communist framework do not know of the so-called Communist countries in which there has been the liquidation of thousands of clergymen, the raping and slavery of thousands of Christian people and the imprisonment—and final insanity of—such great Christian leaders as Cardinal Mindszenty? On the ground Christ trod and made sacred as the Holy Land, the same anti-Christians (according to eye witness testimony of clerical members) are already erasing many signs of Christianity. What is the Christian flock to think of that? What is Christ to think of it?

What can there be in common between Christian Ministers and Marxists, who have been required while young to study 10 hours a week, for six years, a set of books (religious?) which violate the criminal laws of every country? Those books teach today that Jesus Christ was the lowest form of human being, a rapist and worse. Hundreds of pages are devoted to forming hate of The Holy One millions worship as their Savior. Those books boast that Christ was justly crucified; they advocate murder and incest. That is the basis of Marxism; the same type of Marxism which rules our Department of State and Department of Labor, to name but two.

How can Marxism be resisted while millions of Christian people look for guidance to leaders who have been "neutralized" by contributions, favors, and flattery by the brains of Marxism? Surely, Christian leaders have a grave responsibility to appoint a committee to study the source of the Marxist, anti-Christ theory if we are to escape the bitter fate of Christians in at least 15 other countries now under Zionist-Marxist-Communist control. Because Christianity can now be practiced in the U. S. without interference does not mean that this will be so in 1951 or 1952.

Guardians of the Faithful: If our Christian Country is to be saved, it is very important that you quickly realize the source of Marxism and hasten to make it known to all Christians.

Christianity is on the verge of being set back at least 500 years, and this can readily be proven by men who have devoted as much as 20 years intensive study to the subject.

These specialists offer their time—free—in service to our Lord, and can be reached through COMMON SENSE. Those Christian leaders in the eastern section of the U. S., who have been trapped into silence should work out of the trap quickly if they are to be an inspiration to the Millions who will soon have to decide if they are with Christ, or with his enemies.

Let us be willing to take up the Cross now, smear or no smear.

"It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other labor group, has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses, we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them."

—From Earl Browder's book "What is Communism?" Browder was top leader of the Communist Party in the United States for 16 years.

Everyone wishes to have truth on his side, but it is not everyone who sincerely wishes to be on the side of truth. — Whately.

During the first twelve years of the Communist dictatorship in Russia, there were executed twenty-eight bishops, 1,219 priests, 6,000 teachers, 9,000 doctors, 54,000 officers, 200,000 soldiers, 70,000 policemen, 12,950 land owners, 355,250 intellectuals and professional men, 193,290 workers, and 815,000 peasants.

TO OUR FRIENDS

Our trial which was originally scheduled for May 8th and postponed to May 16th, has now been postponed to June 13th. The enemy is determined to put the editor in jail or stop the paper in some way and is sparing no time or expense to accomplish it.

It is the same old story. Everyone who opposes these Marxists anti-Christians finds himself accused of some mean act so as to put him on the defensive and cause his friends to desert him—to name just a few: Congressman Martin Dies, Senator Bob Wheeler, Senator Nye, Col. Charles Lindbergh, Father Coughlin, the thirty patriots accused of being seditionists and who were prosecuted and persecuted by "Red" John Rogge of the Attorney General's Office during the reign of F. D. R., Congressman Parnell Thomas, Senator McCarthy. And now they are trying to put Joe Kamp in jail for four months because he refuses to divulge the names of his supporters so the Anti-Defamation League can give them to Walter Winchel (Israel Lipschitz) to broadcast and thereby shut off support of Mr. Kamp so he cannot further expose the traitors of the country.

Marxists know all that is necessary to secure control of the United States is to beat down the few leaders who have the courage to stand up and expose them for what they are. They will never debate or answer exposures—they believe in free speech for themselves only. Before taking over any European country, they crushed the leaders first, and are confident they can do the same in the United States.

The mysterious guiding influence which frames up and launches persecution or prosecution in such cases is the Anti Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. If the reader would like the interesting history of this Gestapo in action, order from COMMON SENSE the booklet "The Anti Defamation League and Its Use in World Communist Offensive" by former counter-intelligence officer Major Robert H. Williams, or "Mice or Men" by Joe Kamp.

Mr. Thomas F. Hueston, a prominent attorney of the firm Hueston & Frank will handle our case. Trial will be in Elizabeth Court House on June 13th.

We ask our friends to assist us in this trial in any way possible—by prayer, by spreading the truth, by financial aid. If each of our readers will do what he can to the best of his ability, with the grace of God, we will win.

IT'SThe ZIONISTS

By: Judge George W. Armstrong

Fearlessly debunking the "chosen people" claim of the Zionists, this vividly compelling book sets forth facts to prove that the Zionist problem has faced every nation since the time of Pope Gregory IX in the 13th century.

Stating that "it is difficult for the Christian mind to conceive the depravity of the Talmud and the Protocols," Judge Armstrong writes fully on both, showing their relationship -- the Talmud being the philosophy of the Zionists; the Protocols their plan of action.

This "plan of action" has, under Roosevelt and Truman, been 18 years of Zionist rule -- a rule by cunning minds which have used as "Zionist presidents" men with "dark, undiscovered stains."

Every Talmudic trick, and bit of treachery, is clearly told in The ZIONISTS, which covers the entire Marxist plan. Send for your copy at once!

The Trojan Horse In The U. S. A.!

deadly intrigue the Communist hierarchy is really carrying on. They have joined because they have been indoctrinated with hate for the existing order of private enterprise (private capitalism) and they believe that the "socialism" promised by the double-talking Communists will bring Utopia. Secret meetings and a general conspiratorial atmosphere that goes with the Communist apparatus in any form seem to have mesmerizing or hypnotic effect upon people who were once good Americans. They become the willing agents of a seductive political voodooism that holds them in a messianic spell where they feel they are crusaders for a new and better world.

(3) The Communist "underground" is a mysterious and diabolical mechanism serving the villainous purpose of undermining all non-Communist existing order to bring it under domination of Soviet Russia. From time to time these underworld Soviet agents reach into the open party and take a member who they feel can serve conspiratorial machinations. Such was the case when Whittaker Chambers was taken into Communist underground work.

WHITTAKER CHAMBERS did not go into Communist underground activities on his own initiative. True—it was his own frustration that led him into the Communist apparatus—but he was drafted into underground work by Communist Max Bedacht. Before he was allowed to take on highly important duties, however, he was sent to Dr. Philip Rosenbleitt, a dentist. This presumably was to have his teeth fixed but actually, Chambers says, it was to have Rosenbleitt size him up. Soon Chambers was getting his instructions from a top Communist boss known as "J. Peters" but whose real name seems to have been either Boorstein or Goldberger. Both names appear in the records of the official investigators. It was this sinister, mysterious and furtive little alien who introduced Chambers to Harold Ware—and it was at this meeting in 1934 that Chambers says he first heard the name of Hiss.

HAROLD WARE was a hardened radical who had moved forward into Communism through the training he got from his mother—a veteran revolutionist who now, in her eighties, is idolized in Communist circles as "Mother Bloor." Harold Ware, after a few trips to Moscow, graduated from the regular party activity to underground work. Soon after the Frankfurter boys began to overflow the departments in Washington, it became clear to the Communists that here was a fertile field. Ware was given the job of organizing Communist cells in Government bureaus. His work—and his success—was with the Frankfurter boys—as the record shows. But again it is to be noted that behind Harold Ware was the skulking alien Communist boss—"J. Peters."

ELIZABETH BENTLEY, who served the underground as a courier, was influenced into that work by one Jacob Golos. She had learned about socialism at Vassar—and became affiliated with the League for Industrial Democracy, the socialist organization out of which most of the top New Deal brain trust came. Later she joined a Communist front group known as the American League Against War and Fascism (which became the American League for Peace and Democracy)

—then she joined a Communist Party unit that functioned at Columbia University (New York). Through Golos she became a courier for the Soviet underground, picking up government documents regularly at the home of one Gregory Silvermaster who was then a highly paid bureaucrat in the Farm Security Administration. This Department was a nest for radicals.

ONE OF THE MOST RAVAGING RESULTS that came from the under-surface collusion of Communist cells and Roosevelt-Frankfurter brain-trusters was the Wagner Labor act which was designed mainly to pave the way for the CIO reign of terror. Senator Wagner was a product of the same New York environment that fathered the New Deal revolution. It was out of New York City's alien colonization that the Communist movement has been cultured as a menace to this nation. It is time that America begins to understand the roots of its problem.

The Wagner Labor act was one of the most un-American and pernicious pieces of legislation ever passed in this country. It was Communistic—it was criminal in its implications—it was brutally harmful to our traditional American way of life. It gave the Communists their greatest opportunity. Whittaker Chambers and others have testified concerning Nathan Witt and Lee Pressman—and they have refused to state to a Congressional committee whether or not they are Communists. That in itself is conclusive. These two with their Communist underlings (with certain collaborative Socialists mixed in) dominated the New Deal labor board—and pushed this nation into a reign of lawlessness and terror (in the holy name of "labor") not known since the Communards set up their barricades in the streets of Paris over a hundred years ago. It is not possible here to go into the almost unbelievable expansion of Communism in "labor" (particularly in CIO) as a result of the Roosevelt-Frankfurter revolution. Thousands of Communists have been uncovered in key union jobs—and thousands are still there.

THIS WAS A RUTHLESS COMBINATION. The Government bureaucrats wrote the laws and compelled their passage to give unlimited power to "labor" as a coverage for social and political revolution. The Communists, working and collaborating with the New Dealers (as the records now show) gave the whole revolution its needed touch of violence and terror. The outcome has been—exactly what was planned—a "government within a government" of militant and ruthless labor leaders who today have business men and politicians in the palms of their hands. Every thinking citizen who loves his country will work ceaselessly to break this malignant monopoly.

Another vicious thing that came from the Roosevelt-Frankfurter revolution (as the aftermath of a war that cost us FIVE HUNDRED BILLION DOLLARS) was the Morgenthau plan for destroying industrial Germany. This not only destroyed the best bulwark to defend Europe from Soviet aggression—but rendered Germany unable to feed its own citizens and made them dependents of American taxpayers. The man who helped Morgenthau devise this "hate" program of demolition was Harry Dexter White (born Weiss in Boston), special assistant to Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau during the Roosevelt regime. He was also one of the main architects of the Bretton Woods post-war monetary scheme. White died mysteriously when his record began to be uncovered after Elizabeth Bentley testified before a Congressional investigating committee in 1948 that he was a member of the "elite" Communist group in Washington.

HERE IS ANOTHER MARK of the insolence characteristic of the New Deal-Communist intermarriage. As official investigators have been interrogating many of those who have "been caught up with"—the generally adopted strategy is to refuse to answer pertinent questions on the premise that to do so "might incriminate me."

This new "escape gimmick" is a symptom of our tragic period—and shows how far we have departed from our original moral standards and American forthrightness. To use any such excuse for not answering pertinent questions is in itself an admission of wrongdoing. When any witness refuses to answer the question "Have you ever been affiliated with the Communist movement?" you can put it down then and there that he has.

NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER was one of the intellectuals who first joined the Roosevelt-Frankfurter Farm Security Administration—then was on the Maritime Labor Board—then was in the Agriculture Department—then in the Treasury Department—then in War Assets Administration. All of these were critical posts highly important from certain angles. An investigation should be made, even at this late date, of the disposition of millions of dollars worth of "war assets" (machinery of all kinds). But as to Silvermaster—he was one who refused to answer certain questions because of the danger of self-incrimination. Both Bentley and Chambers testified as to Silvermaster's tie-up with the Communist underground. The Civil Service Commission had a report on Silvermaster that showed his deep Communist involvement—and yet he was allowed a free and wide range in important government jobs. Former Congressman Fred Busbey made a long and detailed report on the Civil Service Commission and its "screening" methods that showed clearly why and how Communists and members of their "brotherhood" got the strategic jobs that they wanted.

CHINA WAS BUT ONE of the continuous concessions and appeasements by the Roosevelt-Frankfurter regime from the day that FDR "recognized" the bank robber from Tiflis early in 1943. Another tragic appeasement was at Teheran (1943) when Roosevelt sided with Stalin against Churchill who wanted the "second front" to be an invasion up through the "soft underbelly" of Europe—meaning up through the Balkan region. This would have left U.S. and British troops in control of all that area at the end of the war and would have had a highly restraining influence on the Soviet plan to dominate all of Europe after we destroyed her main European enemy—Germany. The only obvious answer to our stupidity in not foreseeing exactly what would follow the war with the Soviet's known plan for world conquest is that we were at the mercy of a strange President who was being cleverly manipulated and persuaded by the Left-wingers with whom he loved to surround himself.

A TRAGIC DEVELOPMENT of the Roosevelt-Frankfurter cataclysm is the current problem of LOYALTY. There was no question of this kind to bedevil this country prior to the visitation of the so-called New Deal. But now we have it. Frightened citizens are demanding loyalty oaths and loyalty tests for public officials—teachers—and others who have power in the molding of our destiny. Significantly the "loyalty" question was recognized by Congress when in 1939 it passed the Hatch Act that forbade Federal employing of subversives. About the same time Whittaker Chambers was trying unsuccessfully to get President Roosevelt to take cognizance of the Communist "underground" in Government. By 1941 Congress, alarmed at New Deal conditions in Washington, included provisions in appropriation bills against paying money to subversive employees. As a result certain loyalty checkups became necessary. By 1946 Truman was impelled to set up the President's Temporary Commission on Employee Loyalty—composed of department personnel.

Finally the disclosures became so hot—and rising public indignation so bitter—that President Truman issued on March 21, 1947 his Executive Order 9835 creating a makeshift system of loyalty investigation. This leaves the "investigation" of personnel largely up to Department heads—with a kind of super Loyalty Review Board of 20 individuals headed by Seth Richardson, a law partner of Joseph Davies who wrote the much touted pro-Soviet book "Mission to Moscow." Senator Tydings (Del.) now heading a Senate sub-committee striving to discredit Senator McCarthy's charges concerning Owen Lattimore and others, is a stepson-in-law of the same Mission-to-Moscow Davies.

These "loyalty boards" set up by President Truman to placate an aroused public are clearly farcical and ineffective as shown by the record. THE IMPORTANT POINTS IN ALL OF THIS for those Americans who want to keep this country out of Soviet clutches are:

The Communist functionaries in this country have been able to create considerably sympathetic and helpful influence for their purpose by mobilizing "fellow travelers" by setting up deceptive "front organizations"—and by such social appeals as "tolerance"—"liberalism"—"brotherhood"—"peace"—"democracy"—"civil rights"—and so on.

Our State Department (where the Hiss cable functioned) has made a mess of our foreign policy from which Moscow has profited while capturing one-third of the world.

Foreigners Rule Britain

Republished from the weekly "Free Britain", London.

In this issue we look to Parliament. We look to it, as one looks for a needle in a hay stack, to raise just one voice against the Jewish occupation of this country.

We are not speaking of the Jews in the Black Market or their financial activities. This country is in fact occupied as a beaten nation would expect to be occupied by its conquerors. For it is a clear case of such occupation

- - - when key positions in the Cabinet itself are held by Jews of Communist leanings
- - - when the Trade Unions are riddled with Jewish Communist strike leaders.
- - - when the B.B.C. gives out pro-communist propaganda under its Jewish Chairman and Jewish vice-Chairman.
- - - when the national newspapers, in their efforts to combat Communism, dare not reveal the one damning fact that the real purpose behind Communism is to prepare the way for a Jewish World State.
- - - when even the Conservative Party had, until recently, its information Service supervised by Jews, and omits the most effective argument of all in its half-hearted efforts to combat Communism.

The names of these Jews have been published, most of them in previous issues of FREE BRITAIN. But here again are those to which we now refer:

Minister of Defense—SHINWELL
Minister of Supply—STRAUSS

Dock Strike Leaders—GOLDBLATT
(1949)

—MALETTA
—BLANKENZEE
—BLOMBERG
—DAVIS
—POPE

B.B.C. Chairman and vice-chairman —LORD SIMON —LADY READING

C.O.I. — MOSS

Conservative Central Office

Propaganda Section — COHEN

and (until recently) — CLAVERING and these are only a few.

From the continued silence in Parliament you would think that the whole House, so full of solicitude for the natives of other lands, must believe in Home Rule for every country except Britain. While rushing through a programme of complete independence for the coloured people throughout the world, your politicians are fastening upon you the International Control of the United Nations and the Council of Europe—backed by an occupying force of Internationalists of alien blood and Communist sympathies.

You may well ask how it can happen. One explanation is that both Parliament and the people of this country are in fact pre-occupied with side issues. At this moment when the nation needs to stand united against the common enemy, it is no accident that it is divided as never before on purely industrial issues. It is the old policy of "Divide and Rule" as laid down in the Protocols of the Elders of Zion—the Jews' blue print of their Super World Government which was drawn up (or revised by their leaders over fifty years ago. Here they say:

"In order to distract people who may be too troublesome from discussion of questions of the political we are now putting forward what we allege to be new questions of the political, namely, questions of industry. In this sphere let them discuss themselves silly."

The last election was fought purely on these "questions of industry" and there was no discussion of any question that would embarrass the Occupying Power. Are we not right, therefore, in saying that Britons cannot afford at this moment to quarrel among themselves over the rival claims of Socialism and Conservatism or any other "Isms"? There are, and we know it, sound men in all parties in both Houses of Parliament who would not lie down under this alien Occupation but for the fact that they have been blinded and side-tracked by these "questions of industry"—questions which can quite well wait while an All-British Coalition undertakes the more urgent task of placing the affairs of the country once more in British hands. Let a mere handful of British M.P.'s from both sides of the House make a start.

Defend Your Country, Its Flag And Constitution

SUPPORT "THE PHILADELPHIA RESOLUTION" (H. Res. 596)

The menace of a World Socialist Government is very real and near. By misrepresentation and clever "behind-the-scenes conduct" with numbers of high office holders in both our National and State Governments, the leading pressure group for World Government—UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS, INC.—has managed to have its disloyal program approved by 110 U. S. Congressmen, 22 U. S. Senators and 20 State Legislatures! Only in recent months has there been evidence of a slow, general awakening to the danger.

On March 21, 1950, there was drafted in Philadelphia, the Birthplace of the Republic, a measure which, if adopted by Congress, could write out the DEATH WARRANT FOR THE ENTIRE WORLD GOVERNMENT SCHEME. Known as "The Philadelphia Resolution," this measure was introduced into the House of Representatives, on May 10, 1950, by Representative LAWRENCE H. SMITH (R., Wisconsin). It was immediately referred to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs for action.

Officially known, now, as House Resolution 596, "The Philadelphia Resolution" expresses the unalterable opposition of the House of Representatives to any and all plans or schemes for the establishment of a World State. Furthermore it opposes the strengthening of any foreign-dominated organizations as may already exist, or the creation of new councils and assemblies of this kind, which tend toward the further destruction of the Sovereignty of the American People.

"The Philadelphia Resolution" MUST NOT "DIE" IN COMMITTEE, but must be granted PUBLIC HEARINGS THIS YEAR! Your immediate aid is needed to obtain such action. Write to your Congressman TODAY for a copy of House Resolution 596. Tell him that you support this measure as a means of placing Congress on record for keeping our Country FREE AND INDEPENDENT, and ask him to join Rep. Smith in signing it and working for its adoption. Then, write to:

Hon. John W. Kee, Chairman,
House Committee on Foreign Affairs, House Office Building,
Washington, D. C.

Demand that Rep. Kee schedule IMMEDIATE PUBLIC HEARINGS on "The Philadelphia Resolution" (H. Res. 596), and tell him why you support it. Then, for further data and information on how the Resolution progresses, keep in touch with W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., 876 Granite St., Philadelphia 24, Pa.

Don't Leave Your Money To A Parrot

A short while ago the papers carried the picture of a man in California who left $40,000 to his parrot. Many other people use judgment not quite so foolish but still give no thought to the kind of a country their loved ones are going to live in. This life on earth is interesting, but those of us who stop rushing long enough to contemplate the effects of the evil anti-Christian forces realize that this period of carefree apparent pleasure is not for long.

All of us will be called upon to leave this world some day. What could be more patriotic and worthy than to provide to carry on the work of COMMON SENSE? Our purpose is to expose the traitors of Christianity and America no matter where we find them. If they are not stopped in their insane plan to rule the world, sooner or later all will be lost—all personal or church property, all religious institutions will be "liquidated" or taxed out of existence, all freedom will disappear, and we will be virtual slaves to a vicious, Satanic authority. Keep America free. Keep America Christian. Let us preserve America for Americans. Provide for it now and after death. What better heritage could be passed on to future generations?

On September 9, 1927, Uncle Joe, the Soviet Dictator, in his friendly, good-neighborly way, told an American Labor Delegation that, "The Party can not be neutral toward religion, and it does conduct anti-religious propaganda against all and every religious prejudice."

The Trojan Horse

Our troubles with Communism started with the Roosevelt-Frankfurter revolution and take-over.

Various official investigating bodies have revealed an orgy of espionage and treasonable acts within our own Government.

Our nation, as the result of misadventure and maladministration, is today facing the greatest crisis of its entire history.

The only possible way in which our Constitutional government and our traditional American way of life can survive is by the WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

This WILL OF THE PEOPLE arises out of (and only out of) wide awareness and realistic understanding of the FORCES and PROCESSES now at work undermining us—plus a great spiritual revival of militant devotional AMERICANISM.

YOUR DUTY AS A CITIZEN is to enlist now as a soldier in this battle for the great traditions bequeathed to you by our founding fathers. Let there be no hatred in your heart for any individual because of race, religion or creed—but let there be determined enmity and intention toward any bloc (regardless of race, religion, or creed)—any organized movement—any pressure cable—or any government administration that seeks to destroy the American way of life as one generation succeeding another has built it in the pattern and in the spirit that represents not only our own choice—but the best in organized society that has ever been known on this earth.

WHAT CAN YOU DO? When you hear a radio commentator digging at the principles on which you stand—write his sponsor. When you find a newspaper (or a columnist) compromising on vital American traditions—register your complaint. Do the same with every man in public life who shows a tendency to soften up and be a rubberstamp for pressure groups that seek to drive us into big-government socialism. Let your own Congressmen and Senators know where you stand on all important issues. Defending America is YOUR FIGHT. Get into it now—and stay in until victory is assured. Hail to AMERICANISM!

Christ Feeding The Five Thousand

A large group of people had become so fascinated by the message of Christ and His manners that they followed Him for three days and even to a remote place where food could not be obtained. Christ became aware of this situation and in His sympathy took compassion on the multitude. Taking the few loaves of bread and the few fishes which an enterprising boy had carried, Christ performed the miracle of multiplying them to more than to sufficiently care for His following. More than five thousand people were fed, and twelve baskets of fragments were gathered afterwards. Of special attraction is the fact Christ is a sympathetic friend and benefactor to mankind in his spiritual as well as his material requirements of life.

He who does not bellow the truth when he knows the truth makes himself the accomplice of liars and forgers.

—Charles Peguy

ANATOLE LUNACHARASKY, Commissar of Education in Moscow, is quoted: "We hate Christians; even the best of them must be regarded as our worst enemies. They preach love of one's neighbor and mercy, which is contrary to our principles. Christianity is an obstacle to the revolution. Down with the love of one's neighbor. What we need is hatred. We must know how to hate; only thus, shall we conquer the universe." (The Congressional Record - Vol. 77, pp. 1539-1540).

Christianity Versus The Welfare State

AMERICA'S COMIC OPERA "FOREIGN POLICY"

By Kurt Mertig

When our Secretary of State, Dean Acheson arrived from Europe recently, he was greeted at the airport by President Truman—who seems to think that all Americans, outside of the Missouri gang, are dupes and dunces—with the really fantastic untruthful statement: "What a wonderful job you did at the London conference—the most successful since Potsdam!"

Can it be possible that our President does not yet realize that, at that Potsdam powwow in 1945 "good old uncle Joe" Stalin and his gang went home with everything he wanted, while Truman came home with a "cold war" for the American taxpayers to finance since then. (God help the American people, if Acheson did not do any better than that!)

Following this typically Trumanesque specimen of opera bouffe, the President then arranged for Acheson to favor our Congress with a "statesmanlike" address.

Acheson "with moustache bristling and British accent in full flower", truly resembling "a British foreign minister", evinced the audacity to present the assembled joint session of Congress his allegedly new magic formula for allied strategy in Europe—"a collective balanced force", the military gist of this hoax being: American super-weapons and French manpower.

But the truth is that it is futile to base the entire offensive power of the "Atlantic community of nations" on a single weapon of a single nation, the American atomic bomb.

Britain, France and the three small Benelux nations (Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg) have no defense against the rumored soviet atomic bomb, consequently, they cannot plan, prepare or set at all to deploy their limited forces.

And the second miscalculation and misinformation which Acheson brings back from the now happily past 243rd conference between

A Tribute To Congressman William "Bill" Lemke

By W. O. Skeels, His Secretary

Congressman William Lemke is no more. He died suddenly on a visit to Fargo on May 30, and was buried in Fargo on June 2.

Speaker McCormack, in telling of how Congressman Lemke was able to "as a wholesome persistent legislator" obtain the passage of two bills for rehabilitation of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa and the Devils Lake Sioux Tribes of Indians, and one for the settlement of Alaska by Veterans, on the Wednesday before his death, also paid the following tribute to him:

"Bill Lemke was a gentleman, honorable and trustworthy, a sweet character, bubbling over with an abundance of feeling and affection for his fellowman, particularly the sick, the suffering, the weak, the underprivileged, and those less fortunate than himself. He was a man who truly possessed nobility of mind and character. His life was an example of that. His position in this

JUSTICE TRIUMPHS—McGINLEY NOT GUILTY ON ALL COUNTS

The next issue will contain full details of this exciting all-important trial in which anti-Christian forces hoped to stop COMMON SENSE from spreading the truth.

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE!

During the Loyalist (Communist) Revolution in Spain in which 1,500,000 died these Christ haters are shooting down the statue of our Saviour. Thousands of those Communists live in the United States and are working to bring about the same conditions in America, and will do so within two years if our people do not become sufficiently interested to study the subject and learn who the minority is that is secretly working behind Communism.

AN OPEN LETTER:

SENATOR PAT McCARRAN, CHAIRMAN
SUBCOMMITTEE OF NATURALIZATION AND IMMIGRATION,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Dear Senator McCarran:

During 1946-47, I spent a considerable length of time in Hungary where I saw the unscrupulous politicians — in conjunction with the Communist party leaders — for money and political powers sold out Hungary as an independent nation (and its people) to the atheistic Third International. I feel myself in an authentic position to say that the Hungarian people, who always admired America for its freedom and justice, see — with a broken heart — that the same crooked politicians, who are responsible for the downfall of patriotic Hungarians, have found asylum in America, where they further their detestable work (protected by certain high American politicians) against the welfare and good interest of Hungary and its people.

I openly charge that the "Free Hungary Committee", which is organized and operating in America, is a front organization for the Third International and the majority of the persons who are in that organization, through fraud and misleading propaganda, are helping the Communists in their aims to destroy civilization. I build up my very serious charges on the past, and present actions and statements of the persons who at present are holding leading positions in the "Free Hungary Committee." The following charges could be proved, if necessary, by thousands of refugees who are at present — some registered by the I.R.O., some non-registered — living in Germany and in Austria under fearful conditions without any protection or organized aid.

The well-planned and executed exodus towards America was started in 1947 by Mr. Ferenc Nagy, Premier of Hungary, the standard-bearer of the strong, bitterly anti-Communist "Small Holders Party." Miraculously, he (as no one before him had received a permit from the Ministry of Interior) got out to a foreign country for a two weeks' vacation. Shortly after his arrival in Switzerland, the newspapers carried

The one fact upon which we may rely for the eventual defeat of Socialism is that it is contradictory to Christianity. Examine any socialist proposal in the light of the teachings of Jesus Christ and the conflict between the two becomes apparent.

Unfortunately, many Christian leaders are doing much to promote Socialism. Prime Minister Atlee has said Christian churches aided greatly in bringing his government to power.

And in our country, preachers of the "Social Gospel" have generally supported the socialistic measures of the New Deal, the Fair Deal, and the Welfare State. Many subsidiary Christian groups portray Christ as a social reformer.

The 1948 World Conference of Protestant Churches in Amsterdam passed a resolution condemning Capitalism equally with Communism; then made the worse blunder of amending the resolution to condemn laissez faire capitalism.

THE DUTY TO THINK was imposed upon leaders in the churches by the One they seek to follow:

"Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; be ye, therefore, wise as serpents and harmless as doves."

Yet many church leaders are not thinking.

A man cannot be wise without thinking. If he thinks, in considering Christianity and Socialism, he will find it difficult to reconcile one with the other. We need not go deeply into theology to prove this. If the preachers of the "Social Gospel" cannot be convinced, perhaps their followers will get new leaders. For their followers, if they start to do their own thinking, will see that advocacy of the Welfare State is helping to weaken the Republic financially and morally and thus hastening the day of a totalitarian state.

THE COMMUNIST'S ASSERTION

The Communist asserts three propositions:

1. That the duty of government is to compel each person to produce and contribute to it all he can;
2. That government must then distribute to each person his proportionate share of the

WHO PUT THE "FIX" ON THE AMERASIA CASE

By Hubert H. Heath

Special To Common Sense:

Loyal Americans are convinced that the "fix" was put on the Amerasia case by some one high in official circles of the United States. They are entitled to know exactly who is the guilty party. That someone was also guilty of passing out the secret documents of the government in war time, to a known Communist Editor, is not even denied.

Some of those who are guilty may well shake in their shoes and all sorts of backfire and intimidation can be expected to prevent such exposure. Those who are guilty should have been shot for treason but some party minded politicians are more concerned with a coverup than with bringing the facts to light.

Senator McCarthy is coming in for widespread abuse and smearing for tearing off the lid but enough has already been admitted to show a very bad state of affairs. That it was the work of the internationalist group goes without saying.

The whole shameful record of the infamous New Deal with its wanton persecution of Christian patriots who opposed Communism from the first should be written in a book and widely disseminated. In the meantime those who have steadfastly upheld our Constitutional system of liberty under law have come in for continual

ZIONISM ASSAILED

BY SPANISH BISHOP

Through "gold, blood and injustice," Zionism has established the state of Israel, the Bishop of Teruel, Friar Leon Villuendas, declared recently in a signed article published in Madrid. Asserting that Zionists aimed at world destruction of the Christian Church, his article stated that Communists and Zionists are those who could not abide the "sound doctrine of the Catholic religion."

Bishop Villuendas stated further that Zionists had organized the Communist revolution in Russia and that "the Jew Schiff (the late Jacob H. Schiff) made a public declaration in April, 1917, that thanks to his financial aid, the Russian revolution had succeeded."

Zionism entered on its golden age with the end of World War I, the Bishop continued and, on October 24, 1918, Dr. Judah L. Magnes (an American who became president of the Hebrew University in Palestine) declared publicly that he was a Bolshevik and agreed with Bolshevik doctrines and ideals.

"Zionist Judaism already has its throne in Palestine though it was raised by force of gold, blood and injustice. From there it can inspire and direct world Judaism with a view to establishment of a universal kingdom in which it will be Israel that directs and gives the orders," Bishop Villuendas said. And, as authority for this statement, he cited a Rabbi Zolli (Israele Anton Zolli) former Chief Rabbi of Rome, who was converted to Catholicism and who he quoted as having said: "In the last 50 years the Jewish religion has evolved. The old Messianic faith has changed into nationalism. Many Zionists no longer wait for the Messiah but say, 'We are the Messiahs'."

"In our days," the Bishop summed up his attack, "it is the Communists and Zionists who are unable to suffer the sound doctrines of the Catholic religion, have closed their ears to the truth and have allied themselves with the meretricious one who is seated on the crimson beast, full of names of blasphemy, carries in her hand the mark of filth of her abominations and inebriates herself with the blood of the Saints and the Martyrs of Jesus."

"New ideas are usually resisted by all the best minds. The philosophy of Christ, which is our only hope for the future, is still rejected by many practical minds." J. F. Lincoln.

3. That the true believer will use violence to reach these ends.

A Socialist of the one hundred per cent variety accepts the first and second propositions, but may reject the third.

So far as the ultimate condition of human society is involved, there is no difference between Socialism and Communism. No thoughtful man ever believed there was any difference until the Russian Revolution divided the Socialists in their choice of means—direct action, or gradual and peaceful revolution. Prior to 1917 the belief or disbelief in violence was not regarded as a divisive characteristic. Now it is given too much importance.

The Welfare State, in Great Britain and the United States, rests upon the proposition that government has both the duty and the power to take the fruits of the labor of the people and distribute them according to the views of the men in control. In simpler words, the state will take charge of charity and philanthropy, and enforce, so far as it deems proper, the Commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves.

COMMUNISM A RELIGION

The Welfare State sinks to an even lower ethical level than either Socialism or Communism. In advocating coercion to bring about equality in distribution, the Communist proposes to be bound by a rule; he does not represent that he can create an earthly Utopia by improvisations as he goes along. He says that the rules were prescribed by men greater than himself—by Marx and Lenin—and that he has duty to live up to their "inspired" rules. This acknowledgment of something higher than his own mind enables the Communist to proclaim a supra-national religion. This of course involves slavery—but little more than does the Welfare State.

The leader in the Welfare State makes the false representation that he and his associates have superior minds and know how to establish distributive justice on a better basis than that made through freedom of contract. They have no rule, no guiding principle. They, out of their superior intellects—and lack of practical experience—will prescribe specific remedies. Every such remedy denies freedom of contract, and most of the remedies create special privileges.

The man who has no freedom of contract is a slave to the extent of his deprivation. A man who must labor to sustain a special privilege for another man is also a slave.

The leaders in the Welfare State, through their perversion of the power to tax, usurp the power to impose this slavery. John Marshall said a tax is "an exaction for the support of government." This is the meaning of the word as used in our Constitution. When the Welfare State exacts money for use in business enterprises of its own, or exacts money from some in order to give it to others, the purpose is not to support government.

Congress is given the power "to lay and collect Taxes to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States." To give the proceeds to groups, as with "Social Security," or to sections of the country, as with TVA's, is not a provision for general welfare, but for a particular welfare. No provision in the Constitution authorizes such measures.

Since these socialist measures are not within the legislative powers "herein granted," Congress was specifically forbidden by the Tenth Amendment to enact them. And each Member of Congress is bound by his oath of office not to vote for them. Therefore, an honest advocate of the Welfare State would first call for amendment of the Constitution. But under their code of ethics, theft of liberties and property and return to slavery can be accomplished by stealth, and without Constitutional amendment.

THE MATERIALISM OF SOCIALISM

Since government pertains exclusively to human conduct, correct reasoning about its functions leads first to the question: What is man?

The Socialist says man is created by chance and is a mere aggregate of material substances. Therefore his behavior is determined by physical desires and economic motives. This is the so-called economic interpretation of history.

The Christian says man is a creature of God and a living, immortal soul. Although physical desires and economic motives play a part in determining his behavior, yet the Christian ideal is that spiritual forces ought to control.

Conclusions drawn from these different promises will necessarily differ. Nevertheless, in our Christian civilization much of the popular writing and teaching about government has for a long time been based upon the materialistic, Marxian conception of the nature of man. Hence, among most Western peoples the prevailing faith is in the State.

Whether the Christian churches must take the blame for the prevalence of this faith is beside the point. They will suffer the consequences. For the men who have spread this faith, and who duped the so-called "Christian Socialists," do not regard the Church as a necessary institution. They will destroy the Church wherever it impedes their Welfare State.

The Socialist graduated income tax, originally proposed in the Communist Manifesto, and adopted by Constitutional Amendment 37 years ago, will prove in time to be an instrument that will destroy the churches.

To compare the teachings of Christ with modern Socialism let us ask first whether He prescribed the respective roles of Church and State. He recognized the necessity of both institutions. But did He so describe the respective functions of the two institutions as to separate them in a manner which forbids Socialism? It seems clear to us the prohibition was specific.

Consider the conditions in Palestine during Christ's time. Egypt with its dying civilization was on one side. The Greeks and Persians had corrupted the civilizations which had once existed among the neighboring peoples of Asia Minor. The Romans, who ruled Palestine, had fallen under the dictatorship of Augustus. All the rottenness of these decaying civilizations had affected the people of Palestine. Uprooted, miserable and poverty-stricken men were to be found everywhere. Rarely in human history have conditions called so loudly for social reform.

If ever civil rulers were confronted with the opportunity and the power to promote social reform, those rulers were the Emperors Augustus and Tiberius.

But Christ never offered a word of advice on the subject of either Emperor. He made no effort to incite the people to demand social reform. The modern, all-wise, impatient social reformer cannot imagine the neglect of such an opportunity. He tries to strain from Christianity a social gospel it does not contain.

While the modern social reformer relies upon the power of the State exclusively, Christ never taught that Caesar's power could be used to appear from those aspects of His teachings which improve the living conditions of men. This will appear from those aspects of His teachings which dealt with His attitude toward private property; His emphasis upon appeals to the spirit—that all good conduct must be inspired from within; and the fact He exempted from Caesar's power only matters of conscience.

Whether a man shall give his consent to an extension of the role of government beyond protection is a matter for his own judgment guided by conscience. If he is guided by Christian teachings he will not attempt to use a combination of his own consent with that of a majority to coerce an objecting minority.

These are things that must be rendered unto God.

"American statesmen" and European power politicians is his totally false assurance of his fantastically unrealistic reliance on the French army which is today infinitely weaker than the Belgian Army was in 1940.

Defenseless against the atomic bomb and with its land frontiers unprotected, France cannot even carry out a mobilization; all her efforts might amount to is a mere heroic or a symbolic gesture.

The American atomic bomb and the French army do not complement each other; they can neither be "balanced" nor coordinated, as Acheson wants Congress to believe.

The truth is Western Europe can be defended by American soldiers only—and by nobody else. The United States has no military allies capable of military action, unless such "allies" are defended by American land forces from the very outset.

But the United States has only an army of 140,000 men in Europe. A successful land defense force must have a power at least two-thirds of the combat power of the attacking enemy. How can our opera bouffe Secretary Acheson dare to assert to Congress that he and the Atlantic planners of the London conference are justified by military science in believing that a Western European force of about one-tenth of the strength of the Soviet bloc can hold Western Europe against the Russian colossus—with the communist-contaminated French poilu forming the majority of that Western European force!

And yet so eager are our "allies" for a continuation of the financial benefits accruing to them under the Marshall Plan that they did not confess their helplessness, unless protected by a much larger American army in Europe!

Therefore, Acheson's proposal that the United States shall associate itself in future with the Western European community of bankrupt nations in an alliance for economic and military defense of an "American frontier on the river Elbe" is nothing but a brazen attempt to "bog the question" by creating an impression that would deceitfully imply that the agreements that in defiance of constitutional inhibitions had been entered into at Teheran, Yalta, Potsdam etc. had already been endorsed and approved by the U. S. Senate and were no longer liable to be officially rejected by the U. S. Senate at any moment.

Failing to fool Congress with this Sanhedrin-conceived scheme, Acheson left Congress in a rage, declaring that henceforth he would communicate with that body in writing only.

The only sensible plan for the American people is to immediately conclude a separate and sensible peace treaty with Germany and Austria.

Two matters of the greatest importance ought to be placed from now on before the American voters, so that they may express themselves on them at the polls on November 7th:

- 1) Instruct all candidates for Congress to make an end of all such conspiracies as this latest attempt by Acheson to line us up for a World War III;
- 2) Clean out of the United Nations into which we were finagled in 1945 at San Francisco without any authority from the American people.

Let us always bear in mind that the traitor Alger Hiss was the great deceiver at that sell-out of America to international interests in cooperation with the Sanhedrin, a self-appointed and self-anointed secret group of mischief-making Jews who now rule the United States, Britain, France and Russia; and claims to rule all other Jews; and aims to rule the entire world from its world capital to be set up at Jerusalem.

When will we people wake up?

AN OPEN LETTER:

an article in which the government and the leaders of his own party accused him with counter-revolutionary activities and demanded his resignation. Premier Nagy agreed to the demand provided that the Communies let his son follow him to Switzerland. The Communies accepted his request and, with a high-ranking Communist, sent Nagy's son with the new, high-priced automobile which he received from his beloved boss, bloody Joe Stalin, for his faithful services to destroy Hungary as an independent nation.

Let's look at this fellow-traveler Ferenc Nagy's activities as Premier of Hungary. After he was nominated and seated as Premier by the Russian Army high command, without any authorization from the strong "Small Holders Party" representatives, he — on the request or order of the Communist Party — turned over 51% of the heavy and light industries to the Soviet.

With Zoltan Tildy, President of Hungary, he made and sanctioned the infamous "State Security Law" and then proclaimed the inhuman "Peoples Court Martial Law," under which thousands of anti-Communist leaders and Church leaders were jailed, exiled to Russia, or executed, without any just guilt.

Nagy arrived in America around the late Spring of 1947 and right then started to pave the way for his gang to follow him to America. Shortly after came Dr. Dezso Shulyokthe, organizer and leader of the Russian-inspired "Liberty Party" who, after the war, sent many innocent parties to the gallows. Those patriots included Mr. Imredy, Finance Minister, whose only "crime" was that he — as financial wizard — would stop the Communists' attempt to destroy the Hungarian economy. Next came Mr. Zoltan Pfeiffer, ex-deputy Minister of Justice, who lately admitted that the list of "War Criminals" was not made in the sense of justice and democracy. It was he who helped his boss in the dastardly crime, and is partly responsible for the thirty thousand murders which the Russian G.P.U. and the Hungarian Communist political police committed with the knowledge and assent of the Hungarian government. Here, too is Mr. Emerich Kovacs, general secretary of the National Peasant Party (sub-branch of the Communist Party) whose actions were glorified by the "cousin of Stalin," Mr. Drew Pearson, in his March 15th trashy calumny. This man, Kovacs, in his book (written in 1938) demanded a Turan-Slav confederacy in the Danube Valley, under Russian system and leadership. He proudly admitted that he is a 100% Communist and, in his speeches, demanded an all-out annihilation of the anti-Communist element in Hungary.

Others include: Mr. Lajos Zilahy, Chairman of the Hungarian-Russian Cultural Society, a true Communist, and advocate of the Russian "democratic" system. Mr. Charles Peyer, who is staying in America on a visitor's visa while working as a member of said committee. During the 1919 Hungarian Commue he, as Social Democrat, signed and demanded a merger with the Communist Party and, with his collaboration with Bela Kun, helped the Communists murder thirty thousand peasants, workers, Clergymen, and intellectuals. Peyer, who succeeded in escaping from Hungary after the downfall of the original Commie system, lived abroad until the amnestia announcement by Admiral Horthy, Regent of Hungary. During the second world war, he conspired with the Communist underground to overthrow the Hungarian government and again establish the "Peoples Republic" under Stalinist leadership. Later, he was arrested and convicted as a spy, but on Communist Party order he was freed by the secret political police captain, Szekely, who helped him to leave the country. It is a known fact in Hungary that Mr. Peyer follows the order of the Communist Party and is secretly working for the International revolution here in our free land.

Mr. Robert Gabor, Chief of the secret political police of Budapest, Hungary, although a devotee of the Communist Party, did not escape from Hungary on account of his differences with the Communist Party, but the crimes which he committed . . . robbery, kidnapping, even murder . . . were too much for the Communists to overlook.

Mr. Nicolaus Nyarady (Scheidt) ex-Finance Minister from 1947-48, as Finance Minister and Economic Advisor in the all-mighty Great Economy Council, was a main pillar of the Communist Party. Through his taxation laws, he helped to destroy the independence of the farmers, workers, and businessmen. He lent his warped mind to the socialization of the factories, the farms, the parochial schools, etc. He was the leader of the criminal gang which engineered the arrest and conviction of Cardinal Mindszenty. Only he and U. S. Army Colonel Martin Himler, C.I.C. agent, are able to tell how many millions of dollars worth of trucks, clothing, and other equipment has been stolen by them from the U. S. Army surplus depots and smuggled back to Hungary, where they disposed of it, with great financial gain to themselves. On account of their false information many deserving Hungarians were refused entry visas to come to America . . . persons like Mr. Joseph Nyiro, playwright, whose films are played in America . . . while such as Mr. Ferenc Gondor were "cleared." Mr. Gondor, Editor and publisher of a left wing newspaper Az Ember, in New York, is a life-time Communist who, in 1919 in Hungary, served the Communist dictator Bela Kun as director of the Communist Press Directorate and who, during 1946-47, wrote degrading articles about our free America in the Russian-sponsored Hungarian newspapers — Szabad Nep, etc. He could spray the gospel of Communism in his dirt sheet without any fear of punishment.

Our fellow countryman, Mr. Robert Vogeler, is unjustly suffering in the Communist jail, which these gangsters helped to create with their criminal collaboration, and — at the same time — we help them in their dirty work to destroy our Christian civilization and freedom.

Therefore, we loyal Hungarian Americans respectfully ask you to see that a just and impartial investigation be made against them and, when the mentioned charges are proven, then we expect a speedy deportation of the guilty ones.

Respectfully yours,

The laws establishing The Bank of North Dakota, the State Owned Mill and Elevator, The State Bonding Fund, The State Hail Insurance, and The Fire and Tornado Fund, were created by bills drafted by the Honorable William Lemke, and enacted by the Nonpartisan League controlled Legislative Assembly of North Dakota during Governor J. Frazier's Administration.

The amazing success of these state institutions are shining examples of what a state can do to curb monopolistic tendencies, and to assist private initiative and enterprise.

One of the first bills written by Congressman William Lemke, and introduced in Congress was the Frazier-Lemke Farm Loan Refinancing Bill which failed of enactment because it provided too much assistance for the farmers in the opinion of the loan sharks.

The Frazier-Lemke Farm Moratorium Law enabled thousands of farmers to hold their farms during the terrible days of the depression. Congressman Lemke successfully defended this law in Federal courts and before the Supreme Court on innumerable occasions.

In introducing and securing the enactment of a bill providing for the establishment of The Theodore Roosevelt National Memorial Park, Lemke paid tribute to a great American, and gave the people of North Dakota a park that will continue to be a source of pride and pleasure to the citizens of the state.

Congressman Lemke fought for the constant improvement of the National Peace Garden located on the border between the United States and Canada.

When the lands of the three affiliated tribes of the Berthold Indians were inundated by the building of the Garrison Dam, Congressman Lemke secured a settlement of the claims of these Indians, and his record shows he was one of the best friends the Indians ever had.

For the remainder of Congressman Lemke's term, I shall try to keep the people of North Dakota posted through "DOINGS IN CONGRESS" as to what is going on in Washington.

abuse by the Internationalist minority who wish to "Abolish the United States."

Joe Kamp of the Constitutional Educational league, the National Economic Council and the Committee for Constitutional Government are again under fire. The big shots of the "Anti-Defamation League" would like to know just who are behind the financing of these patriotic organizations and if they can find out they can be branded as "Isolationists" which is the current smear word for patriots. They can, and doubtless will be put under fire.

Mr. Buchanan of Pennsylvania says he aims to find out. The defamers of patriots have long wanted and sought for that information. Nothing has been charged against these worse than that they defend our system of liberty under law in our Constitutional form of government. That bird should be defeated at the fall election and sent up salt creek for food.

Were he more interested in saving this earth's highest type of government, it would seem that he would get behind Senators Tydings, Lodge and Hickenlooper and make them find out just what high officials put the "fix" on the Amerasia case, a case where secret documents were admittedly passed out to a Communist editor.

Then again he might have his committee to find out just who in the infamous, lawless, godless, New Deal gave orders that permitted Russian engineers and technicians to come here, inspect all our defenses and industrial setup and make "The greatest manual for war ever drawn upon earth" according to our own brass.

There's quite a lot he might investigate instead of persecuting those who uphold our Christian Constitutional system of liberty under law and making life miserable for them. He might even investigate the raping of German women, the admitted beating and starving of German prisoners to make them confess, as in Russia and the framing of American patriots with perjured testimony and quite a large number of shameful New Deal doings.

Pennsylvania should snow that bird under this fall so deep that he will never be able to dig out and play politics at the cost of decent upright citizens of this, Earth's greatest nation, time's finest civilization.

"I am amazed that so many men in the Christian ministry do not see the ultimate immorality of the welfare state. It is finally and politically based on this question: 'What is my fair share of what you have earned?' The pulpit condemns a candidate who gives his money for a vote. That is bribery. But when the candidate asks for the vote of A on the ground that he will take money from B to give to A, he is acclaimed a great humanitarian. Thus the wants of rogues become the rights of man!"

U. S. Air Forces Battle Korean Communists

Acheson, Hiss, Lattimore Blamed for Disaster
President Truman's announcement that U. S. air, naval, and ground forces will aid the Southern Korean democracy in its battle against the Northern Communist-controlled half of Korea turns the cold war into a hot war with the grave possibility of an all-out war between America and the U.S.S.R.

Senator Malone (R.-Nev.) speaking before the Senate, said the situation is a direct result of mistakes at Yalta and mistakes made since then. "And, if we do not bring on a war it certainly will not be our fault," he said.

Naming Hiss as the "famous adviser" to the late President Roosevelt at Yalta and Lattimore, adviser to the State Department, Senator Malone continued: "It is fairly clear that what happened in China and what is now happening in Korea was deliberately brought about by the advisers of the President at Yalta and the advisers of the State Dept. since then."

While the Administration was being advised by Hiss and Lattimore, Malone asserted, the advice of General MacArthur and Rear Admiral O. C. Badger, both authorities in their fields, was being ignored by the State Department.

Actually, the division of Korea at the 38th parallel was a disastrous slicing of a nation. South Korea is an agricultural land while the northern portion of Korea, under Soviet control, is the industrial area, and the disunity which resulted should have been foreseen by any student with the barest knowledge of economics.

Northern Korea contains 75 per cent of the coal supply, two-thirds of the peninsula's lumber and fuel wood, 95 per cent of the electric power production, 90 per cent of the iron and steel production and 95 per cent of Korea's iron ore. According to a Korean government official, the largest and most efficient chemical industries in Asia are also concentrated in Northern Korea, along with seven of Korea's eight major cement factories and a huge petroleum processing plant.

If it was not sheer witlessness to turn such valuable assets over to the Soviets, then it was a pure and simple case of somebody out-Benedicting Benedict Arnold, America's foremost traitor.

Lutherans Urge Halt To Anti-God Teaching

Minneapolis, Minn., May 31—Minnesota pastors of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod have asked the help of Governor Luther W. Youngdahl in stopping what they claim is anti-religious teaching in the public schools of the state.

The pastors, at their annual conference, appealed to the governor to use his influence "as a Christian statesman" to "discourage" public school teachers from "teaching things inimical to the spiritual values with which the Church is seeking to equip its youth."

Many people, a resolution said, "are becoming increasingly alarmed about the teaching in the tax-supported schools which undermines the faith of our young people in God and in a divine moral code."

The resolution noted that "the regular insistence upon an absolute separation of Church and State makes it impossible for Christian teachers in a tax-supported school to teach anything of a positive Christian nature."

But it said that the nation's welfare is dependent upon the preservation of spiritual values.

Dr. Einstein, Super American? Or Arch Betrayer Of America?

The following letter is a typical case of honest Americans ridiculing something they do not understand. The writers are identified by initials only to spare them embarrassment.

"Mr. McGinley:

We have just finished reading your March 15th hate sheet, and we can assure you that it will be the last issue we will soil our hands on. Your article on Dr. Einstein was a collection of lies and half truths. It was Einstein who was in a great measure responsible for some of our greatest advances in mathematics and various allied subjects. You state in your article that Dr. Einstein has never allowed his name to be used in organizations which stand 'in defense of the American tradition,' well, what is the American tradition. It has always been complete social and racial equality. Your sleazy hate sheet stands for just the opposite. Einstein has never let his name be connected with any communistic organizations. You have absolutely no basis for your assumption to the contrary. You have proven nothing against the Doctor and by distortion of the facts you have slandered his name. You are a vile, blood sucking, hate mongering, unintelligent tool!

R. H. and B. S.

The Editor of COMMON SENSE, before years of study on Marxism and Communism, was just as uninformed; just as naive.

Our trusting Americans have been so gullible they have allowed the anti-Christian Marxists twenty years of freedom in our factories, schools, universities and churches while listening to the "tolerance" and "brotherly love" propaganda instigated by the same Marxists who want inactivity by Americans while Marxists bore into and corrupt our institutions until we succumb to the International revolutionists.

Any good American is welcome in the office of COMMON SENSE where he may see dozens of printed Marxist statements in which it is said that they (Marxists) work tirelessly to enslave all Christians and will slaughter all who defy their rule. These same Marxists are taught from childhood, through Talmudic teaching, that each will have 2800 Christian slaves when the Marxists rule the world. These are the people of Yiddish Asiatic origin who trick Christians into preaching tolerance of them. These are the people who have inaugurated all revolutionary movements to overthrow governments throughout the world.

Dr. Albert Einstein was ordered out of Germany as a Communist and his property was confiscated. Under the pretense of "Social Service", Einstein instituted his "Internationale Arbeiterhilfe," a huge propaganda apparatus built on Marxist principles. His closest associates

Zionist Conspiracy To Obtain Records Of Common Sense Defeated

On June 14th, 1950, Conde McGinley, Editor of COMMON SENSE was acquitted after thirty minutes deliberation by the Jury of resisting and assault of two deputy sheriffs, Alfred Greenberg and Harry Kaplan. This was a happy occasion for COMMON SENSE and another victory for Americanism over Communism.

This is an almost unbelievable story of the inside maneuverings that take place to those who are fighting Communism, and dates back to Friday afternoon, June 17, 1949, when the Zionists attempted to confiscate the records, files, etc. of COMMON SENSE to satisfy a judgment about which the Editor knew nothing. The "authority" for this was based upon some litigation in regard to a printing bill which a group of men, of which Mr. McGinley was not a member, arranged for the printing of COMMON SENSE. Because of smear and pressure from Zionist organizations, the group disbanded and Mr. McGinley assumed the responsibility of the bill and agreed with Mr. Bauer, the Christian owner of the printing firm, to see that the bill was paid if given time. Everything went along fine until shortly thereafter Zionists bought into Mr. Bauer's business and demanded that he stop printing COMMON SENSE and turn over to them the account of COMMON SENSE for collection. The account was turned over by the new owner to Mr. Dvorin, an attorney, and President of the Zionists of Linden and Roselle, who immediately began angling to get COMMON SENSE into court. When our attorney spoke to him about settling out of court, he said "That is a dirt sheet and has to be stopped." No mention of collecting the money! It was proven many times in court that there was a definite conspiracy to get the records, and getting the money was only secondary. Following is a letter which was addressed to the Editor of the Elizabeth Daily Journal, a year ago to clarify the matter which gives a fairly concise review of the situation.

Dear Sir:

In your issues of June 22nd and July 1st you published articles with reference to the anti-Communist paper, COMMON SENSE, and myself. Inasmuch as this information did not come from us, and believing you are anxious to publish the facts with reference to an occurrence which is of much interest to many in Union County and the United States, I take the liberty of giving you a brief outline of the facts regarding the Zionist-inspired raid on our office, June 17th.

To start with, I did not owe the printing bill and was not a member of the patriotic group that met with the original owner of the Union Register and agreed to pay the printing if I would devote my full time without salary. Personnel of the group changed and when suit was brought I assumed the responsibility of trying to have the bill reduced $1200, amount of the overcharge, and arrange to pay $1500 the correct amount.

More than two years ago Zionists began to complain to Union Register about printing COMMON SENSE, but the owner continued to print for us. Shortly after, Grant Bauer, sold the controlling interest to this outside group and the name was changed to "Suburban Publishers." We have bills marked paid amounting to some $9000 from Mr. Bauer, but when the new stockholders came in, we received several months invoices at one time, resulting in an overcharge of $1200. Mr. Schlossberg and Mr. Dvorin, Zionist leaders of Linden, forced Mr. Bauer to turn this account over to them. This they were later to use as a beach-head to get into our office and secure our records so as to stop our exposure of Communism and Zionism which are full brothers. In doing this, they have had full cooperation of New York Zionist lawyers.

Our attorney tried to arrange a settlement, but their answer was that COMMON SENSE is a dirt sheet and should be stopped.

Following this, we made arrangements with three different printers, paying our bills promptly, but Zionists brought underhanded pressure to bear which stopped each in time. One concern was prevented from having type set for his own paper by any linotype operator in two counties until he discontinued COMMON SENSE. This is tolerance and freedom of the press, Communist style! Keep in mind there are more than 400 Communist-controlled publications in the United States which are not interfered with.

About the 15th of June, Attorney Dvorin, speaking with the judge with a view to having our case called, was told the case would be tried June 22nd. Dvorin asked our attorney, John A. Matthews, Jr. how much we admitted owing. Mr. Matthews answered that for two years we admitted $1500. Mr. Matthews understood no action was to be made until the trial a week later; however, Mr. Dvorin asked the Judge for, and received, a judgment for $1500. Mr. Dvorin quickly arranged with two Deputies, Messrs. Greenberg and Coplin, and an unknown Jew, a rush raid on the office of COMMON SENSE.

They did not stop at the Union Police Department to have the police accompany them, which is the customary practice, for if they had, they would not have been able to start a fight and get me in jail so they would be left free to go through our important papers. Accompanied by a police officer I would have known who they were, but the four Jews who entered the office were in plain clothes and showed neither papers nor badge.

Were they interested in collecting money? What did they take off in a truck? Items costing from $200 to $1100 having ready resale value, were passed by, but they were careful to take eight drawers of research information on more than 100 Communist fronts involving many prominent Jewish leaders. They did not take an addressograph machine which could easily be turned to cash, but took card index files in cardboard boxes!

During the past ten years Zionists and Communists have crushed many leaders in Congress and others who dared stand up for America. Zionists in Germany, and from Texas to Maine, have been asking their leaders to stop COMMON SENSE. When our attorney John A. Matthews, Jr. succeeded in having our records impounded in a jail cell, who is appointed Master to go over these records and decide which should be returned to us, but former Judge Henry S. Waldman, a Zionist.

And in New York, Judge Samuel Kaufman, a Zionist, is appointed to preside over the trial of Alger Hiss. And Zionist Felix Frankfurter comes down from the Supreme Court to testify as to the character of Hiss, one of the invisible government stooges. When will America wake up? Are the Zionists to be allowed to stop COMMON SENSE, the only all-out movement in the east to expose Communism? They would gladly pay a hundred thousand dollars to destroy us.

Now I am bound over to the Grand Jury, charges, assault and battery which is ridiculous. The Communist method the world over is to destroy the leaders and render the masses helpless. To those who do not know that Communism and Zionism spring from the same source, we challenge any living Zionist authority, preferably a Rabbi, to debate the question in the press, on the platform, or in the courts. This would be the American way to discredit and stop COMMON SENSE, not by intimidation and trickery.

If Christianity and America is to survive, courageous Americans must take a stand quickly.

CONDE MCGINLEY.

So on June 17, 1949, in the middle of the afternoon, two men in sport clothes, later identified as deputies—Harry Kaplan and Alfred Greenberg—walked into the offices of COMMON SENSE and, without identifying themselves, producing badges or other credentials, or without performing lawful service of any kind of writ, they informed Mr. McGinley they were there to take out "everything but the four walls."

Not having knowledge of any litigation in which he was involved, and finding himself alone (the girl in the office having fled) with two obviously unfriendly individuals, Mr. McGinley made several attempts to get to the office 'phone to call the police for help, but was prevented from doing so for more than twenty minutes by the deputies. The Editor made an attempt to reach the corner store to 'phone, followed by Mr. Greenberg, who again prevented him from making any 'phone calls. It was outside of the building some 77 feet from the office of COMMON SENSE that Greenberg placed a handcuff on Mr. McGinley's previously injured wrist, and twisted it until there were adhesions and the wrist swollen to twice its normal size. The Editor was taken to jail but was promptly released and escorted back to the office. Upon returning, Mr. McGinley surprised Mr. Coplan, attorney Dvorin and an unidentified Zionist. This Soviet-style raid had all the earmarks of a well-planned and executed affair, as what followed clearly proved that fact.

Notwithstanding the many irregularities of the case, a judgment had been secured for the acknowledged amount of the printing bill, unknown to Mr. McGinley and in spite of all protests, the deputies proceeded to satisfy the judgment by removing such things as subscription lists, addressograph plates, and dilapidated wooden files containing research on Communist fronts and personal correspondence, and ignored valuable pieces of equipment such as the addressograph machine, a folding machine valued at $1100 (which items alone could have satisfied the amount of the judgment), all office furniture, a new floor scale, and many other valuable items. This entire raid was under the direction of the Zionist attorney, Dvorin, who was giving orders to the deputies, and the unidentified Zionist who was instructed not to reveal his name by Mr. Dvorin when asked. Note particularly the things that were taken had no monetary value except to an organization such as the Anti Defamation League, Friends of Democracy, and the like, and valuable equipment was left behind. Note also the items taken were hand-picked by a Zionist attorney with the deliberate intent of carrying out his promise to Mr. McGinley's lawyer "that is a dirt sheet and must be stopped." Through the action of our attorney, the records were immediately impounded in the Union County jail, in the Custody of the Sheriff, where they remained until the judgment was settled. Protests that the writ was not made out to Conde McGinley, or that he did not owe the bill in the first place, were completely disregarded, and there was only one way to secure the safe return of the records—pay the judgment and fight it out later. The judgment was satisfied in full and the records were returned intact to the office of COMMON SENSE. During this time, Zionist Dvorin succeeded in securing an order for another Zionist, former Judge Waldman, to enter the jail with the "excuse" of ascertaining the value of the property taken, and it was only through the Providence of God that our attorney walked in on the Zionists while they were going through the records. And to ascertain the value of the records impounded, they came fully equipped with an electric recording set! You can figure out for yourself what they planned to do.

Four days later, on the following Tuesday evening, about 9:30 o'clock Mr. McGinley was arrested for the second time and taken to the Union County Jail where he spent the night until released under bond the following morning—this time for resisting an officer and preventing the execution of a writ, assault and battery on the persons of Harry Kaplan and Alfred Greenberg, the two deputies who a few days earlier entered the office of COMMON SENSE with the verbal instructions to remove "everything but the four walls."

After three Grand Juries met and several postponements, the case was finally called for trial on June 13th, 1950. The State presented its witnesses first and, as might be expected, the two deputies lied, and lied, and lied, and should be tried for perjury. Coplan, a prize fight referee weighing 230 pounds and Greenberg weighing 190, testified that McGinley did not cooperate with them, beat and ill-treated them. They admitted under oath they had instructions from the Sheriff's office to take orders from Dvorin, President of the Zionists in Linden and Roselle. Greenberg stated "Dvorin did not instruct us to take all the stuff, but just certain items, mostly correspondence." As a matter of fact, no one did any hitting or beating up of anybody! The most difficulty was caused by the deputies preventing Mr. McGinley from making a 'phone call to get help. Who was afraid of whom? What was the objection of these deputies to having a police officer present while arresting Mr. McGinley, or executing a writ? Mr. McGinley ran out of the office in an effort to make a 'phone call but was stopped by Mr. Greenberg who placed a handcuff on his wrist some 77 feet outside the office of COMMON SENSE.

Most important of all was the fact that the writ that was supposedly served on Conde J. McGinley (his son) on June 17th, 1949, did not give the deputies any right whatever to execute the judgment—it merely gave them the authority, to SERVE the writ, not execute it! Nothing in the law, or in the papers, gave them the authority, to follow the directions of an outsider.

And very conspicuous also was the fact that the looming figure in the entire case, Dvorin, the Zionist attorney who gave all the orders and instructed the deputies, ordered the truck, and supervised the loading of the records on the truck, the only independent eye witness so far as obstructing an officer is concerned, so far as assault and battery is concerned, and the mystery man who wore glasses (another Zionist) and who furnished the car that brought the four to Union, did not appear in court. Why did not the State call these men to testify?—the only two witnesses who would be impartial so far as the complainant's witnesses.

Catholics, Jews, Protestants, Agnostics testified to the excellent reputation of Conde McGinley. Even the police officer who arrested him testified that his reputation is the best. He has never had a blemish on his reputation.

On the stand, Conde McGinley charged that the deputies were maneuvered into confiscating the records and subscription lists by the Communist underground. He stated when the deputies entered his office on June 17, 1949, they looked as though they well might be Communists making good one of the more than fifty threats on his life which he had received and which had been previously turned over to the F.B.I. for investigation.

The Jury, in less than a half hour, found Conde McGinley guilty only of being a good American citizen.

It was proven again and again in court that the entire affair was a well-planned and directed conspiracy to secure files of COMMON SENSE, and thus smear the contributors, destroy the files on the several hundred Communist Fronts, and ultimately stop the publication of COMMON SENSE, as the Communist-Zionists have tried to do so many times before. To date they have threatened and intimidated six printers into discontinuing publishing COMMON SENSE during the past four and a half years. The following article appeared in the Newark Evening News on June 15th following the acquittal of Conde McGinley on all charges.

Jury in Union Clears McGinley of Charges in Process Case
Staff Correspondent.

ELIZABETH—Conde McGinley, publisher of the anti-Communist, anti-Zionist Common Sense, was found not guilty yesterday by a jury in a County Judge Hetfield's court on charges of obstructing execution of process and assault and battery on two Union County sheriff's deputies last June.

The jury deliberated only 30 minutes before bringing in its verdict at 5:30 P.M. on the second day of the trial.

The state charged McGinley had obstructed execution of a levy on equipment in his publishing office in 2001-2005 Pleasant parkway, Union, and struck the deputies, Harry Coplan and Alfred Greenberg, when they tried to carry out the writ.

MCGINLEY'S CHARGES

The levy was made to satisfy an $1,800 judgment against McGinley for printing bills owed the Suburban Publishing Co. of Union.

McGinley charged on the stand yesterday that the deputies were ordered to confiscate his records and subscription lists by a Communist underground. When the deputies entered the establishment June 17, 1949, he said, they did not identify themselves, making him afraid they

In that organization, under exclusive Jewish leadership, included Dr. Alfons Goldschmidt, Professor Eltzbacher, Arthur Holitscher and Prof. Paul Oestrich. They were plotting to overthrow Germany just as millions of "refugees" here in the United States are today working like bees to overthrow the American government and set up Zionist-Marxist-Communist slavery.

Our correspondents ask that we show just one Communist front with which Einstein has allowed his name to be associated. We believe our last count on this revolutionist was 52 Red outfits but, as we are continually learning of new ones, we believe the number might be closer to 100. No leading Communist front seems complete without Einstein's name on the letterhead, and to give his entire Red record would take at least three issues of COMMON SENSE.

Noteworthy, however, are the remarks of Congressman Rankin who, in an address before Congress, exposed Einstein's radical record:

Extension of Remarks of Hon. John E. Rankin of Mississippi In The House of Representatives, Monday, February 13, 1950.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. Speaker, one of the greatest fakers the world ever knew is Albert Einstein, who should have been deported for his communistic activities years ago.

Ever since he published his book on relativity to try to convince the world that light had weight, he has capitalized upon his alleged reputation as a scientist.

According to the Committee on Un-American Activities, he has been engaged in communistic activities in this country for a long time. At this point I am inserting some excerpts from the report of the Committee on Un-American Activities received by me today showing what some of these subversive activities were.

Every time the word "Daily Worker" is used in this report it means the Communist Daily Worker—that is, a Communist newspaper published in New York by the Communist Party and dedicated to the overthrow of this Government.

He had no more to do with the development of the atomic bomb than if there had not been such a thing. American scientists developed the atomic bomb, as General Groves will tell you, and old Faker Einstein had nothing to do with it.

The "bunk" that he is now spreading to try to get this country into a world government, for the American people to assume the responsibility of all the other nations of the earth, to fight their battles, and to pay their debts, is simply carrying out the Communist line.

At this point I am inserting excerpts from the report which I have received from the Committee on Un-American Activities today relative to Mr. Einstein. It reads as follows:

INFORMATION FROM THE FILES OF THE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES, UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVE

FEBRUARY 13, 1950.

FOR: HON. JOHN E. RANKIN.

Subject: Albert Einstein.

A check of the public files, records, and publications of the committee has revealed the following information concerning the individual listed above:

According to a letterhead, dated October 27, 1942, Prof. Albert Einstein was one of the patrons of the Congress of American-Soviet Friendship. He was a sponsor of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, as shown on Call to the Congress of American-Soviet Friendship, November 6-8, 1943 (p. 4); and a memorandum issued by the Council on March 18, 1946. He signed an open letter to the American people, sponsored by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, as shown in the New York Times of May 18, 1943, page 17C.

ship was cited as a Communist-front organization in Report No. 1311 of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated March 29, 1944; the same report shows that "in recent months, the Communist Party's principal front for all things Russian has been known as the National Council for American-Soviet Friendship." Attorney General Clark cited the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship as subversive and Communist in lists furnished the Loyalty Review Board, which were released to the press by the United States Civil Service Commission, December 4, 1947, and September 21, 1948.

The Daily Worker of February 26, 1942, page 4, named Albert Einstein as one of the sponsors of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born was cited as "one of the oldest auxiliaries of Communist Party in the United States" in Report No. 1311 of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated March 29, 1944. The organization had previously been cited in Report No. 2277 of the committee, dated June 25, 1942. The American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born was cited as subversive and Communist by Attorney General Clark in lists furnished the Loyalty Review Board, released to the press by the United States Civil Service Commission, June 1, 1948, and September 21, 1948.

Albert Einstein was an endorser of the North American Committee To Aid Spanish Democracy, as shown in the Daily Worker of April 16, 1937, page 2; he was named as a sponsor of the North American Committee To Aid Spanish Democracy, Medical Bureau, in New Masses of May 18, 1937, page 25. In reports of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated January 3, 1940, and March 29, 1944, the North American Committee To Aid Spanish Democracy was cited as a Communist-front organization. In a list furnished the Loyalty Review Board by Attorney General Clark, which was released to the press by the United States Civil Service Commission, April 25, 1949, the organization was cited as Communist.

Albert Einstein was a national sponsor of the Spanish Refugee Appeal of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, according to letterheads of that group dated February 26, 1946, and February 3, 1948; he signed a petition in defense of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, as shown in the Daily Worker of April 28, 1948, page 4; and was co-chairman of the national reception committee for Madame Irene Joliot-Curie, whose speaking tour was sponsored by the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee (in-were Communists out to get him. He had previously received "at least 50" threats on his life, some of which he turned over to the FBI for investigation, he added.

McGinley said the deputies confiscated records of his investigation of at least 400 Communist cells throughout the country at the direction of Robert M. Dvorin, an attorney for Suburban who, he said, was president of the Linden-Roselle Zionist organization. They left behind much valuable equipment in the process, he added.

"I'm only interested in one thing—combating Communism," McGinley said, almost breaking down with emotion, "and the only difference between Zionism and Communism is in the spelling of the names."

Coplan and Greenberg had testified earlier they were instructed to take only personal effects that could be sold by the sheriff to satisfy the judgment entered against McGinley. When they tried to do that, they said, McGinley hit them and tried to stop them, so they put him under arrest.

McGinley denied any obstruction and that he had assaulted the pair. He said he had attempted to get away so he could call police and protect himself and his records.

DEFENSE'S ARGUMENT

In his summation Thomas Hueston of Elizabeth, defense counsel, said the deputies had the right to serve the writ, but not to execute it. He said that rather than obstruct the process, McGinley actually had run out of the premises to phone the police, to keep from being assassinated by Coplan and Greenberg, who were unknown to him at the time.

THANK YOU FRIENDS

We are most grateful to our many friends who have helped us this past year and have seen us safely through this crisis, to those who have helped us financially, to those who have helped us without remuneration, to those who have given us courage and faith to carry on when all the odds were against us, to the many friends who came from near and far to testify in court, to those who have prayed for us. We have come through this difficult year because you have stayed with us. We thank each and every one for the part he played for without this wonderful spirit of cooperation we could not have been victorious. Truly the hand of God guided us throughout, for every seeming obstacle was turned to advantage. We also sincerely thank our attorney, Thomas Hueston, for his splendid presentation of our case. We want you to know we are proud of our friends and only wish we could thank each one personally.

Dr. Einstein, Super American? Or Arch Betrayer Of America?

vitiation to dinner, New York City, March 31, 1948).

The Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee was cited as subversive and Communist by Attorney General Clark in lists furnished the Loyalty Review Board which were released to the press by the United States Civil Service Commission, December 4, 1947, and September 21, 1948; it was cited as a Communist-front organization in Report 1311 of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated March 29, 1944.

Attorney General Clark cited the American Council for a Democratic Greece as a subversive and Communist organization formerly known as the Greek-American Council in lists furnished the Loyalty Review Board, which were released to the press by the United States Civil Service Commission, June 1, 1948, and September 21, 1948. Albert Einstein sponsored a petition of the American Council for a Democratic Greece, as shown in the Daily People's World of August 23, 1948, page 2; he signed a statement of the council condemning the Greek Government, according to the Daily Worker of September 2, 1948, page 7.

Dr. Einstein was a sponsor of the Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign, as shown on a letterhead of that group, dated at New Haven, Conn., November 16, 1939, and a pamphlet entitled "Children in Concentration Camps." The Special Committee on Un-American Activities cited the Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign as a Communist-front organization in Report 1476 of January 3, 1940.

Albert Einstein contributed a manuscript for Spanish aid to the League of American Writers, according to the Daily Worker of February 18, 1939, page 7.

Both Attorney General Francis Biddle and Attorney General Tom Clark have cited the League of American Writers as a Communist-front organization (CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, September 24, 1942, pages 7685 and 7686; letters to Loyalty Review Board, released June 1, 1948, and September 21, 1948). The organization was cited as a Communist front in Reports of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated January 3, 1940; June 25, 1942; and March 29, 1944.

Albert Einstein signed a letter pledging support to China, which was issued by the American Friends of the Chinese People, as shown in the Daily Worker of July 16, 1940, page 4. He was an endorser of the Committee for Peace through World Cooperation, according to the Daily Worker of April 2, 1938, page 4. Both American Friends of the Chinese People and the Committee for Peace through World Cooperation were cited as Communist-front organizations in Report 1311 of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated March 29, 1944.

In Report 1115 of the Committee on Un-American Activities, entitled "Civil Rights Congress as a Communist Front Organization," dated September 2, 1947, the Civil Rights Congress was cited as being dedicated "not to the broader issues of civil liberties, but specifically to the defense of individual Communists and the Communist Party" and "Controlled by individuals who are either members of the Communist Party or openly loyal to it." The Civil Rights Congress was cited as subversive and Communist by Attorney General Clark in lists furnished the Loyalty Review Board, released to the press by the United States Civil Service Commission, December 4, 1947, and September 21, 1948.

Albert Einstein was a signer of a declaration honoring Georgi Dimitrov, former head of the Communist International, as shown in the New York Times of December 22, 1943, page 40. The declaration was sponsored by the Reichstag Fire Trial Anniversary Committee, cited as a Communist front in Report 1311 of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated March 29, 1944.

As shown in the Daily Worker of April 22, 1947, page 4, Albert Einstein was a speaker under auspices of the Council on African Affairs, an organization cited as subversive and Communist by Attorney General Clark in lists furnished the Loyalty Review Board, released to the press by the United States Civil Service Commission December 4, 1947, and September 21, 1948.

Albert Einstein has been a contributor to the publication Soviet Russia Today (issue of June 1942, p. 6); he was a sponsor of the Soviet Russia Today dinner celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Red-Army (Soviet Russia Today, February 1943, p. 34).

Soviet Russia Today was cited as a Communist front in reports of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, dated June 25, 1942, and March 29, 1944.

Albert Einstein is named as a member at large of the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions on an undated letterhead of the organization (received January 1949). He was a sponsor of the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace held in New York City, March 25-27, 1949, under auspices of the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions, according to the conference program, page 14.

Both the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace and the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions were cited as Communist-front organizations in the Report of the Committee on Un-American Activities, dated April 19, 1949, which is entitled "Review of the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace Arranged by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions."

I do not see how any man can read this record and not realize that this man Einstein is not interested in the welfare of the United States.

Faker Einstein Joins Communists in Attacking Judge Medina

Extension of Remarks of HON. JOHN E. RANKIN of Mississippi in the House of Representatives, Thursday, February 16, 1950.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. Speaker, on February 13 I inserted in the Record excerpts from the report of the Un-American Activities Committee showing a large number of Communist-front organizations that Albert Einstein, the alleged scientist, is now, or has been, mixed up with.

Now, I find that this same Albert Einstein has joined in filing a brief in the United States court of appeals, in New York, to reverse the decision of Judge Harold R. Medina for adjudging six Communist lawyers in contempt of court for their efforts to demoralize and intimidate the court and the jury during the trial of certain Communists for their treasonable efforts to overthrow this Government.

This information will probably come as a shock to the average American, for nobody ever heard of Albert Einstein being a lawyer before.

In order that no Member of Congress may be misled about this proposition, I am inserting at this point a column from page 16 of the New

CHRIST THE CORNER STONE OF CHRISTIAN LIFE

Man is a builder by nature. Our whole civilization, as far as man's presence and activity are concerned, proves this. According to God's plan, man is preeminently to be a builder of a spiritual edifice, and by it to secure for himself an eternal mansion in heaven. The right kind of such a structure, acceptable to God, is that in which Christ is the predominating element. All other plans, theories, or philosophies will end in failure. St. Paul has expressed it very convincingly, if not imperatively: "You are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets with Christ Jesus himself as the corner stone. In him the whole structure is closely fitted together and grows into a temple holy in the Lord; in him you are being built together into a dwelling place for God in the Spirit." Ephes. 2:20-22.

Lenin says, in "What It To Be Done?"—"The theory of Socialism grew of the philosophic, historical and economic theories that were elaborated by the educated representatives of the propertied classes, the intellectuals. The founders of modern scientific Socialism, Marx and Engels themselves, belonged to movement; it arose as a natural and inevitable outcome of the development of ideas among the revolutionary, Socialist intelligentsia."

York Times of Tuesday, February 7, 1950, carrying the whole story, and showing that Albert Einstein is one of the signers of the petition to reverse the action of Judge Medina in punishing these communistic lawyers for their contemptible efforts to harass, disturb, and demoralize his court.

It was Einstein who arranged for the release of the Zionist spy, Dr. Klaus Fuchs, from a British concentration camp so that Fuchs could come to America and work on the atomic project. We are now learning the names of a few of the Zionist spies who worked with Fuchs . . . Harry Gold, Dr. J. W. Weinberg, Jacob Golos, Dr. Sidney Weinbaum and David Greenglass—all of Yiddish Asiatic origin.

A tip to those who want to find out who is REALLY at the top of all the Communistic activity regarding the atomic bombs: Go down to Princeton, N. J., and work on Einstein. You will save much running around.

Our opinion is that his Red record is longer and more crimson than that of Gerhardt Eisler—Alger Hiss—J. Peters (Boorstein)—Philip Jaffe—or, Felix Frankfurter.

During 1935, speaking in German over the radio, Dr. Einstein said: "Do not try so hard to become Americans; it is not in you. You will always remain Jews—a race apart, and do not mix into affairs you do not belong."

And, it was back in 1932 when Bernard Shaw said: "Keep Einstein out of America? Why they can't do that. I am a Communist and they haven't tried to keep me out. Einstein is an avowed Communist. I myself am not a practicing Communist . . . but Einstein signs extreme left manifestos and all that sort of thing."

"THE ZIONISTS"

By: Judge George W. Armstrong

(Editor's note: Believing "The ZIONISTS" to be one of the most important new books we are, with this issue, serializing it. The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country is being made to suffer the same fate of all other nations now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

PREFACE

The first part of this book was published several months ago under the title of "Zionist Wall Street." It was intended only as a preview. These chapters will not be repeated but only supplemented. The Zionists of Wall Street are the financial backers of the Zionists of the world and of the Zionist state of Israel. They are the head and front of the Zionist political organizations. They created the state of Israel and they brought about two wars for that purpose.

The Zionists are anti-Christ and have been since His crucifixion. They are as much so now as they were then. They are communists. They would crucify our Savior Jesus Christ today if he stood in the way of their schemes. They attempt to deceive us by assuming Christian names, e.g. Winchell for Lipschitz, and by their so-called "brotherhood" campaign: a rabbi, a protestant preacher, and a Catholic priest working jointly. They proclaim a brotherhood week. They preach tolerance but they practice intolerance.

Their motives are greed and power. They seek to acquire the wealth of the world and to enslave the gentiles. They claim that they are "God's chosen people" and that He promised them that they should rule the world. They are taught this falsehood by their Talmud and their rabbis. They seek to destroy all gentiles and all governments that interfere with their plans. Wars and depressions are necessary to accomplish these purposes and so we have wars and depressions. They always win and the gentiles (go!) always lose.

The Zionist Jews will denounce this booklet as anti-Semitic and me as an intolerant anti-Semite. I am anti-Semitic only to the extent that the Jews are anti-Christ and anti-American. I am no more anti-Semitic than was our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ who denounced the Zionists as idolaters, liars, thieves, and murderers.

I know their history and understand their purposes. I have tried to tell the truth about them without bias or prejudice, and without fear. They are intolerant and vindictive. I realize that I may be persecuted, but if this booklet is of service to my country, I will cheerfully accept the punishment.

There are a few tolerably good Jews but they are mostly of Sephardic origin, as were Benjamin Disraeli and Woodrow Wilson, and not of the Khazar tribe who are of Mongolian origin, as are the Rothschilds. It is estimated that 85% of the American Jews are of Khazar or Ashkenazi origin and that only 15% of all Jews are of Sephardic origin, which is about the percentage of good Jews.

The purposes of this book are two-fold: (1) to bring about the trial and conviction of the traitors who have involved us in four depressions and two wars, and to thereby restore our solvency; (2) the repeal of section one of the 14th and 15th amend-

WHAT SAPS WE ARE!

Presidents come and go, but Baruch goes on forever. During Woodrow Wilson's administration Bernard Baruch took over. He has since been referred to as the unofficial President—the elder statesman—the Presidential Adviser. Although never elected to any office, he has been the real president, and ruler of the Invisible Government. It is estimated that his press agent, Gerald Swope (Zionist) has spent ten million dollars to popularize Baruch, in addition to the 20 million contributed to political campaigns for Baruch-approved candidates to Congress.

Baruch is a Jew. While not of Yiddish Khazar origin, he has been completely harnessed by the Zionists and is an important man in the plan for Zionist rule. When he began advising Woodrow Wilson, the national debt was one billion dollars; today is 260 billion. Under Baruch's advice as Director of the Sanhedrin America has become nearly bankrupt, gone into three world wars, suffered millions of casualties, and helped put the world at the mercy of Marxism.

From "Perimeters In Paragraphs"

by Colonel Conrad Lanza (F. A. USA Ret.)
Appearing in the "Field Artillery Journal" for March-April 1950

(Editor's Note: Confirming the authenticity of this article by Col. Lanza, a Lt. General suggested COMMON SENSE bring this important message to its readers.)

"It is dangerous to defend territory with insufficient forces. Weapons and munitions accumulated in West Europe before the defense is organized to protect them are a temptation to an enemy—to be had for the taking. It is an invitation to war with a view of making big gains at little risk. As military supplies grow, promise of military booty increases, at the expense of greater resistance. The problem (to the enemy) is to determine at what date an attack should be launched to secure the maximum of returns, while remaining sufficiently superior in strength to avoid a too serious resistance. That date may not be too far away.

As these facts are well known throughout West Europe, there is considerable distrust as to whether it is worth while to go ahead re-arming as presently in progress. It may lead straight to a futile resistance, devastation, and great suffering.

The outlook for the United States is dark. We can expect outbreaks all over the world when the Marxist Sanhedrin is ready to push the button. The United States has never faced a crisis one-third as serious as the situation facing us today. Comparatively speaking, we were in no danger whatsoever during World War I and II when we helped to render the world helpless before Communist forces. Now, in addition to defending the United States itself, we have to defend those weak nations scattered across the globe, or face a whole Communist world.

Still, the greatest threat is inside our borders where there are millions who stand ready to help destroy us while we are engaged in battle with enemies in remote corners of the world.

Our armed forces are honeycombed with Marxists. During October and November of last year, they methodically scuttled our Marine Corps, Army, Navy and Air Force so as to weaken our strength. Senator McCarthy's exposures, together with the fearless exposures by others, have so scared the Yiddish Marxists, who fear the public may soon discover their treachery and throw them out of control of Washington, that they are compelled to mastermind the United States into war. With a war crisis they can remain in power and further confuse the public. They will have direction of manpower, rationing, and black markets which they will use to deprive us of liberties we will never regain. Not one country has thrown off Communist rule.

This article is not written as entertainment; it may even be too late as a warning unless God above should see fit to give us more time in which to awaken a naive public to the crisis we face. Our Lord is most likely disgusted with all of us for the way we have made use of his gifts, natural resources and intellects, which could have brought peace and happiness to the entire world but for the fact we have allowed ourselves to be misled and deceived by the same element that opposed and crucified Him.

In this article we do not refer to the members of the American Council of Judaism who are sincerely for America and not for Israel. We oppose no one on account of his religion. It should be understood there is no Jewish Race any more than there is a Baptist or Catholic Race. We are opposed to Talmudists and the Yiddish Khazar group which constitute 85% of those in the United States who call themselves Jews; they are the creators and propagators of Communism, Zionism, Fabianism, Socialism and World Government.

This subversive minority group represents less than one percent of the population of the world, but has been the source of trouble down through the ages. Always motivated by their hatred of Jesus Christ, they have pushed their determination to eliminate Christianity from the face of the earth. To do this they have been trained from childhood to enter certain professions and walks of life so as to be in a position to know all governmental secrets and thereby direct the various governments into war, thus destroying them and rendering the people subject to the scheming minority. They have been schooled in deception to such a degree that the public does not realize this organized minority controls and directs all Communist-dominated unions and is responsible for all revolutionary ideas among the working class. This same minority permeates the educational system, radio, press, entertainment, and thus molds public opinion to their advantage.

EXTRACT FROM THE ZIONIST PROTOCOLS. SEC. 5 (WRITTEN 1897) "In order to put public opinion into our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment by giving expression from all sides to so many contradictory opinions and for such a length of time as will suffice to make the GOYIM (Christian cattle) lose their heads in the labyrinth and come to see that the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political, which it is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret. . . .

"By all these means we shall so wear down the GOYIM that they will be compelled to offer us international power of a nature that by its position will enable us without any violence gradually to absorb all the State forces of the world and to form a Super-Government. In place of the rulers of today we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world."

In 1916 Henry Ford, who publicized the Protocols stated: "All I have to say is they fit the times when written and they fit the times today." Zionists have been placed as secretaries, accountants and in other key spots with most Federal judges, Senators, Congressmen, and business executives, thus having access to confidential information.

Zionists planned and directed World War II so that now, as a result of that war, they rule all so-called Communist countries (See issue 112 of COMMON SENSE). Their plan is for complete world domination and particularly for control of the United States. The best way to gain this is through war. Hence, the word has been given for the outbreak of hostilities in Korea and they are behind the scenes directing every move. This will bring all manpower, natural resources and industry in the United States under government control which Zionists direct. It is difficult for the average person to realize that in all important government departments, Zionists have been placed in key spots so that they know every move made to carry on the war in Korea, or at other points, where it is likely to break out at any time. These Zionists are working with the enemy and, as part of the world conspiracy, will retard shipment of supplies and help the Communist forces in any way possible, just as the Zionist-controlled State Department and the Department of Commerce helped Communist forces in China, and secured confidential information from Chiang Kai Shek and relayed it to the Communists while delaying shipment of arms and supplies to Kai Shek's Nationalist forces.

This outbreak in Korea is but part of the plan for world conquest started in 1917 when 276 Zionists from the East side of New York financed by the Zionist, Jacob Schiff, President of Kuhn Loeb & Company, were sent to Russia in a sealed train to set up Communism. They were joined there by 95 Yiddish speaking Asiatics, making a total of 371 Jews. Of the 388 members of the first Communist government in Russia, 371 were Jews, one a Negro from the United States, and 16 were "real Russians."

These Yiddish Asiatics were careful to keep control of the Communist set up, using non-Jews as fronts only where it was to their advantage to do so. After they took over the entire population of Russia, they decided to move out and conquer Europe. Their first move was in Spain where 100,000 troops were sent to aid the Loyalists (Communist 5th Column) to serve under Moses Rosenberg, who was Ambassador from Russia to Spain, and who took charge of the revolution as soon as it was launched. General Franco defeated the Communists and they were driven back to Russia. They realized they could not cross their borders for further conquests in Europe because of German opposition and power, hence a powerful minority in the United States—mostly from New York and Hollywood—set the stage for World War II so as to break down Germany and allow these Communist forces to sweep over Europe and into China.

Today the British Empire is bankrupt; Germany is crushed; and with the possible exception of the United States, there is no government strong enough to oppose this Asiatic black plague. The United States is thoroughly infiltrated with the enemy 5th Column. During the past six years, several millions of "refugees" from eastern Europe found their way to the United States. Most of these "refugees" were sent here to agitate for Marxism and help in overthrowing our government. A similar situation was found in Germany before the last war when the Asiatic group funneled large numbers of revolutionists into Germany to overthrow the government. Today, the same tactics are being used on the United States—North Korean refugees are asking for a haven in South Korea.

W fight communism with common sense

Many of the "refugees" are Communist "plants" from Red China, and their sole purpose is to get into South Korea for purposes of sabotage. Others of the "North Koreans" are given refuge in Southern Korea where they will disrupt, disorganize, and practice every known Communist trick to defeat the U. S. armed forces.

Further, if the United States does not quickly pass Senator Mundt's anti-Communist Bill S2011 and then finecomb all government departments and arms plants, removing all Yiddish Marxists (Zionists) and their Christian stooges, placing them under armed guard, our forces-at-war will be powerless to defend us. There will be strikes, sabotage of public utilities, confusion in orders, and delays in vital arms production and shipments.

The United States today faces the Soviet Union which has no Americans behind its borders ready to sabotage Russian efforts, whereas here in America we have hundreds of thousands of so-called "refugees," as well as native born radicals, who have already been taught to do everything possible to guarantee a Marxist victory on foreign battlefields or here at home.

EXTRACT FROM THE ZIONIST PROTOCOLS.

SECTION 9 (Written 1897). "It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, of all doctrines, restoring monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harnessed them all to the task: each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority, is striving to overthrow all established form of order. By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquility, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace; but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissiveness."

"The people have raised a howl about the necessity of settling the question of Socialism by way of an international agreement. Division into fractional parties has given them into our hands, for, in order to carry on a contested struggle one must have money, and the money is all in our hands."

"We have got our hands into the administration of the law, into the conduct of the elections, into the press, into liberty of the person, but principally into education and training as being the corner-stones of a free existence."

"We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false although it is by us that they have been inculcated."

We are in no position to fight the enemy for they have saturated every important department and have access to our most vital secrets, just as they stole the atomic energy secrets and hundreds of suitcases packed with confidential information as disclosed by Major Racey Jordan on Fulton Lewis Jr.'s program. For five years our State Department has done everything possible to set up Communism in the Far East, and although our State Department during this time has been under the direction of James Byrnes, George Marshall and Dean Acheson, it was always run—and with an iron hand—by Felix Frankfurter, the Yiddish Asiatic "ruler-behind-the-scenes." During this time Patrick Hurley, Ambassador to China, resigned because the State Department placed so many Communists around him that Moscow was better informed than his own government.

Today our boys are being sent to Korea to fight under that gallant leader, General MacArthur. We can be sure that their efforts will be sabotaged, supplies and arms delayed, orders confused, and our enemy advised of their positions because the International Marxists, or their stooges in Washington, are part of the world conspiracy. Maxim Litvinov (Finkelstein) is directing the Communist program in China, and is no doubt the top man behind the Korean war. He is the Zionist who, as ambassador to the U. S., tricked F.D.R. into recognizing the Soviet Union and later ridiculed F.D.R. for being so dumb.

Unless real Americans have the courage to face facts and act quickly, we will be ruled by the same ruthless Zionists who now rule Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Rumania, etc. Our families and property will be at their mercy.

It is almost impossible for the reader to have a full understanding of the overall picture for world domination by the ruthless group of

W fight communism with common sense

Asiatics, who have combined the teachings of the Talmud with those of Marx, by merely reading this article. We suggest, for a complete understanding, the invaluable book, "The ZIONISTS" by Judge George W. Armstrong (which may be ordered from COMMON SENSE at $1.00 per copy) and "FEPC and the Minority Machine" by former counter-intelligence officer, Robert H. Williams. Major Williams' booklet is obtainable from COMMON SENSE at 25c per copy.

From "Perimeters In Paragraphs",

An obvious solution to this problem would be to rearm Germany if time permits. Previous experience indicates that an armed Germany supported by the North Atlantic Allies would have an excellent chance of winning a war against the combined communist states.

Objection to this solution is that France is unalterably opposed to rearming Germany. For if that should happen, Germany with its greater population, better industrial development, and more extensive resources, and not France, would be the leading Power in West Europe. Rather than see this occur, France would prefer to take a chance on complete conquest by Russia. (Who are the rulers of France?) The danger of this is evident, but, as French assistance is, as long as Germany remains disarmed, necessary for the defense of West Europe none of the Allies opposes France. (Who are the rulers of the Allies?) The United States has officially announced that it will not agree to rearming Germany. (Who are the rulers of the USA?)

A second solution is to organize Southwest Europe, in rear of the Pyrenees, as a fortified area or redoubt, to which defense forces if too weak to resist an enemy (in West Europe) could retreat. The Pyrenees Mountains present a first class obstacle and an excellent defensive position. Behind them is ample space for large forces, good sites for air bases, good ports for maintaining lines of communication to the Americans. Spain could contribute 20 divisions to the North Atlantic Alliance without delay, and Portugal 4—probably sufficient to defend the Pyrenees temporarily. These forces do not have complete modern equipment, but they are a disciplined force.

Objection to this solution is that Spain is in the international dog house with the North Atlantic Allies refusing to deal with her on the ground that the government is not entirely democratic. (Evidently Spain has different rulers from those of the Allies). That is a correct statement of the facts, but there is lack of evidence that the Spaniards are dissatisfied with their government, which is strongly anti-communistic. (A condition evidently not acceptable to those who rule the North Atlantic Alliance).

An effort has started in Europe to remove the objections to including Germany and Spain in the North Atlantic Alliance. If this were to occur, West Europe within a few years—which might indeed be dangerous ones—should thereafter be in excellent shape to defend itself. This would lighten the great burden of taxation undertaken by the USA to protect the large populations, exceeding its own, in West Europe and permit the use of funds so released for the defense of the Pacific Theatre, which is vital to the USA, but of secondary consideration to Europe.

At the present time, either or both of these solutions are impracticable for political reasons. (Here the author clearly implies that Zionist-Marxist propaganda for hatred of Germany and Spain makes our politicians afraid to take the obvious course to the best interests of the USA.)

ments to our National Constitution and the limitation of the 16th, and to thereby preserve constitutional government. I intend to devote my fortune, which I hope may be a considerable one, to the accomplishment of these purposes.

Geo. W. Armstrong.

The problem of the Jews has faced every nation throughout all history. In the settlement of that problem the Jew has been driven out of every Christian country in which he has been domiciled. It is now the turn of the United States to face that problem, for the Jews are determined, not only to make their last stand here, but they hope to take us over, — lock, stock and barrel. The fact is that Zionism is the No. 1 problem before the world today. Solve that problem, eliminate the Zionists from politics — local, national and international — and civilization will take a long step forward and the problem of establishing world peace can be undertaken with every hope of success.

There are three tribes of Jews, viz: the Ashkenazim, Sephardim, and Khazars. The Ashkenazim and Khazars are of northern Europe and southern Russia, and the Sephardim are of southern Europe and Asia, and northern Africa. The three tribes have the same religion, tribal customs and general characteristics; all of them are governed by their rabbis and their Talmud. In every country and in every age they have been money lenders and traders.

The orthodox Jews or Zionists are ambitious for dominance over the Christians and they have obtained it through the power of their money. Generally speaking, they control and from early times have controlled the banking systems, the transportation systems, news agencies and press of the world. They are exceedingly clannish and are always a cell within the nation in which they reside; they do not assimilate. Originally the Sephardim were the richest and most cultured tribe; many of them married Christians and became Christians (Marranos). (A Christian Jew is called a "Marrano.") With the rise of the Rothschild power, the Ashkenazim and Khazars became the dominant tribes.

KHAZAR JEWS

The Jews that govern Russia and seek to govern the world are of Ashkenazim or Khazar origin. Palestine was never their home; it is doubtful if the Khazars are in fact Jews. The Encyclopedia Britannica states that,

"They (the Khazars) are assigned to the Turkish stock by Latham and Haworth, to the Ugrian by Klaprath and have even been claimed as Jews on account of their use of the Hebrew character and the profession of Hebrew faith among them."

It further states that,

"The Khazars were an historic figure on the borderland between Europe and Asia for at least 900 years (190-1100 A.M.) . . . Their home was in the spurs of the Caucasus and along the shores of the Caspian, and their cities, all of them populous and civilized commercial centers, were upon the delta of the Volga, the river of the Khazars."

They were overrun by the Mohammedans who claim to be the descendants of Ishmael. They are probably hybrid Ishmaelites and to that extent only are they the "seed of Abraham." They are communists and the most backward of the three tribes. It is reported that the Jews that have recently settled in Palestine are atheists and communists. The Bolsheviks have been transporting them to Palestine and secretly supplying them with arms, and directing their war against the Arabs and British.

All Jews are divided into two classes, viz: the Orthodox (or Zionist Jews) and the reformed Jews. It is estimated that about 85% of them are Orthodox and Zionist. They are governed by their rabbis and Talmud, and are socialists and communists. This is not true of the reformed Jews, who are good citizens in the country in which they reside; they accept the laws and customs of such country and are loyal to its government. The Zionists maintain their B'nai B'rith and anti-Defamation and anti-Nazi Leagues with their numerous spies. They are our secret enemies.

ASHKENAZI JEWS

The author of "Unity in Dispersion," a history of the Zionist organization published in 1948, says on page 377:

"The Sephardic world comprises a million Jews, the majority of whom live in Moslem countries. The Ashkenazi world in East Europe forms the bulk of world Jewry. Eastern European Jews are reported descendants from Khazarites who formed an ancient kingdom in the Caucasus composed largely of Mongolian stock and who were early converted to Judaism. It has been stated that these Ashkenazi are not racial or true Jews, like the Sephardic, which were dispersed west along the northern shores of Africa."

This book's 381 pages evidence great research on the part of the author, A. L. Kubowitzki, a Jew. He and his book were endorsed by Rabbi Wise, who boasted of his association with him. It is true that the Jews of Europe, as well as Russia, are not the descendants of Jacob, and that Palestine is not their ancient home, and that they are principally converts of Mongolian origin. It is true also that they now constitute the great majority of the race and dominate it. The Rothschilds are Ashkenazi Jews of Mongolian descent and by reason of their great wealth and service to world Jewry are the rulers of the race.

INTERNATIONAL BANKER JEWS

This is a supplement to the chapter Rothschild Money Trust, page 7-13, Zionist Wall Street.

The international banker Jews are Zionists and dominated by the Zionist Rothschild money trust. The Rothschild firm was first organized by the Zionist Rabbi Mayer Amschel Rothschild of Frankfurt, Germany, as M. A. Rothschild & Sons as a perpetual partnership, prior to the French Revolution. Later a similar firm was organized by his son Nathan Rothschild as N. M. Rothschild & Son of London.

The two Rothschild partnerships have dominated the economic and political fortunes of the people of the world since their organization. They are largely responsible for all of the financial panics and depressions and of the major wars since the French Revolution and including it. The first and second World Wars were initiated by Zionist Jews against the Christians for the purpose of promoting their Zionist world empire. They established the League of Nations which was a failure. The United Nations is also a failure and therefore a third war will be necessary for their purposes, and it appears inevitable.

It will likely come about through deflation and strikes. Our weakness is that fact that New York Communist Jews control both our industries and labor organizations. They can tie up our railroads and industries and starve us into submission. The Zionist Wall Street international banker Jews are our enemies; they are more dangerous than the Politburo of Russia. If they again betray us into war, we may be defeated. We have hybrid Jew Mark Clark as Commander in Chief of our armies; our Atomic Commission is pro-Jewish. Both political parties have declared for deflation; President Truman is actively seeking to bring it about, and therefore deflation and war are serious threats. They aspire to restore the gold standard and to deflate the world. Our money is out of balance with the monies of all other countries, so much so that many of them cannot buy our goods.

The international Jew bankers not only control our railroads and industries but they control our banking system and the executive departments of our government. The Austrian Jew Felix Frankfurter is the dominating member of our Supreme Court. Tom McCabe, president of the Scott Paper Company, a Morgan firm, is Chairman of the Board of our Federal Reserve System. Paul Hoffman, E. R. A. Administrator, is president of the Studebaker Corporation which is controlled by the Zionist Jewish international banking firm of Lehman & Company.

The Marshall Plan was the concoction of Wall Street Zionist Jews. It was written by the Russian Jew Leon Levitsky. The purpose was to finance socialism and communism in Europe and to bankrupt America. Wall Street Zionist Jews organized a committee headed by Henry L. Stimson, erstwhile Secretary of War and attorney for Kuhn, Loeb & Co., which raised a huge fund to promote its adoption by Congress.

The socialist United Nations is also a product of these same Wall Street Zionist Jews. Its charter was prepared by the Russian Communist Jew Leo Pasvolosky and the Communist Alger Hiss, then of our State Department, who piloted its adoption by the San Francisco conference. (Hiss was a protégé of Justice Felix Frankfurter). It was designed as the initial charter of the Zionist World Empire to be later expanded by usurpation and amendment. We American taxpayers are practically supporting it, paying 90% of its expenses, and it is costing us in excess of one hundred million dollars annually. The special session of the United Nations adopted $65,000,000 for the erection of its capitol in New York City by a bi-partisan vote.

It is estimated that there are thirteen million Jews in the United States, about three million of them being in the city of New York, and that they own about 80% of our wealth. They dominate Tammany Hall and New York City. We now have approximately one-half of the Jews of the world.

I repeat that the Zionist Jews control our economy and the executive department of our government, and have considerable influence in the legislative and judicial departments. They control not only our transportation and banking systems but the cinema, the radio, the advertising and news agencies and with a few exceptions, the metropolitan press and publishing houses. They dominate the steel, tobacco, liquor and clothing industries and the chain and department stores. They finance the democratic and republican parties and through them elect our officers.

Their program is to destroy the Christian governments of the world, including our own, and to establish a Zionist Empire with a Zionist emperor; to confiscate the property of the Christians and to enslave them. They have made great progress; they have established the Russian Soviet Empire, and with our help, the state of Israeli; they are domin-

*Lehman gave the UNRRA relief funds entrusted to him, to Communist rulers who used them to promote socialism and communism. ant in China and seriously threaten England, France, Italy, and the United States. They have brought about four serious depressions in the United States and threaten another, and they have involved us in two disastrous wars in pursuance of this purpose.

The Orthodox Zionist Jews have been a disturbing element in every country in which they have lived. It is due to their racial characteristics and their rabbinical training. They are greedy, anti-Christian, and worshippers of gold. They are intolerant, bigoted and self assertive; a Jew in any committee or bureau is a majority; as witness our U. S. Supreme Court. We can criticize an Englishman or an Irishman or any other race, but not a Jew which is forbidden as anti-Semitism; as witness the Nuremberg trials and the indictment and trial of 31 alleged seditionists in Washington and the conviction of William Dudley Pelley.

It is estimated that the Rothschild Morgan firm controls corporations with net assets of thirty billion dollars and that eight Jewish controlled corporations have net assets of eighty billion dollars; about one-half of our national wealth measured by dollars of their present value. Their conviction for their treachery and the resultant cancellation of their bonds would restore our solvency and our freedom from debt slavery. In fact, there is no other way to do so except by inflation, which they will not permit. President Truman asserts the republican party is controlled by monopolies but he has not the courage to say that these monopolies are controlled by Zionist Jews, nor the frankness to say that they also control the national democratic party and his government. Be it remembered that Zionism means communism; all Zionists are either socialists or communists. That is the creed of the Talmud and the Protocols.

ZIONISM

The fundamental ideology or philosophy of Zionism is that the Jews are the "chosen people" and that God promised them that they should possess and rule the world. It is based on the first five chapters of the Old Testament as interpreted by their rabbis and their Talmud. The Zionists have been taught this false doctrine and they believe it and are attempting to bring it about through a world government. The Protocols represent their method of establishing their kingdom. Zionism is a political cult and the rabbis are its teachers and politicians; its objective is a world Jewish empire as projected by Theodore Herzl in their Protocols.

We cannot know much about Zionism for the organizations, conventions and proceedings are racial and secret. We can only get an occasional glimpse of their plans and operations and such information about them as they are willing for us to have, for they control the press, radio, and cinema. The great majority of the Jews (an estimated 85% of them), including the international banker Jews are Zionists and thereby have the mighty power of ostracism.

Zionism existed prior to the Christian Era. Its leaders then, as now, were rabbis, scribes, pharisees, elders, and hypocrites. They were the gentry who crucified Christ. They are just as murderous and as merciless and as cruel now as they were then. Christ said of them, "Woe unto you scribes, pharisees, hypocrites for ye are like unto whited sepulchres which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of all uncleanness."—St. Matthew 23:27.

This is just as true now, as it was then. They will murder any man who opposes their schemes if they can safely do so. They have been the murderers of our Presidents and courageous statesmen. They were the murders of the Czars and rulers of Europe; Count Bernadotte and the Shah of Persia are their two latest prominent victims.

ALTERATION OF NEW DP LAW CRITICIZED

Action of the DP-Commission regarded as deliberate perversion of the Law

At a recent meeting of the United Action Committee for Expellees, it was reported from authoritative sources, that the DP-Commission has already attempted to alter the newly-passed DP Law. For example, Section 13 of the new law makes no reference whatsoever to the words "Nazi" or "Fascist". It is worded as follows:

"No visas shall be issued . . . to any person who is or has been a member of the Communist Party or to any other person who adheres to, advocates, or follows the principles of any political or economic system of philosophy directed toward the destruction of competitive enterprise and the revolutionary overthrow of representative governments."

However, in the re-worded version of the DP-Commission's directive, the text runs:

"No person shall be eligible to receive the benefits of the Act who:

- is or has ever been a member of the Communist, Nazi or Fascist parties . . .
- is or has been a member of or participated in any movement which is or has been hostile to the United States or the form of government of the United States; such a movement includes but is not limited to the Communist, Nazi or Fascist parties."

Everyone knows, that almost all the German people were compelled sooner or later to become members of the Nazi party. Mr. Meyer L. Casman, a Philadelphia attorney, who spent three years in Germany as "president judge of the Civil Actions Court", substantiates this assertion (Legal Intelligence issue No. 119, June 23, 1950) where he is quoted as follows: "It would appear that many of these Nazi members were 'paper' members. We know only too well how in the Third Reich, as well as in the Russian Zone of Germany now, professional men such as members of the bar and particularly judges and prosecutors cannot even function without bearing the party label."

Hence the deliberate insertion by the DP-Commission of the words "Nazi" and "Fascist" into the text of the law, allows only one interpretation, namely a marked effort on their part to keep out even those Germans who were, as Mr. Casman indicates, merely "Nazis on paper."

It is, in the final analysis, an unequivocal design, a voluntary perversion of the law, the end result of which will be the favoring at the expense of the German immigrant, certain other groups.

The United Action Committee has taken a firm stand against this flagrant distortion of the law. If Congress had wanted certain words inserted into the bill before it went to the President, it would have done so. The fact that it did not, shows its satisfaction with the bill as it was submitted to and signed by Mr. Truman.

An immediate communication to the Hon. Howard McGrath, Attorney-General as well as to your Congressman is necessary if this usurpation of power by the DP-Commission is to be prevented. Write today, asking that the strict wording of the DP Law be honored and adhered to.

Christianity for it is necessary in order to establish their communist Judaic Empire. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was no doubt correct in saying that Cardinal Midzinsky was an anti-Semite. That was the real offense of the Bulgarian protestant group. That was the offense of the victims of the Nuremberg kangaroo court for which some of them were murdered and others imprisoned. That was the offense of Peley and the 31 alleged seditionists. That is a part of the plan to suppress and destroy Christianity, viz: murder, bribery, deception and intimidation.

They deceive us by their "brotherhood" weeks and "Protestant, Catholic and Jew" campaigns, financed by the B'nai B'rith, and their change of names from "berg" and "lsky" to Christian names. They are anti-Christ by teaching and tradition and have always been so. Our greatest protection against them is the Catholic Church and not the Protestant, I regret to say.

The Zionist system of government is state socialism ruled by a dictator and commissars and spies. It is the "welfare state," which must have a dictator and spies to make it work. None of us loves to work until we develop the "work habit." We must be induced to work by the hope of reward or compelled to work by the fear of punishment. We won't work for the pleasure to be derived out of it. God made us that way; it is His plan.

The Zionists have established their system in Russia and her satellite states, in the state of Israel and in the Eastern Zone of Germany. They are rapidly developing it in England through the labor party and they seek to establish it in America through the A.F. of L. and C.I.O. A PASTOR AT THE ALTAR IS SHOT DOWN

(Excerpt from German Woman in Russian Hands: The Journal of a Young German Wife Under Bolshevik Occupation from January 29 to May 31, 1945)

After the night's experience (during which three Bolsheviks had dragged her friend, Helen, out into the snow and ravished her), we firmly decided that we would no longer stay in that house, especially after we learned that the women in the first house in the row who had until now been our salvation, had taken in Russian officers as permanent guests, so that they would no longer have to fear the roaming hordes. In desperation we thought of the evangelical church committee-man, who lived farther up near the edge of the woods. We hurried to his house. Just as we arrived this dearly beloved pastor was being carried lifeless through the garden gate, while his white-haired wife, chalk white and hysterical, stood at the house-door. He had taken the risk of holding a service in the town for the consolation of his suffering flock. While at the altar, he was shot from behind.

Miserably depressed, we went back into town, hoping to find an empty corner in the home of Mr. Barend, the baker, whose house had been spared. From all appearances the Russians had their headquarters there; there seemed to be lively activity in the Cafe from which voices and accordion music were issuing forth. We learned from one of the baker's journeymen, who was forced to bake for the Russians, that Barend with his wife and married daughter, who was soon to have a baby, had attempted to flee over the icy lake to a rest home in the woods, which had not yet been discovered by the Russians. The little group however had hardly started out when they were overtaken by the Russians. Despite the kneeling entreaties of the baker, both women were violated there in the cold, and then sent back to town. Through the dreadful excitement the young mother suffered a premature confinement, unattended by a midwife or doctor, and lay with a high fever in the noisy house.

ferred the welfare state to a Wall Street State." The poor man apparently does not know that the Wall Street Zionists seek to convert our government into a welfare state which they will rule.

The Zionist welfare state is "anti-Christ" because Zionism is anti-Christ. Gone will be our fundamentals of Christianity, viz: faith, hope and charity and repentance and forgiveness of sin, gone will be our freedom and independence. Gone will be our home and family life. Gone will be the chastity of our wives and daughters. Our lives will be subject to the will of our Zionist masters. It will be a government of commissars and spies with a dictator, and woe to the man who encounters the displeasure of a commissar or a spy.

3 Men Called A Government In Themselves

FRANKFURTER RATED MOST POWERFUL

By WALTER TROHAN

Washington, May 28—The names of three men who have played important roles in the

HERBERT H. LEHMAN

United States for almost a score of years weave in and out in the curious pattern of British, American, and Soviet relations. These men are: Felix Frankfurter, associate justice of the United States Supreme court.

Henry Morgenthau Jr., former secretary of the treasury.

Herbert H. Lehman, United States senator and former governor of New York.

FRANKFURTER MOST POWERFUL

A person with highest state department connections identified these three figures as the secret government of the United States. Frankfurter was pictured as the most powerful man in the government, reaching into the White House with his proteges.

Lehman was pictured as a powerful Wall street force. He is a former partner in Lehman Bros., Wall street banking company still controlled by his family. Morgenthau was named by the state department authority as the spokesman of the powerful Zionist groups.

The names of all three figures were woven into the case of Alger Hiss, convicted perjurer-spy. All have played a role in domestic and foreign policy of their time.

PRO-SOVIET TO A DEGREE

Most observers agree that the three men play important roles even if they do not agree the

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.

While Secretary of Treasury with his Communist Zionist undersecretary Harry Dexter White, Morgenthau ordered the master plates for printing U. S. money loaded on a plane at Washington and turned over to a Soviet Union General. At the same time three planes of secret paper for printing our money and one plane full of secret ink was turned over to be flown to Russia. Later the Communists returned stating one plane of paper crashed and received another plane of paper. All as a gift. It is estimated the Zionists printed eight billion in our money to be used by refugees entering the U. S. Russian soldiers also paid our GI's as high as four thousand dollars for a watch with this same money.

three constitute the secret government, as charged by the person with state department connections.

None of the three has been named as a fellow traveler or has ever fallen under any suspicion of taint of communism. All have been pro-soviet to a degree, but only when the Russian position advanced the British or Zionist causes or worked toward the fall of Nazi Germany.

Frankfurter was born in Vienna in 1882. He was brought here at the age of 12. In World War I he held a Washington civilian job, on leave from Harvard. He was professor of law at Harvard from 1914 to 1939, when he was named to the court.

At Harvard he defended in his writings Sacco and Vanzetti, Communists executed for murder. He was censured for his association with such radicals by Theodore Roosevelt, late President. Frankfurter was associated at Harvard with Harold Laski, late British Labor party official. Laski has been credited with being spiritual father of the New Deal as well as of British Socialism.

A COMMON BACKGROUND

Frankfurter and Laski, a visiting professor at Harvard, had a common background in a Boston left wing group, the Ford Hall forum. With them in this venture was David K. Niles, now administrative assistant at the White House. Niles owes his government connection to Frankfurter.

The late Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, head of the ill fated national recovery administration, who later broke with the New Deal, characterized

REMINGTON RAND BOWS TO MARXISM ANTI DEFAMATION LEAGUE DICTATES POLICIES

The intensely organized Marxist Anti-Defamation League has recently forced another American to bow to its powerful influence by calling James H. Rand, President of the Remington Rand Company before the great Zionist leaders and account to them for supporting Melvin K. Hart, President of the National Economic Council. As a result Remington Rand bowed its head in shame and backed out of the door begging for mercy and promising never to do it again. After the apology the word was sent out to all of the Zionist-Communist groups that Remington Rand had been subdued and it would not be necessary to boycott Remington Rand's type-writers.

The news of the Hart case has been published in the newspapers and the list of the names of persons who supported Hart in his fight against Communism has been made known. Most Americans know these facts but what they do not know is that the moment these names were given to Congress by Hart a Zionist by the name of Louis Little, counsel for the Buchanan Lobbying Committee, called up Walter Winchell, Zionist and spokesman for the A.D.L., and gave him the names. Walter Winchell was on the air smearing these people before Hart returned to New York City. The leaders of the Anti-Defamation League put their heads together to plan a reign of terror against these people to stop them from further supporting Melvin Hart and to finally bring him to his knees. The first victim on the list was James H. Rand who thought it wise to go along with the Zionist-Commies rather than to lose his business. Who will be next? This is the method that the Zionists use to silence anyone who attempts to expose their plan to rule America as they did Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, etc. Since they control most daily newspapers all that is necessary is to stop the publications of such individuals as Melvin Hart's, and the simplest way to do this is to threaten those who support such leaders.

Most of our readers know how all this comes about and are aware of the Zionist-Communist Black Plague that is sweeping the world. But there are others who cannot understand how any organization in America could have so much influence. It is really simple once a person understands the relationship of Communism with Zionism and the Anti-Defamation League. Zionism is the father of Communism and protects it like any father would protect his son. Both Communism and Zionism are out to achieve the same

Frankfurter as "the most influential single individual in the United States."

The law professor spotted his students thruout the government. He cultivated government officials, military men, members of congress and other influential people. He was considered the power behind the White House throne under President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

HISS ONE OF PUPILS

One of Frankfurter's bright pupils was Alger Hiss. Hiss was placed for a year as secretary to the late Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes. He was then put in the government, first with the department of agriculture, later with the senate munitions investigating committee and then with the state department.

Hiss told a congressional committee that Frankfurter put him into the government. Frankfurter was a character witness for Hiss at his first perjury trial. Frankfurter did not appear at the second trial which resulted in a conviction. The first trial ended in a hung jury.

Laski was an admirer of the soviet experiment. Frankfurter was an admirer of Laski and regarded the Britisher as his political mentor.

ADVISED AT YALTA

Hiss, Frankfurter's protege, was the trusted adviser of Roosevelt at the Yalta conference and was secretary of the United Nations founding conference at San Francisco. At Yalta Russia won secret concessions under which the Kremlin was able to communize China, and set up a strong sphere of influence in eastern Germany and in a chain of eastern European satellites.

State Secretary Acheson and Frankfurter are the closest of friends. The two walk together every morning. During his days in the state department, Hiss frequently joined the pair for a walk. Acheson was identified before a congressional committee as a member of the pro-soviet bloc in the state department by A. A. Berle Jr., former assistant secretary of state.

Acheson is the son of a British born and ordained church of England minister who became Episcopal bishop of Connecticut. Acheson's mother was a Canadian and a member of a wealthy distillery family. Acheson's father preached for a time in Canada before coming to the United States.

ATLANTIC CHARTER ROLE

The mother of Sir Alexander Cadogan, recently retired British representative on the U. N. security council, was an Acheson. Cadogan was Britain's permanent undersecretary of state for foreign affairs before he went to U. N. at its outset. He went to the Newfoundland meeting of Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill in August, 1941, before America entered the war, with the first draft of what was later given to the world as the Atlantic Charter.

Informed observers do not consider Acheson pro-soviet today. They believe he was pro-soviet when Britain approved of Russia and anti-Russian when Britain was anti-Stalin. They hold he has been consistently pro-British thruout his career.

Morgenthau was chairman of an agriculture advisory commission when Roosevelt was governor of New York. He was made chairman of the federal farm board at the outset of the New Deal. He became treasury secretary in 1934. Credit for his getting this post is partly given to his late wife, who was an intimate of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

50 BILLIONS POURED OUT

Under Morgenthau, the lend-lease program was developed by Oscar Cox and Edward H. Foley Jr. The real authorship was not disclosed until after the war, altho Morgenthau was questioned on it by a senate committee. Under this plan more than 50 billion dollars was poured out to Russia, Britain and other allies.

Morgenthau is credited with being the author of the policy of a harsh peace toward Germany, the peace of revenge known as a Carthaginian peace program. The name is derived from the fact that the victorious Romans razed Carthage and sowed the ground with salt so that nation might not rise again.

One of the chief architects in carrying out the harsh peace was Harry Dexter White, born Weiss, a former assistant treasury secretary under Morgenthau. White was identified as a Communist spy before a house committee by Elizabeth Bentley, confessed former red spy, about the same time Hiss was identified as a spy.

SERIES OF MYSTERIOUS DEATHS

White denied the connection. A few days later, on Aug. 17, 1948, White died. Death was reportedly due to an overdose of digitalis, which drug White had been taking for a heart ailment.

This death was one of a series of mysterious deaths, suicides and accidents that have dotted the Hiss case. Among many others are Laurence Duggan, former state department official, who fell, jumped or was pushed from his New York office window; Walter Smith, justice department employe who notarized the sale of Hiss' car to Whittaker Chambers and who plunged to his death in the department of justice building; Edward R. Stettinius, former secretary of state, who died of a heart ailment in his early 50s, and John G. Winant, former ambassador to Britain, who conducted the negotiations which left the United States without a corridor to Berlin, and who died by his own hand.

White was the author of the Bretton Woods monetary agreement which set up the World bank and international monetary fund. Up to about a year before he died he held a high salaried tax free post with the monetary fund, under which the United States was committed to financing the world.

Morgenthau has been active in the Zionist movement, which led to the creation of Israel. He cooled toward Britain at the time that nation opposed creating the new state.

Lehman, who also supported Israel, has played a major role in opposing Sen. McCarthy (R., Wis.) in the latter's efforts to expose Communism in the government, particularly in the state department. Lehman has defended the state department thruout the investigation.

GIVEN DESK SPACE

Lehman's niece, Mrs. Helen Lehman Buttenwieser, a lawyer and wife of Atty. Benjamin J. Buttenwieser, is a firm supporter of Hiss and was a constant spectator at the trials. After Hiss' conviction she offered her home to Hiss and his wife, Priscilla. The Hisses spent several months with the Buttenwiesers.

Hiss was given desk space in Buttenwieser's law firm. Buttenwieser is assistant United States high commissioner for Germany. Buttenwieser has been a member of the powerful banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

Hiss was befriended by John Foster Dulles, predecessor of Lehman as senator. Dulles, foreign policy adviser of Gov. Dewey of New York, might have been secretary of state had Dewey been elected President. Dulles is a member of the Wall St. law firm of Cromwell & Sullivan. He sponsored Hiss for the presidency of the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace. Andrew Carnegie, Scotch born steel magnate, hoped to bring the United States into union with Britain.

Hiss was defended editorially and in the news columns of the Washington Post. The president and publisher of the Post is Philip L. Graham, son-in-law of the Post's owner, Eugene Meyer. Graham formerly was law clerk to Frankfurter.

REMINGTON RAND BOWS TO MARXISM

result, however, they are both clothed differently. Communism on it's face has all the forms of aggression, terror and hate, consequently it could never become a menace in a free Republic without the help of some other evil force. It needs some other partner in crime more diabolical and more cunning to destroy the fundamental principles of a free nation before Communism is welcomed. This sinister and diabolical force must creep upon a nation the same way and in the same manner as cancer does to the human body. It must be absolutely unknown to the victim to have the desired effect. The most intelligent people must be unsuspecting until they feel the last breath of air squeezed out of their body. Nation after nation has proclaimed their hate for Communism and still they fall under the powerful domination of the totalitarian state. The obvious reason is that they recognized Communism as it was but couldn't identify it's partner Zionism. Every country in Europe that has fallen under the hammer and sickle is ruled by a Zionist. Communism today is using the Zionist Protocols written 53 years ago as the blueprint. They wrote in 1897 the method they would use on such people as Merwin Hart who became too nationalistic. Hart and Rand are not the first Americans to be threatened with intimidation, boycott etc. The reader might remember such great men as Father Coughlin, Col. Charles Lindberg, Senator Burton Wheeler and Senator

Nye. All of these American leaders fell under the heel of the Anti-Defamation League. Today the victims are General McArthur, Senator McCarthy, Joseph Kamp, Merwin Hart and many others. Just recently three Zionists from the Anti-Defamation League walked into the office of a very prominent industrialist and former Senator and told him that if he did not stop supporting the National Economic Council they would see that he was removed from board of directors of four corporations. The reader will admit that this Anti-Defamation League is competition for the FBI in America. The proper name to be given to it is the "Gestapo". They openly boast that they have 2000 paid investigators in the U. S. Besides these the Zionists have thousands of key men in government key-spots, two of which are David Niles, advisor to the President and Felir Frankfurter of the Supreme Court. Although these two are credited with most of the Zionist activity in Washington it is well to remember that the important member of this group is Bernard Baruch.

The American press is controlled by the same Zionist-Marxist as the government is, although it is done in a different manner. With the exception of the Daily Worker and 400 other Red sheets the Zionists control the newspapers through advertising. Since most of the businesses are owned by the Zionists in this country they do not have to own the newspapers. They simply dictate to those who publish their papers that certain items should be printed and others not printed. If the publisher should not see things the way the Anti-Defamation League does then the publisher is informed that their advertising will be stopped immediately. The Chicago Tribune is now under pressure from the Anti-Defamation League for violating orders. Can you see the similarity of control in the Remington Rand case? If America had the freedom of the press that the constitution guarantees there would be no need for individuals like Merwin Hart to fight. But he knows that the daily newspapers cannot print the truth and like any real American tries to save America.

If any American doubts that Zionism is in back of Communism the thing for him to do is to start an open attack upon Communism alone and see how fast the Anti-Defamation League starts to smear him. He will be attacked by every Zionist group in America.

The Zionist boasted in 1897 in their Protocols that the control of the press was in their hands: "We must compel the government of the Goyim (Chrstian cattle) to take action in the direction favored by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consumation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so called "Great Power"—The Press, which with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands."

It is an interesting point to keep in mind that these Khazar Zionists who are in control of our government, press, and country, not only have cousins living in Russia but also fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters. They are coming into the country by the thousands and demanding tolerance before they reach American Shores. The first mate of a steamship which makes two or three trips a month to Europe recently informed one of our staff that his ship brings thousands of these Khazar-Zionists to America every month. He further stated that as soon as they get on the boat they start demanding everything and threatening the ship's personel. That if they do not get what they want they will report them. These are the people that have the nerve to walk into the office of an American and demand that he refrain from supporting another American. These are the originators of the "Brother-de-love" campaign and the tolerant crusade. We are supposed to tolerate them and their diabolical scheme of Zionist-Marxism. How much longer are the American people going to tolerate this spread of Communism in America.

Because you don't see in local newspapers what you read in COMMON SENSE, don't think we are wrong—don't fool yourself. Many important exposures in COMMON SENSE will be printed in other papers a year or two hence. COMMON SENSE has no advertisers to tell us what we can or cannot print.

"THE ZIONISTS"

(Editor's note: Believing "The ZIONISTS" to be one of the most important new books we are, with this issue, serializing it. The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country is being made to suffer the same fate of all other nations now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

MARTIN LUTHER

Martin Luther said of the Jews and their Talmud:

"Therefore know, my dear Christian, that next to the devil you have no more bitter, more poisonous, more vehement an enemy than a real Jew who earnestly desires to be a Jew (an orthodox Jew) . . .

"Since childhood they have devoured such poisonous hatred against the Goyim (gentiles) from their parents and Rabbis, and still devour such without ceasing, that according to Psalm 109 it has gone over into their flesh and blood, bone and marrow, and has become their life and being. And as little as they can alter flesh and blood, bone and marrow, so little can they change such pride and envy. They just have to stay that way and be ruined, if God does not perform a special miracle."

He further said:

"They do not work, do not earn anything from us, neither do we donate or give it to them. Yet they have our money and goods and are lords in our land where they are exiled. . . .

"Do not their Talmud and Rabbis write that it is no sin to kill if a Jew kills a heathen (Gentile), but it is sin if he kills a brother in Israel! It is no sin if he does not keep his oath to a heathen. Therefore, to steal and rob (as they do with their usury) from a heathen, is a divine service. For they hold that they cannot be too hard on us nor sin against us, because they are the noble blood and circumcized saints; we however, are the cursed Goyim. And they are the master of the world and we are their servants, yea, their cattle!"

Martin Luther said further:

"They hold us Christians in captivity in our own country; they let us work in the sweat of our noses, while they appropriate money and goods, sitting behind the stove, are lazy, gluttons and guzzlers, live well and easy on goods for which we have worked, keep us and our goods in captivity through their cursed usury, mock us and spit on us, because we must labor and permit them to be noblemen at our expense. Thus they are our lords and masters, we their servants with our own property, sweat and labor! and to thank us and reward us, they curse our Lord!"

"The Jews and Their Lies" by Martin Luther, pages 28, 30, 31, 37.

Our Lord Jesus Christ denounced them in still more forceful and direct language. He said to the Jews a short-time before they crucified him:

"Ye are of YOUR father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar and the father of it." St. John 8:44.

And so they were and are today and always will be so long as they are governed by their rabbis, their scribes, pharisees, hypocrites, and their Talmud; their "traditions" as Christ called it. They haven't changed and they can't change and they don't want to change. Their tradition (Talmud) is their religion. They are taught it by their mothers in their infancy, their schools during their adolescence and their rabbis in their maturity. They are born that way and are educated and trained that way. They are a stubborn, "stiff necked," vain, self assertive, purse proud, gold worshipping people. Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ did not reform them, nor can we do so.

George Washington, the father of our country, said of the Jews:

"They work more effectively against us, than the enemy's armies. They are a hundred times more dangerous to our liberties and the great cause we are engaged in . . . It is much to be lamented that each state, long ago, has not hunted them down as pests to society and the greatest enemies we have to the happiness of America."*

 Maxius of George Washington by A. A. Appleton & Company, page 125-6, copyright 1894.

Benjamin Franklin said of them:

"There is a great danger for the United States of America; this great danger is the Jew. Gentlemen, in every land which the Jews have settled, they have depressed the normal level and lowered the degree of commercial honesty. They have remained apart and unassimilated,—they have created a state within a state; and when they are oppressed they attempt to strangle the nation financially as in the case of Portugal and Spain. For more than 1700 years they have lamented their sorrowful fate,—namely, they were driven out of their motherland, but gentlemen, if the civilized world today should give them back Palestine and their property, they would immediately find pressing reasons for not returning there. Why? because they are vampires, and vampires cannot live on other vampires—they cannot live among themselves; they can only live among Christians and others who do not belong to their race.

"If they are not excluded from the United States, by the Constitution, within less than 100 years, they will stream into this country in such numbers they will rule and destroy us and change our form of government for which we Americans shed our blood and sacrificed life, property and personal freedom. If the Jews are not excluded within 200 years, our children will be working in the fields to feed the Jews while they remain in the Counting House gleefully rubbing their hands.

"I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews forever, your children's children will curse you in your graves. Their ideas are not those of Americans even when they have lived among us for ten generations. The leopard cannot change its spots. The Jews are a danger to this land and if they are allowed to enter they will imperil our institutions;—they should be excluded by the Constitution."*

*This is precisely the situation today.

Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, Martin Luther, George Washington and Benjamin Franklin would now be regarded as anti-Semites and criminals by the Zionists. They would all have been convicted by the Nuremberg court and probably assessed the death penalty. They boast that Haym Solomon helped finance the Revolutionary War. It is true. He was the representative of N. M. Rothschild & Son. The Rothschilds have financed both sides of every war including our Revolutionary War and the War Between the States. That is their system, for they profit by war. No matter which side loses, they win. Mrs. Ludendorf, the wife of the German General Ludendorf, testified at her trial for anti-Semitism that Jas. P. Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., loaned Hitler $34,000,000.

The Zionists are mean and vindictive. This statement is based on personal experience. They are cruel and merciless and relentless; this statement is based on observation. They have no mercy for a fallen foe. They are responsible for the murderous governments of Russia, Hungary, and other countries, and the Nuremberg trial. They are indeed "like unto whited sepulchres, that are beautiful outwardly but within are full of dead men's bones."

BARUCH AND FRANKFURTER

Bernard Baruch, who is reputed to be at the head of the Jewish Sanhedrin, and Justice Felix Frankfurter of our Supreme Court, are the political leaders of the Jewish race. Baruch finances political parties and congressional candidates and advises presidents and congressional committees; and Frankfurter nominates Communist appointees for important government positions.

The late Senator Long likened the wily Baruch to a watchful old crow. In a speech in Congress he said:

"I remember one time when I tried to shoot an old crow. I was riding along and saw the crow on a log in a field, so I just rode up behind a thicket so the crow could not see me and reached into my buggy to get my gun. Thick as that thicket was, the minute my hand got near the gun the old crow flew away . . . He (Baruch) stood with the Hoover Administration until it was wrecked inside out . . . Then old brother Baruch came right on back down to the White House and got hold of another President (Roosevelt). We have presidents and presidents but Baruch goes on forever."*

Nobody knows whether this wily old crow is a democrat or a republican or a communist. He thought Dewey would be elected and had his picture taken with him. He correctly appraised Truman as "uncouth, ignorant and incompetent."

General Hugh Johnson, formerly N.R.A. chief, gave us an accurate picture of the activities of Justice Felix Frankfurter in an article published in the Saturday Evening Post, October 25, 1935:

"His 'boys' have been insinuated into obscure but key positions in every vital department—warders of the marches, inconspicuous but powerful. Wherever to know, check, influence or control what goes on in government it would be a good thing for a Big Happy Dog to have a Little Happy Hot Dog planted there is one there, alert and quietly active . . . Two or three infest Henry Wallace. The area in and about the Federal Trades Commission literally writhes with them. The Justice, Interior, Labor, and Treasury Departments harbor their quotas. Other hosts for them are PFA, AAA, FERA, TVA, and SEC. They have had a guiding hand in the drafting of nearly all legislation . . . To them the constitution is just a foil for clever fencing—an antediluvian joke to be respected in public like a Sacred Cow and regarded in private somewhat as Gertrude Stein probably regards the poet Tennyson or any other Victorian."*

*Roosevelt Red Record, pages 81-83.

And his "hot dog boys" are Jew Communists and many of them said to be homosexuals. They are not accidents, they are selected and placed for the purpose of destroying our system of government.

These two (Baruch and Frankfurter) together with Henry Morgenthau and Sam Rosenmann are directly responsible for the Roosevelt and Truman maladministrations and they are responsible for our present unfortunate condition. They were and are the agents of the Zionist Politburo of Wall Street. It was through them that Henry L. Stimson, erstwhile attorney for Kuhn, Loeb & Co., obtained his appointment as Secretary of War. Frank Knox as Secretary of the Navy, and Edward Stettinius, partner of Morgan & Co., as Secretary of State.

It was through Frankfurter that the head of the spy ring J. Peters (true name Isidore Boornstein), Alger Hiss and other communists obtained their jobs in our State Department. Most of the spies that have been revealed by the Committee on Un-American Activities have been Jews and got their jobs through Justice Frankfurter or Bernard Baruch. Every bribetaker, with the exception of Congressman May, so far as revealed, has been a Jew; the Garson Brothers, Bennie Myers, etc. The war was a great picnic for the Jews. They flocked to the bureaus and took them over. The Zionist Jews initiated the war, ran it, and at its conclusion brought the wreckage at a fraction of its cost, and created the United Nations for the alleged purpose of preventing future wars.

The F.B.I. revealed that a Jew professor in the Minnesota State University named Weinberg, who assisted in the Atomic Bomb laboratory, disclosed the secret of the atomic bomb to the Russian Communist Politburo. He has not been prosecuted as a traitor, and probably will not be, but if he is and is convicted, the punishment will be amere "slap on the wrist" as in the case of the eleven communists who were convicted of treason in Judge Medina's court in New York and the spy Gubitschev. It appears that this secret and also the H bomb secret were given to Russia by the British Zionist Dr. Fuch and by Harry Hopkins, President Roosevelt's assistant.

The Truman administration usually selects New York for the trial of traitors, where most of the judges and jury men are Zionists, instead of elsewhere in America where the judges and jury men are loyal Americans. The conviction of the arch traitor Alger Hiss, Roosevelt's companion and advisor, was a disappointment to our Secretary of State and probably also to our President.

ZIONISTS LOYAL TO ISRAEL

An example of the support by American Zionists for Israel is the Techion Society. This is an organization of scientists, including many famous atomic energy scientists, whose avowed purpose is delivering American production secrets to Israel. Read Techion's own statement of its aims, in the California Jewish Voice, April 30, 1948, page 2:

"The aims and purposes of the Techion are to further Technology and applied science in Palestine through the financial and moral support of the American Techion; to make American industrial and technical know-how available to Palestine through closer cooperation between American and Palestinian technologists and industrialists. . ."

Karl T. Compton is a member. Albert Einstein claimed by Pravda in 1948 as one of the 10 best friends of Moscow in America, is honorary chairman of Techion. (Dr. Einstein was said by the Communist daily Peoples World, Sept. 6, 1946, to be honorary chairman of the Jewish Black Book Committee, an adjunct of the late Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee of the Soviet Union. The Jewish Black Book is the world wide list of the gentiles marked for liquidation if and when Communism wins.

I Love AMERICA

"I WAS BORN AN AMERICAN: I live an American; I shall die an American, and I intend to perform the duties incumbent upon me in that character to the end of my career. I mean to do this with absolute disregard of personal consequences. What are the personal consequences? What is the individual man, with all the good or evil that may befall him, in comparison with the good or evil which may befall a great country, and in the midst of great transactions which concern that country's fate? Let the consequences be what they will, I am careless. No man can suffer too much, and no man can fall too soon, if he suffers, or if he falls to the defense of the LIBERTIES and CONSTITUTION OF HIS COUNTRY."

RED HIGHLIGHTS

Truman asks all the people to help the FBI to round up spies. In return the American people ask Truman to discharge the leading spies in Washington, including a few of his advisors . . . Anna M. Rosenberg, Zionist leader in the leftist circles, was recently named special consultant on Man Power Problems to W. Stuart Symington of the National Security Resources Board. Anna Rosenberg will keep the Anti-Defamation League informed (that is why she was placed there) . . . Zionist Benjamin Cohen is first assistant to Trygve Lie Secretary General of the U. N. He transmits instructions from World Zionists . . . Chao Ting-Chi, who is expected to be Communist China's delegate to the U. N. is at present one of the top aids to China's Red leader, MaoTse-Tung, and is married to Harriet Lavine, daughter of the Zionist Philip Jaffe, former editor of the Amerasia, who was caught with 1700 secret files stolen from the State Department . . . Joseph Kamp stated that he was proud to serve four months in the Federal prison instead of bowing to the Zionist-Marxist attempt to force him to make known the supporters of his campaign against Zionist-Communism . . . Some Harvard Alumni are attempting to clean the Communist professors out of Harvard by refusing annual gifts and changing their wills, however, with little success . . . The government with millions of pounds of eggs and butter in storage are going to allow it to spoil instead of giving it to the Armed Forces. The Zionist officials in our government will do anything to help bankrupt America . . . Seth Richardson, law partner of Joseph Davies, is Chairman of President Truman's Loyalty Board. Senator Tydings, who is Joe Davies son-in-law, is Chairman of the Senate Sub-Committee investigating charges made by Senator McCarthy. "Mission-to-Moscow" Davies said when the Canadian spies were arrested that there was nothing wrong with the Russian spies stealing atomic secrets. On another occasion when he returned from Russia he said of Stalin, "Stalin is a kind man, with a friendly smile, the kind of a person whom children like to sit on his lap and dogs rub against his legs." This is the kind old gentleman that Truman wants ten Billion dollars and three hundred hundred thousand of our boys to fight. These few lines tell the story why Tydings "white-washed" Senator McCarthy's charges of Communism in the State Department . . . A prominent attorney stood up in a University in Texas last week and suggested that Texas secede from the U. S. We suggest that they stay in and help put all Marxists behind barb wire.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
"Common Sense"
Union, New Jersey
Dear Sir:

In today's issue of a local newspaper appears a short extract of an article written by Prof. Dr. Austin J. App protesting against the expelling of millions of Germans from their Eastern Homelands and calling on Americans to do all they can to right these wrongs which the author calls the greatest crime in history.

While agreeing essentially with Prof. App, I should prefer to consider these happenings, not as the crime as such but as the logical continuation of the greatest crime in European history, the Treaty of Versailles.

When on the 28th of June, 1919 the Allied Powers arrogated to themselves the right of posing as prosecutors, judges and jury all at the same time, civilization as such ceased to exist as in no civilized community of individuals or of nations the prosecutor can ever be the judge.

Art. 231 of the Versailles Treaty forcing Germany to accept the sole guilt for the war, is the crime from which directly everything must be derived during the last 30 years, including the expelling of millions of Germans from the East of which Prof. App writes.

The makers and supporters of the 1919 Peace Treaties were and are the criminals of modern history. Only if and when this fact has become general knowledge amongst the millions of all nations, is there any hope of reviving Civilization.

The details regarding the outbreak of war (1914) as known to us from the published documents of all the Governments concerned, prove clearly that not anyone particular Government, Nation or individual is solely or even mainly to blame but their importance is quite secondary to the ignoring of the Supreme Law of Civilization: The litigant can never and under no circumstances be the judge H.P.

Persecution in Lithuania

Reprinted from The Ave Marie, April 15, 1950

Perhaps our readers will get a better idea of what the communists have done to religion in Lithuania from the following table which was printed in the Congressional Record at the request of Representative Donahue of Massachusetts than from any description of the persecution. There were in Lithuania in 1940, fourteen archbishops and bishops; in 1948 only one was left. There were 1,646 members of the secular clergy in 1940; in 1948 only 400 remained. Members of religious Orders numbered 1,586 in 1940; in 1948 not one of them was left. In 1940 there were 1,202 churches; eight years later only sixty remained.

The faithful registered at churches in 1940 amounted to 2,776,422; in 1948 there were none. The four theological seminaries were closed and the one Catholic university. Seventy-five per cent of the clergy were either killed or exiled; the fifty-two Catholic publications with a combined circulation of over seven millions were all suspended. All religious and philosophical books were forbidden and the 800,000 people belonging to religious sodalities were disbanded. It is plain from these facts that religion has been practically wiped out as far as the keds were able to destroy it. They have not destroyed the religion in the hearts of the people, but all religious worship must be expressed in private as in the days of the Roman persecutions.

Who Caused War In Korea?

Letter Of Herman Goering To Winston Churchill

(Editor's Note:

When Rudolph Hess flew to England he made a plea to England and U. S. to join with Germany and destroy Communism rooted in Russia. As dupes for the Marxist Zionist, F. D. R. and Churchill followed the insane plan to crush Germany, which alone was holding Communism in check.

Today Germany is crushed and the British Empire bankrupt. England, living off the American taxpayer, trembles in fear of Russia.

As the top Germans were hanged or lynched on a prominent Jewish holiday the German leaders stated that the Communists will hang Allied leaders later.

Herman Goering wrote this letter just before he poisoned himself.

This letter should be read carefully by members of Congress and all others who are shaping the destiny of America.

Mr. Churchill:

You will have the satisfaction to survive me and my comrades in misfortune. I do not hesitate to congratulate you on this personal triumph and the finesse with which you have accomplished it. You have gone to great expense in order to secure this success, for yourself and Great Britain. Should I believe you sufficiently naive as to consider this success anything more than a show, detrimental to the Great German Empire—a performance for the peoples and their Jewish and bolshevist confederates, which were maneuvered by you into the war—then my statement to you during this last hour of my life would, also in the eyes of posterity, be squandered upon an underserving one.

My pride as a German and as one of the foremost responsible German leaders forbids me to lose even a single word in a dispute of world-historical importance on the disgraceful lowness of the methods employed by the victors as far as these proceedings concern my own person. However, as it is the obvious and announced intention of their administration of the law to throw the very German people into the abyss of illegality and to rob them once for all of a future possibility to defend themselves by the removal of the responsible men of the national socialistic state, I have to add a few words to the historic subject of the verdict, premeditated by you and your allies.

I direct these remarks to you, since you are one of the best informed ones regarding the true underlying reasons for this war and on the possibility of avoiding the same; or to end it, at least in a manner bearable for the European future; and yet refused your testimony and your oath to your own high court of justice. Therefore I shall not fall, while there is still time, to call you before the tribunal of history and direct my statements to you, because I know that this tribunal shall expose you some day as that man, who, with ambition, intelligence and energy has thrown the fate of the European nations under the wheels of foreign world powers.

In you I identify before history the man who had the ability to bring to fall Adolf Hitler and his political accomplishments; the man, who will, however, be unable to raise the shield protectingly against the invasion of Europe by the Asiatics.

It was your ambition to justify the Versailles Treaty regarding Germany. It will prove fatal to you that you succeeded. You personified the hardened obstinacy of your old gentry; and you also personified the stubbornness of its old age, opposing the last gigantic effort of the rejuvenated German power to decide the fate of Europe in the steppes of Asia in order to safeguard the same in the future. Long after my responsibility in the future development of events has found its objective judge, it will be put to your account that the past bloody war has not been the final one which had to be fought on the continent.

Birds Of A Feather

Hon. Herbert H. Lehman.

Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Lehman:

In a maudlin speech at the Hyde Park grave of the late, unlamented incumbent of the White House, you are reported to have said:

"Franklin Roosevelt is famed and honored for his deeds. Wherever in the world where men are called civilized, wherever the values of liberty and human dignity are recognized, and wherever men dream of freedom and human progress, there the name of Franklin Roosevelt is known and honored."

Such an unveridical statement on your part would be incomprehensible if one were not acquainted with the Jewish "Kol Nidre" through which the Talmud permits you to save your conscience.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt was the greatest liar, scoundrel and traitor this country has ever produced. Benedict Arnold must have turned over in his grave a hundred times a day when he saw what Franklin Roosevelt was getting away with.

Space does not permit me in this letter to relate the depths of Roosevelt's infamy or the whole extent of his treason. I can only sum up briefly:

No sooner had Roosevelt been inaugurated as President in March of 1933, than he scrapped the platform of the Democratic party upon which he had been elected and adopted that of the Socialists.

Having sworn to uphold the Constitution, Roosevelt perjured himself by telling Congress "as regards the Guffey Coal Act, let no doubts about its constitutionality prevent its passage."

As to Roosevelt's personal depravity, reference need only be made to the Hartford case, in which he brought pressure on a business man to settle for $4,000 a debt of $200,000 owed him by the President's immoral son Elliott.

During his long career in the White House,

They Live In U. S.

Who are the brains behind the North Koreans? Who brought about this situation where Korea is split in two and Koreans killing each other. Now our boys are going to the other side of the world to die with them?

Who masterminded the division of Germany where soon Germans in the East and Germans in the West will be killing each other and thousands of American boys now in Germany will die with them?

Who are the top directors back of the Communists in Korea? They are not Koreans. The uninformed will say it is Stalin. Remember Marxism is a world-wide set up. Stalin holds the same position as a president in a large corporation in the U. S. who apparently has power, but is controlled by a board of directors who dictate to him. The important question is: Who controls the board of directors?

Say a board member was placed in a corporation by Kuhn Loeb & Co., Zionist bankers, who financed a corporation. Kuhn Loeb & Co. would not interfere in the operation of the company except in important matters when suggestions would be sent through their member on the board. This is the way Kuhn Loeb & Co. controls many corporations.

Kuhn Loeb is also an important wheel in the World Zionist set up which created and controls Communism. Here are the names of a few top Marxists in the Zionist organization which has arranged for the financing of Communism, Marxist, or Zionism, as you wish to call it. No amount of influence would induce any one of these men to defend themselves on the platform with COMMON SENSE, or appoint someone to defend them. The Zionist leaders are: Edward M. M. Warburg - James Warburg - (of Kuhn Loeb & Co.) - Bernard Baruch - Henry Morgenthau, Jr. - Felix Frankfurter and Herbert Lehman.

World Zionists, wishing to bring their plans for world government to a close, used stooges like F.D.R., Cordell Hull, and Winston Churchill to set off World War II, thereby breaking down the British Empire, Germany and other European countries so that the United States today, alone faces the Soviet Union. These same Zionists, having control of our government and Treasury Department for 17 years, have — by deception and cunning — led Americans to believe that we have "helped worthy nations." Instead, they have built up Marxist forces in Asia and Europe with our resources while bankrupting us and retarding the strengthening of U. S. armed forces. In spite of the fact that we have spent 50 BILLION for defense since World War II, we are pitifully unprepared to meet our enemy.

Maxim Litvinov (Finkelstein - an ex-convict) is the Soviet Union's top man in China and the Korean theater of war. Zionist N. M. Saccernik is Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet and Zionist Alexander F. Gorkin is Secretary. Stalin's wife is a Kaganovich — this Zionist family controls all industry in the Soviet Union. Lazar Kaganovich is the strong man of the Politbureau. Zionist Banker Ashberg is the Kuhn Loeb representative in the Soviet Union.

The war in Korea could not start without word from Stalin's bosses, the Zionists in New York, and they alone know when, and where, the next move for war will be made by the Communists. They will order it when it suits their plans for gaining complete control of the United States.

The demand by Baruch and Henry Morgenthau for Congress to give Truman "full war powers" is being done because they know Truman will delegate those powers to persons named by the Zionists. Often those so named are Christians who are "owned" by the Zionists and act as fronts while the Jew is "assistant." The "assistant" being the real ruler.

When an important Government Agency or Committee is formed look for the ZIONIST who will be the No. 2 man. The non-Zionist Chairman is to deceive the public.

It is ridiculous to believe bombs will be dropped on New York City — it is the safest place in America.

The Marxists who have cunningly masterminded Washington for years believe that by weakening us from the inside as they have and by having the Soviet Union move in on countries over the world the U. S. will find itself rushing armed forces to different parts of the World while these influential Marxists in the U. S. bring on hysteria by talk of Atomic Bombings. At the same time the United World Federalists use the fear of Atomic Bombs and the chance of defeat to force our people to accept World Government and end the war. All Marxists are quite certain that the U. S. will lose this war. (Few people realize that Kuhn Loeb & Co. financed Trotsky (Bronstein) and sent him with 276 Zionists from East Side New York to set up Communism in Russia in 1917. Edward M. M. Warburg and James Warburg top men in Kuhn Loeb Co. are the important men in the United World Federalists which is a Marxist-Zionist Front which has many well meaning Christian dupes helping to put over World Government (Zionist Government).)

All so-called Communist countries are ruled by Yiddish Zionists. (COMMON SENSE will gladly supply their names, to anyone interested in writing us.)

The Zionists have placed these "Communist" countries under slavery and are choking off Christianity just as they plan to do in the U. S. if given full war powers. Even now they use government agencies and government funds to prosecute and persecute those who oppose them. If Christian people do not give up pleasure and business enough to understand what is being plotted, and stop the Zionists it is our opinion that more people will be killed in the U. S. than were liquidated in Russia after the 1917 blood-bath. In Russia 30 thousand Reds took over 170 MILLION Christians.

In the U. S. we have at least 35 million people ready to set up Marxism or gladly go along with it. In this crisis — the worst America has faced — Congress should have a hearing to determine what forces are working to destroy us from within. It would be our patriotic duty to testify. If we cannot plainly show that it is the Zionists, we will discontinue COMMON SENSE. Here it a chance for our enemies to stop COMMON SENSE.

Franklin Roosevelt's chief mentor was the alien-born and alien-minded Felix Frankfurter whose devilish purpose is to destroy this Republic, abolish our national entity and drive us in a world organization in which we would all be slaves.

Having destroyed our national economy through persecution of honest businessmen, confiscatory taxation, interference with the law of supply and demand and outrageous control of crop productions, and realizing that his administration was about to be repudiated, Franklin Roosevelt, against the wishes of ninety percent of the people, plotted, lied and tricked this nation into a war that was none of our affair.

Failing to incite Germany to attack us, even though Roosevelt committed every form of act both unneutral and contrary to international law, he finally did succeed in provoking an attack by Japan through continuous pin pricks, culminating in the unconscionable Cordell Hull's monstrous ultimatum of November 26, 1941.

Your personal immorality is evidenced in your statement that "President Roosevelt was the grand architect of our victory over a savage and ruthless enemy," since you are willing to condone Roosevelt's unjustifiable alliance with the ungodly Communist Russian regime which now, by the acts of the same Roosevelt, is the greatest threat to the security not only of our nation but to the rest of the world as well.

A defender of the traitor Franklin Roosevelt has no place in the Senate of the United States. I do not doubt that the voters of New York State, cognizant of that fact, will retire you to private life, come next November 7.

Very truly yours,

Letter Of Herman Goering To Winston Churchill

for the very possibility of existence of its nations.

You will have to answer for the fact that the bloody war of yesterday will be followed by a still greater one and that the European nations will not rule at the Volga, but at the Pyrenees mountains. It is my fervent wish that you may at least live to see the day on which the world, and the western nations in particular, will become aware of the bitter truth that it was you and your friend Roosevelt who sold their future to Bolshevism for a cheap personal triumph over nationalistic Germany. This day may come sooner than you like, and you, in spite of your advanced age, will still be vigorous enough to see it dawn bloody red over the British Isle.

I am convinced that it will bring you all those unimaginable terrors which you escaped this time through the good luck of war; or through the abhorrence of the German conduct of war to a complete degeneration of the methods of fighting between peoples of the same race. My knowledge regarding the kind and amount of arms and of the projects from us, which—thanks to your military assistance to the red army—have fallen into their hands, enable me to form this supposition.

There is no doubt that you—according to your habit—soon will write good memoirs and you will write them the better, as there is nobody to hinder you to tell and suppress whatever you like. However, you will be powerless in view of the corrections which the, by you instigated, development unerringly will make. Then you will be obliged to answer to the peoples those questions which you still owe to your tribunal; Not in the same degree to us, as we do not want your fairness, but solely what you denied to historical truth.

You believe it very clever to have submitted this historic truth to the craftiness of a handful of ambitious junior lawyers in order to have it changed into an expedient dialectic treatise, in spite of your awareness as a Briton as well as a statesman, that with such means the problems of existence of peoples could not be solved and judged; neither in the past nor in the future.

I have an only too well grounded opinion of your power and the cunning of your intelligence as to credit you with believing the vulgar propaganda with which you motivated the war against us and with which you had your victory over us glorified in a phantastic show.

I state here with great emphasis as one of the highest military, political and economic leaders of the Great German Empire the following: This war could not be avoided because the politics of Great Britain—under the influence of your person and of your friends of like opinions in all fields—persisted constantly to hinder the life-interests and the most natural development of the German people; and—filled with the senile ambition to uphold the British hegemony—preferred the second world war to an understanding, as we on our side had tried time and again to bring about, beneficial to both of the most prominent nations of Europe.

I declare herewith once more most emphatically that the guilt of the German people in this war—into which they were forced by you—consists solely in trying to end the eternal difficulties to their national existence, which you artfully instigated and continued.

It would be useless to go with you into a dispute over the causes, the conditions of constraint and the motives which led during the course of the war to political and military complications and which your lawyers knew so well to use in a one-sided manner at the cost of the national socialistic regime. The devastated European regions of culture and rubble treasures give still today testimony of the embittered despair with which a great and proud people yesterday, with unparalleled readiness to make sacrifices, fought for its existence. Tomorrow they will testify that alone the overpowering might, led by you in the field, was able to cause the subjection and deprivation of their rights. The day after tomorrow the Russians will bear witness of the betrayal which surrendered Europe to the red Asiatics.

The Germany which you conquered will take revenge on you through its downfall. You have neither produced a better politic nor shown a greater courage than we. You have not won the victory due to better qualities or superiority of your strength and strategy, but merely after 6 years with the predominance of your allies. Do not believe your victory to be all that which you tell the world. You and your land soon will harvest the fruits of your political art. What you as an experienced Cynic would not admit toward us—namely that our fight in the East was an act of urgent self defense, and not alone for Germany but for all Europe; and that the German fighting this war, which you constantly condemned, therefore was justified. This, your ally and friends of today, Stalin, soon will prove to you and to the British Empire.

Then you will experience what it means to fight this enemy and you also will learn that necessity knows no law; Also that you can neither fight him successfully with treaties of law nor with the weight of Great Britain and her European dwarfs.

You have stated to the German people that you were primarily concerned with the restoration of their democratic mode of life. But you have not said a single word that you want to restore to them the sensible foundations for living, which have been denied them these past 25 years. Your name stands under all essential documents of this epoch of British want of comprehension and jealousy towards Germany. Your name also will stand under the result with which this epoch of Germany's liquidation has challenged history in re of Europe's existence.

My belief in the vitality of my people cannot be shaken. They will be stronger and live longer than you. However, it distresses me to know them defenseless in your power and that they now also belong to the luckless victims, who, thanks to your success, do not approach a future of progressive work for the realization of their common aim, set forth by intelligence for the western peoples, but are driven toward the greatest catastrophe in their common history.

I do not wish to argue about outrages, which you—rightly or wrongly—scribe to us and which neither agree with my nor with the German peoples comprehension; neither do I wish to talk about those atrocities which have been committed on your part and on the part of your allies toward millions of Germans; for I know that you have made under this pretend the entire German people the object of a collective outrage of a proportion never known in history. I also know that you would not have acted differently regarding your treatment of Germany without this pretention, because since 1914 you have striven for nothing less than the destruction of the German empire. Thus, your historic goal denies you the office of a judge over the avoidable and unavoidable consequences caused by your unrelenting intentions and which were welcome to you as subsequent proof for the justification of your actions. Today I regret my and the national-socialistic government's greatest mistake, the fateful error to believe in your discernment as a statesman. I regret to have trusted you with justiciously recognizing the world-political necessity of a peaceful and progressive (prosperous) Germany for the existence of a flourishing England. I regret that our means did not suffice to convince you at the last moment that the liquidation of Germany would also be the beginning of the liquidation of Britain's world power. We began to act—each one according to his own law. I in line with the new one, for which this Europe was already too old—you holding on to the old one, for which this Europe is not anymore important enough in the world.

I shall know how to approach my end in the absolute conviction as a German National Socialist and considering everything else, to have been a better European than you. I leave the judgement of this with an easy mind to posterity. I hope sincerely that you will belong to this world for a long time to come as fate might grant you—as it has to me—when you decline to leave to posterity also a truth.

CHURCHILL WARNS WEST IS HELPLESS AS KOREANS

Speaking before the House of Commons recently, Winston Churchill stated that the West is as defenseless as South Korea and has no means to halt a Russian sweep through Europe if a new world war breaks out.

Defense Minister Emanuel Shinwell admitted that Britain's defense forces fall "far short of our requirements. He stated further that "the times are grim. The international situation is tense and full of dread possibilities."

Churchill said best estimates give Russia 40,000 tanks while western Allies have no force which could cope with such an "array of armored avalanches."

It is true, Churchill said, that U. S. planes now based in England could hit "Russian cities and key points" with atom bombs, but the Russians would seize airports on the channel and "bring us under air bombardment—apart from the atomic bomb—far worse than we have ever endured."

"We are more defenseless than we have ever been," he said.

"THE ZIONISTS"

By: Judge George W. Armstrong

(Editor's note: This is the 4th of the series covering the book "The Zionist." The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country other nations now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

THE CONVICTION OF THE ELEVEN COMMUNIST TRAITORS

The eleven months trial of the eleven communists had the appearance of a Zionist publicity stunt but it should be said to the credit of the Judge and jury that the defendants were all convicted.

Here is a list of them:*

*Congressional Record November 18, 1949, pages 15, 161-2.

Eugene Dennis, alias Frank Waldron, an ex-convict;

Jacob Abram Storbel, an Austrian Jew and immigrant from Galicia;

Irving Potash, an ex-convict and Jewish immigrant from Kiev, Russia;

Jno. Williamson, alias Jno. Miller, an immigrant from Scotland;

Gus Hall, true name Gus Halberg, a Jew and ex-convict whose parents were immigrants from Finland;

Carl Winter, true name Carl Weiberg, whose parents were immigrants from Russia and Jews;

Robert Thompson, alias Bob Condon, an ex-convict, whose punishment was assessed at three years instead of five;

Gilbert Green, true name Gilbert Greenberg, a Jew;

Jno. Gates, true name Paul Roganstrief, a Jew. He is editor of the communist paper "Daily Worker";

Harry Winston and Benjamin J. Davis, negroes, the only two whose names were not assumed names. Six Jews, two negroes and three race unknown.

The foreman of the jury was a mulatto negro woman. The punishment to all except Thompson was five years imprisonment instead of death, as provided by our common law. Pending the trial of this case, a bi-partisan Congress reduced the penalty for conspiring to overthrow our government from ten years to five years.

The trial Judge was, therefore, justified in imposing a light penalty for the most serious offense that can be committed against our government. The fault lies with our "fall deal" President and his "fair deal" bi-partisan Congress. They now seek to admit more Zionists through their alleged Displaced Persons bill, introduced and sponsored by the New York Jew Congressman Celler, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. The obvious purpose is to win elections and to communize America.

It was reported by the Associated Press, November 3, 1949 that Judge Medina refused to allow bond for the eleven convicted Communists and that the New York Circuit Court of Appeals granted them bond in the sum of $260,000 which means that they are free pending their appeal and will probably escape as did Eisler. The eleven months' trial of the eleven convicted communist traitors was a spectacular farce. It is reported to have cost us $700,000 and now they are loose to continue their operation. It is a safe prediction that not one of them will ever be seriously punished.

What a reflection upon the Roosevelt-Truman "New Deal" and "Fair Deal" alleged democratic administrations, and the New York Circuit Court of Appeals. I venture the assertion that a majority of the judges of this court are socialists and communists and are of the same race as Justice Felix Frankfurter, who was a character witness for the traitor Hiss, and Judge Kaufman who tried him. It is not a co-incidence that these traitor trials are held in New York and alleged sedition trials in Washington. They were planned that way. What a tragedy that there is no longer any safety in our courts, which are the final arbiters of our rights. No orthodox Jew Judge can render a just decision between a Christian and a Jew without violating the law of his Talmud.

It was revealed by Major Geo. R. Jordan that Harry Hopkins* supplied the bolsheviks with our atomic bomb blue prints and secrets, and with material for making them. Harry Hopkins (Raschid) was then a member of Roosevelt's "kitchen cabinet" and lived with him in the White House. Major Jordan was the officer in charge of the transportation of the material from Alaska to Russia. The secret was obviously given to Russia with Roosevelt's permission. Later one Weiberg, a Zionist Jew professor in Minnesota State University who was employed by the government as a scientist in the manufacture of the bomb, was alleged to have supplied additional information. There are revelations appear to be authentic. If true, they are conclusive evidence that Roosevelt was a traitor and that he sought to communize America.

*Said to have been a Zionist Jew whose real name was Harry L. Raschid.

Klaus Fuchs, the British scientist, who confessed that he gave the bomb secrets to the Russians, was a refugee from Germany during the Hitler regime and was obviously a Zionist Jew. These traitors are no worse than other Zionists. They are all traitors; they are taught treachery by their Talmud and Protocols. All of them are our enemies, who seek to destroy our government and to enslave us and appropriate our property.

THE TALMUD

"It (the Talmud) contains every kind of vileness and blasphemy against Christian Truth."

—Pope Gregory IX

There are three versions of the Talmud, viz: the Mishnah, containing the essence of the oral law; and the Palestinian, first published in 1522-3, and the Babylonian.* The Jewish Encyclopedia, page 161, states that the only complete manuscript of the Babylonian is in Leyden, Holland. It says that "during the Middle Ages the Talmud was frequently attacked since it formed the voice teaching of the Jewish religion and was regarded as the core of Jewish resistance to Christianity."

*Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. 10, page 166.

The Mishnah consists of dissertations by Jewish rabbis while they were in captivity in Babylon. I have seen the 40 volumes of the Babylonian by Radkinson in the Chicago Public Library, but it is not to be found in the smaller libraries.

TALMUD SUPPRESSED

The Babylonian interpretations and amendments were written during the period from 200 to 500 A.D.* The first printed edition in Hebrew "of the whole Talmud containing all of its blasphemies against the Christian religion was published in Venice in the year 1520 . . . The Jews fearing for themselves began to expunge parts of it openly inimical to Christians and published a revised edition of it at Basle in A.D. 1578." It appears to have been further modified at a Synod of Jewish rabbis in Poland in the year A.D. 1631 where it was decided that nothing should be printed "that would annoy Christians and cause persecution of Israel." The final edition was published in Spain in A.D. 1648.

"The Talmud Unmasked," page 12.

Thus it appears that the Jewish rabbis out of consideration of expediency have not published their entire Talmud and that at least a part of it is transmitted orally through their rabbis. The Emperor Justinian prohibited the distribution of "Talmudic books in A.D. 553." Popes Gregory IX and Innocent IV condemned them as "containing every kind of vileness and blasphemy against Christian Truth." They have been condemned by many other Roman Pontiffs.*

"The Talmud Unmasked," page 21.

Father B. Pranaitis of Russia, a Roman Catholic theologian and Hebraist of the Roman Catholic College of the Imperial Academy of St. Petersburg, published in 1892 in Latin and Hebrew many quotations from the Talmud revealing their intolerant anti-Christian spirit. This booklet was translated and copyrighted and published in 1939 by Col E. N. Sanctuary, 156 Fifth Ave., New York, a learned American biblical scholar and a veteran of World War I.

In his epilogue to this book Father Pranaitis said that he was warned by his friends not to publish it, that if he did so he "would perish at the hands of the Jews"; that his friends reminded him of Professor Chagini who "was suddenly killed after he had undertaken to translate the Talmud into the vernacular"; and of the monk Didacus of Vilna and "others who had been persecuted for having revealed secrets of the Jewish religion." He concluded by saying:

"The book you now hold in your hand is the best proof that I did not heed these warnings of my friends. I consider it unworthy of me to keep silent just for the sake of my own personal safety while the conflict rages between the two camps of 'Semites' and 'Anti-Semites,' both of which claim they are fighting for the truth, while I know that the whole truth is not to be found in either camp. But whatever befalls me because of what I have done, I shall gladly suffer it. I am prepared to lay down my life THAT I MAY BEAR WITNESS TO THE TRUTH."

And Father Pranaitis was murdered by the bolsheviks.

Colonel Sanctuary was one of the defendants in the Washington trial of the thirty alleged seditionists. No evidence of any character was introduced against him during the 7½ months of this trial. His only offense was the translation and publication of the book, "The Talmud Unmasked."

TALMUD IS VICIOUS

The Talmud is not only the Bible of the Zionists but it is also their legal and moral code; and the rabbis are not only priests but they are also Jewish teachers and lawyers and judges for Jewish courts. Rabbi Browne says of the Talmud:

"And the fact that in bulk the chaff far exceeds the wheat should not be at all surprising. After all the Talmud is the product of an age when a peculiar type of mind alone could thrive. Israel was exhausted."

This is the judgment of an intelligent Zionist rabbi, a former associate of the Zionist Rabbi Wise, most prominent American rabbi. Only a Jew can say such things about the Talmud. If a gentile (gol) should even intimate that it is a book of hate and resentment from ancient injuries and that "the bulk of it is chaff" he would be denounced as an intolerant anti-Semite. In the case of Father Pranaitis he was killed; and in Colonel Sanctuary's prosecuted as an anti-Semite for the offense of translating and publishing the Talmud in part. It is worse than "chaff." It is malicious and vicious and is not entitled to be classed as a religious book.

JEWISH INTOLERANCE AND HATE

The Talmud denounces Christ as a bastard and gloats over his crucifixion. It glorifies the Jew and characterizes the gol (Gentiles) as idolaters and as beasts. It asserts "that the Jew alone is a man, that the whole world is his and all things should serve him, especially animals that have the form of men." (Talmud Unmasked, p. 68.) It tells the Jews not to "eat with the idolaters, make no covenant with them, and show them no mercy, and turn them away from their idols or kill them." (Talmud Unmasked, p. 83.) They are taught to hate the gol (Gentiles), to cheat them and to spurn them as inferiors.

This is the Jewish religion as revealed in the Talmud, and that Americans are called upon to recognize and tolerate as religious freedom.

"The Jews lifted it (the Talmud) to a place of importance above the very Bible, and they studied it far more diligently. They memorized it from end to end—every one of its sixty-three enormous divisions."*

"Stranger Than Fiction," page 197. Rabbi

Browne was associate rabbi with the Zionist leader, Dr. Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue of Greater New York, for a period of two years.

That may be true of the rabbis but it is rather an extravagant statement regarding the Jewish people as a whole.

Rabbi Browne argues in defense of the Talmud, or apology for it, that "There are in it myths and vagaries, idiotic superstitions and unhappy thoughts, things that are not merely irrational but sometimes even quite offensive . . . It is like life—a higgledy-piggledy mingling of both good and bad, of both wisdom and folly. For it came directly out of life, directly out of the hateful, exciting, hopeful, despairing heroic life of the Jewish people . . . It contains very nearly everything."*

TALMUD SHOULD BE DISCARDED

It is high time that this obsolete "idiotic and superstitious" religion of pride and intolerance and hate be discarded. If it is true, as Rabbi Browne argues, that the purpose of the Talmud was to preserve the Jewish race as a separate race and to prevent its assimilation with other races, it has accomplished that purpose. It has been responsible for much of the alleged persecution of the Jewish race, for people who hate are usually hated.

It is significant that Rabbi Browne does not mention Ishmael in his interesting book. He discusses the history of the Israelites, an extinct race as shown by his own writing. The elaborate "History of the Jewish People" by Margolis and Marx (823 pages, published by "The Jewish Publication Society of America" in 1941) is also a history of the extinct race of Israelites. The Jews cannot be blamed for desiring to escape the odium of the curse of God upon the race of Ishmael, or of being classed as hybrids. It is but natural for them to seek to adopt the history of another tribe even if it is extinct and not a very glorious one.

A LETTER FROM ROBERT H. BEST

(Editor's Note: For the benefit of the few uninformed who usually write in after we publish something with reference to Robert H. Best, who has been sentenced to life imprisonment, we make the following remarks. We do not believe there is anyone who knows more about Mr. Best than the writer, although he never met him personally. Robert Best is the son of a Methodist Minister, with as clean and honorable a record from boyhood on as we have ever known. We doubt if there has ever been a finer American patriot — and still he was sentenced as a traitor to the United States, as was Cardinal Mindszenty to the Hungarian government. And so will hundreds of good patriots and loyal American citizens be convicted as traitors if we allow this Marxist New Deal to get more powerful.)

Dear Mr. Editor:

Inasmuch as one of the oldest and most firmly established principles of law is to the effect that "it is the intent which makes the crime." I beg to suggest that many of your readers will be interested in what the three-judge United States Court of Appeals in Boston, Massachusetts, recently held to be legal proof of "treasonable intent" on the part of a Defendant-Appellant who appeared before them.

On page 6 of a judicial opinion handed down on July 6th in Case Number 4363, which was written by Chief Judge Calvert Magruder, and which as of that date became "the supreme law of the land" throughout the United States, this high court declared verbatim as follows:

"On the issue of appellant's treasonable intent, seven authenticated recordings of appellant's broadcasts were played back at the trial, and manuscripts of ten of the 'BB' broadcasts were read to the jury. In these exhibits may be found all the main Nazi propaganda themes, with particular emphasis upon the alleged menace of a Jewish world-wide conspiracy and Jewish infiltration into controlling positions in the Government of the United States, and also upon the depicting of Hitler's Germany as a great bulwark of Christianity and civilization against Bolshevism."

The case under consideration was an appeal of the writer of this letter against a "conviction" in Boston's United States District Court two years ago and a subsequent sentence to lifelong imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

Judge Magruder, it will be recalled, was one of the four federal judges who appeared in the first Alger Hiss trial in New York as a volunteer character witness in a vain effort to convince the jury that Hiss had always been a man of unimpeachable integrity and loyalty. His private opinion in that case the jury collectively treated as worthless. Whether his judicial opinion on what he has held to be proof of "treasonable intent" is long to remain the law in our country the United States Supreme Court in Washington, D. C. will soon be called upon to decide;

As at least an indication of the way in which the proceedings against me have been conducted for more than four years it may also interest your readers to learn that one of many motions made by me during the trial and pre-trial stage of the proceedings was one in which I demanded that the United States District Court trial Judge, Francis J. W. Ford, disqualify himself because his name once appeared on a secret communist circular titled "Our Friends In Court." Ford refused even to step aside long enough to permit another judge to hear arguments from me in support of either this or any other of the equally valid reasons why he was duty-bound to disqualify himself on the grounds of "prejudice, bias, and/or concern in interest."

Another motion of mine which Judge Ford also rejected out-of-hand was a pre-trial motion that representatives of the press be granted access to me not only as a presumptively innocent prisoner but also in my capacity as my own chief lawyer.

Yet another motion which Judge Ford also rejected was one requesting that I be permitted to present defense witnesses. He refused to permit me even one witness;—this despite the constitutionally-guaranteed right of every person to defense witnesses in any criminal proceeding.

With respect to both these and many other equally erroneous and even fatally prejudicial errors on the part of Ford, Judge Magruder wrote on page 19 of the aforementioned court opinion as follows: "The record does show that the District Judge exhibited from start to finish marked solicitude for protecting the rights of the accused."

Than which, as the record shows scores of times, no greater falsehood can be uttered or even conceived.

Can such things happen, one may well ask;—can such things really have happened in the city of Adams, Revere, Otis, and Hancock? The court's own records give the answer: they did.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

Trygve Lie, U.N. Secretary General, was asked at his press conference on August 7, 1950 to explain why he permitted Russia to usurp a portion of his official powers thus helping to create the tie-up in the Security Council. The American people should understand that the real reason is that Lie is surrounded with Zionists who dictate the policies of Zionist-Communism to him. A few of these faithful Marxist followers are: Zionist Benjamin Cohen, personal assistant to Mr. Lie; Zionist A. H. Feller, General Counsel to Mr. Lie; Zionist J. Shapiro, Director of the U.N.O. Information Center in Geneva; Zionist Leo Pasvolosky (born in Russia) who drew up the U.N. Charter and special assistant to Mr. Lie; Zionist I. G. Katzin, (born in Russia) who is Mr. Lie's personal representative in Korea; Zionist George Movshon producer of daily U.N. radio program "The U.N. Today"; and Zionist Isador Lubin United States delegate to the U.N. subcommittee on devastated areas. (Trygve Lie in his home in Norway is known as Stalin's errand boy. He dares not move without orders from New York Zionists.)

To the Attorney General belongs the duty of recommending persons for Federal Judges, he gives advice upon legal points to the President and to head of Departments, and supervises the United States Marshals and District Attorneys. His substitute and principal assistant is the Solicitor General. Who is the Solicitor General today in Washington? None other than Zionist Phillip B. Perlman. (F.D.R. often said "these things don't happen, they are planned.")

Not much has been said about the considerable amount of U. S. military payment certificates (army script)—approximately $5,000,000 which was captured in Seoul by North Korean Communists. Under the circumstances it appears that it wasn't an accident but intentionally placed there so that Communists would have easy access to it. Why aren't the American people told who ordered this money to Seoul to be captured, and why? Are they afraid that our true enemies will be exposed before it is time and ripe to introduce the totalitarian government?

The U. S. Government is offering for sale 30,000,000 pounds of meat at 5 cents a pound. The meat is part of 300,000,000 pounds of food which the government is trying to unload from its vast hoard under a new scheme of cut-rate prices. Other bargains include butter at 15 cents a pound, cheese at 7½ cents a pound, and dried milk a nickel a pound. But American consumers can't buy any of these bargains. The food was only offered in carload lots and only to foreign countries. The U. S. government accumulated this stock pile of food for the purpose of keeping prices up in America and now they are going to give it away to some foreign country. The house wife not only has to pay 90 cents for a pound of meat but she also has to pay the government tax money to make it possible for the New Deal to sell foreigners meat at 5 cents a pound. One might say that this has to be done in order to stabilize our economy and protect our farmers. Well if this is true why doesn't the government ship this food into the various Army, Navy and Marine camps throughout the country? Our boys wouldn't complain because it wasn't paid for by a special appropriation bill and increase tax expense to the public. But this will not be done. The government will give this food away and then turn around and scream that the boys in the services need supplies and push through an appropriation bill of several millions to buy more of the same type of foods at high prices. The reason for this act by our government is obvious. It fits in with the Zionist plan of World Government perfectly. They must bankrupt America and the faster we throw away our wealth and resources the faster we will fall under the domination of Zionist Communism. Of course Zionist Leon Keyserling who is President Truman's Chairman of Council of Economic Advisors thinks this is good business to condition us for Communism.

UN GETS NEW RED— ANOTHER ZIONIST FRONT

PATRIOTS MUST RALLY TO SAVE NATION FROM SOCIALISM SAYS H. R. CULLEN

(The following condensation of an address made to the graduating class of Baylor University College of Medicine in Texas, by H. R. Cullen, appeared in its entirety on the editorial page of THE HOUSTON POST.)

It is a privilege, an honor and a pleasure to address the graduating class of Baylor University College of Medicine. You are graduating from a great school. It is a major institution in what is to be the greatest Medical Center in the South.

You are going out into a marvelous, mixed-up world. It is a world that stands at the crossroads; one road sign pointing to the unfolding of "fairer tales of science" — wonderful inventions and discoveries never dreamed of in my younger days; another sign pointing to atomic war and the end of civilization. You will face all kinds of fateful questions, such as have never challenged mankind before; and no one seems to know the answers for sure.

The great changes are not all in the field of science. You went through medical school with the idea of entering a noble profession and practicing it with dignity and independence. But now, as you finish your schooling, you are threatened with possibly having to go to work for the government—not in an honorable profession, but as a mere cog in a political bureaucracy.

That's what has happened to the doctors under Britain's Labor-Socialist government; and now our socialistic administration at Washington is trying to do the same thing to you.

As proof of this, President Truman recently sent Oscar Ewing over to study the British system of socialized medicine, so he could come back and sell it to the American people. His report, painting the English national health plan in glowing colors, was in strange contrast with what other American observers have told us about what a tragic mess it is.

Because the medical profession is the first one marked for nationalizing by the Socialists, you graduates have a vital interest in this administration's plans. The threat of socialized medicine is just one part of a program to change our entire system of government and our way of life. If one part succeeds, the others will. Your professional career is at stake in defending them all. Whether you like it or not, you will have to join with the political forces that oppose these things, and embrace the philosophy of sound democracy, or else you may lose the opportunity to succeed as a private practitioner of your own profession. You will become a hired hand of the government.

Both Socialism and Communism are gaining on us. Why? Because, to state the plain, unvarnished truth, in my opinion, Truman and his forces do not believe in our form of government and our free enterprise system. At least, they do not give evidence of it. The administration at Washington is working in every way to change our democratic plan into a Welfare State, which means Socialism, and ultimately, I believe, a totalitarian state.

Only last week we had a smashing example of this, in the Supreme Court's ruling on the tidelands. This court, appointed by Roosevelt and Truman, held that the offshore oil lands of Texas belong to the United States . . . after more than 100 years' acknowledged state ownership. The decision was in the very teeth of the Treaty of 1845, in which the United States Congress by resolution solemnly declared that Texas should retain her public lands as a state of the Union.

If they can take the tidelands from the states, they can take the coal lands, or the coastal fishing grounds, or the oil and gas lands, or the ports and inland waterways, or anything of value.

A few weeks ago, President Truman vetoed the

Hoover's Mistakes

An inspired piece from one of the New Deal propagandists says that "Hoover Was a Complete Failure."

So he was.

He failed in a lot of things.

He failed to draw out his salary of $75,000 a year while he was president, turning it all into the treasury.

He failed to have his sons organize insurance firms to write insurance on Government enterprises, and Government-controlled liquors. He built the Rapidan Resort for fishing and recreation at his own expense and gave it to the Government.

None of his sons went racing through the divorce courts to the disillusionment of the public.

He never bundled up a lot of Government documents to sell as a book to the faithful, and he never sold himself in political slavery to a labor organization for a $500,000 campaign fund.

He gathered a marvelous collection of war stuff and built a museum in which to house it, but failed to ask Congress to pay the bill—he paid it himself.

He did not preach and promote class hatred and he did not try to pack the Supreme Court.

He did not plow up every third row of cotton and he did not promise the American people one thing while at the very same moment he was doing everything in his power to accomplish the directly opposite result.

He did not ask Congress to assess the taxpayers a billion dollars every time someone shot off a fire-cracker in Europe, and he did not go on fishing trips on Government warships, accompanied by a fleet of destroyers.

Neither did he kill off the farmer's little pigs nor encourage the importation of Argentine beef.

In fact, there are a lot of foolish things that Hoover didn't do that some other people have done.

By Major Robert H. Williams, former Counter Intelligence Officer.

As the holocaust of world revolution destroys victimized young Americans and equally victimized Korean peasants, with 1600 million Asiatics and Africans and 500 million Whites in reserve to feed the flames, it is time to ask some questions:

Who is the enemy? Whom are we fighting? What are we fighting for? How can we win with the lightest losses? In fact, how can we win?

1.) First, we must understand the enemy, internal and external; we must know who is behind the Communist world revolution.

2.) Then we can and must formulate an intelligent global strategy.

3.) We must assume the initiative or be spread out and bled out all over the world, with bankruptcy and destruction of the white race almost inevitable.

Note that Communist activities inside our borders have been directed entirely by certain extremist Jews, who find ways to use both Jews and gentiles.

As for the external enemy, the all-important question is whether or not Jews still steer the Soviet government. Readers of the Intelligence Summary will doubtless recall that the first Bolshevik government was almost exclusively Jewish. For example, the Senate Overman Report (1919, Senate Document 66 in your city library) quoted testimony showing that of the ruling central committee of 388 members "only 16 happened to be real Russians, and all the rest, Jews, with the exception possibly of one man, who is a Negro from America, who calls himself Professor Gordon."

The newspapers recently have carried stories purporting to show that the Kremlin has turned against Jews, at last. I have followed these stories with the most intense interest, for it would be earth shaking for the Russians at last to get the upper hand in their own country.

If the Soviet Union turned on the Jews it then would be national, pro-gentile Socialism, called Nazism or fascism, not international, pro-Jewish Socialism, called Communism. There simply has been no such counter-revolution behind the Iron Curtain. It would rip the Soviet bureaucracy wide open, for that bureaucracy still is more than half staffed with Jewish personnel. And the Jews of the world would turn against Russia in a violent cry for gentile nations to make war on the persecutors of the Jews.

I read from two to four Jewish papers regularly, plus clippings sent me from other Jewish papers in all parts of the country, and can say categorically that most editors of these papers still seem reluctant to say hard things against the Soviet regime. It is, however, necessary for many of them to clear themselves of suspicion of disloyalty, now that war may be at hand, for they had written with great frankness about their fondness for the Soviet Union. Sammy Gach, for example, wrote in his California Jewish Voice (page 1, Sept. 30, 1949) "Thank God", on learning that Russia had succeeded in manufacturing an atomic bomb.

Must Seize Initiative Or Face Destruction

Jews still are principally if not entirely shaping the politics behind the Communist government and world revolution; let us not be deceived. In fact, there is a growing belief that Stalin himself is a Jew, and a columnist in the B'nai B'rith Messenger, Los Angeles Jewish paper, March 3, 1950, (page 5, col. 2) wrote: "A former Soviet general claims that Joseph Stalin is of Jewish ancestry."

It may be true. Stalin is well known to be a Semitic-Mongolian mixture; and he is married to the sister of Kaganovich, Jewish Commissar of Heavy Industries (ruler over all the great industrial cities of gentile slaves.)

Many Jews think Stalin Jewish. Once in a restaurant in Hollywood, in 1946, when I said Stalin probably was not persecuting Jews, a Jewish woman turned to me and said with feeling, "Why Stalin is Jewish, isn't he?"

MOLOTOV'S DAUGHTER JEWISH . . .

Molotov, as you doubtless know, is married to the sister of the Jew Sam Karp of Karp Export and Import Co., Bridgeport, Conn. Molotov's daughter, therefore, is Jewish. Molotov will not turn against his own daughter.

Mr. Ashberg, who was a well known Jewish international banker at the NIA Banken in Sweden and who helped finance the Bolsheviks to power and went to the Soviet Union right after the revolution in 1917, still is the banker for the Communist apparatus. As such he is one of the half dozen most powerful men in Russia. (For documentation and further details see my FEPC AND THE MINORITY MACHINE, pp. 7, 9 and 10.)

Rakosi still is dictator of Hungary. He is Jewish and considered one of the six most powerful Communists in the world. (See John Gunther's Behind the Curtain, 1949).

Slansky still is the strong man in Czechoslovakia, as secretary-general of the Communist Party of that gentile, anti-Communist country. He too is Jewish (as Gunther confirms).

Anna Pauker, daughter of a Moldavian kosher-slaughterer (who moved to Israel about 1946) still is the dictator over the Romanians. (For much about her brutal career and her Jewishness see Time magazine, Sept. 20, 1948.)

Jewish papers during the last two weeks of July, 1950, carried dispatches declaring Soviet Marshal Rokossovsky "anti-Semitic" and saying he had removed some Jews from the Polish and East German bureaucracy. Among those removed were Jacob Berman, who (as secretary-general of the Polish Communist Party) had been the dictator over the betrayed Poles, and Gerhardt Eisler, holding a position of power over the East Germans. But subsequent reports said these Jews had been called back to Moscow. The maneuver here is quite clear: the Poles and Germans watched Communism rise out of the ghettos and are deathly afraid of it because they know the capabilities of its Jewish directors for making gentiles destroy themselves. It is absolutely necessary to make Communism appear to have purged itself of Jewish power before Moscow can win the cooperation of the Poles and the Germans. Meanwhile, Berman and Eisler can issue orders from Moscow as readily as Eisler ruled the Communists of the Americas from a hideout in New York.

The recent exposes of Communists and spies in America have begun to alert our people to the Jewish character of the movement. And the Russians themselves are so violently anti-Semitic, after seeing the Jewish secret police and Commissar Kaganovich destroy or enslave millions of gentiles, that it is necessary for the Kremlin to appease and try to deceive them, as war approaches. A Jewish Telegraph Agency dispatch from London in the California Jewish Voice, July 14, states that, after an investigation of reports of cruelty to Jews by the Kremlin, the Anglo-Jewish Association "emphasized that while Jews as Jews are not being persecuted in those (Communist) countries, attempts to express Judaism spell danger for them," except where such exclusively Jewish activities are "completely in the hands of Communists."

This simply means that the Kremlin, at this difficult time, dares not let Jews enjoy privileges which gentiles do not enjoy; they stir anti-Semitism and therefore anti-Kremlin revolt.

Jewish newspapers consistently have made clear that all of the so-called suppression of Jews was handled, in fact, by Jews who were Communist officials.

Our enemy, Communism, still is Jewish, or principally so. This war like the last is entirely the result of years of evil machinations by certain Jews. If this hurts the few Jews not sympathetic to the revolution, I am sorry; but as we see fine American youths thrown to the flames, which now threatens to engulf the world, the blame must be put squarely where it belongs. Many American Jews who helped the Revolution, in Russia and/or America, now are running to the cover of Old Glory. I say it is too late. They set the world afire, and the activities must be rounded up and put on an island and kept there so that they can never do it again.

Now that we understand the identity of our enemy, we can answer the question, what are we fighting for? We are fighting for survival; we are fighting to break the power of extremist, Jewish master-race fanatics before they destroy civilization.

At last we face the war of the East against the West, so long foretold in Jewish and Christian history. It is purely a race war, a war to destroy the white nations and subjugate the white race. Edwin R. Embree, June 10, 1944, as head of the $30,000,000 Julius Rosenwald Fund "for human betterment" (a Jewish fund stirring Negroes against whites), told the National Conference of Social Work in Cleveland, the white man of the western world is being offered "his last chance for equal status in world society".

And what could please the destroyers more than to see white men killing Asiatics and Asiatics killing white men?

Communism can hold white peoples, as in Eastern Europe, only by fear of secret police; but in Asia it is finding fertile ground; for its basic preaching is hate-the-white-man. We now face the dilemma of having to fight all the billion and a half colored peoples of the world or else court them to prevent military annihilation. And in courting them, we will be in a difficult position in refusing to open our gates to Asiatic immigration. Asiatic immigration is the most important single political measure the Communist and Zionist machines in America (and their stupid tool, the Federal Council of Churches) are pushing. The crafty Jewish strategists want to flood our cities with yellow, brown and black races and breed the white man out of existence, the method by which their ancestors facilitated the destruction of Rome.

There now is hardly a division of soldiers to keep Asiatic Communists from taking Japan. Nothing can keep them from taking Iran, to which ally our Maj. Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, as director of the Office of Foreign Military Assistance, the same Jew who blocked shipment of arms to South Korea (see Newsweek, July 10, 1950), reportedly had shipped only junk, worthless in military operations.

Israel will permit itself to be captured by the Red Army, while shadow-boxing it to keep from reflecting on the loyalty of six to eight million Jews in America. Already I have seen indications that this is the method by which Chaim Weizmann, president, and David Ben-Gurion, premier, intend to throw the strategic Near East to the Soviet Union which they and almost all their fellow Jews now residing in Israel, helped to construct.

These are the hard facts. Let us not stick our heads in the sand out of moral cowardice. If we are branded with that cheap little smear word, anti-Semite, for facing facts, the hour is too desperate for any honest American to flinch.

We need—quickly—to seize the initiative, especially in a world-wide war of truthful propaganda exposing the master-race fanaticism of the Communist Jews and their brutality, and swiftly organizing and arming with small weapons, the scores of millions of anti-Communists in Eastern Europe, Russia and China.

Put MacArthur completely in charge of Asiatic operations, with billions to spend on propaganda and guerrilla armies. Keep China fighting so Russia cannot consolidate it. Properly handled, Chiang's forces can take back much of China and so heavily engage the Communists as to make it difficult or impossible for Moscow to seize the rest of Europe. Send several million pocket-size radio receivers into Russia, China and eastern Europe via the underground.

Rush millions of small arms to Germany; organize the Germans for guerrilla warfare; remove from over them the Jewish power (Battenwieser, and Frankfurter's agent, John J. McClay). Treat them like the fellow white men that they are.

These policies reverse the policies by which Frankfurter's tool, Dean Acheson, and aides, have brought us to the critical hour. Acheson has given ample evidence that he is a crafty, conscious Communist. He must be removed; then tried for rendering aid and comfort to the enemy. Even today, as our youths are fighting for their lives in Korea and West Germans are turning in alarm toward Moscow, Acheson continues to block aid to nationalist guerrillas in China and rejects the 15,000 troops afforded by Pakistan. He has all but stripped us of the last ally.

We now enter the dark climax of 2500-year psychological war by Jewish fanatics to destroy the white race. God help America if we cannot throw off the Frankfurter-Acheson influence.

Measures of Freedom

To the Editor of The Daily News:—

The Anti-Defamation League has issued its 1950 Year Book, "A Measure of Freedom." Walter Winchell gave the book "immediate and enthusiastic praise," declared it to be a "must."

The book's most revealing feature is its treatment of various types of the Jewish people. For example:

Benjamin H. Freedman, an outstanding American industrialist and philanthropist of the Jewish faith, in giving his reasons for opposing Zionism, declared that he had "no interest in forming a Jewish state and wished only to live and die a good American."

The Anti-Defamation League YearBook denounces Mr. Freedman as "notorious" (Page 71); as an "apostate Jew." (Page 83.)

For another type of Jew, Ben Hecht the Year Book has kinder words.

To intimidate Great Britain into continued support of their program, Zionist terrorists in Palestine blew up the King David Hotel with appalling loss of life, wrecked railroad trains, robbed banks, forced jail deliveries, assassinated Englishmen.

Over the signature of Ben Hecht, the New York Herald-Tribune for May 15, 1947, carried a page advertisement in the form of a letter addressed to the "Terrorists of Palestine," and assured them:—

"Every time you (terrorists) blow up a British arsenal or wreck a British jail, or send a British railroad train sky high, or rob a British bank, or let go with your guns and bombs at the British betrayers and invaders of your homeland, the Jews of America make a little holiday in their hearts."

The Anti-Defamation League "Year Book" describes Mr. Hecht as a "well-known personality, whose loyalty is beyond reproach and whose distinguished service to the United States is universally esteemed."

However Mr. Freedman is one of the many Americans of the Jewish faith, who do not make "a little holiday in their hearts" at news of train wrecking, bank robbery, murder and other terrorist activities.

Hoover's Mistakes

He did not leave the American people with a debt of $360,000,000,000.

Mrs. Hoover never made speeches or raced hither and yon on unimportant matters. She never wrote silly drivel on her everyday life and sold it to newspapers, and she never sold soap over the radio. Her only public appearance was as honorary member of the Girls Scouts of America.

The Hoover family seems to have made a failure of about everything that goes nowadays.

(From Wallace, Idaho, Mines Weekly).

Note by Editor of COMMON SENSE:

Mr. Hoover also did not open wide the doors at Washington to Zionist-Communists.

He did not betray Poland and turn their people over to Communist slavery.

He did not turn millions of people in eastern Germany—the Baltic States—Manchuria and Korea over to Stalin to be robbed, raped and enslaved.

He did not divide up Korea and Germany so as to make certain another war.

He did not allow the Communists to rule his Administration through Zionists like Felix Frankfurter—David Niles (Neyhus)—Samuel Rosenman—and Henry Morgenthau.

Mr. Hoover did not allow his Secretary of Treasury to load the master plates for printing of our money and our secret paper and ink onto planes in Washington to go to Soviet Union for the Communists to print eight billion dollars to be given the hoards of Zionist refugees swarming into the U.S.A.

Hoover also disagrees with Bernard Baruch with giving the President of the U.S.A. complete control over all man power and industry. Hoover thinks it will lead to totalitarianism.

When the State is most corrupt, then the laws are most multiplied. —Tacitus.

"THE ZIONISTS"

(Editor's note: This is the 5th of the series covering the book "The Zionist." The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country other nations are now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

(EXTRACT FROM PROTOCOL 1)

"A people left to itself, i. e., to upstarts from its midst brings itself to ruin by party dissensions excited by the pursuit of power and honors and disorders arising therefrom. Is it possible for the masses of the people calmly and without petty jealousies to form judgments, to deal with the affairs of the country, which cannot be mixed up with personal interest? Can they defend themselves from an external foe? It is unthinkable, for a plan broken up into as many parts as there are heads in the mob, loses all homogeneity, and thereby becomes unintelligible and impossible of execution.

Despotic Ruler Is Necessary

"It is only with a despotic ruler that plans can be elaborated extensively and clearly in such a way as to distribute the whole properly among the several parts of the machinery of the State; from this the conclusion is inevitable that a satisfactory form of government for any country is one that concentrates in the hands of one responsible person. Without an absolute despotism there can be no existence for civilization which is carried on not by the masses but by their guide, whosoever that person may be. The mob is a savage and displays its savagery at every opportunity. The moment the mob seizes freedom in its hands it quickly turns to anarchy, which in itself is the highest degree of savagery.

"Behold the alcoholized animals, bemused with drink, the right to an immoderate use of which comes along with freedom. It is not for us and ours to walk that road. The peoples of the goyim are bemused with alcoholic liquors; their youth has grown stupid on classicism and from early immorality, into which it has been inducted by our special agents—by tutors, lackeys, governesses in the homes of the wealthy, by clerks and others, by our women in the places of dissipation frequented by the goyim. In the number of these last I count also the so-called "society ladies" voluntary followers of the other in corruption and luxury.

THE ZIONIST SYSTEM

Bribery, Deceit, Murder and Terror

"Our countersign is—force and make-believe. Only force conquers in political affairs, especially if it be concealed in the talents essential to statesmen. Violence must be the principle, and cunning and make-believe the rule for governments which do not want to lay down their crowns at the feet of agents of some new power. This evil is the one and only means to attain the end, the good. Therefore we must not stop at bribery, deceit and treachery when they should serve towards the attainment of our end. In politics one must know how to seize the property of others without hesitation if by it we secure submission and sovereignty.

"Our State, marching along the path of peaceful conquest, has the right to replace the terrors of war by less noticeable and more satisfactory sentences of death, necessary to maintain the terror which tends to produce blind submission. Just but merciless severity is the greatest factor of strength in the State; not only for the sake of gain but also in the name of duty, for the sake of victory. We must keep to the programme of violence and make-believe. The doctrine of squaring accounts is precisely as strong as the means of which it makes use. Therefore it is not so much by the means themselves as by the doctrine of severity that we shall triumph and bring all governments into subjection of our super-government. It is enough for them to know that we are merciless for all disobedience to cease."

"The aristocracy, which enjoyed by law the labour of the workers, was interested in seeking that the workers were well fed, healthy and strong. We are interested in just the opposite—in the diminution, the killing out of the GOYIM. Our power is in the chronic shortness of food and physical weakness of the worker because by all that this implies he is made the slave of our will, and he will not find in his own authorities either strength or energy to set against our will. Hunger creates the right of capital to rule the worker more surely than it was given to the aristocracy by the legal authority of kings.

"By want and the envy and hatred which it engenders we shall move the mobs and with their hands we shall wipe out all those who hinder us on our way.

"When the hour strikes for our Sovereign of all the World to be crowned it is these same hands which will sweep away everything that might be a hindrance thereto.

"This hatred will be still further magnified by the effects of an economic crisis, which will stop dealings on the exchanges and bring industry to a standstill. We shall create by all the secret subterranean methods known to us and with the aid of gold, which is all in our hands, a universal economic crisis whereby we shall throw upon the streets whole mobs of worker's simultaneously in all the countries of Europe. These mobs will rush delightedly to shed the blood of those whom, in the simplicity of their ignorance, they have envied from their cradles, and whose property they will then be able to loot . . .

"Ever since that time we have been leading the people from one disenchantment to another, so that in the end they should turn also from us in favour of the King-Despot of the blood of Zion, whom we are preparing for the world."

"What form of rule is to be given to these communities if not that despotism which I shall describe to you later? We shall create an intensified centralization of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community. We shall regulate mechanically all the actions of the political life of our subjects by new laws. These laws will withdraw one by one all the indulgences and liberties which have been permitted by the goyim, and our kingdom will be distinguished by a despotism of such magnificent proportions as to be at any moment and in every place in a position to wipe out any goyim who oppose us by deed or word . . .

"However, it is probably all the same to the world who is its sovereign lord, whether the head of Catholicism or our despot of the blood of Zion! But to us, the Chosen people, it is very far from being a matter of indifference. . .

"For every one of them must bear in mind that any agreement against us would be unprofitable to itself. We are too strong—there is no evading our power. The nations can not come to even an inconsiderable private agreement without our secretly having a hand in it.

"Per Me Reges Regnant. 'It is through me that Kings reign.' And it was said by the prophets that we were chosen by God himself to rule over the whole earth. God has endowed us with genius that we may be equal to our task . . .

"In order to put public opinion into our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment by giving expression from all sides to so many contradictory opinions and for such length of time as will suffice to make the GOYIM lose their heads in the labyrinth and come to see that the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political, which it is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret . . .

"By all these means we shall so wear down the GOYIM that they will be compelled to offer us international power of a nature that by its position will enable us without any violence gradually to absorb all the State forces of the world and to form a Super-Government. In place of the rulers of today we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers, and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world."

Extract from Protocol 10

"The mob cherishes a special affection and respect for the geniuses of political power and accepts all their deeds of violence with the admiring response: 'rascally, well, yes, it is rascally, but it's clever! . . . a trick, if you like, but how craftily played, how magnificently done, what impudent audacity! . . .

"We count upon attracting all nations to the task of erecting the new fundamental structure, the project for which has been drawn up by us. This is why, before everything, it is indispensable for us to arm ourselves and to store up in ourselves that absolutely reckless audacity and irresistible might of the spirit which in the person of our active workers will break down all hindrances on our way.

"When we have accomplished our coup d'etat we shall say then to the various peoples: 'Everything has gone terribly badly, all have been worn out with sufferings. We are destroying the causes of your torment—nationalities, frontiers, differences of coinage. You are at liberty, of course, to pronounce sentence upon us, but can it possibly be a just one if it is confirmed by you before you make any trial of what we are offering you.' . . . Then will the mob exalt us and bear us up in their hands in a unanimous triumph of hopes and expectations. Voting, which we have made the instrument which will set us on the throne of the world by teaching even the very smallest units of members of the human race to vote by means of meetings and agreements by groups, will then have served its purposes and will play its part then for the last time by a unanimity of desire to make close acquaintance with us before condemning us.

"To secure this we must have everybody vote without distinction of classes and qualifications, in order to establish an absolute majority, which can not be got from the educated propertied classes. In this way, by inculcating in all a sense of self-importance, we shall destroy among the goyim the importance of the family . . .

"In order that our scheme may produce this result we shall arrange elections in favor of such presidents as have in their past some dark, undiscovered stain, some 'Panama' or other—then they will be trustworthy agents for the accomplishment of our plans out of fear of revelations and from natural desire of everyone who has attained power, namely, the retention of the privileges, advantages and honor connected with the office of president . . .

"The president will, at our discretion, interpret the sense of such of the existing laws as admit of various interpretations; he will further annul them when we indicate to him the necessity to do so, besides this, he will have the right to propose temporary laws, and even new departures in the government constitutional working, the pretext both for the one and the other being the requirements for the supreme welfare of the State.

"By such measures we shall obtain the power of destroying little by little, step by step, all that at the outset when we enter on our rights, we are compelled to introduce into the constitutions of States to prepare for the transition to an imperceptible abolition of every kind of constitution, and then the time is come to turn every form of government into our despotism."

No one has ever been more bitterly opposed to the Ku Klux Klan than we, nor fought it harder, but if it should suddenly reappear throughout the South in a new and modified form as it is rumored to be preparing to do, we won't fight it any more.

We will realize that it is simply the last defense of a helpless and outraged people fighting against the corrupt practices of crooked Washington politicians with the only weapon left at their command.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

The 11 Communists have lost their second appeal with the Honorable Learned Hand dissenting. Most Americans will think that Hand's dissent was based upon some legal technicality or error of the Lower Court. We would like to believe this also, however, we noticed in the November 12, 1944 issue of the "Daily Worker" that Judge Learned Hand sponsored a U. S.-Soviet Friendship Celebration. It doesn't look good, Congressman RANKIN said, in a speech in Congress.

It is not worth anything to go to Hawaii and pick up a few Communists, or drive them underground, if you are going to leave them in key positions on the White House staff, or in the Department of State, the Department of Justice, or any other department, or EVEN CIRCULATING AROUND THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES." . . . The latest headlines were "3 New Deal Brains were Reds." It should also be added that they are also Yiddish-Zionists. Four years ago "Common Sense" was pounding away at these New Deal Reds, such as Nathan Witt, John Abt, Charles Kramer and Lee Pressman, but the people thought we were crazy.

Now that the daily newspapers are carrying the story the people are convinced. Today we are exposing others in the government which are behind the scenes, who will not be recognized by the average American for years. That is, if Communism does not take over the country before these traitors are brought to justice . . .

The American people are losing faith in the UN rapidly. If the true facts were exposed at its inception the American people would have never recognized the UN. Yiddish-Zionist Leo Pasvolosky (born in Russia) drew up the UN Charter; Alger Hiss (now in prison) was General Secretary of the Conference at San Francisco; and many other Yiddish-Zionists were in the background (see Red Highlights July 1, 1950) . . . In case we haven't mentioned it before it is to be remembered that the newly published newspaper "The Daily Compass" is a RED propaganda organ in the same category with the "New York Post." The Publisher of the "New York Post" is Dorothy Schiff (Zionist), Granddaughter of Jacob Schiff, the late president of Kuhn & Loeb and Co., who financed the Russian Revolution with $48,000,000. Ted O. Thackery, divorced husband of Dorothy Schiff, is Editor and Publisher of "The Daily Compass" . . . Some time ago the B'nai B'rith through the Anti-Defamation League prevailed upon the Department of Justice to investigate as subversive THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION, THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS, THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, THE NATIONAL AMERICANISM COMMISSION OF THE AMERICAN LEGION, AND THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS. Some of these same organizations are afraid to fight back for fear of being called Anti-Semitic . . .

Jacob Malik presented to the UN a petition with the names of 32 captured American officers asking that the American forces get out of Korea. If these American boys did sign this purported petition we can imagine how they must have suffered before they finally signed. Is there any doubt in the minds of Americans that Russian-Zionistic-Communism is behind this war? . . . Did you know that the former Attorney General of the United States, Francis Biddle (New Deal appointee), was a Communist fellow traveler who used to write anti-religious poetry for a Communist magazine—a magazine partly owned by his wife? . . . Rabbi Isserman, of St. Louis, who fights Christian Nationalism and who is invited into the Protestant pulpits of St. Louis by certain 'me to' clergymen who seem to think it is cute to flatter the enemies of Jesus Christ, is the brother of Attorney Isserman who was the chief lawyer for the 11 Red Traitors who were convicted in New York . . . Reds in our State Department turned over to the Soviets the rich industrial half (the war-making portion) of Korea through Mr. Roosevelt at Yalta. Then the cream of our youth is called to protect the southern half. We are wishing our boys a God-given victory; a victory so great that they will come home with eyes opened and—knowing the truth—will proceed to Washington and administer to the Red traitors the penalty they deserve.

Republics, throughout all history, have had their birth, their years of vigorous growth, their heyday of world success, which remained only so long as the race that gave the nation its basic strength remained pure. With the introduction and interbreeding of lower types, decline came and finally national death. As disease germs will finally overpower the strength of the blood stream of the individual, just so will the flow of manpower in the whole body politic be debased and ruined by introducing living elements of a low order.

PATRIOTS MUST

Kerr bill, to exempt independent natural gas producers from regulation by the Federal Power Commission. Congress passed the bill because the Federal Power Commission had threatened to classify independent gas producers as public utilities and thereby regulate their rates . . . even though they sell their gas in the field at "arm's length" to pipe lines, and have no public utility functions.

The results of the gas bill veto will be government regulation of natural gas rates. And if you can fix prices of gas at the well, you can fix prices of anything, anywhere.

You probably know of the Truman administration's all-out efforts to saddle federal control on the nation's educational system. You know how it is trying to perpetuate rent control, a wartime emergency measure, and how it seeks to bribe the people of their votes with public housing, cradle-to-grave social security and other socialistic ingredients of the welfare state.

And do you know what Genocide is? Well, it is not in the dictionary, but is a newly-coined word meaning the extermination of racial, religious or political groups.

The United Nations adopted a resolution making Genocide a crime and providing for its punishment by an international court. President Truman approved it a year ago and asked the Senate to ratify it as a treaty. The Senate may act on it any time.

The American Bar Association has made a careful study of the Genocide proposal, and has found that under its terms, an American could be arrested, carried to a foreign land, and tried by a foreign court for killing ONE person. In fact, he wouldn't even have to kill a person; if he were an officer or member of any organization which caused "mental harm" to members of a racial or religious group by barring them from membership, or otherwise discriminating against them, he is subject to prosecution for Genocide.

The Genocide treaty, if ratified by the Senate, will take precedence over our state and federal laws and constitutions; it will tie us up with the European nations in one respect, as the Federal Unionists propose to tie us up with them in one government, with one army, one currency, one tariff, and, naturally, one flag. In such a Union the United States would probably have not more than 25 per cent of the votes so we would have to accept the alien ideas and philosophy that would be forced upon us by the European majority.

All these things are cut from the same cloth by our socialistic leaders. But the most alarming thing about our plight is their attitude toward Communism. They deny all charges of Communism in the State Department, calling them "red herrings." Secretary of State Acheson publicly declared that he would not turn his back on Alger Hiss, the convicted traitor. The department has defended others who have been proved Communists by congressional investigators and state prosecutors.

Of course, all this is very pleasing to "Good old Joe" Stalin, as our President has called him. Stalin rubs his hands with pleasure to see us spending ourselves into bankruptcy with billions of dollars worth of vote-buying handouts, and defending his agents in our government. He has a great fifth column in this country, which is being trained in the underground for future use.

Only one thing will check this creeping blight that is spreading from the banks of the Potomac out over our great nation. That thing is the concerted action of all good, freedom-loving Americans at the ballot box to elect men who will start up for our form of government and our way of life. That includes not only politicians, not only professional and business people. It is the fight of the churchman as well as the layman.

It is time that men and women of all religious faiths and creeds put aside their man-made dogmas and stand shoulder to shoulder in their common cause, for it is a fight for survival. Our freedom is at stake—freedom of speech, freedom of enterprise, freedom of the press, freedom of religious worship. If we lose the struggle, our pulpits will be taken over by the most cruel pagans of our time, as has been done in the countries overrun by the Communists.

I congratulate each of you graduates, and wish you great success and happiness as you begin your life work. You have a high privilege, to minister to suffering humanity. That same privilege also is a solemn responsibility, a sacred obligation which you have assumed. I know you will not fail your trust.

The writer has lived under the totalitarian governments in Germany, Italy, Japan. He has seen only too much of the cruelties of the Soviets. He is disgusted, or course, with the modified totalitarianism called "Socialism", which has destroyed the British Commonwealth. Because I feel so deeply about the fine work you are doing to preserve the government we inherited, I enclose again the "Widow's Mite." I try to send these small checks whenever I can spare them.

COMMON SENSE:

I am here enclosing my bit. I wish it were a hundred dollars instead of a hundred cents. Your little paper is doing great work. May success be your reward.

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Congratulations on the licking you gave the enemies in your case! Can you not now sue those devils for damages? I suspect that "the boys" in Washington stirred up Korea to get attention off Senator McCarthy's charges. It should be just like them for McCarthy was getting too close to the truth for comfort. Keep up the fight!

Editor, COMMON SENSE:

I am sending you $2.00 to use as you see fit in fighting the traitors. I think that they began the Korean War just to socialize America. Heaven forbid! Keep on working—we have to keep America free or die when "they" take over.

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Thank you for the copies of the paper. My friends were amazed that such a truth-telling publication existed and I am enclosing herewith their subscriptions. The dollar extra is my contribution to the fight.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY SERVICE

By General VanHorn Moseley (Retired)

(General Moseley was Commander of the Army of the South and while General MacArthur was Chief of Staff, General Moseley was next in Command).

Before we get further out on the limb in our search for real national defense, the American people should be made to understand just what Universal Military Training means in the minds of the proponents of the plan. They should realize that the system proposed will cost several billion dollars a year, but will not add a single soldier to our fighting forces during the training period. The mothers are assured that their sons are not in the Army; that they are not subject to the articles of war, and that they can't be sent to war until drafted. The plan adds several aulic Councils to an already top-heavy military establishment. In other words, the plan proposed is a Super Boy Scout affair to be administered by several civilian committees drawing large salaries and involving the employment of a great number of clerks. The Army wants all the assistance it can get from the scientists. It likewise wants all the assistance it can get from the industrialists. But it does not want any of them on the command line.

Before Korea, we thought we had an Army, not very large it is true, but we thought it was supported by a large reserve. We are now confronted with a great emergency and we find our so-called reserve a very nebulous thing. Only a very small part of it is fit for battle and too many in it are trying to get out. The various components of our reserve forces have cost us millions but they have never been ready to embark and fight until after months of delay. This absurd situation must be corrected now. Again, we should remember that the wars of the world have been fought by young men. The calling of older men now being done in the draft, is as unfair as it is unsound. The older men needed at the outset of mobilization for command and leadership and as specialists, should be found in the regular establishments.

In place of the complicated plan which requires 69 pages of conversation to explain, we should have a very simple law for Universal Military SERVICE—a very different thing, and something that will give us the military strength we are looking for. If our Republic is to stand in this troubled world, we must realize that the first duty of every able-bodied male citizen upon reaching his 18th year, is to fit himself for the active service in the event of war or national emergency. That service should mean enlistment for one year in one of the regular components of the Army, Navy or Air Force, or in training camps established and commanded by the regular forces. In the event of war or national emergency requiring the employment of our armed forces, trained men should be called up by yearly classes, the youngest first, reporting immediately to their mobilization assignments.

If, in time of peace, the funds in any year do not permit the enlistment of all men reaching the 18th year (all men enrolled in the class of that year), the number required for service should be selected by lot, using a machine for the purpose. In the event of war, if a class is called, each and every man of that class should be called. Those who had service in the regular establishments would report at

(Editor's Note: The following article was written by a Catholic Priest. It will easily be understood why we do not disclose the name of this practical, holy American patriot. America and Christianity could be saved at this eleventh hour if many Priests and Ministers would study this subject so as to be able to speak authoritatively as this Priest.

We must, through the press and any other means available, build an army of love to destroy the army of hate. Only Jesus and Mary will destroy the evil in the world today! People are so indifferent today! If they only understood the message of Our Lady! I believe that we priests, with our bishops, will soon be martyrs. We will see terrible things taking place. Our people must be prepared for any emergency. As a Catholic priest, I cannot see the world getting better. A Priest is not a layman. He is, to a certain extent, apart from the laity. He is in the service of Christ, and Our Lord gives him grace to realize what is really transpiring in the world . . . We cannot fight alone. We must become aware of our enemy's tactics, and seek heavenly guidance and help to overcome them. I believe that, at the present time, our Catholics aren't prepared to face the enemy. Many of them, I believe, would surrender themselves to the enemy. This age, I believe, is the Age of Mary, and the Mother of God is about to proceed in her manner of building her army against Satan and his cohorts. That means she is going to have a tremendously big hand in destroying evil all over the world and bringing peace to mankind. There will be peace, but it appears to me that we will have to suffer much first. It seems to me that only suffering will bring people to her son, Jesus Christ. Many Catholics are too worldly, unaware of what is really happening today and slow to take up the Cross and follow Christ. God help us!

PROTOCOLS CANNOT BE DENIED

"... The mob is a savage and displays its savagery at every opportunity. The moment the mob seizes freedom in its hands it quickly turns to anarchy, which in itself is the highest degree of savagery.

"Behind the alcoholized animals, bemused with drink, the right to an immoderate use of which comes along with freedom. It is not for us and ours to walk that road. The peoples of the GOYIMS (non-Jews) are bemused with alcoholic liquors; their youth has grown stupid on classicism and from early immorality, into which it has been inducted by our special agents—by tutors, lackeys, governesses in the houses of the wealthy, by clerks and others, by our women in the places of dissipation frequented by the GOYIM. In the number of these I count also the so-called 'society ladies' voluntary followers of the others in corruption and luxury". (Protocol 1, p.11).

"To complete the ruin of the industry of the GOYIM we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the GOYIM, that greedy demand for luxury which is swallowing up everything. We shall raise the rate of wages which, however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for, at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life, alleging that it rises from the decline of agriculture and cattle-breeding: We shall further undermine artfully and deeply sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy and to drunkenness and side by side therewith taking all measure to extirpate from the face of the earth all the educated forces of the goyim." (Protocol 6, p. 22).

"In order that the masses themselves may not guess what they are about we further distract them with amusements, games, pastimes, passions, people's palaces . . . Soon we shall bring through the press to propose competitions in art, in sport of all kinds: these interests will finally distract their minds from questions in which we should find ourselves compelled to oppose them. Growing more and more disaccustomed to reflect and form any opinions of their own, people will begin to talk in the same tone as we, because we alone shall be offering them new doctrines for thought . . . of course through such persons as will not be suspected of solidarity with us" (Protocol 13, p. 35).

Note: "The presumption is strong that the Protocols were issued, or reissued, at the First Zionist Congress held at Basle, in 1897, under the presidency of the Father of Modern Zionism, the late Theodore Herzl" (Protocols: Introduction, p. 5).

World War III had been planned at Yalta and Potsdam, when Germany and Korea had been cut in two. The 38th parallel in Korea, which is a purely arbitrary line cutting the Industrial North from the agricultural South, was the seed for Mr. Truman's Korean war. North Korea was given to Russia for her "wonderful" help in the war against Japan. Read this: Russia entered the war on August 8, 1945, two days after the bombing of Hiroshima. Japan was "permitted" to surrender on August 14, 1945, although she tried to surrender before.

There is filed a card dated July 24, 1945, sent by Frederick J. Libby, Exec. Secy. of the National Council for prevention of war, urging that Americans wire President Truman to accept Japan's surrender proposition. That card has these portentous words, Now. Later may be too late. Why didn't the U.S.A. want Japan to surrender on July 24, 1945, thirteen days before Hiroshima and fifteen days before Russia entered the war to win the "reward", Korea?

Before you talk of atrocities in Korea and dead American soldiers there in 1950 and elsewhere, before you talk of throwing A-bombs here and there, be honest and think clearly! Remember Truman and his guilt in 1945 . . . Truman and his guilt in 1950!

Soon we will be fighting as an American team to preserve Christianity and our Constitution, but has anyone ever really protested the Hiroshima Massacre, or Mr. Truman's war in Korea? We are Americans, but have we, in a democratic way, had anything to say about going into the war in Korea? I sincerely believe we are no longer living in a democracy.

Where are the "Peace loving nations"? Soviet Union is a member of the United Nations. Is she a peace loving nation? If she is a member of the U.N. O., and since the U.N.O. had been established to prevent aggressions, why isn't Russia (not the Russian people but the diabolical dictator and his cohorts) doing anything about ending the war in Korea? Where are the Four Freedoms? Hypocritical words to deceive the un-thinking! Yet, there are those who say of Mr. Roosevelt: "He's dead. Let the dead rest!" Should he rest when American boys (just kids from high school) are dying as a result of his and his successor's treachery? Should they be permitted to go untried, i.e., Roosevelt and Truman? Read this: Arthur Sears Henning, in the Chicago "Tribune" of May 5, 1946, enumerated the following secret commitments:

"The deal at the Yalta conference whereby Russian Dictator Stalin agreed to come into war against Japan in consideration of getting the Kurile Islands on the flank of the American Aleutians and territorial and economic concessions in China.

"The deal at the Teheran conference whereby Mr. Roosevelt assented to the divisions of Europe into Russian and British spheres of influence, the partition of Poland, and other measures for extending Russian domination of eastern Europe.

"The deal with Stalin at Yalta in which Mr. Roosevelt agreed that Russia should have three votes in the United Nations organization.

"Mr. Roosevelt's letter to King Ibn Saud of Arabia promising to take no step in Palestine hostile to the Arabs, which the ZIONISTS pronounce a repudiation of the later President's pledge to support a Jewish commonwealth.

"An agreement at Yalta on a proposed system of United Nations trusteeships for territories captured from the enemy and for other dependent areas.

"An understanding Stalin obtained at Yalta that Russia should receive 50% of reparations exacted from Germany, while Britain and the United States could have 20% each, and the other nations would divide the remaining 10%.

"An agreement Mr. Truman made at the Potsdam conference providing for revision of the Montreux convention governing the right of navigation of the Dardanelles, whereby Turkey would be deprived of the power to restrict such passage in any way.

"An agreement between the American and Russian military authorities at Yalta for reciprocal repatriation of Soviet citizens liberated by the American army and American citizens liberated by the Russian army whereby anti-Russian Poles, Balts, Czechs, Finns, Slovaks, Austrians, and others would be surrendered to the Russian authorities for possible imprisonment, deportation or 'liquidation.'

"An understanding obtained by Churchill from Roosevelt at the Casablanca conference that the British should have control of ALL military operations in the eastern Mediterranean and southeastern Europe.

"A memorandum initiated by Roosevelt and Churchill at the 1944 Quebec conference, approving the Morgenthau plan for the deindustrialization of Germany and the conversion of Germany into 'a country primarily agricultural and pastoral in character.' It also suggested internationalization of the Ruhr and Saar districts of Germany."

What else is there that we Americans don't know? A New York paper said: "Churchill is holding out for $100,000 to reveal in a national magazine what he thinks about America: his hitherto unpublished speeches brought $50,000 from Henry Luce." Poor Americans, the great defenders of the Wall Street and international bankers as well as of political demagogues!

General MacArthur has to see boys under his command die needlessly, because his suggested policies were ignored. In the Bataan death march, Mr. Roosevelt's orders were to supply England first. In Korea, Mr. Lattimore's advice outweighed MacArthur's. The U. S. State Department treacherously trades American lives to help Russia! And what kind of decisions does Mr. Truman have, since he said not so long ago: "The decisions we make in the next few months will determine whether there is to be a third world war." Who are the "we"? B. Cohen, Assistant Secretary General (in charge of information)? B. Baruch, "American" member on the U.N.O. Commission on Atomic Energy? A. H. Feller, General Counsel to Mr. Lie, Secretary General? A. Morse, Director of International Labour? J. Shapiro, Director of U.N.O. Information Center, Geneva? Will we know just exactly where the A-bombs will fall? Or Lee Pasvolsky, the man who drew up the U.N.O. Charter... and special assistant? Apart from the "Russian" representative on the Political and Security Committee, the Jew D. J. Manulsky, these men are all Jews, aware that Communism as well as Communist countries are ruled by members of their own tribe. They are anxious to do nothing that will seriously endanger the Jewish rulers of Russia and Eastern Europe... all anxious to appear as champions of Western Democracy... all a dangerous liability to the Western World in peace and, of course, a far greater danger in the event of war. Yet, these are the men with whom Mr. Truman is in alliance: the clique that is trying hard to destroy our land. They camouflage "Russian" domination of the world with an organization called U.N.O., and they supplanted the American Flag with a crackpot flag called the U.N.O. flag. And they placed MacArthur, since he is a probable candidate for the presidency in 1952, on a spot. They plan on bringing defeat purposely, not by a democratic party (the democratic party and the republican party, if well managed, keep a balance of power in our government), but by an un-American clique that is out to destroy the U.S.A. When did we tire of fighting under the Stars and Stripes? The U.N.O. is just a piece of cloth that means nothing to us or any other nation! We are living in a democratic nation, and no diabolical schemes will foist a piece of rag on us!

Old Joe fooled us again! He must be laughing. While we waste our manpower, money and resources in Korea, Russia goes calmly about her business of getting ready for the big war with America. The Communists are in control of China, because Truman put them there. How many "Koreas" will there be before the BIG WAR which Russia can enter fresh and unspent both in resources and manpower? Can't we see that Korea is a put-up job? With our boys putting out fires all over the world started by the Communist gangsters and murderers. We can make more ammunition, but it takes 18 years to make human gun fodder!

Wars are not accidents: they are planned, and in the hands of warmongers and the greedy and lustful wars are a business on a tremendously big scale. They are made by rulers to cover their "mistakes." In 1945 Syngman Rhee pleaded with Truman against the 38th division of Korea. His plea was deliberately ignored. Now boys must die to correct that "mistake"!

Whose blame? More than a year ago Congress voted Truman 10 million dollars for military equipment for South Korea. Only 200 dollars worth of wire arrived there! And what is wire for? To separate the North and South Koreans? Would we like it if we in the north would be separated from the south here? Did we like anybody to interfere in our Civil War? England tried, and we didn't like it. And they blame the isolationists just as in 1941! Because the "democrats" whitewashed the investigation of the "sneak" attack at Pearl Harbor, we have a "sneak" attack in Korea. The "democrat" party is just another Communist front, with Roosevelt and Truman willing tools and the "Me Too" Republicans going along.

When will the 54,000 well trained Communists go into action here? Less than that took over Russia!

Men say: "We must go and get it over with." But there is no "over with" if we look facts in the face. The purpose is and has been for 50 years: "Destroy the U.S.A.!" Destroy America, and freedom all over the world is gone! This war is not my country's war. This is Truman's war, with a political plan in mind. My Flag is the Stars and Stripes and not a U.N.O. flag! I hold to the principle of the Constitution which says: "An act done by an officer in excess of his legal competence is simply void and may be so regarded by the humblest citizen." We have gone too far on the wrong road. We must turn back before it is too late. Perhaps it is already late: a war with Russia is inevitable. As Tiorle said: "A retreat from a wrong direction is the only honest move in the right direction."

President Truman and his entire cabinet should be made to resign. What a mess they put the whole world in.

How can we win a war by scattering our youth all over the earth when you have Reds worse than the Koreans right here directing a third world war in every key position? How can we expect to win a war with Red Jews in power here? This whole war is nothing but a mass slaughter for Americans... and a put-up job!

Our Congress should investigate the suspicious fact that the internationalist lawyer and one world Wall Streeter Warmonger John Foster Dulles was in Korea on a State Department mission for Secy. Acheson only a few days before this created "incident" broke out into the news! In fact he got out of

(Editor's note: This is the 6th of the series covering the book "The Zionist." The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country other nations are now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

"In our day the power which has replaced that of the rulers who were liberal is the power of Gold. Time was when Faith ruled. The idea of freedom is impossible of realization because no one knows how to use it with moderation. It is enough to hand over a people to self-government for a certain length of time for that people to be turned into a disorganized mob. From that moment on we get internecine strife which soon develops into battles between classes in the midst of which States burn down and their importance is reduced to that of a heap of ashes.

"Whether a State exhausts itself in its own convulsions, whether its internal discord brings it under the power of external foes—in any case it can be accounted irretrievably lost; it is in our power. The despotism of Capital, which is entirely in our hands, reaches out to it a straw that the State, willy nilly, must take hold of; it not—it goes to the bottom . . .

"Out of the temporary evil we are now compelled to commit will emerge the good of an unshakable rule, which will restore the regular course of the machinery of the national life, brought to naught by liberalism. The result justifies the means. Let us, however, in our plans, direct our attention not so much to what is good and moral as to what is necessary and useful . . .

"Our power in the present tottering condition of all forms of power will be more invincible than any other because it will remain invisible until the moment when it has gained such strength that no cunning can any longer undermine it."

Extract from Protocol 2

"In the hands of the States of today there is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the Press. The part played by the Press is to keep pointing out requirements supposed to be indispensable, to give voice to the complaints of the people, to express and to create discontent. It is in the Press that the triumph of freedom of speech finds its incarnation. But the goyim States have not known how to make use of this force; and it has fallen into our hands. Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade; thanks to the Press we have got the gold in our hands, notwithstanding that we have had to gather it out of oceans of blood and tears. But it has paid us, though we have sacrificed many of our people. Each victim on our side is worth in the sight of God a thousand goyim."

Extract from Protocol 7

"We must be in a position to respond to every act of opposition by war with the neighbors of that country which dares to oppose us; but if these neighbors should also venture to stand collectively together against us, then we must offer resistance by a universal war.

"The principal factor of success in the political is the secrecy of its undertakings; the word should not agree with the deeds of the diplomat.

"We must compel the governments of the goyim to take action in the direction favored by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power"—the Press, which, with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands.

"In a word, to sum up our system of keeping the governments of the goyim in Europe in check, we shall show our strength to one of them by terrorist attempts and to all, if we allow the possibility of a general rising against us, we shall respond with the guns of America or China or Japan."

Extract from Protocol 8

"We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why economic science forms the principal subject of the teaching given to the Jews. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and—the main thing—millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures.

W fight communism with common sense

"For a time, until there will no longer be any risk in entrusting responsible posts in our States to our brother-Jews, we shall put them in the hands of persons whose past and reputation are such that between them and the people lies an abyss, persons who, in case of disobedience to our instructions, must face criminal charges or disappear—this in order to make them defend our interests to their last gasp."

Extract from Protocol 12

"Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control. Even now this is already being attained by us inasmuch as all news items are received by a few agencies, in whose offices they are focussed from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already entirely ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them.

"If already now we have contrived to possess ourselves of the minds of the goy communities to such an extent that they all come near looking upon the events of the world through the colored glasses of those spectacles we are setting astride their noses; if already now there is not a single State where there exist for us any barriers to admittance into what goy stupidity calls State secrets; what will our position be then, when we shall be acknowledged supreme lords of the world in the person of our king of all the world."

"Huge capitals have stagnated, withdrawing money from the States, which were constantly obliged to apply to those same stagnant capitals for loans. These loans burdened the finances of the State with the payment of interest and made them the bond slaves of these capitals . . . The concentration of industry in the hands of capitalists out of the hands of small masters has drained away all the juices of the peoples and with them also the States.

"The present issue of money in general does not correspond with the requirements per head, and cannot therefore satisfy all the needs of the workers. The issue of money ought to correspond with the growth of population and thereby children also must absolutely be reckoned as consumers of currency from the day of their birth. The revision of issue is a material question for the whole world.

"You are aware that the gold standard has been the ruin of the States which adopted it, for it has not been able to satisfy the demands for money, the more so that we have removed gold from circulation as far as possible."

ZIONIST "BROTHERHOOD"

Extract from Protocol 9

"And the weapons in our hands are limitless ambitions, and malice.

"It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, of all doctrines, restoring monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harnessed them all to the task: each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority, is striving to overthrow all established form of order. By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquility, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace; but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissiveness.

"The people have raised a howl about the necessity of settling the question of Socialism by way of an international agreement. Division into fractal parties has given them into our hands, for, in order to carry on a contested struggle one must have money, and the money is all in our hands . . .

"We have got our hands into the administration of the law, into the conduct of elections, into the press, into liberty of the person, but principally into education and training as being the corner-stones of a free existence.

"We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false although it is by us that they have been inculcated."

Extract from Protocol 11

"The goyim are a flock of sheep, and we are their wolves. And you know what happens when the wolves get hold of the flock? . . .

"For what purpose then have we invented this whole policy and insinuated it into the minds of the goys without giving them any chance to examine its underlying meaning? For what, indeed, if not in order to obtain in a round-about way what is for our scattered tribe unattainable by the direct road? It is this which has served as the basis for our organization of secret masonry which is not known to, and aims which are not even so much as suspected by, these goy cattle, attracted by us into the "show" army of masonic lodges in order to throw dust in the eyes of their fellows."

W fight communism with common sense

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION

"We have long past taken care to discredit the priesthood of the goyim, and thereby to ruin their mission on earth which in these days might still be a great hindrance to us. Day by day its influence on the peoples of the world is falling lower. Freedom of conscience has been declared everywhere, so that now only years divide us from the moment of the complete wrecking of that Christian religion; as to other religions we shall have still less difficulty in dealing with them, but it would be premature to speak of this now. We shall set clericalism and clericals into such narrow frames as to make their influence move in retrogressive proportion to its former progress.

"When the time comes finally to destroy the papal court the finger of an invisible hand will point the nations towards this court. When, however, the nations fling themselves upon it, we shall come forward in the guise of its defenders as if to save excessive bloodshed. By this diversion we shall penetrate to its very bowels and be sure we shall never come out again until we have gnawed through the entire strength of this place."

"ZIONIST POPE OF THE UNIVERSE"

"The King of the Jews will be the real Pope of the Universe, the patriarch of an international Church.

"But, in the meantime, while we are re-educating youth in new traditional religion and afterwards in ours, we shall not overtly lay a finger on existing churches, but we shall fight against them by criticism calculated to produce schism."

ZIONIST ACHIEVEMENT

They govern the world and have temporarily acquired the wealth of Palestine. They have overthrown several of the governments of Europe and have established communistic dictatorships in place of them:

Joseph Stalin, married to a Jewess, is dictator of Russia;

the Jew, Manuisky, is dictator of the Ukraine;

the Jew, Jacob Berman, is dictator of Poland;

the Jewess, Anna Pauker, is dictator of Rumania;

the Jew, Rayosi, is dictator of Hungary;

the Jew, Ilya Ehrenburg, is editor of the official organ, "Pravda";

the Jew, Judin, is editor of the official "Cominform Fortnightly."

ONE BREAK FOR OUR SIDE

...The overwhelming passage of the Anti-Communist Bill over the veto of President Harry Solomon Truman is one thing for which this country can be thankful. The Reds will no doubt find some way out, but it will be interesting to see how they do it. Congratulations to the Senators and Congressmen and all those individuals scattered throughout the country through whose efforts this was made possible. But let us not be too confident—we must keep fighting until we drive every last Red out of our country.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

There is a tremendous campaign spreading throughout the country encouraging Americans to replace the American flag with the U. N. flag. Everybody is asked to buy, sell, and make U. N. flags. The traitors behind this movement have already raised the U. N. flag above the American flag on several public buildings throughout the nation and now wish to further convince the people that we have no more need for the American flag. This campaign is jointly and systematically working with the United World Federalists to place America under the power and influence of a world constitution and a world judicial tribunal. Everything today is anti-American! Pro-Reds, pro-World Federalists, and pro-Zionists are beating the American death march on their propaganda drums. They have set October 24th as one day to feature the U. N. flag while Old Glory is pushed in the background. Next we will be asked to take down the crosses from our churches for a day and put up the hammer and sickle. Anyone wishing American flag stickers write "COMMON SENSE." Senators and Congressmen are beginning to spread the truth about Marshall and his Red record in China and elsewhere. Johnson wouldn't co-operate with Acheson, but you can bet your last dollar that Marshall will get along just swell with the Red Dean. These two stooges for the Invisible Government will try to pull the rug from under Gen. MacArthur and deliver Formosa and Chiang Kai Shek to Stalin's butchers. "COMMON SENSE" was the first to attack Marshall and the Marshall Plan in its Nov. 23, 1947 issue. Go back and read now what we said then! The C. I. O. in Newark recently condemned hysteria over Communism in America and urged the defeat of the Mundt-Nixon-Ferguson-McCarran bill for control of Communist activities in the country. Sixteen countries have been enslaved with millions of Christians murdered. There are 600 Communist fronts in America and there are hundreds of Communists and Reds in our government waiting to be given the word, and the C.I.O. is telling the people that this is "Hysteria." What kind of talk is that? We know the American people have been lulled to sleep, but how sound asleep can we get? Every American C.I.O. member should be convinced now who is running his organization and should take steps to oust every Red traitor in the C.I.O. Three cheers for the V. F. W. Through its efforts Massachusetts has rescinded a World Government resolution. This makes six rescinding states since V. F. W. tossed wrench in World Federalist legislation machine (other states, Georgia, California, Rhode Island, Alabama and Louisiana). There is a big battle developing in Oklahoma and Florida where this question will be on ballots in November. The V. F. W. is America's largest organized fighting force against Communism, simply because the Zionists have not been able to influence its policies as they have done with the American Legion If you are interested to know what a Christian's rights would be according to Zionism if you should become involved in litigation with a Zionist, go to your public library and look at the Jewish Encyclopedia, page 620 under "Laws of Hamurabi". In brief, a Christian would have no rights at all. Washington, D. C. Additional supplies of butter and cheese, in limited quantities, have been made available by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for free distribution in countries outside of the United States. Thus far Israel is the only Middle East country to have signed a contract with the U. S. Government. The contract, effective August 1, 1950 calls for the shipment of 2,200,000 pounds of butter and 2,200,000 pounds of cheese. The other countries know of this give-away program but they cannot get anywhere because our Zionist-controlled government intends to transfer America's wealth to Israel bit by bit. Some day Americans will wake up and find a bankrupt country and wonder where our wealth has gone. How complacent and unconcerned can we get? Zionists Sidney Salomon Jr., St. Louis Insurance executive was named treasurer of the Democratic National Committee August 17, 1950 Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) said that he believes home front mobilizer chief, W. Stuart Symington "has been taken over by the C.I.O. crowd." Keep in mind that Zionist Anna Rosenberg is Symington's special consultant Truman's liquidation of Robert N. Denham was another "pay-off" to the leftists. One by one the President is eliminating American leaders and replacing them with fellow travelers.

To Owen Lattimore's question:

"Where is Senator McCarthy getting this secret information?" a congressman replied: "Maybe there is an American in the State Department."

A PRIEST SPEAKS

Korea just one day ahead of the mess! What timing! And how is it that a border fight between natives of Korea merits a third world war when the State Department let China go? This Wall Street lawyer Dulles is the "trigger" man in this put-up job of war! And I believe he is acting for the same gang of German "Red" Jews who are using wars and revolutions all over the earth in order to knock down every Christian nation including the U.S.A. in order to set up a Jewish World State, for the Jews represented by Kuhn, Loeb and Co. financed the Russian Revolution in 1917 and financed Hitler in 1929 to unleash the Socialist Revolution in Germany that started the second world war. I refer to Kuhn, Loeb & Co., whose partner James P. Warburg financed Hitler. This is the same world revolutionist who would overthrow the United States of America with World Government resolutions in Congress! And who testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Feb. 17th, 1950 as follows: "You will have World Government whether you like it or not, if not by consent, by request?" James P. Warburg and Phillip Schieff and John Foster Dulles, who are conspiring with Acheson for the overthrow or the conquest of the U.S.A., must be arrested.

Congress must impeach Pres. Truman and his entire cabinet for their part of putting the world in the mess it is today by an illegal, undeclared third world war! The soft under-belly of the Soviet monster is the Jewish Question. This is the spot for starting a second front in the "cold" war! How is it that a Jew is the U.S. military adviser to Secy. of Defense Louis Johnson? This Jew is named Maj. Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer. Get him out, and turn this nation over to the mothers! The mothers must go down into the valley of death to bring forth sons! I charge that this war is a Jewish conspiracy, and demand the arrest of every member of the Truman Administration and of all the internationalists in Congress who are selling America down into hell with this war! I charge that this war incident is a "cooked up" affair schemed by "Red" Zionist Jews who are in every key position, such as Major General L. L. Lemnitzer, adviser to the secy. of Defense. How can we win a war with all these Reds in office?

This country is 94% Christian and only 6% Jew, and why the Jews in all our key positions? We don't want any "white-wash" of this mass-murder machine! Our boys were betrayed to their enemies from within by the Jews! Helpless and innocent American soldiers have been sold down into the hell of war! Having been illegally placed by the President at the "disposal" of the Jewish "Red" "United Nations" organization that is absolutely illegal, collusive and rotten with the enemies of America! The official responsible for this great betrayal and violation of U. S. Law is Pres. Harry Solomon Tuman (Emperor Harry Solomon), whose assistant is the "Red" Jew David Neyhus or "David K. Niles," "acting president" of the United States! This is a Zionist "Red" Jew plot! And we Gentiles are falling for everything we see and hear!

The Secretary of State is the Jew stooge and British Dean Acheson, whose parents were both British subjects but who by accident was born here. He is also the great friend of Alger Hiss, the convicted perjurer and "Red" spy! Who was the Secy. General of the "United Nations" in San Francisco and the President of the Carnegie Foundation, and who was State Dept. "adviser" to Pres. Roosevelt when he gave away our victories at Yalta? This Dean Acheson is also the bosom pal of the Austrian Jew Felix Frankfurter, who was attorney and defender of Anarchists . . . now on U.S. Supreme Court!

The Secy. General of the "United Nations" is the "Red" Partisan and Labor Government stooge Trygve Lie of Norway, bosom pal of comrade Joe Stalin of Moscow, where he was recently entertained in secret conclaves, reporting back to Truman. The Jew A. R. Ginsberg is in charge of public relations for the Armed Forces!

The personal representative of this "Red" Partisan Secy. General of the "United Nations" in Korea since June 30th is the Zionist Jew, Col. Alfred G. Katzin of the Union of South Africa. No wonder our boys are being mass murdered! The mission of Katzin is to assist in the effective implementation of the U. N. Security Council resolution on the Korean conflict. He is 43 years old, and served as a colonel in the South African armed forces during World War II. Later he was Deputy Director General and chief executive of the UNRRA in Washington, D. C. Katzin had been accompanied to Tokyo by George Movshon, producer of the daily U.N. radio program, "The U. N. Today."

The "United Nations" Security Council, under whose orders we went to war in Korea, was under the direction of a Cuban Revolutionary Jew! The whole mess reeks with Jews! We need to pray and take action soon! St. Michael the Archangel defend us in the battle against the wickedness and snares of the devils! And to Thou, O Prince of the heavenly Host, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls as well as our nation!

What we need today is a great statesman who is a sage, a saint, a moral leader on a par with Moses, mentally a Socrates, a ruler of men and a coordinator of forces like Solomon and Augustus Caesar. But there is no much human being . . . at least there is none in sight.

We need a martyr today . . . a hero who is willing to die like the men on battlefields. Practically all great men are put to death. "You killed all the prophets," said Jesus. And having done that, they killed the Lord of all the prophets. It's too bad it must be so, but so it is. The world is allergic to prophets, for prophets have the intolerable habit of telling the truth. No one tells the truth in this world and the gets away with it! Besides, we never know whether a man is telling the truth unless he dies to prove it. "I believe the testimony of witnesses who died in defense of what they have seen," said Blaise Pascal. That is the practical reason why the prophet must die. But there is also a mystical reason: "It is expedient that one man die for the people," said Calphas, who was for the moment a prophet himself. One generation murders the prophets, and the next worships them!

once to their mobilization assignments; the others would report immediately to a training camp, joining the colors when they were pronounced fit.

Enlisted men trained in this way, should be given mobilization assignments to the Army, Navy, Air Force, National Guard and Reserve, according to the needs of the military services and for no other reason. We would then have a defense force ready to march to battle. Under such a system, as the trained civilian grew older with ever increasing responsibilities, the probability factor of his being called would grow less and less—as it should be. Such an organization could be set up on simple and well proven lines. It could be economically administered.

Very few people will ever see the printed plan which has been proposed. Very few officials will ever read it. What the American people are hoping for is a system that is simple, effective and economical. Do we lack the character to face the problem realistically? War and preparation for war cannot be sugar-coated. We should stop trying to fool the American mothers. Eventually we may also learn that national defense cannot be based on the dollar. IT REQUIRES NATIONAL CHARACTER.

Robert H. Best

Robert H. Best, American patriot convicted of treason and sentenced to life imprisonment through the efforts of the Anti Defamation League, was found in his cell recently suffering from a brain hemorrhage. He is improving but his condition is still critical. Mr. Best's crime was that he opposed Roosevelt's war to crush Germany and open Europe to Communism. We ask our readers to remember this fine American patriot in their prayers.

SOVIET UNION NOT COMMUNIST

By DR. DAVID GOLDSTEIN

THE DICTIONARY, A BOOK OF VITAL INTELLECTUAL NECESSITY, is often of very little use when dealing with the 20th century moral plague called "Communism." For instance, the Soviet Union is popularly called a "Communist" country, when it is as far from being such as the South was from being rightly called a land of freedom for Negroes, before Civil War days. Real Communism, our dictionary tells us, is, in principle, a state of equality. It is a society in which each person gives of his skill and energy according to his ability, and is remunerated according to his needs. It is a system of family-like relationship that is not contrary to Christian principles, if entered into voluntarily, provided the right of conscience is safeguarded. It necessitates the abolition of the wage system of remuneration, a primary Marxian economic demand which is unworkable on a national scale, as the Soviet Union discovered in its infancy. In fact the wage system in vogue in the Soviet Union, with its extensive piecework and shock-worker (Stakhanovist) method of exploiting labor, would not be tolerated by organized labor on our side of the Iron Curtain.

IT IS BY A MISUSE OF LANGUAGE that the inhabitants of the Soviet Union are commonly called "Russians," when not more than one-half the people therein can rightly be so designated. Seventeen per cent of the U.S.S.R. population are Ukrainians; and there are reported to be 168 other ethnic groups of more than 20,000 members within its borders. Stalin himself is not a Russian. He is a Georgian, born in what is now called the Georgian Soviet Republic which covers an area of 27,000 miles, with a population of 3,542,000.

"COMMUNISTS" call the Soviet Union a "democracy", when it is a "Dictatorship of the Proletariat" by a Politburo of 14 members. Surely it is a gross misuse of language to call a country a "democracy" in which only one political party is permitted to function, the "Communist Party"; a country in which the industries, schools, press, and broadcasting stations are a Politburo monopoly; a country that bars any expression of opinion that is not in harmony with Stalinism. The two leading Soviet daily papers are "Izvestia," which means News, and "Pravda," which means Truth. Some anti-Stalinists behind the Iron Curtain said jokingly, though secretly: "There is no truth in the News (Izvestia), and no news in Truth (Pravda) but Stalin favored news."

OUTLAWING THE RED-REDS—Eighteen nations have thus far outlawed the Communist Party. Four other countries are considering doing so, including our U. S. A. The nations are Spain, Portugal, Greece, Turkey, Lebanon, Syria, Southern Korea, Burma, Indo-China, Peru, Malaya, Bolivia, Chile, Brazil, Venezuela, and Austria.

Brien McMahon is not a Communist. He is a Christian, unknowingly fronting for them. A Christian who is fooled into their program is much more valuable to the Marxists than a Card Carrying Communist. Today we must put only alert Americans on guard, regardless of political parties or religious beliefs.

"THE CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM"

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, Reprinted from Council Letter No. 248

Certainly all Americans are for freedom, or, as we have been more used to calling it, liberty.

No other nation, at least no nation of any great size, has enjoyed such freedom as the Americans during the first century and a half of their existence. Freedom, or liberty, is of the very essence of American life. Any organization formed for the purpose of spreading the American idea of freedom throughout the world, will rightly appeal to all Americans.

But we are puzzled by certain features of this present project. Apparently it is thoroughly financed—just how is not stated in any of the Committee's literature we have seen. It is receiving heavy support in the press, radio and pulpit. Important banking interests are passing the word around that the Committee is to be supported. The Committee is able to get the names of prominent men and women in many sections of the country for its local committees.

The chief objective of the National Committee for a Free Europe appears to be to carry on a radio program. One of the leaflets of the Committee says:

"The new voice of Radio Free Europe is now on the air, alongside the Voice of America—a new voice, relieved of official limitations, harder hitting . . ."

The Administration is already spending many millions a year of the taxpayers' money in broadcasting to Soviet Russia and Iron Curtain

Lenin said, "For every Communist we have ten others ready and able to do our work." Clever Marxists work on the assumption that every politician has his price or can be fooled, or framed, to carry out the plan to abolish the United States.

When International Marxists were about ready with their plans to push the U. S. into World War II, and set up Marxist rule here, Herbert Hoover was president. The Red plotters would have been just as willing to corrupt the Republican administration and shove us into the war which left Europe at the mercy of Communism and the U. S. nearly so. However, those International Reds realized that Herbert Hoover would not give Zionist-Communists a free hand in our government. It was imperative, then, that they organize the smear Hoover campaign to put Roosevelt in office for they were certain that Roosevelt would place his administration at their disposal.

As a result, not only is our beloved Country almost conquered by atheistic Marxists, and their dupes, but Roosevelt, with Alger Hiss, Averill Harriman and Harry Hopkins (Raschid) at his side at Yalta and Teheran, turned millions of Christian people in Poland — Latvia — Lithuania — Estonia — Hungary — Czechoslovakia — Eastern Germany — Manchuria and Korea over to bloody Stalin.

Brien McMahon, the New Deal Senator from Connecticut, is an important dupe in this Marxist plan. He has a leading role as a link in the chain of alien-minded New Dealers and saboteurs who have betrayed America by stealing atomic bomb secrets.

The world knows that the atomic bomb secret has been stolen by Soviet spies through traitors who have posed as Americans. Some of these men, apprehended by the F.B.I. and Scotland Yard, have been tried, or are being tried, for the crime. When the story broke on the front page of every newspaper in the country, citizens were excited and shocked that such highly secret information could have been stolen from the strongly guarded laboratories of our government. Many people blamed the present administration.

Truman yelled "Red herring!" Hiss denied. Acheson covered up.

Practically all New Dealers went into a big demonstration of fury and pretense to kid the American people into thinking that the administration was opposed to Communism. How many people were fooled is anybody's guess, but there is one thing certain.

Senator Brien McMahon of Connecticut, Chairman of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, the most important position today for the safety of the American people has been — and is today — affiliated with some of the most outstanding Communists and Marxists in Washington. It is almost unbelievable that a man such as McMahon, who has surrounded himself with Communists, Reds, and traitors to America, is still in Washington as a representative of the people.

Senator McMahon has been the front man, or "ball carrier" for the socialization of atomic energy. His zeal has not only brought him chairmanship of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, but he also has a firm grip on the Atomic Energy Commission, the government bureau created by the McMahon Bill to socialize atomic development. This grip has been tightened by the appointment of his former law partner as chairman of the A. E. C.

Behind Senator McMahon in the socializing of countries. We do not know how successful it has been, though if it achieves only a moderate degree of success, it is probably worthwhile provided what is broadcast is really American, and not socialist or semi-socialist. But according to the press there are relatively few radio sets in Soviet Russia and the Iron Curtain countries; and recent dispatches that the Soviet is attempting to "jam" the Voice of America are rather impressive.

So it would seem doubtful whether this additional radio program will be worth the effort. But again, if even a moderate degree of success is attained, it might be worth the effort.

The Freedom Bell

The promoters of the Crusade for Freedom have developed a novel scheme for attracting attention. What is called the "Freedom Bell," which is said to be the symbol of the Crusade, was cast on July 27, 1950, at a bell foundry in England—why in England we do not know. The bell has been shipped to the United States and is now being taken from place to place, including Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities. Then the bell is shipped to Germany, where it hangs in the Rathaus Tower in Berlin in time to ring in what is called "United Nations Day," October 24th.

This is considered by some public relations men good propaganda. And if it brings fresh courage to even a few, it will perhaps be worthwhile.

What Is Behind This "Crusade"?

But it is always to raise the question, with respect to any movement—what is behind it? Often what is behind it is apparent on its face—but some times one has to look further.

One of the cardinal points of the plan is the signing of what is called the "Freedom Scroll." This is being issued in sheets 11 x 20 inches with space on each sheet for 50 signatures. People of all ages, including school children, are asked to sign.

At the head of each sheet is printed the following:

"I believe in the sacredness and dignity of the individual.

"I believe that all men derive the right to freedom equally from God."

All Americans will subscribe to these principles.

But then this follows:

"I pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth."

What is the purpose of this pledge?

The Crusade for Freedom is being organized with great skill and tremendous publicity. These Scrolls are to be distributed in all kinds of places where people gather.

Of course the average American does nothing more readily than sign some petition or document that on the face appears fair and reasonable. So it may be wondered what the effect will be if, say, one, or five or ten million Americans sign this Scroll which, as explained on each sheet, is to be—

... included as a permanent part of the Freedom Shrine in Berlin, and to join with the millions of men and women throughout the world who hold the cause of freedom sacred."

Just One More Internationalist Scheme?

Let us review these words again:

"I pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth."

It is a matter of common knowledge that there are, among Americans, a group that is internationalist-minded. They have long since ceased to talk or even think about the American Republic, her Constitution and her traditions. They want to merge the United States with the whole world. They are trying to destroy the concept of this country as an independent nation. They are not satisfied with American serving, as she did for so many decades, as an example to all mankind, that they might go and do as America has done—might emulate the American way of life. They want America to throw in her lot with all the peoples of the earth so that thereafter—if the movement goes to its logical conclusion—our people will be no better off than the average people throughout the world.

It is noteworthy, too, that many of those who hold this viewpoint are of foreign birth, or their parents—are of foreign birth; or they are people whose business interests are tied up with other countries, and whose viewpoint is perhaps influenced by that fact.

One of the ideas these internationalists are pressing at the present time is that the United States is in a position of "world leadership," as they choose to call it, and that she must "fulfill her destiny." And—forgetting the need to preserve liberty at home—they construe all this to mean that they must sally forth, crusader-like, under the Marshall Plan, under Point IV, under any and all measures that involve the spending of United States treasure and effort throughout the world, and go to the rescue of all nations.

They apparently fail to make any estimate as to whether the United States can afford to do this, assuming that the doing of it would accomplish a real purpose. They are the very opposite of the America Firsters who tried so hard to keep the United States out of World War II. They are for every other country first, and for the United States last. They somehow seem to think this is being "broad-minded"—that they have a "world viewpoint." They seem not to notice that under their guidance, we have been following this course now for some years, and that it has brought to the once strong United States the sacrifice of precious lives, burdensome debt, colossal waste, and now—war. And so far it seems to have brought little benefit to other peoples.

Perhaps some of these who so readily subscribe to One World—certainly the more gullible of them—do not mean to be this way. Confront them with the idea, and may of them will grow indignant. But the picture we paint of them is a fair description of their thoughts and actions. They are not facing realities. At best they are following the Pied Piper—at worst they are betraying their country's vital interests.

Wars Not Made By Peoples

Wars are never made by peoples. Wars are made by the politicians of the various countries. Americans have nothing in particular against Germans, or Austrians, or even Russians, just as doubtless neither Germans, Austrians, nor Russians, have anything in particular against Americans. The people of no country would engage in war with the people of any other country if they were not stirred up to it, propagandized into it, by their leaders.

Propaganda is something of a modern art. Practically nobody in Great Britain had ever heard of health insurance until Lloyd George, searching about for an issue in a political campaign shortly before World War I, hit upon the idea which he borrowed from Germany. Before his campaign was over he had persuaded the British people that they had always wanted health insurance, though, as we say, few had ever heard of it up to a few weeks before. Such is the power of propaganda.

Now here on this Freedom Scroll is this "pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth." Can it be that this idea comes from the internationalists who, at some future time, will assert that the President's plan to intervene with American armed forces anywhere on earth "to resist aggression and tyranny" has been formally endorsed by millions of Americans? Are not the signers of this petition giving a free hand to the present or some future Administration to send them or their sons anywhere on earth to fight? And there will be no appeal from the decision of the Administration that any given situation constitutes "aggression and tyranny."

Is it not possible that this one "pledge" is the foundation stone of a future policy that at no distant date would guarantee the financial, and probably the moral, bankruptcy of the American Republic and the enslavement of her once free people?

Who Are Listed as Leaders of the Crusade?

We are not less disposed to raise this question as we scan the list of the men prominent in the National Committee for a Free Europe. For while they include distinguished citizens who have rendered great service to their country (most of whom may have joined this movement without suspecting any ulterior purposes), yet they include also men who have been in the forefront of the internationalist movement. They include, indeed, some who have advanced in no little degree our foreign policy which has been so disastrous.

Thus we find Herbert H. Lehman who once headed UNRRA and who recently led in the unsuccessful fight in the Senate to prevent overriding the President's veto of the Communist Control Bill; Henry R. Luce, whose "Life," "Time" and "Fortune" have rarely hesitated to whoop it up for internationalism; Charles P. Taft, Robert P. Patterson and others. We find men like Drew Pearson.

These all along have been the very opposite of America Firsters. While we do not question the sincerity of many of them, and while some of their services have contributed to America's advantage, yet, by and large, they are internationalists. If we follow their leadership, can we expect the results of the next ten years to be any less disastrous for the United States than the last ten?

The United States has now got itself into a war which will involve temporary, and perhaps permanent, restrictions on American liberties. At the same time the Administration is pushing such international commitments at the ITO agreement, the ILO right-to-organize agreement, the International Bill of Rights and Genocide Convention (and there are more to come), every one of which would hand over a part of the sovereignty of the American people to international committees in each of which the United States would have only a minority vote.

Is one effect of this movement intended to be that we forget our own Liberty Bell which was respected throughout this country for more than a century and a half, and substitute a "Freedom Bell"? Is it all part of a picture to make the American people forget their past as the great Republic of the West, and infiltrate them more and more with the idea that it is just one of "the democracies"?

Diluting American Loyalty

The Extension Service of the United States Department of Agriculture is engaged in a project that is perhaps not unrelated to the Crusade for Freedom. This scheme is to promote the making of United Nations flags may be displayed alongside our flag on every school house in the land, as well as on other public and private buildings.

There is a committee to achieve this purpose, whose Chairman is Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The committee has made available a kit, price 50 cents, by the use of which a United Nations flag can, it is explained, be readily made. Women and girls are appealed to to make these flags.

Now, if other nations than our own had taken a serious interest in the idea of the United Nations, something might be said for this strange institution. But few countries seem to be taking any serious interest in it—and these are almost entirely the countries that are subsisting, in part at least, on the bounty of the United States. For many weeks after the fighting began in Korea, not a single land soldier of any fellow member of the United Nations participated; and even today while there are 150,000 American soldiers and Marines in Korea, there are said to be not over 5000 of all other countries combined.

Strange it is that the government of a country, conceded to be the strongest and richest in the world—a country with a great past—should be leading in the effort to merge the welfare of its people with that of the polyglot nations of the world. Particularly since, even with the material benefits offered or in prospect, the enthusiasm of those other countries for the United Nations is at a low point.

And here is our national government, without, we suspect, the slightest warrant in any law, spending the taxpayers' money trying to dilute Americanism in the minds of school children.

Scheme to By-pass the Authority of the Senate

The significance of this pledge in the Freedom Scroll and a hint of the inherent danger in it lies in the fact that just as the United States Senate was recessing on September 23, Secretary Acheson moved, in the General Assembly of the United Nations, to clothe the General Assembly with the right to take action against aggressor nations.

In the excitement of the fight to override the veto of the Anti-Communist Bill, little attention was paid in the Senate to Acheson's action. Yet, as Mr. George Rothwell Brown, columnist in the Hearst newspapers, has pointed out:

"This is a flagrant attempt by our own State Department to by-pass the Senate, and make what might prove to be a most dangerous alteration in the UN charter, without submitting that proposed change to the Senate for its approval or rejection."

The Senate of the United States went a atomic energy were two lawyers; one appointee of Dean Acheson and the other a follower of Henry Wallace. Herbert S. Marks, who has spoken in the defense of a number of leftwing individuals and groups, was an appointee of Dean Acheson. He has been a member of the National Lawyers Guild, cited by the House Un-American Activities Committee as being a Communist front, and also the United Federal Workers which is a Communist front. Marks was refused a commission in the U. S. Navy. The Navy Bureau Personnel file indicated that Marks:

"Has a tendency to become allied and associated with radical actions and organizations. . . His ethics and integrity have been criticized many times."

James Roy Newman, whom McMahon made counsel for the Special Senate Committee, (like Charles Calkins, McMahon's one time administrative assistant) became a Henry Wallace follower. He went with Wallace to the New Republic, a Marxist magazine, when Wallace was severed from the government payroll. Calkins is now on a retainer at $300 a month with New Republic for articles he may write, and he lectures at the Yale Law School, which is running Harvard a close second for teaching and developing Red lawyers. Newman is a close friend of Dr. Edward Condon, head of Bureau of Standards, who has been frequently charged with associating with Communists. Dr. Condon worked with Newman in the plan to put atomic energy under Marxist Control.

When McMahon took over the chairmanship of the Special Senate Committee on Atomic Energy, one of his first appointments was to name Dr. Edward Condon as a scientific adviser. In 1948 a House sub-committee on Un-American Activities charged Dr. Condon as:

"One the weakest links in our atomic security, and an associate of Soviet espionage agents."

The House sub-committee also said of Dr. Condon: "There is no evidence in our possession that Dr. Condon is a member of the Communist Party, but as a member of the Executive Committee of the American-Soviet Science Society, which is affiliated with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship Inc., and which was recently cited as a subversive organization by Attorney General Clark, he has lent his name and influence to one of the principal Communist endeavors in the United States."

The files of the F.B.I. reflect that Dr. Condon has been in close contact, as late as 1947, with an individual alleged, by a self-confessed Soviet espionage agent, to have engaged in espionage activities with the Russians in Washington, D. C. from 1941 to 1944.

Dr. and Mrs. Condon's close friend, Ignace Zlotowski, is former counsellor of the Polish Embassy and presently a Polish delegate to the U. N. Dr. Condon introduced Newman to Ignace Zlotowski. In testimony before the House-Un-American Activities Committee, Zlotowski is charged with being a Communist spy on atomic energy and working with the head of the Russian NKVD.

Zlotowski is further identified as a nuclear scientist who studied under Joliet Curie, confessed French member of the Communist Party. It is known that in February 1947, Zlotowski purchased 270 books on atomic energy which had been published by the Department of Commerce. It is also reliably reported that in March 1947 Zlotowski offered the use of the Polish diplomatic pouch to scientific groups as a means of transmitting scientific materials outside the U.S., dissemination of which had to be restricted because of security reasons by military authorities. Zlotowski was also in contact with Anatole Gromov, first secretary of the Soviet Embassy, who has since returned to Russia.

Newman and Marks, along with Dr. Condon and possibly Dr. Leo Z. Szilard, has the most to do with working up the McMahon Atomic Energy Bill and its passage, although McMahon—as their stooge—gets credit for authoring the bill.

At all executive sessions of the Special Senate Committee, where the most confidential phases of the atomic program were discussed, Senator McMahon insisted on having Dr. Condon and Newman present.

CALKINS — WRITER FOR REDS

Another one of McMahon's supporters is Charles E. Calkins. Calkins was active as a writer for the Communist magazine, New Masses, before taking the confidential job in the Senator's office.

PHILIP MULLENBACH — A POOR RISK

Senator Brien McMahon, as head of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, allowed Philip Mullenbach to remain in his top secret job although that man worked under Gregory Silvermaster in War Assets and succeeded Silvermaster as Chief of that division, and had been investigated by the F.B.I. and found to be a poor risk. Serious derogatory information had been dug up against Mullenbach, still he was in charge of the topmost atomic energy secret. So "hot" was this secret information Mullenbach had charge of that, when it was being transferred, he went under guard. The guards, most likely, were sincere in thinking that they were protecting something which Russia did not have. Little did they know that they were guarding something which was already in Moscow.

COMMUNIST SPY HEAD, SILVERMASTER

Nathan Gregory Silvermaster of New Jersey, Communist spy leader accused of Soviet espionage, and now out on bail, swore that he was a "close friend" of Senator McMahon's scientific advisor, Miss Evelyn Bentley, a confessed Communist spy courier, identified him as master spy with photographic equipment in the basement of his Washington home for filming secret government documents for transmission to Moscow.

McMAHON DEMANDS SECRET INFORMATION

In transferring the atomic project to civilian control sometime after the end of the war, a major policy problem was how much secret information should be released to a Congressional Committee concerned with atomic energy. The U.S. had a three year lead on the rest of the world—meaning the Soviet Union. Although part of this lead had been lost through the treachery of people like Dr. Fuchs, and the spy ring, most Senators did not want to know anything more than necessary about atomic energy for fear that they might accidentally make known the secrets. On the other hand, there were counterfeit Americans, such as McMahon's associates, who were turning up everything in the country to obtain the secret.

Brien McMahon, on the Senate floor in 1947, demanded to know everything there was to know about the atomic bomb. When there was a vote in committee on making available such highly secret information (the information on the stockpile) the vote was ten to one against. The lone vote for the right of a Senator or Congressman to obtain this highly secret data was that of Senator McMahon of Connecticut. No other Senator wanted to know such top secret information!

This was not the only instance of a strong effort by the Connecticut Senator to obtain highly confidential atomic information. A letter over Senator McMahon's signature was sent to the War Department seeking data from the Manhattan District project. The request was rejected, but Senator McMahon did not give up until the matter was carried directly to the White House. Senator McMahon and his Red associate also made a personal call on Secretary Patterson in an effort to get certain information made available to the committee. Again their request was denied.

About this same time, Senator McMahon was making a series of speeches throughout the country suggesting that the U.S. consider making public its atomic stockpile and rate of production of atomic bombs.

Next to all technical facts on manufacture of the bomb, the information most sought by the Soviet Union was how many bombs America had and was making.

It was on February 4, 1949 that McMahon announced that he had called a conference of the Congressional Atomic Committee and the Joint Chiefs of Staff to "consider" making public this top-secret information on the bomb stockpile and bomb production.

Three days later, February 7, 1949, at Lake Success, the Soviet delegate on the Security Council of the United Nations—Yakov Malik—demanded that the United States list its atomic weapons before the eGeneral Assembly. The Soviet Union had been demanding this information as far back as 1947. Senator McMahon's suggestion to make public information on the bomb stockpile, and bomb production and weapons, would have accomplished that purpose.

How long Brien McMahon remains in Washington, as a dupe for Communism, depends upon the voters of Connecticut. The security and safety of 150,000,000 people in America depends upon the voters of Connecticut. The rest of America will have to stand by and let the voters of Connecticut make the decision on November 7th whether Brien McMahon will remain in our government or be defeated.

This is not a political issue in the eyes of real Americans. It is a life and death campaign.

The United States today is dealing with the most clever International tricksters. They are working day and night to undermine, bankrupt, and take over our Country which is the last stronghold of Christianity and civilization. We must have loyal, strong men to represent us in Washington.

If we are to deliver our government back into the hands of true, fearless Americans we must throw out of Washington all those who have betrayed us, regardless of whether they are Democrats or Republicans. Temporarily, we must forget the party and save America, or we will have only one party . . . a party exactly like that in the Soviet Union.

Federation at one and the same time, it withdrew from the former, and resolved to "stay neutral." Evidently the Israeli Government also desires to play the goody-goody role on both sides of the Iron Curtain, judging by the honor it conferred recently upon the Red Army, at the time Soviet Army officers were leading the war in Korea against our U.N. anti-Communist troops. We present the story of this, as it appeared in the New Leader, a weekly that is very favorable to the Israelis—"On the morning of June 25th, 185 trees for a forest named after the Soviet Army were planted among the rocks around Jerusalem. The forest will be, according to press reports, 'a permanent expression of feeling of the people of Israeli toward the Red Army.'" This was not the act of an isolated group. It was the act of the Ben Gurion government. The dedication was attended by the ministers to Israel from the Soviet Union, Rumania, Poland, Czechoslovakia; the Israeli Minister of Education, Minister of Communications, and executives of the Jewish Agency and others. Isaac Greenbaum, member of the Jewish Agency, is quoted as saying that the victory over the Nazis by the U.S.S.R. saved mankind and Jewry. Speaking in Russian to the Soviet diplomats he said: "We thank the Soviet Union for the blood, the heroism and sacrifices of the soldiers of the Red Army, for the support given us by your deeds and attitude to help achieve the independence of our country (July 8, 1950)."

THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF A HALF MILLION COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS

Reprinted from "The Southern Conservative"
Fort Worth, Texas

Seventeen short years ago there was not a known or suspected Communist in the United States and the term "fellow traveller" was unheard of.

Up to seventeen years ago a president of the United States who openly advocated the political theories of Karl Marx would have been promptly impeached.

A Federal employee who sold or gave away secret government documents to enemies of his country would have been summarily convicted of treason and either executed or sent to prison for life.

An appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States, whether made by a Democratic or Republican president, was an ironclad guarantee that such a man was a person of incorruptible and unimpeachable integrity whose fidelity to the Constitution insured decisions based on the law and the evidence and who would have regarded the idea of having to pay for his job by delivering an instructed verdict as a more heinous crime against society than any committed by the worst criminal whose case he might be called on to review.

Up to seventeen years ago any national administration which operated the machinery of the Federal government in the sole interest of minority groups would have inspired the people to open rebellion, if not civil war.

Any American who boldly preached treason against his country by urging citizens to repudiate our form of government, renounce their sovereignty to the United States and join a World Government or Atlantic Union, would have been adjudged insane and sent to an institution.

Any man in the South advocating social equality of whites and Negroes would have been tarred and feathered and any woman urging such depravity would have been disavowed by all members of her sex, including the girls from the Red Light district.

Up to seventeen years ago theft was recognized as theft regardless of who committed it and it would have been considered just as immoral for the Federal government to steal the property of the citizen by taxation or that of a sovereign State by official decree as for a bank robber to crack a safe.

Ministers of the gospel who joined subversive world federations and openly declared against our American form of government and advocated alien ideologies from the pulpit would have been unfrocked in less time than it takes to say Joe Stalin.

If members of Congress had voted a fifty-thousand dollar tax-free bonus to the president of the United States, such open betrayal of the confidence imposed in them by their constituents would have resulted in their overwhelming defeat at the next election.

If it had been discovered that teachers in public schools, colleges and universities were cramming the students' heads with Communistic theories and giving them perverted versions of our own glorious country, its form of government and way of life, they would have been kicked out, if not horse-whipped.

If labor union thugs had shot down innocent persons in cold blood for no other reason than that such persons were going peaceably about their jobs in a struck plant, they would have been mobbed.

If Democrats had betrayed the party of Jefferson and Jackson by discarding its principles and substituting a platform embodying the political beliefs of Earl Browder and Norman Thomas they would not have carried a district outside of those occupied by foreigners in New York's Lower East Side.

Up to seventeen years ago, American people would have resisted with every force at their command up to actual shooting if they had had Communist racial propaganda fired at them over the radio, over television, from newspaper columnists, daily and weekly news publications, in womens magazines, in fiction stories, in comic strips, from the pulpit and in "tolerance" films in the movies.

And finally, if the more than a half million Americans who have joined with Communist party members to bring this about and who are working zealously for the destruction of our American form of government and the substitution of a Soviet system, lived in Russia and attempted such treasonable activity there, they would be shot before sundown.

Yes, something has happened to our country and it is not progress or "liberalism" but retrogression, degeneracy and decay.

We still believe that there are enough real Americans to turn back the Red tide, but after one more national election, it will be too late.

LEARN FROM THE MASTER'S TEACHING AND EXAMPLE

A Teacher's right and qualification to teach may be judged by his mandate and his performance. Christ had received His mandate from His heavenly Father. "I am the truth . . . This is why I was born and came into the world to bear witness to the truth." John 14:6 — 18:37. "I must proclaim the kingdom of God, for this is why I have been sent." Luke 4:43. The gospels prove that He taught continuously, with divine wisdom in human ways, the things about God and our salvation. He taught the workers and the scholars, and rich and the poor, the hypocrites and the sincere ones. Teaching was an eminent part of His mission to bring mankind back to God — and to heaven. He taught to His last word on the cross. He is still teaching in our Sunday gospels. Let Him not teach you in vain.

long way in 1945, when, under the influence of unprecedented propaganda, it was persuaded to ratify the United Nations charter. It never would have ratified the charter if it had not been for the right of veto which was reserved by each of the five major nations in UN. Acheson's move at the present time to by-pass the Senate indicates how far these internationalists are willing to go in their seizure of power—in their effort to destroy the liberty and freedom of the American people, while the Crusade for Freedom is prattling about the necessity of carrying freedom to all other nations of the world.

Intellectual Conciect

We read in the Sermon on the Mount:

"... how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?"

"Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye."

The spirit back of the Crusade for Freedom is that we owe it to the world to go everywhere and see that certain ideas as to freedom prevail. The inference is that we have a full measure of freedom or liberty here at home.

But as matter of fact, while it is true that in many countries of the world, freedom as we know it does not exist, right here in America the genuine liberty of Americans is being encroached upon steadily. It is being encroached up by some of the very men whose names appear in the forefront of this Crusade for Freedom.

The Children's Crusade

In A.D. 1212 occurred that astonishing movement known as the Children's Crusade. A young boy of 13 or 14 became imbued with the idea that if he could get thousands of boys and girls to journey to Palestine, the control of Palestine might be wrested again from the Saracens. Amazingly enough he carried out the project, at least to the point of assembling large numbers of children. After many vicissitudes they reached a Mediterranean port in Southern France where some greedy shipowners agreed to transport them to the Holy Land. Two of the ships were wrecked on the way and all on board were lost. The remainder were taken, not to the Holy Land, but to Egypt where every last one of them was sold into slavery. The end was disaster.

We Americans, at the middle of the Twentieth Century, ought to be old enough by this time to consider what is feasible and what is not. We ought to be mature enough not to permit ourselves to become engaged in any Children's Crusade.

We still have left the essentials of American liberty, though the activities of those who would undermine and destroy them are far advanced.

We of the National Economic Council believe that it is time for the people of America to realize that they alone of all the nations of the earth possess and have possessed true liberty. They should realize that they can lose this liberty by deliberately surrendering it to the Executive, or by so weakening themselves, due to dissipation of effort and resources, as to fall a prey to eventual and complete slavery. We think that all Americans should weigh these considerations carefully before yielding to the desire to sign a pledge "to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth."

The attempt to carry out such a pledge might be as disastrous to the American people as the Children's Crusade.

Then why make the pledge?

The people who are not governed by God will be ruled by tyrants.
—William Penn.

● EXTRA URGENT EDITOR'S NOTE: The threatening shadows across the world which coming events are abundantly casting before them give to the contents of this issue of Common Sense an importance at this time equal to the historic significance of the midnight ride of Paul Revere. The American public must be alerted immediately, and correctly, to perils which threaten the existence of their priceless American heritage. If they are not alerted they may very shortly witness the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse riding rough-shod across the nation. The contents of this issue of Common Sense fully explain these perils. If the American heritage is lost now, it is lost forever!!! Historic and scientific facts are revealed here to the American public for the first time. Intensive and expensive research assembled them. Read them with care. Read them again, and again, and again!!! This will perform a service for every American of far greater value than it is possible to realize at this moment. Obtain extra copies and give them to your friends. Never forget that at the time of the midnight ride of Paul Revere even its beneficiaries were unable to grasp its historic significance. To undervalue the contents of this issue is to be unprepared for security and defense. FACING FIRST DEFEAT

Best qualified Administration spokesman on the subject breaks bad news to public suddenly

The person best qualified to pass an opinion upon the gravity of the situation is W. Stuart Symington, Chairman of the National Security Resources Board. He has more authentic information available to him at this moment than any other person in the country, excluding no one. In the New York Times, of October 4, 1950, W. Stuart Symington is quoted as having stated the following concerning the possibility of the defeat of the United States in the next war, "I believe to-day there is a very good chance of losing."

W. Stuart Symington was guilty of a serious error of omission on that occasion. He performed a great disservice to the American people. W. Stuart Symington upon that occasion did not avail himself of the opportunity to disclose to the American people the source of the peril which is now threatening this nation with defeat. W. Stuart Symington will only disclose to the public expressions of sentiment which will not adversely affect the political health of the Administration. For good and valid political considerations the Administration frowns on mention in public by its spokesmen of Yiddish Marxists and their connection with the Soviet Union and with communist (Marxist) world-revolution activities.

W. Stuart Symington finds himself with this can-we-call-it gag in his mouth. This discourages reference to this subject by government officials holding responsible positions in the Executive branch. Under such circumstances the American people have not been alerted by their government to the source of the peril which now threatens the security and survival of the nation. The Administration is aware of the fact that Yiddish Marxists are the real rulers of the Soviet Union and that they have been the directing force behind the communist (Marxist) world-revolution from its very inception. The Administration has long been in possession of facts which establish beyond contradiction that Yiddish Marxists are exclusively responsible for the clear and present danger to which this nation now finds itself exposed.

FORRESTAL VINDICATED

The Nation lost this great patriot at a time when his knowledge could have averted the present crisis

The Administration cannot select a better spokesman than W. Stuart Symington to reveal the details of this danger to the American people. He should do this without any loss of time. Yiddish Marxists will find it difficult to discredit W. Stuart Symington in the eyes of the American people even with their deadly propaganda machines headed by the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League. The American people have learned their lesson from the sad fate of the late Hon. James E. Forrestal. During the last years of his life the late Hon. James E. Forrestal made heroic attempts to alert the American people to this threat to the nation's security.

The late Hon. James E. Forrestal understood the Yiddish Marxist peril and the implications of its impact upon the destiny of the United States. The late Hon. James E. Forrestal tried his very best to influence the defense and foreign policies of the government upon the basis of this danger. W. Stuart Symington will continue to receive the respect and support of the American people if he courageously disregards the sad fate of the late Hon. James E. Forrestal and brings the situation out into the open where it belongs. The public has infinite confidence in the integrity of W. Stuart Symington. Please speak up, Mr. Symington!

One of the world's outstanding authorities on the subject, Hanson W. Baldwin, military observer for the New York Times, writing in that paper on September 24, 1950, expressed his unqualified opinion that the United States could not be victor, and survive, in all-out-war to-day with the Soviet Union. This outstanding authority expresses his expert opinion that the existing superior military potential of the Soviet Union exists to-day primarily by virtue of the fact that they are now manufacturing atom-bombs and have accumulated a stockpile of them. That fact, Mr. Baldwin states, exposes the United States to the possibility of "mass destruction" by a Soviet Union atom-bomb which will "destroy in a night what we have built in a century." Need more be said on that subject?

TRAITORS PLAN BIG KILL

Counterfeit Americans supplying U.S.S.R. with all aids for coast-to-coast atom-bomb blitz

Twenty-five million American men, women and children face the prospect of being broiled to a cinder, fried to death, at any moment by a Soviet Union atom-bomb. That is the considered judgment of the most reliable sources of official information on the subject. It is the confirmed opinion of all the best informed military and non-military members of important government agencies responsible for the security and defense of the nation. The administration is exerting every effort to "hush-hush" this great peril to the people of this nation.

An atom-bomb blitz by the Soviet Union, in a matter of moments, will transform at least ten of the nations leading industrial centers into as many heaps of smoking rubble and ruins. The concentration in the United States of industrial production, essential to its defense, within the confines of relatively few large manufacturing centers makes them easy targets for an atom-bomb blitz. The American method of mass-production in its gigantic factories increases the vulnerability of this vital industrial production.

It becomes very evident upon further consideration, that demoralization of the surviving population, devastation of vital centers of industrial production, and disruption of food transportation, water supply, and communications, will paralyze the ability of the nation to prevent defeat even if the will to resist remains. Sabotage by the Soviet Union fifth-column will multiply the horrors of an atom-bomb blitz. This fifth-column already exists in this country. They are ready, anxious, and able to crush out the last spark of resistance with the same type of terrorism which was so successfully employed in the conquest of their other satellite victims.

that the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, arrested recently as members of the spy ring which siphoned off our secret atom-bomb and other scientific discoveries to the Soviet Union, are Rosenberg, Greenglass, Moscowitz, Brothman, Sobel and Gold? Is it a coincidence or how does it happen, that the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, who infiltrated into high government places, and into other strategic spots throughout the nation, are Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, Judith Coplon, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Gerhardt Eisler, Irving Potash, Philip Carl Weissburg (Carl Winter), Gilbert Greenberg, Jacob Golos, "J. Peters" Goldberger, Alexander Bittleman, Jacob Stachel, Sidney Weinbaum, Hanns Eisler, Israel Regenstein, Philip Bart, Ephraim Zinoyi Liberman (Michael J. Lee), Philip Jaffe, Mark Julius Ginsburg (Mark Gayn), Andrew Roth, Harry Dexter White (Dorn Weiss) and Avro Mike Halberg (Gus Hall)? There is an explanation how this happened. There also is a reason why it happened. And furthermore there was a purpose for it. It is much more than just "important" that the American people understand that each person mentioned is a Yiddish Marxist. They make up only a small fraction of the Yiddish Marxist "hard core" of Marxism in the United States. They are the pure breed of counterfeit Americans, Soviet Union agents masquerading as genuine Americans.

It is important to note that every name listed is a Yiddish Marxist. There is abundant proof that the top agents of the U.S.S.R. spy-ring in the United States are naturalized or alien Yiddish Marxists. There is equally certain proof that the active field-agents of the U.S.S.R. spying in the United States are Yiddish Marxists who immigrated to this country and became citizens (?), or their children. In order to camouflage the source of Marxism (communism) Yiddish Marxist spy-ring policy-makers convert many Christian American to their fanaticism by the extravagant use of money or by appealing to their suppressed-desire complex. Whether it is money or madness which lures Christian Americans to work for the Soviet Union spying makes very little difference. They accomplish two things, firstly, they make it possible for the spy-ring to accomplish their objectives, and secondly, they camouflage from the American public the true character of the Marxist communist world-revolution.

Yiddish Marxists are the spirit and the substance of the world-revolution which seeks to wipe out the established institutions of civilized society and to replace them with Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society." Yiddish Marxists have an effective, highly-organized, world-wide network engaged in the overthrow of existing governments by force and violence. Yiddish Marxists claim they have a General Staff sitting in Moscow and functioning like the Board of Directors of a corporation with branches and subsidiaries in countries throughout the world. Yiddish Marxists in the United States are subject to authority and discipline by the Yiddish Marxist General Staff in Moscow exactly as employees of the Standard Oil Company at present working in London or in Timbuctoo are subject to authority and discipline by their headquarters in New York City.

Yiddish Marxists in the United States are counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. Yiddish Marxists owe allegiance and show loyalty to only one higher authority. That higher authority is the Yiddish Marxist General Staff, or Board of Directors sitting in Moscow. The official name for this General Staff is the Politburo of the Soviet Union. The Politburo of the Soviet Union has been the principal instrument of Yiddish Marxists since its creation. The Politburo of the Soviet Union in less than thirty-four years has been able to acquire control of 33% of the total land area of this globe in which they now dictate the destiny of 50% of the world's population. Yiddish Marxist ambition for world-domination will soon be rewarded with success at the rapid rate of progress now being made by them.

YIDDISH MARXIST SPY RING

Spy-trials and deportation proceedings prove spy-ring from top to bottom Yiddish Marxists

Confessions obtained from traitors, testimony at trials of other traitors, and authentic facts obtained from sources whose reliability cannot be questioned, supply evidence beyond any question of a doubt, that the United States never at any time possessed that much-publicized monopoly of the atom-bomb. Just as fast as the secret scientific discoveries were made, they were stolen and transmitted to the Soviet Union by these counterfeit Americans, these agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. These traitors held positions of the highest trust in all important branches of the atom-bomb development projects as the public now knows.

If counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, had not deprived the United States of the atom-bomb monopoly, the United States would today be in a position to ignore this enormous war potential of the Soviet Union. Recent revelations confirm that theft of the atom-bomb secret scientific discoveries from the United States occurred as far back as 1943, from the very first day of the very first discovery.

The Soviet Union would not be a threat to the security of the United States today if these thefts had not occurred, despite the fact that the Soviet Union today occupies, or controls, 16,500,000 square miles of the earth's surface, approximately 33% of the total land area of the world and dictates the destinies of 1,000,000,000 people, half of the world's entire population. The military effort required to successfully combat such resources cannot be measured in terms of what the United States recently accomplished in Korea with its military forces.

The treasonable acts of counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, has robbed the American people of the strategic diplomatic value, as well as the military advantage, of an atom-bomb monopoly. Unless atom-bombs are dropped first upon the United States, its large and growing stockpile has lost its significance as a power for persuasion in international affairs. In international affairs, the United States has only one enemy. That enemy also happens to have its own stockpile of atom-bombs. Accordingly, the United States has been deprived of the incalculable power to persuade inherent in a monopoly of atom-bomb in international affairs.

As a result of treasonable acts by counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, the Soviet Union today has a stockpile of approximately fifty atom-bombs. This estimate has been made by competent authorities in the Armed Services and other highly placed authorities who are in the best position to know. Numerous statements by them to that effect have already appeared in leading newspapers. It can no longer be regarded as a secret. The Administration, and the pro-Administration press and radio commentators are trying their hardest to give this information the "hush-hush" treatment. Nobody knows the exact quantity except the highest officials in Moscow and their top agents in this country.

BEWARE OF BOOBY-TRAPS

Communists convinced Americans will surrender to U.S.S.R. under some booby-trap arrangement

As important as adequate defense against military aggression by the Soviet Union is the necessity for Americans to remain alert and vigilant against Soviet Union "booby-traps." The best defense against Soviet Union "booby-traps" is to re-arm "to the teeth." The nation will not find it unavoidable under such circumstances to walk into a Soviet Union "booby-trap" against its better judgment. Important spokesmen with the Administration have expressed themselves similarly on this question recently. They are 100% correct in their opinion although they appear to be a trifle late in arriving at it.

At the present time one of the most dangerous, and least suspected Soviet Union "booby-traps" is the world-government plan of United World Federalists. The identical enemies of the American people who created the present necessity for rearming are now also promoting the world-government "booby-trap" of the United World Federalists. These enemies of the American people think this nation is made up altogether of greedy and ignorant cowards. They think that Americans are interested only in making money and that they know, or care, very little about anything else. They think that Americans will chose to lose their American heritage rather than pay the cost for protecting it, or fighting to preserve it. They can be right! As an "escape (?)" from either alternative these enemies of Americans offer them the world-government "booby-trap" of United World Federalists. The plan has been exposed by persons who are qualified to pass judgment on the subject who say it is another Soviet Union "booby-trap." If the United States joins any world-government this nation will be surrendering the precious heritage of the American people without suspecting what it is doing. By joining a world-government the American people will be signing away with one stroke of the pen their independence, their freedom and their liberty. Do they know the facts?

U.N. BOOBY-TRAP NO. 1

United Nations only a booby-trap to get U.S.A. to disarm and first step to world-government

For the benefit of those Americans who are not familiar with the early history of the United Nations "booby-trap," a few words at this time in brief review of its origin are much needed. After the death of the old League of Nations, the first step to set up United Nations was taken in Moscow in 1943. The Soviet Union arranged to bring up the question of a United Nations before a conference of Foreign Ministers at that time. This in itself should have alerted the American people. It evidently did not.

Preceded by a terrific propaganda barrage from the most notorious Communist organizations, Communist agents, and Communist Front organizations in the United States, acting on behalf of the Soviet Union, the United Nations Charter was adopted at San Francisco in 1945, with Alger Hiss, who requires no introduction to the American people, one of the principal authors of the Charter, presiding as Secretary of the Conference which gave birth to this Soviet Union "booby-trap No. 1."

Notorious Communist organizations which engaged in this terrific propaganda barrage on behalf of United Nations between the time of the Moscow meeting in 1943 and the San Francisco Conference in 1945, included "Americans United for World Organization," "Americans United for World Government," "Federal Union Now," "Friends of Democracy," and numerous organizations since exposed by Congressional investigation, F.B.I. reports and other reliable sources as 100% pro-Soviet Union organizations.

Many of the other leading figures in the terrific propaganda barrage for the creation of United Nations were the favorite pupils of Felix Frankfurter at Harvard Law School. It would be a very true statement to say that every leading propagandist for the creation of United Nations was either a favorite pupil of Felix Frankfurter at Harvard Law School or directly under the influence and control of one of these favorites of Felix Frankfurter the noted Yiddish jurist now sitting in the U.S. Supreme Court.

United Nations was offered to the American people as an instrument by which world peace and the security of the nations would be assured in a disarmed-world. Dollar generosity was magnified out of all proportion to its significance to world peace. United Nations was in fact the greatest of all Communist Fronts. Recent occurrences in United Nations have demonstrated that insofar as the security and defense of the United States is concerned, United Nations is just a "booby-trap," conceived and created by the Soviet Union to lure the United States to its doom and destruction.

The people of this nation are now having a bad experience with a dangerous Soviet Union "booby-trap." Soviet Union "booby-trap No. 1" is United Nations. Placing hope for the future peace of the world and security for the United States in the Charter of United Nations, the United States proceeded to forthwith disarm itself. All members of the United Nations were expected to do likewise under the terms of the Charter. The future peace of the world, and the security of United Nations members, was to be guaranteed by a United Nations armed force. Lulled into a false sense of security by this Soviet Union "booby-trap" the world let down its guard. That is, all nations with a single exception. That single exception was the Soviet Union. The world woke up with a jolt to that fact.

The birth of that notion in the brain of Franklin D. Roosevelt gave birth to United Nations. The miscarriage of that conception would have been a blessing in disguise, but it was not to be. Joe Stalin "out-foxed" F.D.R. again!

United Nations was created in sin and its passing may not prove to be a great loss to humanity. If United Nations survives the incubator stage, it will be for posterity to judge whether this generation inflicted a curse or a blessing upon the countless unborn generations if they are alive to tell the tale.

The military successes in Korea are referred to constantly in the press and on the radio as accomplishments of the United Nations. The United States seems to play the role of "second fiddle" in this great military victory. It develops that 6,000 Americans gave up their lives in Korea to bring about that victory. An additional 32,000 are still missing or wounded. Judging by the fact that the contribution of the United States was more than 97% of the men, material and money expended in that victory it should be regarded more for what it actually is, a military victory by the armed forces of the United States. In view of the fact that the contributions of other members of United Nations were more in the spirit than in the deed it may be in the best interests of the people of this nation to examine the implications of further "international(?)" organizations before this country commits itself again to assume the responsibilities it assumed in the Korean affair.

PLAN BOOBY-TRAP NO. 2

U.S.S.R. "friends" here spending millions to drag U.S.A. into United World Federalist plan

The Soviet Union having failed to obtain the results it anticipated with "booby-trap No. 1," the Soviet Union is now planning "booby-trap No. 2." The United World Federalist world-government plan, stripped of all its gadgets, is nothing other than "booby-trap No. 2" for the United States. The United States will only have one vote in such a world-government set-up. If the United States is out-voted, as it was recently out-voted in United Nations Security Council, and refuses to submit to the dictation of the majority, the world government will use its armed forces to impose the will of the other nations of the world upon the people of the United States. The United States like every other member, must agree to disarm. The United States will then have no armed force with which it can offer resistance.

In the newly created world-government "family of nations" the "have-not" nations will undoubtedly get together and determine how to dispose of the wealth of their newly acquired "rich relative." The more backward nations of the world, with a far lower standard of living than exists today in the United States, are all very much in favor of a world-government plan like that proposed by United World Federalists. A United World Federalist world-government will proceed without loss of time to implement the "share-the-wealth-of-the-United States" aims and aspirations of the less fortunate (?) nations.

The United World Federalists world-government plan will unquestionably raise the average standard of living throughout the world. This will be accomplished by lowering the standard of living in the United States to the level of the average international standard of living. Experts who have studied the United World Federalist world-government plan agree that the first result accruing to the people of the United States will be the lowering of the standard of living of the American people.

The world-government plan of United World Federalists is another Soviet Union "booby-trap" by which the Soviet Union hopes to stall for time until they are in a position to dictate terms to the world. When the Soviet Union is strong enough it plans to deliver an ultimatum to the United States stating simply, "Accept our terms, OR ELSE!" According to the best information available, which many top officials regard as very reliable, the Soviet Union has set this date as some time in 1952. This date will be advanced by the Soviet Union to the extent that the United States fails to exert its maximum efforts to rearm in the intervening period.

Entry into a world-government "booby-trap" by the United States will have an impact upon the God-given rights of Americans to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" far beyond the possibility of adequate description here. Sane people fight to keep out of prison, not to get into prison. It is too late to fight to keep out of prison after the doors of the prison have snapped closed.

The "peace and security" which the American people will enjoy after the United States enters a world-government can be compared to the "peace and security" which is enjoyed by the inmates of Alcatraz prison. The prisoners in well-known Alcatraz enjoy "peace and security." That is exactly the type of "peace and security" which this nation will enjoy after the United States joins the world-government proposed by United World Federalists.

James P. Warburg, nephew of the Max Warburg who helped finance the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia in 1917 is the principal influence in United World Federalists. The association of the Warburg family places at the disposal of United World Federalists the unlimited funds privately controlled by the international banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Company. It would not have been possible for the revolution in Russia in 1917 to succeed, and the Soviet Union would never have come into existence, if Kuhn, Loeb and Company had not supplied funds for the revolution.

U.S.S.R. OUTSMARTS U.S.A.

In 1945 U.S.S.R. tricked U.S.A. into disarming while U.S.S.R. built mightiest fighting machine

As is well known to all, Japan surrendered to the United States six days after the Soviet Union formally declared war against Japan, three days after the United States dropped an atom-bomb on Japan. Soviet Union troops were never actually engaged in the war against Japan. In return for this worthless gesture, the Soviet Union was able to acquire, "lock, stock and barrel," the industrial war machine developed in Manchuria by Japan over a period of the last thirty years, which the Soviet Union promptly and completely transferred onto Soviet Union territory. It is working there full blast today.

The Japanese industrial war machine supplied Japan with the best part of the military potential with which Japan was able to fight for four years against the United States, after expending the military effort required to successfully over-run the greater part of Asia.

The Soviet Union was similarly able to acquire the war-making potential of Germany, the industrial war machine which almost made it possible for Germany to defeat the entire world. The Soviet Union likewise removed into Soviet Union territory this addition to its war-making potential, "lock, stock and barrel." The German and Japanese industrial war machines had supplied the military potential for two nations with populations totalling almost two hundred million people. And in spite of what may be said to the contrary, the industrial war machine of the Soviet Union had also given a very good account of itself before outside sources of assistance became available subsequent to holding Hitler at bay before Moscow and Stalingrad.

The United States could ignore this "arsenal of aggression" if the United States had a monopoly of the atom-bomb. In lieu of that the United States must prepare an "arsenal of democracy" capable of defeating the Soviet Union "arsenal of aggression," if called upon to do so. It is embarrassing, if not degrading, to print the relative proportions of the "arsenal of democracy" and the "arsenal of aggression." An optimistic estimate places this relative proportion at between fifteen percent (15%) and twenty percent (20%). That is quite a handicap in any competitive contest. In a military contest it appears to be a staggering handicap. Without the atom-bomb monopoly the United States finds itself in a dilemma. This predicament must fill with joy the hearts of the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, who can claim all the credit for it. Who are they? Where are they? Why are they? Are they still at their work?

During this five-year lull following the creation of United Nations, the Soviet Union feverishly proceeded to secretly arm itself to the limit of its capacity, and its ability to keep the fact a secret. The eyes of the world have at last been opened to this fact very fortunately. After playing financial wet-nurse to United Nations for five years at a cost to American taxpayers of several hundred million dollars, the American nation is now called upon to pay several hundred billion dollars to obtain protection against the threat to their existence created by this very United Nations "booby-trap."

Neither the domestic nor imported variety of enemies of the American people, nor the foreign contingent, look with favor upon the continued existence of the United States as a sovereign, independent and free nation. They created United Nations as the nucleus for a world-government which was to include United States. These conspirators against the United States promised Franklin D. Roosevelt that they would make him the first man to head the first world-government. There is written evidence in existence to support this statement. The egomania of Franklin D. Roosevelt made him extremely susceptible to such "bait." Franklin D. Roosevelt swallowed this story, "hook, line and sinker." Had Franklin D. Roosevelt known that these conspirators were planning at all times to make Joseph Stalin the first head of the first world-government, there undoubtedly never would have been a United Nations.

MONOPOLY PIPE-DREAM

The atom-bomb project was loaded with U.S.S.R. spies from the very first day of its creation

That the United States ever possessed a monopoly of the atom-bomb was a big "pipe-dream." That "pipe-dream" became the basis for the policy of scraping and junking the greatest armed force in the world. Bombers, battleships, tanks, and guns headed for the U.S. junk piles under that policy. The recent discovery by the Administration of atom-bomb explosions in the Soviet Union, compels us now to reverse that policy. The United States Army, Navy, and Air Force must now be made more than a match for the Soviet Union Army, Navy, and Air Force, plane for plane, submarine for submarine, tank for tank, and gun for gun.

The false sense of security produced by this "pipe-dream" of the atom-bomb monopoly made it very easy for the friends and agents of the Soviet Union holding high positions within the government of the United States to aid the Soviet Union with its plan to acquire the enormous German and Japanese industrial war machines. The acquisition of the war-making potentials of Germany and Japan was a "must" in the Soviet Union program for world domination.

These handicaps offer a challenge to the patriotism of American labor and management. The industrial effort of the nation must provide the necessary security and defense against the present danger of imminent slaughter and defeat. These handicaps will also test the glorified genius of American mass-production. The industrial production of this nation is its first line of defense unless it is sabotaged by the underground network of counterfeit Americans, Soviet Union agents masquerading as genuine Americans. The "pipe-dream" now turns out to be a "nightmare."

BOMB U.S. WITH OWN BOMB

Yiddish Marxists in U.S.A. steal for U.S.S.R. secrets to make atom-bombs to drop on U.S.A.

The irony of the predicament in which this country now finds itself results from the fact that the atom-bombs, which will be dropped on the American people by the Soviet Union, are the miracle of American scientific supremacy, the magic of American manufacturing genius and the multi-billion development cost borne by American tax payers. It has been estimated by leading scientists familiar with the subject, that the Soviet Union could not have discovered the secret of the atom-bomb by its own efforts for another five to fifteen years. What has taken place to change that situation? The answer to that question will also answer the question of what is now threatening the survival of the United States as an independent nation of free people. Lock the stable door before the horse is stolen! There must be a better way.

The traitors who stole these secrets for the Soviet Union understood the implications of what they were doing. These traitors looked upon the development of the atom-bomb by the United States as a project of the Soviet Union and they conducted themselves accordingly. The United States never at any time enjoyed a monopoly of its secret scientific discoveries. These traitors stole, and delivered the atom-bomb secrets to the Soviet Union, without hesitation or reservation, starting as early as the first successful result in 1943. These traitors knew that the Soviet Union wished to obtain the atom-bomb secrets in order to manufacture atom-bombs to drop on the United States.

Without the monopoly of the atom-bomb, the industrial production of the nation becomes its life-line for survival. Whoever participates in the sabotage of this industrial production acts to sever the nation's life-line. It appears quite certain that the underground network of saboteurs will be directed by the same Soviet Union international Board of Directors which directed the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, in their successful campaign to sabotage the nation's atom-bomb monopoly. Who controls that Board of Directors? Yiddish Marxists control it.

U.S.S.R. NO. 1 ARMED POWER

Intelligence divisions of Defense and State Departments see fighting power ratio 4 to 1

A "pipe-dream" existed for almost six years in the minds of the preponderant majority of Americans that the United States actually possessed a monopoly of the atom-bomb. That "pipe-dream" is directly responsible for the present vastly superior military strength of the Soviet Union in every field of military importance. That "pipe-dream" is the reason the United States scrapped, or otherwise disposed of the world's mightiest military machine, immediately following V-J Day in 1945.

On the other hand, after V-J Day in 1945 the Soviet Union not only kept its military machine intact but it added to its formidable industrial war machine the enormous war-making potentials of Germany and Japan. The "pipe-dream" of the atom-bomb monopoly induced the United States to cancel orders for war materials after V-J Day in 1945, disintegrating the nation-wide industrial machine responsible for its supreme military strength.

After V-J Day in 1945 the United States promptly switched the entire economy of the nation to peace-time civilian production. On the other hand, the Soviet Union after V-J Day in 1945 did not interrupt its war-time production of military equipment, but increased its already large production by additional labor from its 20,000,000 returned soldiers, 6,000,000 prisoners of war, and slave-labor of 15,000,000 political prisoners.

As an index of the tremendous handicap which this nation must hasten to overcome, the following illustration offers a concrete example. Of the 100,000,000 ton annual steel production in the United States, about 2% or 2,000,000 tons, have been going into the manufacture of war equipment, and of this production a substantial portion has been given away for many years to other nations. Of the 24,000,000 tons of steel produced annually in the Soviet Union, more than 45% or 10,800,000 tons, have been going into the manufacture of military equipment for the Soviet Union, according to latest surveys.

The Soviet Union also utilizes for its military program, practically the entire substantial steel production of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania, and all its satellites, including China. The Skoda Steel Works in Pilsen, Czechoslovakia, is one of the world's largest manufacturers of the most up-to-the-minute ordnance and other military equipment, without equal anywhere. The Soviet Union this week ordered the Skoda Steel Works to go on a 24-hours a day production schedule. The United States has no outside source from which it can obtain additional supplies of steel. It has also become very obvious recently that this same condition exists in the United States with respect to its stockpiles of tin, rubber, manganese, chrome, tungsten, wool and many other raw materials vitally essential for successfully conducting modern warfare. The Soviet Union is bulging with its stockpiles of these same materials.

The Soviet Union now has 4,500,000 men under arms. There are available for immediate mobilization an additional 20,000,000 fully trained men with combat experience or the equivalent. These figures do not include China. The Soviet Union Air Force has between 40,000 and 50,000 latest type planes including the most modern long-range bombers and most effective tactical fighters to support ground forces. The Soviet Union is now manufacturing the most up-to-date planes at the rate of 40,000 to 50,000 a year. The Soviet Union has at least 350 submarines and will have 500 by 1952. These submarines are of the latest types, can travel under water at high-speed, cannot be detected with radar, can remain under water indefinitely, and are constructed to fire long-range radio-guided missiles with atom-bomb war heads. The Soviet Union has 50,000 tanks of the most modern types. United States Army ordnance experts admit that Soviet Union tanks have no equal in the world. These facts are taken from the latest figures available to the intelligence divisions of the Department of Defense and are regarded by them as reliable and accurate.

The United States thus finds itself today with reserves of military equipment which are dwarfed by comparison with the gigantic reserves of comparable military equipment accumulated by the Soviet Union during the five years since the end of World War II.

The tyranny exercised by the Soviet Union over its "workers" is the reason why duplicates of American machine-tools in the Soviet Union are turning out, around the clock, at least ten times as much as the identical machine-tools operating in Detroit, in Cleveland, or in factories anywhere in the United States. In the Soviet Union there are no labor unions to dictate to the worker limitations upon the production of machine-tools. There are no labor unions in the Soviet Union to tell the worker how little he is to produce on the machine-tool which he operates, "OR ELSE."

For the reason above stated there is no valid basis for making a comparison between the present industrial output of the Soviet Union, including the German and Japanese industrial war-machines, with the industrial output of the United States in comparable fields. There is no way to estimate the present production of the Soviet Union war-making potential. In this connection the American Federation of Labor has submitted affidavits to Washington describing the condition under which 20,000,000 political prisoners work as slave-labor battalions. The additional slave-labor of political prisoners of the Soviet Union satellites, including China, considerably increases the production potential of the Soviet Union industrial war-machine.

U.S.S.R. IMPROVES A-BOMBS

U.S.S.R. alone possesses the secret scientific atom-bomb discoveries of every atomic project

As a result of this treason, it is believed by the most competent authorities on questions relating to the atom-bomb, that up to at least July 1950, the Soviet Union was far ahead of the United States in work upon nuclear fission, the secret of exploding the atom-bomb. In addition to these stolen secrets, the Soviet Union had the benefit of work done on nuclear fission in its own country, and in other countries where Soviet Union spies had infiltrated into nuclear fission projects. Convictions in the United States, England and Canada confirm these treasonous acts.

In addition to a number of experimental atom-bomb explosions in the Soviet Union since the summer of 1949, the Soviet Union is reported to have exploded an atom-bomb of very advanced type, believed by competent authorities to have been an H-bomb, the so-called Hydrogen Bomb, which possesses a destructive power exceeding a thousand atom-bombs of the type dropped on Hiroshima. Success in this field by the Soviet Union, ahead of the United States, is the result of the theft by Soviet Union spies of the secret scientific discoveries made by the United States in connection with its own development of the H-bomb, or the so-called Hydrogen Bomb.

The Soviet Union has developed two special planes with which they hope to deliver their atom-bombs to their targets in the United States. The new PE 16 X has four jet turbine motors incorporating all the latest features to be found in the improved Rolls Royce jet turbines which England has been delivering to the Soviet Union, with complete specifications for their manufacture. The new IL 24 X is a fast bomber which carries another plane, the DFS 83 46, a rocket monoplane in which the atom-bomb is carried and delivered. The rocket monoplane separates from its mother-ship and proceeds by itself to its target. Both of these aircraft are now in production under the direction of General Savitsky in large, modern, concealed underground aircraft factories, situated between the Volga and the Urals. By the grace of American scientific discovery of atom-bomb secrets and the British specifications for manufacturing the Rolls Royce jet turbines, the Soviet Union at this moment is in a position to carry out a full-scale atom-bomb attack upon this nation. No defense against such an attack has been developed so far by any nation.

MARXISM UNION ENEMY

Marxist regimes exterminates all labor unions but labor blindly keeps up fight for Marxism

"Workers" in the United States will hardly allow themselves to be completely hypnotized by the ravings and rantings of Marxists into believing that they have no "reserve of capital," or that they are "indigents." Do the "workers" of the United States realize that Marxists plan to create a "dictatorship of the proletariat of the world." That appears to be something different from what the American "workers" are being told by Marxists!

Labor unions become the first targets of Marxists when they install a Marxist regime. Labor unions are among the first institutions to disappear when Marxists appear. To Marxists, "workers" become merely a source of labor for the "dictatorship of the proletariat." From recent happenings reported in the newspapers, "workers" in the United States are waking up to this fact. Even Walter Reuther, who with his brother took their course in Marxism in Moscow for a period of almost two years, does not look with the same relish upon the "Soviet America" to which reference is made in a letter from them which was introduced into the Congressional Record. What further light on this subject is needed to bring addition repentant sinners back into the fold? Walter Reuther and many of his friends appear willing and anxious to make this light shine brightly for "workers" to see. It is to be hoped that all the "red" lights will change to "green" lights and stay that way. It will keep traffic moving in the right direction.

As the people in the United States well know by this time, the Soviet Union dictatorship extends its tyranny into every phase of food production and distribution. Also within its territory, the Soviet Union is the only employer of labor. It is a case of "no work, no food!" The "worker" must submit unconditionally to the terms and conditions dictated to him by his "lords and masters". A "worker" who objects may enjoy the privilege of remaining at home and starving to death, unless he is shipped to a slave-labor camp for political-prisoners, or shot.

"Workers" in the United States must be alerted to the true intention of Marxists towards their groups. What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions in the savings banks? What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions put aside for a rainy day into life insurance policies? What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions invested in securities of corporations of the world's greatest industrial organization of which they are one of the most important cogs? What do the Marxists propose to do about the 10,000,000 homes of "workers" in the United States? What do the Marxists propose to do about the 6,000,000 farms of "workers" in the United States? What do the Marxists propose to do about the oil burners, electric refrigerators, washing machines, radios and television sets of the "workers" in the United States? And 38,000,000 automobiles? What about them?

Marxists have been compelled to alter their slogan in the United States from "Proletariat of the world, unite!" to "Workers of the world, unite!" Marxists do not inform "workers" in the United States that it will not be the "worker of the world" who will run the show when Marxists come into power. Marxists do not inform "workers" that it will be the "proletariat of the world" who will mount the Marxist throne to establish the "dictatorship of the world." To address a Marxist appeal to the "proletariat" in the United States, the appeal must be directed exclusively to relief-parasites, unemployment-insurance addicts, bums, tramps, hoboes, alcoholics, criminals and other similar social groups. Surely the "workers" in the United States cannot be included as an integrated segment of the "proletariat" in this or in any other nation. In the case of the United States, it would be a Marxist libel upon one of the worthiest groups which make this great nation what it is today.

PROLETARIAT A BIG IDEA

"Dictatorship of the proletariat" is not just like what it seems. It is mob-rule by massacre.

The selection of the word "proletariat" by Karl Marx was not a matter of accident. The selection of the word "proletariat" was deliberate and intentional. Karl Marx created as his slogan, "Proletariat of the world, unite!" The appeal by Karl Marx is to "Proletariat of the world."

According to definitions of the word "proletariat," in leading dictionaries, "proletariat" makes up over 80% of the world's population. According to these same definitions, the "proletariat" in the United States makes up less than 2% of this nation's total population.

In ancient Rome according to definitions in leading dictionaries, "proletariat" of the Roman Empire was "the class of the community regarded as contributing nothing to the State but off-spring." Marxists base their appeal upon the literal meaning of the word. Marxism measures the usefulness of a Marxist by off-spring he contributes to the State. That Marxist doctrine is responsible for the fact that, according to reliable actuarial calculations, the population of the Soviet Union will reach 600,000,000 by the year 2,000, only a short 49 years away. The skyrocketing line on the official birth-rate chart of the Soviet Union supports this prediction. For this reason time is a very precious ally of the Soviet Union.

As applied to modern society, according to these dictionary definitions, the "proletariat" is "the lowest class in the community." As applied to political economics, according to these dictionary definitions, the "proletariat" are "indigents," and "that class which depends upon daily labor for subsistence and has no reserve capital." In the United States less than 2% of the total population falls into these categories. The existence of this condition makes it essential that Marxists address their appeals in the United States to the 64,000,000 "workers" and not to the "proletariat." The "workers" form the largest individual social group while the "proletariat" forms the smallest individual social group.

$300,000,000,000. is a lot of money but it is the price of not being swallowed up by U.S.S.R.

Somebody must know much more than the public is being told regarding the present size of the Soviet Union atom-bomb stockpile, as well as the rate at which it is being increased !!!

Is it a puzzle why President Truman is asking Congress for $380,000,000 with which to build an underground hide-away for himself and the Executive branches of the government outside the range of an atom-bomb blitz on the City of Washington? Is it a puzzle why New York City is planning to spend $450,000,000 as its first installment of the total cost to build underground atom-bomb shelters for the protection of its 8,000,000 people? Is it a puzzle why the nation is planning to spend many additional billions to protect the population from coast-to-coast against extermination by a Soviet Union atom-bomb blitz? Is it a puzzle why billions upon billions of dollars are to be spent organizing, and maintaining, every man, woman, and child of the nation in a civilian defense army in an attempt to minimize death and destruction?

The cost to the American people in dollars, the lost labor-supply to create this expanded military force, and to keep it supplied, must be charged to the counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. It makes quite a debt!

Is it a puzzle why President Truman is spending thirty billions dollars this year for the security and defense of the nation? Is it a puzzle why the highest government spokesmen state that a minimum of thirty billion dollars will have to be spent each year for many years to come for that purpose? Recent estimates have raised that estimate to fifty billion dollars annually. Is it a puzzle why this colossal burden is being placed upon taxpayers today, and upon countless unborn future generations? There is only one truthful reply. It is because the Soviet Union has, (1) the knowledge to manufacture atom-bombs, (2) an ever-increasing stockpile of atom-bombs, and (3) the means required to deposit these atom-bombs at will anywhere upon the territory of the United States. These are the facts which compel the American people to make every sacrifice now necessary to insure security and defense for their country.

This is the realistic "Report on the State of the Union" as it exists to-day. Whether the American people are willing to face these "facts of life," or whether they find it more agreeable, or more profitable, to do the "ostrich act," they should not ignore this sad state of affairs. As of to-day, the nation stands, with one foot in the grave and with the other foot on a banana peel! The only hope for survival as an independent nation of free people is to inform Americans immediately, and completely, about the threat which at this moment spells the doom of the nation.

The intelligence of informed American public opinion will again show the wisdom of making the necessary sacrifices to preserve our liberty. The American people will gladly make the choice of paying the cost to defend their security, and if called upon to do so, will gladly choose to pay with their lives rather than to supinely surrender to the Marxist monsters in Moscow. If Americans are undecided on this question, they need only ask the people of those nations who were unwilling to make those sacrifices while they still had the opportunity. Will these people ever get a "second chance"? Only time will tell.

The American people cannot afford to take the chance that they will be able to enjoy the luxury of a "second guess." If the United States surrenders its sovereignty to the Soviet Union either as the result of a war or a "booby-trap," the world is lost, and forever! There will never be a "second chance" for the world after that event occurs! Unlike past history, there will never be a dawn on the morrow of the day after that darkness blackens the world.

Discretion still continues to be the better part of valor. It is still good practice to be safe rather than to be sorry. This nation can be safe only if (1) it adequately and promptly arms itself, and (2) organizes the manpower of the nation to resist Soviet aggression, and (3) avoids falling into a Soviet Union "booby-trap" like the world-government United World Federalist plan. "Booby-traps" must be avoided at all costs. "Booby-traps" mean surrender of sovereignty of the nation without a shot being fired by the Soviet Union. Americans surely are smart enough and brave enough to choose a better alternative than a self-inflicted surrender.

KARL MARX NOT NORMAL

Leopold Schwarzschild, in "The Red Prussian", the greatest Karl Marx biography, proves him insane.

Marxism is the spirit of world-revolution to create a universal society in which mankind must submit to the acceptance of the way of life born in the brain of demented Karl Marx. Marxist organizations translate this revolutionary concept into dynamic reality by their barbaric brutality. "Communism" is but one phase of Marxism-in-action. "Bolshevism" is another phase of Marxism-in-action. "Fabianism" is a cleverly disguised phase of Marxism-in-action. "Socialism" is a well-camouflaged phase of Marxism-in-action. "Liberalism" is the sugar-coated phase of Marxism-in-action. They are the apparatus of Marxism-in-action. "Marxism-in-action" varies only in form and structure. The purpose and policy never varies. The form and structure of Marxism-in-action differ to meet the needs and requirements of local conditions.

Karl Marx was born in 1818 and died in 1883. The ancestors of Karl Marx, on both his mother's and father's side, were members of the eastern European Judaic community referred to by themselves, their historians, and known to the world, as the Yiddish people. These ancestors of Karl Marx, for countless centuries, included many of the most prominent Yiddish Talmudic Rabbis. Karl Marx was not a victim of "religious persecution." His father was wealthy and was the trusted advisor of the Count of Westphalen. The King of Prussia had granted full political rights to Judaic Prussians by the Edict of Emancipation of 1822.

Karl Marx gave the first signs of his later insanity before he reached the age of maturity. At this early age he already advocated the revolutionary ideologies which are today associated with his name. What is there in the teachings of Karl Marx which makes Marxism so dangerous to humanity? What are the implications of Marxism? What effect will be produced by the impact of Marxism upon civilization? How will Marxism affect the American heritage?

Marxism teaches the fundamental belief in world-wide "dictatorship of the proletariat" and "classless society." Marxism abolishes government by popular choice. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" does not countenance free choice by the people of the government under which they exist. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" precludes government "by the consent of the governed." Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" prohibits political equality. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" excludes the use of popular secret ballot.

OBSESSION OF A MADMAN

Only a man who never earned one cent could be lunatic enough to try to destroy civilization

Marxism demands that the "proletariat segregate itself from all other classes to fight them." Marxism is responsible for class wars which are disrupting the peace of the world, arresting the progress of social reforms and squandering human and material resources of the world upon preparations for war. Marxism calls upon the "proletariat" to wage their fight against all other classes to the bitter end. Marxists refer to this policy as "fragmentation of the population." Marxists split nations into the greatest possible number of "fragments." The more numerous these "fragments," the more successfully Marxists can infiltrate and dominate them.

Marxism preaches and practices that "democracy is unrealistic so long as the machinery of the government and "all the means of production" are not the exclusive possession of the "proletariat." They include agricultural as well as industrial means of production as of today. Marxists tempt the "proletariat (?) with this bait. Where the "proletariat" takes over control of the "machinery of the government" and possession of the "means of production" there never has been evidence of any trace of "realistic democracy."

The identical pattern which Marxist developments follow in widely separated areas of the world is not due to accident. They cannot be called historic phenomena. They are the result of preparations which cover a long period of time. The sad comment upon this fact is that during this period the remainder of the world was too busily engaged in making money and in providing itself with entertainment to take any interest in the fate that was being prepared for them by Marxists.

Marxists are taught that a successful revolution requires that execution of the planning must await the time when the combination of all circumstances are favorable to success, Marx said, "Revolution is an art." Marx emphasized the necessity for determining when both the preparations and the existing conditions combine to make the time ideal for the Marxist revolution. If a mistake is made, Marxists retrace their steps and try again later. The planning and the preparations are permitted to vary according to the necessities of local conditions. The aims and the purposes are never permitted any deviation or compromise.

Marxists are taught that successful revolution is only possible as the result of careful preparation. Preparations for what is taking place in the world today go back at least fifty years, and possibly longer. What is now taking place in the world is not the spontaneous expression of extemporaneous political, social, or economic discontent.

The Yiddish Marxist, high-priests lounging in luxury in Moscow and New York do not appear to be interested in creating anything resembling "realistic democracy" for the "proletariat" which exists under Marxist regimes. Neither does it appear that the Yiddish Marxist high-priests are in the least bit interested in utilizing "all the means of production" for the "general welfare" of the "proletariat." From news items and photographs which slip into the newspapers accidentally from time to time, it requires quite a stretch of the imagination to interpret them as examples of "realistic democracy."

MARX POLITICAL PERVERT

Marxism nullifies every political right which mankind won by 2000 years of bloody struggles

Marxism teaches that "government is merely the instrument of class oppression." Marxists urge the "proletariat" to seize power and to use this power to destroy the class-structure of society. Once the Marxists have reduced all classes of society to the status of "proletariat," the "proletariat" ceases to be the "proletariat." In a Marxist "classless society" there will be no classes. Class distinction will no longer exist and "classless society" will become a living reality with the complete disappearance of the middle and upper classes.

Marxist doctrine prohibits any fraternizing with the principle of constitutional government. Representative government disappears when Marxism appears, and never reappears. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" aspires to one world, one people, and one government. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" is the closest

Marxism comes to "government of the people, for the people, and by the people."

Of equal importance with the Marxist doctrine "dictatorship of the proletariat" is the Marxist "classless society" dogma. Marxists preach and practice that a "classless society" must be the ultimate aim of "dictatorship of the proletariat." Marxism teaches that the "proletariat" must crush out the opposition of all other social classes by destroying them. Marxists are instructed how to obliterate the political, social and economic systems of the defeated regime to aid in the extermination of all other social classes. Marxism teaches that "revolution is war." Only the methods of warfare should be adopted in waging war upon other social classes. War must be waged until all other social classes surrender unconditionally on terms dictated by the "proletariat." The Marxist version of "unconditional surrender." God help us!

Trotsky, a leading apostle of Marxism, stated, "THE ENEMY MUST BE MADE HARMLESS AND THIS MEANS HE MUST BE DESTROYED." Trotsky proved how well he had learned this lesson at his first opportunity. Trotsky was at the head of the revolutionary forces in Russia in 1917 when they massacred between 25,000,000 and 30,000,000 middle and upper class Russians for no other reason than they were not members of the "proletariat." Marxists follow the policy employed in Russia by Trotsky wherever Marxist regimes are established.

Marxism teaches that "dictatorship of the proletariat" in a "classless society" is their ultimate goal and Marxists must not hesitate to use any means to accomplish it. No form of bestiality, brutality, or barbarism is to be overlooked if it will hasten the realization of Marxist ambitions. Marx cautioned his followers against hesitation, weakness, pity, or any compromise with Marxist fundamental tactics or strategy. Marx taught his followers that human considerations must play no part in dealing with their enemies. Marx stressed that display of human qualities encourages opposition and invites resistance.

Marx taught his followers that only violence could win their revolution and that only "dictatorship of the proletariat" could guaranty its permanence. Any means to this end was justified. Marx impressed his disciples, because the "dictatorship of the proletariat" was the trustee of the world-revolution which was to be the fulfillment of the mission to which the "proletariat" was historically called.

MARXISTS KILL REFORMS

Marxists only pay lip-service to reforms but sabotage them and fight them if they succeed

Marx instructed his followers to join reform movements and become active members of organizations dedicated to reform. Marx ordered his followers to join these organizations and enter upon this work with the determination to use every effort to make these reform movements fail. Marx instructed his followers that if reform movements succeed in spite of Marxist sabotage that Marxists were to withdraw from them and fight them. Marx could not afford to have reform movements succeed and improve the living conditions of the "proletariat." Conditions which existed among the "proletariat" in European countries were assets of infinite value to Marx as basic to the success of world-revolution. Marx demanded that his followers sabotage social reforms and social progress. Social reforms and social progress deprived Marxists of the inflammatory propaganda necessary to incite world-revolution.

Marx prohibited adoption of any of the institutions most sought after by western Europe under threat of the most severe penalties. For centuries the western European nations had been striving for personal freedom, government by law, control of the Executive by the Judiciary, government by secret popular ballot, and government by the consent of the governed. Marx branded such beliefs as heresies.

MARX SOCIAL DEGENERATE

Marxism destroys the middle and upper classes reducing society to level of the lowest class

Marx regarded religion as "an instrument of capital." Marx taught that religion served no purpose other than an opiate with which to drug "proletariat." Marx concentrated his initial efforts to destroy influence of religion wherever it existed. Marxists make Christianity their Enemy No. 1 wherever they exert influence or authority. Marxists are aware that as long as Christianity survives Marxism cannot fulfill its "historic mission." Marxists are instructed that they must erase Christianity from the face of the earth as quickly as possible. Marxism cannot survive in a climate where Christianity flourishes. Marxists advocate acts of sacrilege against all domains sacred to Christianity as strategy essential to the success of Marxism.

Marx attributed no value at all to the claim of the individual to personal freedom and personal liberties. Marx would not recognize any right of a human being to equal political suffrage. Marx taught that violence against humanity was sanctified by the uses to which Marx asked his followers to put it. Marx relied for the success of world revolution upon his belief that if a human being is exposed to prolonged violence for a sufficiently long period that brutality will give birth to acceptance of the most repugnant principles. Marx preached "fraternity is the outcome of violence."

The totalitarian tyranny of Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" has never been paralleled in all the recorded history of mankind. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" seeks to repeal the God-given right of the individual to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" translates into dynamic reality the doctrine that the individual is created for the benefit of the government, not that the government is created for the benefit of the people.

Marxists use words to conceal their ideas and not to express them. Marxists use words like "liberation," "aggression," "democracy," "Peoples Democracy," "Peoples Republic," and other similar words in the extreme opposite sense of these words. Marxists use such words in complete contradiction to their generally accepted definitions. Marxist world-wide propaganda machines have been blasting the United States for its "aggression" in Korea. Marxist world-wide propaganda machines refer to the "liberation" of nations which Marxists have literally enslaved. "Peoples Democracies" and "Peoples Republics" neither are governments in which the "People" have anything at all to say nor are they "Democracies" or "Republics" even by the wildest stretch of the imagination based upon the most liberal definition of these words.

"HISTORIC MISSION" MYTH

Marxist obsession calls it "historic mission" to incite a "proletariat" world-revolution

Marxists are instructed that unrelenting class-warfare is the only means by which the "proletariat" can expect to fulfill their "historic mission" of world-revolution. Marxism lays down as fundamental the acceptance of the principle that it is the "historic mission" of Marxists to keep up this fight until they have totally destroyed social systems based upon political equality and free enterprise.

To Marxists, Marxism is more than just another political, social or economic philosophy. To its followers, Marxism is a cult, a creed, a religion! Marxism signifies the acceptance of the teachings of Karl Marx as the pattern upon which humanity must forevermore conform its existence. Marxists believe that it is their "historic mission" to impose Marxism upon all mankind. Marxism advocates the use of force and violence to accomplish its aims. Marxism plans a world revolution to hasten the realization of its "historic mission" at an early date.

Yiddish Marxists can truthfully make the claim that they are the creators of the communist (Marxist) world-revolution. In 1883 a small number of Yiddish persons established the first Marxist organization in Russia. After the death of Karl Marx several of his disciples joined forces to translate into action the political, social and economic philosophies advocated by him during his lifetime. The Marxist world-revolution was called "Bolshevism" when it was first organized. The Encyclopedia Britannica is one of the great sources of reference for historic facts. Under the title "Bolshevism" the Encyclopedia Britannica states as follows:

"The effective origin of Bolshevism may be traced back to the foundation, in 1883, to the GROUP FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF LABOR, by Plekhanov and Axelrod. The latter, deeply influenced by the doctrines of Marx . . . makes it legitimate to regard it as the first Marxian organization in Russia."

Marxism did not make the rapid progress which its followers had anticipated. The Yiddish

Marxists withdrew. They formed their separate Marxist organization. The Yiddish Marxist organization formed at that time became the ruling body of all Marxist organizations which have been since formed all over the world. On this point the Encyclopedia Britannica has the following to say;

"In 1897 was founded the BUND, the union of Jewish workers in Poland and Lithuania . . . They engaged in revolutionary activity on a large scale and their energy made them the spearhead of the party."

The Yiddish Marxists who had withdrawn from the GROUP FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF LABOR to form the BUND proceeded to organize the BOLSHEVIST PARTY to take a more active part in Russian politics. The Encyclopedia Britannica summarizes the importance of the BOLSHEVIST PARTY in Russian politics with these few but significant words,

"The history of the Bolshevik party after the first revolution of 1917 is the history of Russia itself."

Marxism demands that national, social, racial and spiritual loyalties be subordinated to allegiance to the highest Marxist authority. The world is being conditioned to think in these terms. In the United States the people are already being asked to fly only the flag of United Nations on a certain day in October. They are asked not to fly the flag of the United States on that day. The number of days when this will be required will be gradually increased until the American Flag becomes an emblem of secondary importance to the American people. Other Marxist grapevine propaganda is working to attain unrestricted immigration, removal of all protective tariffs, an international currency to replace the dollar, the removal of citizens for trial in foreign countries under the Genocide Pact, the limitation upon domestic industrial production under International Trade Organization restriction, and the destruction of the basic American institutions which have made the United States the great nation it is today.

ENDS PROPERTY RIGHTS

Marxism denies the right of individuals to own property which all passes to the "proletariat"

Marxism lays down the inflexible rule that "all the means of production" must become the property of the "dictatorship of the proletariat." This Marxist principle is unconditional. Marxists permit no compromise with this dogma. Private ownership of property ceases. Marx taught his followers that they may be required to use force to maintain this status because the minds and hearts of men could not easily be won over to such a revolutionary status, or be changed quickly to accept it permanently, or peaceably accustomed to this new state of affairs. Marxists are urged to resort to terrorism when imposing this new economic order upon their victims to discourage any desires or attempts to revert to the former political, social, and economic status.

Terrorism is employed by Marxists to destroy hope for a return to normalcy. The extent of the horrors which populations have experienced are well known to those who are in direct contact with Marxist regimes. These facts are seldom, if ever, given prominence in the press or over the radio. The confiscation of property by Marxists could not be more brutal if it were carried out by the most primitive barbarians. In the days of Hitler it was different. When the Nazis committed acts which faded into insignificance when compared to Marxist strategy the newspapers carried big headlines and radio commentators screamed the news over the radio networks. The motion picture industry turned out millions of feet of film exaggerating this situation. But today there appears to be a conspiracy of silence regarding the confiscation of property by Marxist regimes.

"Dictatorship of the proletariat" prohibits all elements in society except the "proletariat" from any voice in the government. Every class except the "proletariat" is deliberately excluded from participation in government matters. Formal democratic government by secret popular ballot is replaced by administration of the communities by councils. These councils are called Soviets and are composed of the poorest laborers, farm workers and soldiers. The system of Soviets, or the system of administration by councils, is the only form of government in the Soviet Union. It exists from the Politburo at the highest level of government down to the councils which administer the smallest farm-collectives. Marxists do not believe that any man is worthy enough to govern other men. Therefore Marxists base their government machinery upon the principle of administration of communities by councils and not upon government by individuals.

The first official acts of a Marxist regime constitute the confiscation of every industrial enterprise, all the banks, all means of transportation and communication, and all land holdings. Marxists immediately nationalize wholesale commerce and promptly make all foreign trade the monopoly of the Marxist regime. Marxist regimes take immediate and complete control of all the means for influencing public opinion, including newspapers, publishing houses, motion picture industries and radio broadcasting. Education must be controlled by the "proletariat." In New York City recently eight school teachers were removed by the Board of Education. The trial of the first of the eight is taking place. To date it has been proven that he was the head of a Communist group in New York City for almost twenty years while teaching school at the same time.

Marxism also lays great emphasis upon the necessity to attract intellectual technicians as associates. These groups are trained as directors for sabotage activity when Marxists strike. Almost every day newspapers in the United States feature news items relating to removal of instructors from institutions of higher learning because they are members of Marxist (Communist) groups. Several have confessed, and several have been convicted of playing important parts in the theft of atom-bomb scientific secret discoveries. In countries engaged in atom-bomb development Marxists (Communists) have held the highest positions and were proven to be Soviet Union spies.

YIDDISH MARXIST PERIL

Greatest danger arises from the fact that the Yiddish Marxists disguise themselves as "Jews"

Marx conceived the revolution he was organizing as a world revolution. Marx wanted the revolution in each country to be fashioned according to the same pattern. In keeping with this policy Marx believed it was basic to the ultimate success of world-revolution to establish a political party with branches in every country of the world. This world-wide network of political parties was to be rigorously directed from the headquarters of the central political party, and the world-wide network of branch political parties were to be sternly disciplined by the central headquarters. The world-wide network today of Communist Parties is the implementation of this basic Marxist doctrine considered by Marx so essential for the success of world-revolution. The headquarters of the central Communist Party is in Moscow. The Communist Party in the United States is a branch of the headquarters in Moscow.

Antagonism to Marxist regimes by the more prosperous "proletariat" classes is sternly repressed by organizing the poorer "proletariat" classes to do it. This method is employed by Marxists with equally successfully results in agricultural areas as well as in urban centers. The principle of class-struggle is not overlooked by Marxists at any level in the social structure.

Marx taught his disciples, and Marxists today follow the principle that the most rapid, efficient and permanent results in abolishing the class structure of society are obtained by destroying all except the "proletariat" class. The destruction of all other social classes is the only method which satisfies all the conditions of Marxism.

SYNTHETIC "MINORITIES"

"Minority" discontent is a synthetic product manufactured and marketed by Yiddish Marxists

All Yiddish people are not Marxists (communists). All communists (Marxists) are not Yiddish. If that were the case it would oversimplify the situation. Yiddish Marxists realized from the very beginning that the success of the Marxist world-revolution demanded support by the masses. To obtain this support Yiddish Marxists offer communism (Marxism) to racial, religious, social, economic, and national "minorities" as the solution for their respective problems. Communism (Marxism) is offered to "minorities" as the only remedy which can correct the conditions which produce their dissatisfaction and discontent. These "minorities" have never actually had a genuine interest in the Marxist world-revolution. They have never known what Marxism actually means. These "minorities" seek to obtain from society correction of the conditions which they allege should not be allowed to exist. That is their primary interest in Marxism.

Each "minority" is primarily interested in its own problems. Yiddish Marxists offer a Utopia to each of these "minorities." Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines work overtime to inflate the dissatisfaction and discontent of "minorities" out of all proportions to the importance which they justify upon their intrinsic merits. Many "minorities" are today valuable allies of Communist Parties because their extremist leaders have accepted the leadership of Yiddish Marxists. Based upon this fact it is estimated that Marxists can count upon effective support from "minorities" representing about 40% of the total population of the United States. J. Edgar Hoover has stated that there are only about 50,000 "card-carrying" members of the Communist Party in the United States with an addition 500,000 who are active sympathizers. The fallacy of this reasoning would require every good Christian to be a "card-carrying" Christian to be considered a Christian. How unrealistic!!!

Marx instructed his disciples that to make progress with the world-revolution advantage must be taken of racial, religious, social, economic, and national discontent wherever they exist. Marx taught that if they did not exist they must be created. Marx emphasized that a nation must be conditioned for world revolution by "fragmentizing" the population into its racial, religious, social, economic and national "minorities." Marxists were instructed how to create ill-will among these "minorities" not alone towards each other but towards their government as well. Marx called for propaganda in this respect of the greatest intensity and always recommended that propaganda of this nature be employed to create or to intensify class-warfare to the Maximum.

Marx cautioned that propaganda concerning class conflict between "minorities" must never seek to solve their problems. Marxists must utilize every opportunity to intensify and aggravate class-warfare. In the United States today "class-warfare" amongst "minorities" is conditioning this nation for a successful Marxist revolution. The tensions between racial, religious, social, economic and national "minorities" which appear every day in the newspapers is the result of organized effort by Marxist propaganda machines and Marxist agents secretly placed amongst these groups. These tensions did not exist in this country on a scale sufficient to worry about until greatly inflated by Marxists since their arrival in the United States in large numbers during the last fifty years.

Yiddish Marxists appeal to the Negro "minority" through leaders like Paul Robeson. Yiddish Marxists appealed to other "minorities" through their extremist leaders like William Z. Foster, Earl Browder, Harry Bridges, Alger Hiss, Walter Reuther, Victor Reuther, Louis Budenz, Whitaker Chambers and other extremists in labor, educational, farming, religious and government groups. It is very apparent that the communist (Marxist) movement is not confined exclusively to persons who profess Judaism as their religious belief. Yiddish Marxists are composed exclusively of members of that religious belief. The conversion of the Christian masses to Marxism was basic to its success and made it necessary for Yiddish Marxists to secure the active participation in the Marxist world-revolution of Christian "minorities" throughout the world.

Yiddish Marxists in the United States have been rewarded with success far beyond the most optimistic expectations of the Yiddish Marxist General Staff in Moscow. The Democratic Party and the Republican Party have been compelled to advocate "reforms(?)" previously found only in the platforms of Communist Parties. The Democratic Party and the Republican Party are attempting to retard the stampede of "minorities" into the Communist Party and into organizations with high-sounding names which are actively promoting Marxist world-revolution. The Democratic and Republican party leaders have not shown the intelligence to expose to these "minorities" the fact that the promises being held out to these "minorities" were held out to their comparable "minorities" in countries now under Marxist regimes and that these "minorities" are now in far worse condition than they were before they listened to Marxist propaganda.

UNTRUTHS AS TRUTHS

Untruths regarding the relationship of the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution to Judaism.

Marxism is the root of the big troubles which are today torturing the American people. The political, social and economic disturbances which are upsetting the nation, and the world, are synthetic. The discontent and disorders throughout the world are the synthetic products of Marxist research laboratories and their mass production factories for Marxist propaganda. Marxists clandestinely pour their poison-propaganda into the political, social and economic systems of the world to make peace, progress and prosperity impossible.

Marxists infect the mentality of the fools and knaves who listen to their ideologies with the product of the diseased mentality of Karl Marx. Marxism thrives upon the ignorance and greed of their intended victims. Marxism acts like a malignant disease. Marxism acts to destroy the decent things in life which make living worthwhile. Whenever Marxism appears, the Brotherhood of Man and the Fatherhood of God disappear. They perish in the climate of Marxism.

Marxism is the mother-father of the isms which now threaten our form of civilization with extinction. Marxism is the sow, its isms are the suckling pigs. Marxism provides the mother's milk upon which these isms nurse. Marxism pumps the breath of life into its off-spring isms. Without the oxygen which Marxism supplies, these isms would soon perish and disappear from the face of the earth.

The brood of Marxism includes, "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism" and the other less vocal but more subtle isms. Marxism wears all these disguises to camouflage itself. Marxism is the hub of the wheel. Around it "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism" and the other "isms" are the spokes of the Marxist wheel. Without the hub there would be no wheel. Marxism bears exactly the same relation to "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism," and its other "isms," that Christianity bears to Catholicism and the denominations of Protestantism. Marxism is the fountainhead of propaganda for the missionary effort of organizations dedicated to the conversion of the world to Marxism by the use of lies and deception. It is quite different in that respect from the missionary efforts of Christianity which accepts the teachings of Jesus Christ as the source of its inspiration for the conversion of the world to Christianity through love and charity.

The American people have never understood this situation correctly owing to the effectiveness of the high powered Marxist propaganda machines. The public has never understood that "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," and "Liberalism" are now masquerading under titles which disguise and deceive the American people. In order to secure followers amongst political, social and economic groups at all levels, Marxists established organizations with a variety of complexions extensive enough to suit the temperament and the taste of men, women, and children in all walks of life.

The advance-guard of "dictatorship of the proletariat" has already introduced into the United States effective propaganda which has the ultimate object of eliminating class distinction in this country. Marxist friends and Marxist propaganda machines employ many alibis to skillfully conceal their true intentions. The minds of the American people are being conditioned by ceaseless repetition of words like, "democracy," "welfare," "relief," "tolerance," "equality," "reform," "humanitarian," and similar expressions in print and over the air. The legitimate activities of organizations engaged in these noble activities provide the smoke-screen behind which Marxists wage their subversive aggression against society.

Marxist organizations have innocent-looking, sweet-sounding titles. For the dyed-in-the-wool Marxist there is always the official Communist Party. For the glib, unsuspecting, do-gooders there are organizations like United World Federalists to intrigue incipient Marxists. Their number is legion. Collectively they make up the Marxist apparatus in the United States. The House Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States Congress, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) of the Department of Justice, and exposures by patriotic columnists and radio commentators confirm the existence of this huge and complex Marxist apparatus.

RULES FOR REVOLUTION

Experience with revolutions for 100 years in European countries developed Marxist rules

Marxism recognizes five basic rules for the creation of Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and the Marxist "classless society." A study of these five rules reveals that Marxist have already made progress in creating in the United States conditions conducive to success when they decide that the time has arrived to commence their revolution in this country.

Firstly, Marxists believe that revolution must never be played with and that once it has been started the revolution must be carried out to the bitter end. Marxists adopt the policy of taking as many years as necessary to make adequate preparations. Once started the revolution must not halt in its forward march for any reason which proper preparation can prevent. During the period of preparation Marxists infiltrate into strategic positions at the highest levels in the political, social, and economic structures of intended victims.

Secondly, Marxists instruct their followers that when the time for the revolution has been decided upon, Marxists must gather at selected places forces which outnumber their enemies. This is the blitz strategy of modern warfare applied to revolutions. Marxists have successfully used this strategy. Marxists have developed blitz tactics to a fine art. To make Marxist blitz strategy more effective, Marxists neutralize potential resistance and opposition by obtaining control, in advance of the revolution, of labor unions, farmers' organizations, student groups and the other large segments of the organized manpower of a nation. Possible resistance or opposition by government interference is neutralized by Marxist penetration into strategic positions at the highest levels in departments of the government dealing with defense, food, communications, transportation, and power production.

Thirdly, Marxists are instructed that the offensive is fundamental to success. It is impressed upon Marxists that "the defensive is death to the insurrection." Terrorism of all forms is employed to reduce resistance and opposition to the absolute minimum. The history of Marxist regimes has been written with the blood of the classes which have resisted them. Once the revolution is started Marxists keep the offensive. Adequate advance preparation overwhelms opposition and discourages counter-revolution.

Fourthly, Marxists are taught that the element of surprise is essential for success of the Marxist revolution. Marxists are taught to start their revolution when it is least expected. Marxists are taught to choose as the moment for the revolution a time when the forces of the government are scattered. The success of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia in 1917 illustrates this point. In 1917 it was possible for 60,000 Marxists in Russia to take over a country of 150,000,000 population covering a territory of about 9,000,000 sq. miles. This can be repeated in the United States when the armed forces of the nation become scattered over Europe and Asia.

Fifthly, Marxists are taught the necessity of powerful propaganda to keep the masses on the Marxist side. Announcement of daily, even hourly successes, has a great effect in depressing enemies and discouraging resistance. Masses have the tendency to jump on the band-wagon of the winning side in revolutions. In the United States Marxists and their friends dominate newspapers, radio networks and other channels for coaxing public thinking. Marxists dominate the labor unions which prepare the final material prior to insertion in newspapers and prior to broadcasting over radio networks. This serious state of affairs was exposed very recently and is accepted as authentic by responsible authorities.

Above all else, Marxists are instructed that supreme success is not possible without audacity. Before, during, and after Marxist regimes are established Marxists never fail to exhibit this basic Marxist characteristic. Marxists never lose an opportunity to display this major Marxist weapon. Marxists exhibit their audacity daily in United Nations. The statements of Marxists in United Nations shock the American public. With brazen audacity Marxists accuse their victims of the very crimes of which they are themselves the guilty parties. Marxist audacity is based upon the theory that the bigger the lie that is told and the more often it is repeated, the more certain that the world will accept these lies as truths. The "big lie" propaganda trick made famous by Hitler was borrowed by Hitler from the Marxists.

W/fight communism with common sense

WORD IS NOT COMMUNISM

Marxists stole "communism" from the Communist Societies, religious cooperative enterprises

"Communism" is a word greatly misunderstood by the American people. "Communism" is the word chosen by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines to camouflage their control of the Marxist world-revolution. "Communism" is a word borrowed by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines from the early English and American religious groups who organized themselves into large cooperative settlements by which they hoped to develop substantial enterprises of many kinds to accumulate wealth for their members. In the outstanding authentic work on this subject, "The Communist Societies of the United States" written by Charles Nordhoff in 1875, the author reveals the number and the nature of the large and substantial "Communist Societies" in the United States at that time.

The selection of "Communism" as a name for one phase of the Marxist world-revolution was to disguise its true character. Marxists wished to capitalize upon the high esteem in which "Communist Societies" were regarded at that time. The "Communist Societies" which existed long before Marxism, and the "Communist Parties" of today have no more in common than Heaven and Hell. They are as opposite as the North and the South Poles. The use today of the word "Communism" to describe Yiddish Marxist revolutionary activities is one of the greatest frauds ever perpetrated upon an unsuspecting public in the history of the world.

Every communist is a Marxist. Every Marxist is a communist. The only difference between a communist and a Marxist is in the spelling. Everywhere in the world today Communist Parties are the branches of the Soviet Union Communist Party. The Soviet Union Communist Party and the Communist Parties everywhere in the world are the brain-children of Yiddish Marxists. Communist Parties are all of recent vintage. The Soviet Union Communist Party was organized by the Bolsheviks in Russia after the successful Yiddish Marxist revolution there in 1917. It was created to be used by Yiddish Marxists in Russia to impose Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society" upon the Russian people who survived the Bolshevik massacre of 25,000,000 middle and upper class Russians. The Soviet Union Communist Party until recent years had less than 2,000,000 members out of a 200,000,000 population. In recent years it has been estimated that there are 6,000,000 members as a maximum, in the Soviet Union Communist Party.

CHRISTIANS DECEIVED

Christians give preferences, privileges and priorities to Yiddish Marxists as "Jews"

Yiddish Marxists have always made it a practice to identify themselves to the Christian world as "Jews". Yiddish Marxists have also made it a practice to identify themselves to the Christian world as part of a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists have resorted to this strategy for reasons explained elsewhere in this issue. Yiddish Marxists have even gone so far as to brag that their accomplishments are "Jewish" accomplishments. For Yiddish Marxists to label their revolution in Russia in 1917 a "Jewish" accomplishment is the equivalent of Hitler and Mussolini calling their recent political adventures "Christian" projects. If Hitler had called upon all Protestants and Mussolini had called upon all Catholics of the world to support their political adventures, and had they received it, they might have succeeded. The Christians of other nations would have felt certain that Hitler and Mussolini were crazy to ask support from them as members of a "Christian race."

Yiddish Marxists have succeeded where Hitler and Mussolini failed. Yiddish Marxists have been able to make the Christian world believe that Yiddish Marxists speak for a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists have convinced Christians that persons of all nationalities and of all races who profess Judaism as their religious belief are members of a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines have been able to make Christians accept as the truth the falsity that every "Jew" is a member of a "Jewish race." Christians do not believe a "Jew" is a "Jew" in the same sense they believe a "Christian" is a "Christian" or a "Moslem" is a

"Moslem." A human being can only be a "Jew", "Christian" or "Moslem" in the sense that they are members of the religious groups associated with Judaism, Christianity or Islam. The invention of the word "Jew" in the 17th Century is responsible for quite a little confusion. The interpretation placed upon the word by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines is completely incorrect and very misleading.

What Yiddish Marxists are seeking to accomplish is very evident. They want Christians to regard the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution as a project of the "Jewish race" or "Jews." Yiddish Marxists want uninformed Christians to give undue credit to "Jews" for the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution. Yiddish Marxists have made all persons who profess Judaism as their religious belief their captives. Yiddish Marxists want Christians to hold "Jews" responsible for their world-revolution project. This incorrect understanding of the situation by Christians drives into the ranks of Yiddish Marxists many persons who simply profess Judaism as their religious belief. The appeal by Yiddish Marxists to their co-religionists for mutual-defense against Christians adds great strength to the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution. Persons who profess Judaism as their form for the worship of God are not any more responsible for the world-revolution of their co-religionists than non-German Protestants of the world are responsible for the political acts of Hitler's Nazis or the non-Italian Catholics of the world are responsible for the political acts of Mussolini's Fascists.

As an illustration of the extent to which Yiddish Marxists have gone to identify the Marxist world-revolution as the work of "Jews," and a "Jewish" accomplishment, it is only necessary to refer to The American Hebrew of September 20, 1920. This old, and respected publication passed into the control of Yiddish Marxists in recent years and they have used it as an important part of their propaganda machine. In the issue of September 20, 1920 of The American Hebrew, the following appears with reference to the Yiddish Marxist revolution in Russia in 1917 which was hitting on all eight cylinders at that time:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and by Jewish planning, shall also through the same mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

It is not clear what Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish brains." Do they mean the brains of the Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloid Khazars who were their ancestors? What do Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish dissatisfaction." Do they mean the irritation caused by resistance of Christian populations to their campaign for world domination? What do Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish planning"? Do they mean the program of Yiddish Marxists for sweeping out the established institutions of civilized society and replacing them with Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society"? It requires quite a stretch of the imagination to associate these three facts with the Semites who inhabited the Near East 2000 years before the birth of the Marxist world-revolution.

Yiddish Marxists used the labels "Jew" and "Jewish" long before the article quoted from The American Hebrew. As an illustration of how far back Yiddish Marxists used the labels "Jew" and "Jewish" for Yiddish Marxist world-revolution it is only necessary to refer to the November 1905 issue of The Maccabean. The Yiddish Marxist propaganda machine acquired control of this old and respected publication in 1905, and under the title "A Jewish Revolution" the following quotation refers to the aborted Yiddish Marxist revolution in Russia in 1905. The quotation reads as follows:

"The Revolution in Russia was a Jewish revolution . . . because the Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's Empire."

Similar quotations indicate the world-wide extent of the efforts made by the Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines to identify the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution as "Jewish." In England, in The Jewish Chronicle, April 4th, 1919, the following appeared:

"There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks . . ."

Again in the leading French publication dedicated to promoting the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution, The Jewish People (Peuple Juif), the following appeared:

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands."

CONFUSING CHRISTIANS

Yiddish, like Irish, infers national background Jewish, like Catholic, implies religious belief

Yiddish Marxists have always tried to conceal from Christians the origin and intent of the Marxist world-revolution by using "Jew" and "Jewish" as labels on the wide variety of their miscellaneous activities. The label "Jew" or "Jewish" obtains for Yiddish Marxists a certain immunity from Christians. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines grind out at high speed untruths, half-truths, distortion of fact, and inaccuracies implying that Jesus Christ was a "Jew", that the Holy Family were "Jews," and that the apostles were "Jews." Yiddish Marxists know that these facts as they present them are not supported by history or theology. They should stop it!

Yiddish Marxists know Christian prayer and hymn books are filled with references which glorify the so-called "Jews" of Bible history as God's "Chosen People." The modern Christian version of Bible history cloaks "Jews" with this mantle of Divine protection which God evidently did not extend to Christians. "Jews" are depicted as God's "Chosen People" in modern Christian versions of Bible history and Christians are expected to extend to "Jews" privileges, preferences, and priorities to be reserved by Christians exclusively for "Jews." Yiddish Marxists seek to identify themselves in the eyes of Christians as "Jews" in order to qualify themselves for the suffrage and immunities which Christians would not otherwise extend to them.

NEVER A JEWISH RACE

Nations of all races contributed converts to Judaism 2000 years before Yiddish conversion

The most far-reaching deception ever inflicted upon an unsuspecting world is the belief held by Christians that there is a "Jewish race." Historic and scientific facts reveal the complete falsity of that untruth. In recent times Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines have expended infinite effort to exploit this hoax upon Christians. Within the lifetime of the present generation Yiddish Marxists have exerted super-human effort to influence Christians to look upon all "Jews" as members of a "Jewish race." Above everything else it seems that Yiddish Marxists want Christians to regard all "Jews" as members of a "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists feel they are able to demand from Christians, and they do obtain, privileges, preferences, and priorities which Christians feel they must show to those of the "Jewish race" as God's "Chosen people." The sooner Christians understand the truth about this misrepresentation the sooner will they be able to protect themselves against the consequences of their lack of knowledge on this subject.

There is not, there never was, and there never can be a "Jewish race." Likewise, there is not, there never was and there never can be a "Christian race." The same applies to a "Moslem race." There are three major monotheistic religions in the world, Christianity, Judaism, Islam (Mohammedism). Religious beliefs do not determine racial origin. Religious belief is voluntary acceptance by an individual of an established spiritual philosophy. Religious belief can be changed for a different religious belief as easily as a garment can be changed. Race is determined by ancestry. Race is ethnic origin. Race is anthropological fact. Race is determined before man enters the world. Race can never be changed. Belief in the existence of a so-called "Jewish race" does not flatter the enlightenment of Americans on this subject. Yiddish Marxists get many a good belly-laugh from the fact that Christianity regards Yiddish Marxists as "Jews" and as members of a "Jewish race."

The Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the former Judaized Khazars, never at any time in their history had an association with the territory or with the Semite nations mentioned in Bible history. The Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the ancestors of the Yiddish people, never had a racial connection with the Semites who inhabited the Near East Bible areas in pre-historic ages. History supports the fact that Semites from the Near East area never immigrated to Eastern Europe nor into the heart of Asia. Ancestors of the Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the former Judaized Khazars, never set a foot in the Near East area inhabited by the Semites in Bible history. No historic or scientific basis exists by which the Yiddish population of eastern European countries can claim a historic connection with the Holy Land area or a racial connection with the peoples who occupied that area in Bible history periods.

JEHOVAH & JUDAISM

Judaic monotheism was acquired from same source that Christianity and Islam acquired monotheism

The formal religious worship referred to in modern times as Judaism has its origin in the ancient temple-worship of Yaweh. Jehovah is the Anglicized modern name given to Yaweh. Yaweh was the first conception of an all-powerful, invisible Deity who ruled over all the physical Gods. The belief in Yaweh (Jehovah) is the nucleus of all monotheism. Judaism, Christianity and Islam are all based upon this monotheism.

Documentary proof exists that Yaweh (Jehovah) was a monotheistic deity worshipped by the nineteen Semite nations extending from Persia to Egypt. About 1490 B.C. the Egyptian Semite, Moses, was exiled by the conquerors of Egypt for his political agitation on behalf of other Semites. Moses dwelt in exile for many years amongst the Kennites, a Semite nation living in the Sinai desert at the foot of a large mountain. While living in exile amongst the Kennites Moses learned about Yaweh (Jehovah) from them.

The Kennites had developed their worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) into a highly-organized, formal religion many years before Moses came to live with them. Moses abandoned his pagan beliefs and was converted to the worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). Moses married the daughter of an Arab Kennite priest of the Yaweh-Jehovah cult.

His new religious belief prompted Moses to return to Egypt and ask the rulers of Egypt for permission to take out of Egypt with him the Semites who dwelt in Egypt. The Egyptians had retaken their ancient land. The rulers of Egypt treated the Semites in the manner customary at that time for victors to treat the vanquished. As related in the Old Testament, the new rulers of Egypt regarded the Semite population as a potential "fifth column" and were happy for security reasons to grant Moses the permission he requested.

Moses transplanted this large Semite population from Egypt into the Sinai desert in the area inhabited by the Kennites. (This historic event was recently duplicated in Europe when 10,000,000 Germans in that area of eastern Germany annexed by Poland after World War II were transplanted into Western Germany by Poland for security reasons). Moses attempted to convert the desert-dwelling, pagan Egyptian exiles from idolatry to the worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). Moses died in the attempt at the age of 94 without having succeeded in doing it.

FIRST JUDAIC CONVERTS

No more possible for a "Jewish race" to have existed than "Christian race" or "Moslem race"

In the period between Joshua's invasion of Canaan about 1400 B.C. and the Birth of Christ, the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) was carried over the trans-continental caravan routes into many distant lands by missionaries of the Yaweh (Jehovah) priesthood. The outstanding world's classic on this subject is "The Lost Tribes a Myth, Suggestions Towards Rewriting Hebrew History", by the immortal Allen H. Godbey, Professor in Old Testament in Duke University, (published 1930, Duke University Press, Durham, North Carolina, U.S.A.) That volume supplies incontestable evidence with facts, maps, and photographs which prove to the most skeptical that the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) became the religious belief of large numbers of the native populations of India, Ethiopia, Morocco and all the North African nations, Portugal, Spain, Italy, France, Germany and England almost two thousand years before the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism.

The converts to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) in all these countries included every race known to have existed in these areas. The converts to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) were populations native to these countries. After their conversion they retained their native languages, their native customs, and their native cultures. While all this was taking place the pagan Khazar tribal-nation was still deep in the heart of Asia, thousands of miles removed from this development. The conversion of the Khazars to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) occurred almost 2000 years later.

In view of the abundant historic and scientific data on this subject, it is certain that the Judaic populations (Yaweh-Jehovah worshippers) which existed among the civilized nations of the world prior to the conversion of the Khazars were not transplanted into these countries by the immigration of fugitives fleeing to escape from the battle-grounds of the Near East. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines work day and night to make the world believe otherwise. The Holy Land area is not the "homeland" of a "dispersed Jewish race." The "homeland" of the Judaic population of any country in the world is the country of origin of their Judaized ancestors. In the case of Yiddish Marxists their homeland is deep in the heart of Asia, or, for the past 2000 years, deep in the heart of eastern Europe. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines insult the intelligence of the public with their audacious references to Palestine as the "homeland" of a "dispersed Jewish race." Authentic data regarding the peoples of Palestine up to the time of the Romans in 70 A.D. is to be found in "The Hebrewisms of West Africa, From Nile to Niger with the Jews." by Joseph J. Williams, (published 1931, The Dial Press, New York, N.Y.) It is recommended reading for all those who are interested in the subject.

JEW, JEWISH & JUDAISM

Modern Anglicized versions of ancient Semitic words which have lost their original meanings

After the death of Moses the desert-dwelling Egyptian exiles invaded neighboring Canaan under the leadership of Joshua, successor to Moses. The desert-dwelling Egyptian exiles who invaded Canaan are known to history as "Hebrews." The Canaanites called the invaders of their land "ibrai," or "Hebrews." "Ibrai" is a Semitic word meaning "over on the other side of the river." The Anglicized form of "Ibrai" is "Hebrew." The Egyptians invaded Canaan from "over on the other side of the river" Jordan. Canaan was located to the west of the Jordan and the invading desert-dwelling, former Egyptians were located to the east of the Jordan.

The word "Hebrew" is a word which originally had a geographic significance. The word "Hebrew" did not have a religious, racial, or national significance. The use of the word "Hebrew" to designate a race, a religion or a nation is incorrect. Propaganda has given the word a quasi-religious implication which is incorrect.

The desert-dwelling Egyptian conquerors under Joshua divided into several small separate nations after their conquest of Canaan and appear in Bible history under various names. Among the nations established by these so-called Hebrews in this small area the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) developed into a more highly-organized religious worship than it did among the other Semite nations in the area extending from Persia to Egypt. The religion had no name yet.

In imitation of the manner in which religious worship was then practiced in Egypt, the Hebrews erected many large temples in their new homeland for the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah.) This newly-developed, highly-organized worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) created a priesthood which became a powerful faction among the ruling classes. Between 1200 B.C. and 1000 B.C. the worship of Jehovah by the Hebrews developed into a religion with pomp and ceremony on a scale never before associated with religious worship. This formal religious belief had no name. It was Josephus Flavius who in the First Century A.D. called this religion Judaism. The name Judaism was not used again since that time as a name for that religious belief until recent times when Jews commenced to call their religion Judaism.

KHAZARS NOT SEMITES

There is not a single historic or scientific fact to support claim Khazars were Semites

Yiddish people form the large Judaic population in eastern Europe as a result of the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism late in the 7th Century A. D. However, it was not until the 11th Century A.D. that the Judaized Khazars invented the word "Yid" and "Yiddish" by which they chose to be identified thereafter. Prior to the 11th Century A. D. the Yiddish people were known as the Judaized Khazars. During this period the language spoken by the Judaized Khazars was known as the Khazar language. When the Yiddish people elected to refer to themselves as Yiddish rather than as Khazars, the language which they spoke thereafter became known as the "Yiddish language."

KHAZARS NOT SEMITIES

Prior to the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism in the 7th Century A.D. "Yahudi" was the universally accepted Semitic word used in all parts of the world to describe the native populations professing Judaism as their religious belief. "Yahudi" is today the word in the Semitic languages which describes persons professing Judaism as their religious belief. During the conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by the Russians in the 10th and 11th Centuries A.D. many of the wealthy Judaized Khazars fled to foreign lands like the wealthy French fled when Hitler invaded France. When the Judaized Khazars arrived in Syria, Egypt, Italy, Spain, and other western European countries, they met co-religionists about whom they had never known. For some reason the Judaized Khazars objected to reference to themselves as "Yahudi." At this time the Judaized Khazar refugees invented the word "Yid" as the term by which they preferred to be identified. "Yiddish" is the adjective form of the noun "Yid". The Jewish Encyclopaedia makes very interesting disclosures regarding the origin of the word "Yiddish" and the disappearance from history of the word "Khazar." In Vol. VII, page 175, the following reference succinctly summarizes the history of this evolution, in the following quotation;

"Among Russian Jews a distinction is made between Yahudi . . . and Yid, one of Russian or Lithuanian extraction."

The Judaized Khazars originally came from the heart of Asia. About the First Century B.C. an Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloid tribal-nation called the Khazars, invaded eastern Europe through the land passage between the Urals and the Caspian Sea. In their ancient Asiatic homeland, the Khazars inhabited the territory in Central Asia in the area where today the north-west Chinese province of Sinkiang is situated. After the invasion of eastern Europe by these war-like Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the Khazars in rapid succession conquered 25 pastoral nations which had peacefully occupied that territory from pre-historic times. The Khazar Kingdom grew rapidly and was soon recognized as the most powerful nation in Europe.

The Khazars were the greatest military power in Europe between the 5th and 10th Centuries A.D. Their military power completely dominated the entire area of eastern Europe. The Khazars were a pagan nation until 692 A.D. when the Khazar King, Bulan, the Khazar nobles, and the Khazar nation were converted to Judaism. The Khazar kings imported Talmudic Rabbis from Babylonia and built synagogues and schools throughout the Khazar Kingdom for the education of the Khazars in the Talmud. Talmudic law became the code under which their civil life was administered. Civil administration of the Khazar Kingdom was in the hands of the Talmudic rabbis as in ancient times. The Talmudic rabbis who had been imported into the Khazar Kingdom from Babylonia introduced the primitive form of religious worship practiced in the ancient temples and the theocratic form of civil administration practiced in ancient times.

RUSSIA GETS KHAZARS

In the 10th-11th Centuries Russia conquered Judaized Khazars merging them into Russia

The modern Judaic population of eastern European countries, known as Yiddish people, were known as the Khazar Kingdom before the 11th Century A.D. The Khazar Kingdom at one time occupied 800,000 square miles extending from the Black Sea northward to the Gulf of Finland, and from the Urals westward to the middle of Europe. Before its conquest by the Russians and its merger into Russia in the 10th and 11th Century, the Khazar Kingdom was the largest and most powerful state in Europe. It is not a generally known fact that Russia did not exist prior to the 9th Century A.D. Prior to the 9th Century A.D. to the north of the Khazar Kingdom there existed a large wandering population of nomadic Slavs. This roving, nomadic Slav population existed in a primitive state of civilization without even family life.

About the 9th Century A.D. a small group

of immigrants from the Scandinavian peninsula landed amongst these Slavs and settled there permanently. These Scandinavian immigrants are known to history as the Varangians. These Scandinavians organized the nomadic Slavs into a small state of a few thousand square miles, smaller than the State of Rhode Island and called it the Principality of Ros. This new, tiny, Slav nation to the north of the Khazar Kingdom grew in size by victory after victory and became ultimately the Russian Empire. About the 10th Century A.D. this new, tiny, Russian nation conquered the Khazar Kingdom. The victorious Russians merged into the rapidly expanding Russian state the territory and the population of the Khazar Kingdom. At the time of the conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by the Russians in the 10th-11th Centuries, the Khazars had been Judaized for many centuries.

The Khazars were Judaized in the 7th Century A.D. Prior to that time they were a pagan nation of phallic-worshippers. The conversion of the Khazars to Judaism about 692 A.D. is responsible for the presence in eastern Europe of large Judaic populations. After the Judaized Khazars were merged into the population of the expanding Russian state, the name Khazar disappears from history. The Judaized Khazar population, known after their conquest as the Yiddish population, resisted assimilation into the Russian nation. The Judaized Khazars retained their former language, their form of religious worship and the customs and culture resulting from their strict observance of Talmudic law. The resistance of the Yiddish population to assimilation created many problems for the Russians. The Russians had a language of their own, an alphabet of their own, and since the year 986 A.D. Christianity was the state religion in Russia. Prince Vladimir III, the ruler of Russia, was converted to Christianity in 986 A.D. He attempted to make Christianity the religion of all the Russian people including the former Judaized Khazars but in that he was not successful.

JUDAIZED KHAZARS NOW

Eastern European Judaic populations and the world-wide colonies of Yiddish emigrants

The conversion of the Khazars in the 7th Century and their conquest by the Russians in the 10th-11th Centuries explains the presence in modern times in Russia, Poland, Lithuania, Hungary, Austria (Galicia), Czechoslovakia and Rumania of their large Judaic populations, all indicating identical racial origin, all speaking an identical language foreign to the balance of the native populations, all observing identical customs, all clinging to an identical culture, and all practicing their common religious belief with identical formalities duplicating the ancient Babylonian Talmudic rituals.

Between the 12th Century and the 18th Century Russia suffered many defeats at the hands of the rapidly-expanding small Central European nations. Russia was defeated by Poland, Lithuania, Hungary, Austria (Galicia), Rumania and others. The nations which defeated Russia each obtained a piece of Russian territory. The territories obtained by them were formerly part of the Khazar Kingdom. Those victorious nations, acquired with the former territory of the Khazar Kingdom the captive Judaized Khazars who inhabited them. The population was transferred with the territory as it has been done all through history.

The Judaized Khazars were the ancestors of present Judaic Russians, Judaic Poles, Judaic Lithuanians, Judaic Galicians (Austrians), Judaic Hungarians, Judaic Czechs, and Judaic Rumanians. That part of the population included in these nations formed the Judaized Kingdom before its conquest and subsequent cutting-up. There are now many different nationalities included among the homogenous racial and religious group indigenous to this large area. Neither they nor their ancestors immigrated to that area from the Near East of Bible history before, during, or after the historic events in Bible history.

LET HISTORY SPEAK

It is not possible to obtain better evidence than to go to world's leading authorities

The greatest of all historians on the subject of Judaism is the celebrated Professor H. Graetz. Judaic scholars recognize the works of their eminent co-religionist as the most authentic presentation of their history. In his "History of Jews," published in 1894 by the Jewish Publication Society of Philadelphia, before Yiddish Marxists or their "fronts" acquired control of the foremost fight communism with common sense

Judaic publishing houses in this country, Professor Graetz presents the results of his research about the Khazars as follows;

"The Heathen king of a barbarian people, living in the north, together with all his court, adopted the Jewish religion. The Khazars . . . a nation of Finnish origin . . . had settled after the dissolution of the empire of the Huns, on the frontier between Europe and Asia. They founded a kingdom on the Volga at the place near which it runs into the Caspian Sea . . . Their kings . . . led these warlike sons of the steppe from victory to victory. The Khazars inspired the Persians with so great a dread that one of their kings, Chosroes, found no other way of protecting his dominions against their violent invasions than by building a stone wall which blocked up the passes between the Caucasus and the sea. But this "gate of gates" did not long serve as a barrier against the warlike courage of the Khazars. After the fall of the Persian empire they crossed the Caucasus, invaded Armenia, and conquered the Crimean peninsula, which bore the name of Khazaria for some time. The Byzantine emperors trembled at the name of the Khazars, flattered them, and paid them a tribute, in order to restrain their lust after the loot of Constantinople. The Bulgarians, and other tribes, were the vassals of the Khazars, and the people of Kiev were obliged to pay them as an annual tax a sword and a fine skin for every household. WITH THE ARABS, WHOSE NEIGHBORS THEY GRADUALLY BECAME, THEY CARRIED ON TERRIBLE WARS.

Like their neighbors . . . the Khazars professed a coarse religion, which was combined with sensuality and lewdness . . . King Bulan conceived a horror of the foul idolatry of his ancestors, and prohibited its exercise within his dominions . . . The Jewish sage who was the means of obtaining Bulan's conversion is supposed to have been Isaac Sanjari . . . circumstances under which Khazars embraced Judaism . . . is a fact itself too definitely proved on all sides to allow any doubt as to its reality . . . A successor of Bulan, who bore the name of Obadiah . . . invited sages to settle in his dominion, rewarded them royally, founded synagogues and schools, caused instruction to be given to himself and to his people in the Bible and THE TALMUD, and introduced a divine service modelled on that of the ANCIENT COMMUNITIES . . . After Obadiah came a long series of Jewish kings, for according to a fundamental law of the state ONLY JEWISH RULERS were permitted to ASCEND THE THRONE . . . For some time the JEWS OF OTHER COUNTRIES HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE CONVERSION OF THIS POWERFUL KINGDOM TO JUDAISM, and when at last a vague rumor to this effect reached them, they were of the OPINION that Khazaria was peopled by the REMNANT OF THE FORMER TEN TRIBE!! (emphasis not authors.)

MARXISM AND ZIONISM

Zionism of Yiddish Marxists is an instrument to implement campaign for world-domination

Yiddish Marxists invented the Zionist movement. Yiddish Marxists developed the Zionist movement into the most subtle instrument for aggression to the history of the world. Yiddish Marxists use Zionism as an anaesthetic upon the world before they operate. Zionism has been a very satisfactory cloak behind which Yiddish Marxists have been able to conceal their plans for world-domination. Day by day it becomes more apparent that Zionist aggression in Palestine was not organized to "repatriate" the exiled "chosen people" to their "homeland," the "Promised Land" which the maker of the promise was unable to perform without the help of Yiddish Marxists. Yiddish Marxists used Zionism to establish a "beach-head" for communism (Marxism) in the strategic Near East area with its limitless natural resources including oil and chemicals. It was "hitting below the belt" to make the American government take the lead in carrying out this conspiracy between the Zionists and the Soviet Union to establish a "beach-head" for communism (Marxist) in the Near East.

Americans are to be excused for feeling that Marxism (communism), Zionism, and Judaism are all one and the same thing. Yiddish Marxists wish Americans to feel that way. They manufacture the confusion necessary to create more confusion. Such a conclusion is false. However, Yiddish Marxists have virtually "taken over" Judaism, "lock, stock, and barrel." This story is too long and complicated to recite here. There are groups of loyal, patriotic Judaic Americans who are fighting Yiddish Marxists. Yiddish Marxists smear these courageous Judaic Americans as "anti-Semites," "Jew baiters," "Hitlerites," and "Jewish Gerald L. K. Smiths." Every genuine American owes a vote of thanks to men like Lesing Rosenwald and Rabbi Elmer Berger of the American Council for Judaism for what they are doing to expose Yiddish Marxists and all the Judaic organizations which cringe before, and curry the favor of Yiddish Marxist power. Americans who know what is best for the country welcome the cooperation of Judaic Americans who are members of the American Council for Judaism. Excepting this group, and their silent Judaic sympathizers, it can be safely stated that the world-wide religious organization incorrectly referred to as the "Jewish religion" is under the complete domination of Yiddish Marxists via Zionism, and used by them to accelerate the fulfillment of the "historic mission" of Karl Marx.

HEBREW (?) ALPHABET

Hebrew (?) alphabet adopted by Judaized Khazars for Khazar language, now the Yiddish language

At the time of the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism their language had no written form because there was no alphabet for the language. The primitive Khazar culture required no written language. Upon the occasion of his conversion to Judaism the Khazar King saw the Hebrew alphabet for the first time. He was impressed with the advantages of an alphabet for a spoken language. The Khazar king, Bulan, ordered the alphabet of the Bible to be used as the alphabet for the Khazar language.

The alphabet of the Bible, called the Hebrew alphabet, is the alphabet adopted from the Canaanites by the invading desert-dwelling former Egyptians under Joshua. These Egyptian exiles were illiterates having lived in the Sinai desert about forty years without the benefit of culture. The invaders under Joshua found a high degree of culture among the Canaanites. Their language was enriched by the assimilation of the Canaanite vocabulary.

The Christian public is misled into believing that the Yiddish people are the "chosen people" of the Bible because their alphabet is the same as the alphabet which appears in the versions of the Bible printed in Hebrew.

However, there is not one word of the Hebrew language in Yiddish, the modern name for the native language of the Judaized Khazars.

JUDAISM NOW CAPTIVE

Yiddish Marxists have worked for a century for dictatorship over world-wide Judaism

With the rare exception of a few congregations, Judaism as a practicing religious belief has been captured, "lock, stock, and barrel," by Yiddish Marxist fronts. The form of Zionism with which the world has become very familiar in recent years was organized over fifty years ago as the catalyst by which Yiddish Marxists obtained world-wide control of Judaic congregations of all nationalities. Yiddish Marxists made Zionism the common denominator for infiltrating congregations where they previously were excluded. In recent years Hitler made their task easier for them. The public swallowed the Yiddish Marxist propaganda about the 6,000,000 Jews which Hitler threw into furnaces and gas-chambers although Hanson W. Baldwin in the New York Times of February 22, 1948 supplies proof that there were more Jews in the world in 1948 than there were in 1939, and Hanson W. Baldwin is never wrong when it comes to statistics, and the New York Times would hardly print it unless they also were sure of the facts.

The Yiddish Marxist high-command forbade rabbis to refer to Marxism (communism) unfavorably from their pulpits or elsewhere. Rabbi Schultz was dismissed from his post as rabbi with a prominent synagogue in Yonkers, N.Y. because he dared to excoriate Marxism (communism) from his pulpit and in newspaper statements. This rabbi was penniless but he was dumped out of his position for talking against Marxism (communism). This case received a lot of publicity and there were probably others which did not. If Judaism as a practicing religion is not under the control of Yiddish Marxists why doesn't the organized rabbinate publicly express themselves against Marxism (communism) like other anti-Marxist (anti-communist) practicing religious organizations. The Catholic Church and certain Protestant denominations have set a good pattern for the rabbinate if they desire to do so.

"BIG LIE" PROPAGANDA

Marxists teach the bigger the lie is, and the more often it is told, the more it is believed

Apologists for Marxism express the view that Marxism must have merit or it could not have succeeded to such a great extent in so few years. Two important facts are overlooked by apologists for Marxism. Firstly, Marxism had its origin in a period of history when a form of autocracy existed which deserved to be fought. It was a form of autocracy, however, which was disappearing rapidly throughout Europe, particularly in the geographic area in which Marxism had its origin. Secondly, Marxism had thus far been successfully introduced only into those countries which have been tremendously weakened by long periods of military reverses. Marxism has never been introduced successfully into any country which has not been physically and spiritually exhausted by the attrition of military reverses.

Without world-wars there are no war-weary populations to whom Marxists can hold out the Marxist promise of a Utopia. The impact of war upon nations is reflected in the political, social, and economic reactions with which the world is quite familiar. Marxists know that disappearing political, social, and economic autocracies make it necessary for Marxists to seek other fields in search of valid arguments to justify Marxist world-revolution. In the recent past, world wars have supplied Marxism with all the arguments it required to wage its war against civilized society.

The public attention is being called to these symptoms every day by great American patriots. Add these symptoms together and what do they add up to? The answer is surprisingly simple. Add up what has been revealed by such patriots as John O'Donnell, writing in the New York Daily News, by Westbrook Pegler, George E. Sokolsky and Leslie Gould, writing in the New York Journal American and by Victor Riesel in the New York Daily Mirror. Add up what has been revealed by Congressman Martin W. Dies, Congressman J. Parnell Thomas and Congressman Richard T. Nixon of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Add up what has been revealed by Whittaker Chambers, Professor Louis Budenz, Doctor J. B. Matthews and Major George Racey Jordan. Add up what has been revealed by Fulton Lewis Jr. on his broadcasts over the Mutual Radio Network. What do all these symptoms add up to? "There are none so blind as those who will not see."

The incontestable facts revealed by these patriots prove beyond the shadow of a doubt the existence in this country, for more than thirty years, of counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. During all this period they have been acting as spies for an avowed enemy of this country. The patriots mentioned above, in their publicity, have not been able to reveal to the American public the fundamental and basic reasons for this deplorable condition. The press and the radio are muzzled by the friends of the traitors. The effectiveness of this censorship is amazing. This censorship will not permit historic and scientific facts to be mentioned, in newspapers, magazines or on the air, which would alert the American public to their danger. When these facts accidentally slip through this censorship retractions or apologies must be forthcoming or the advertising revenue of the offender rapidly shrinks. The powerful New York Daily News and the Chicago Tribune have each submitted to this form of blackmail to avoid the loss of advertising revenue essential to their profitable operation. "Blackmail" is a mild word for it.

The American people are living in the hope unless the United States drops an atom-bomb first on the Soviet Union or a satellite state, that the Soviet Union will not unload its atom-bombs on the United States. "Hope springs eternal in the human heart." There is no guarantee that the Soviet Union will adopt that strategy. It is "wishful thinking" by those who have very little choice in the matter. That decision no longer rests in the hands of the American people. The initiative for the choice is not now theirs.

The American people are not dumb animals. The American people cannot be stampeded like dumb animals. United World Federalists and their collaborators for Soviet Union world-domination apparently regard the American people as dumb animals. It must be admitted that the American people were stampeded into United Nations under emotional stress and effective misrepresentation. It is too much for them to expect that the American people will make the same mistake twice. When dumb animals are stampeded by emotional excitement they usually go over the edge of a precipice to their finish. It behooves the American people not to be stampeded over the edge of a world-government precipice. The Divinity which directs the destiny of this nation may not be inclined to exhibit the degree of help extended to dumb animals.

The unwritten histories of the Soviet Union and its satellites will bear witness to the Marxist policy of destroying middle and upper classes when "dictatorship of the proletariat" establishes a Marxist regime. Recent photographs appearing in the newspapers give evidence that the North Korean Marxists respected this Marxist doctrine when they invaded South Korea. North Korean Marxists placed the middle and upper class South Koreans in slave-labor camps when they invaded South Korea. These people were only guilty of owning property, believing in popular government, or belonging to a religious organization. For these crimes they were treated as slaves. When forced to retreat, the North Korean Marxists slaughtered these people to reduce potential opposition when they return again, as they plan to do. That same fate awaits the middle and upper classes in all countries for the same reasons when Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" establish the "classless society" as they make progress with their world-revolution.

SURVIVAL HOPEFUL

People who made U.S.A. man's greatest tribute to God will not abandon the world to atheists

Who are the Marxists? What makes them Marxists? What is Marxism? Unless every American worthy of the name takes the time necessary to seek the answers to these questions the chances for survival of the nation are very slim. The answers to these questions will "pin-point" for the American people their real enemies. Before the time when bomb-sights were invented which enabled bombing planes to "pin-point" their targets, air power effectiveness was at its very lowest level.

Where is the central source of the authority which exercises this power over these counterfeit Americans? Whose brains control their muscles? Who constitutes the unseen force to which these masquerading Americans pay allegiance? Do the hands on the face of a watch go around by themselves? Do the wheels inside the watch go around by themselves? The answer is "no." It is the little mainspring concealed deep down inside the watch which makes the hands move and the wheels go around. Without a mainspring no watch will tick! There is a "mainspring" which makes the Soviet Union spy-rings inside this country "tick." It is this "mainspring" which makes the "hands move and the wheels go around" of the Soviet Union spy rings in every country of the world. Who constitutes this "mainspring?" The Yiddish Marxists!!

The arrests and convictions of Judith Coplon, Alger Hiss, Harry Bridges, the eleven Communist Party Politburo high-command in New York, and the ten Hollywood screen writers illustrate the dangerous practice of treating the symptoms, and stopping there. Thousands of such arrests and convictions cannot eliminate the cause which is responsible for them. Too much attention is being paid to effect, and not enough to cause. It is this policy which may prove fatal. The life of the nation depends upon a correct diagnosis of the cause which produces these symptoms. "Time is of the essence," was never more appropriate. The gravity of the situation cannot be exaggerated. "It is later than you think," describes "the State of the Union" quite appropriately unless it is "too late to think."

If this nation is to survive, Americans at "grass-roots" level must discover the nature of the disease which is now threatening its existence. Only in that way will the American people be able to replace the treatment of symptoms with treatment of the disease itself. The treatment of symptoms instead of the treatment of the disease must ultimately prove fatal. Frequent headaches may not be recognized as the symptom of deadly high blood pressure. Digestive disturbances may not be recognized as the symptom of a malignant cancer. Chest pains may not be recognized as the symptom of a critical cardiac condition. Unless detected and corrected in the early stage, these unseen, unsuspected maladies soon prove fatal. Action must be taken while there is still time to save the patient's life. It may be sad if the needed aid arrives too late, but regrets have never yet brought a corpse back to life.

The historic and scientific facts presented here will enable Americans to draw their own conclusions. The American people can always be relied upon to act intelligently when they are given the facts. The historic and scientific facts assembled here are the result of intensive and expensive research. It now becomes the duty of every patriotic American to familiarize himself with them fully. "Knowledge is power." Never was this "power" more vital to the security and defense of the American people. The facts assembled here are in reality a Twentieth Century Magna Charta for the American people. These facts can give them the power to protect themselves against the threat of the most barbarous form of tyranny ever conceived in the mind of man. Read now, or repent later. No American can now say, "Why wasn't I told about this before so that I could do something about it?" The time is very late but there still may be time "to do something about it!" Wake up, sleepy-heads!

TELL HOW TO HELP

Give genuine Americans a chance to be heard and they'll say, "Give me liberty or give me death"

It paralyzes the imagination to picture this nation, with a large fraction of its total population either burned to a cinder, fried to death, or victims of radio-active burns, buried under the ruins of a coast-to-coast atom-bomb blitz, and asking the Soviet Union for terms of surrender. It is not conceivable for the average American to even imagine what those terms will be like. The terms for surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union will make the "unconditional surrender" terms offered to Germany and Japan seem in comparison like the most generous peace proposal ever offered to a defeated enemy in all the recorded annals of history.

The "we-never-lost-a-war" attitude of the American people must not become a psychosis which can prove fatal. That psychology applied to an era which is a closed book in our history. A new era opened with the discovery of the atom-bomb. The territory of this country is now threatened by a foreign power for the first time since the burning of the city of Washington by the British in the War of 1812. Every square foot of this country at this moment faces a fate so very much worse. This "we-never-lost-a-war" psychology may prove the reason for losing the next war. The nation has been told by its most responsible leaders that the next war may end in defeat. "We-can-lose-the-next-war" is the realistic attitude which should be adopted by the American people under the circumstances.

Three steps must be taken at once if the nation is to survive the peril with which it is faced. This is the first step. Fix the responsibility for the danger which now threatens its existence. This is the second step. Prevent any further deterioration in the domestic factors which are vital to the preservation of the American heritage. This is the third step. Promptly and adequately prepare to meet any military challenge by the Soviet Union. These three steps are the A,B,C of keeping this nation from following in the footsteps of other victims of Soviet Union aggression. Ignorance may be blissful, but wisdom in this matter will prove to be anything but foolish despite what the proverb states to the contrary.

Failure to give prompt and proper consideration, and attention to the first of these three steps, will make it utterly impossible to hope for success in the second and third of these three steps. In such an event, the consequent calamity to the nation beggars description. Only very fast thinking, and faster action, are now able to avert the slaughter and defeat which appear at this moment both imminent and inevitable.

Having walked in a Fool's Paradise for five years, (1945-1950,) this nation now finds itself face to face with the possibility of meeting the fate which has befallen Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania and other victims of the Soviet Union's "creeping conquest." The fate of these nations was sealed due to the ignorance or the indifference of the masses at the "grass-roots" level. The fate of this nation may be decided by either, or both, of these identical reasons. The "it-can't-happen-here" attitude of the American people at the "grass-roots" level may prove to be the reason for a "too-little-and-to-late" defense against an undeserved and unhappy fate. The smug sense of security of the American people should have gone up in the smoke of the first atom-bomb explosion in the Soviet Union.

PIN-POINT U.S.S.R. AGENTS

The F.B.I. should start at once to pin-point U.S.S.R. agents regardless of political pull

Until bombing planes were able to "pin-point" their targets the enemy had little to fear from air-power. In World War II the enemy was not put out of business by "saturation" bombing, dropping a thousand or more bombs on a single target at one time hoping that some of them would hit. The enemy was quickly put out of business, however, by "pin-point" bombing. "Pin-point" bombing made "saturation" bombing as obsolete as the muzzle-loading flint-lock musket.

Now is not a time to try "saturation" bombing. Now is the time to use "pin-point" bombing. The real enemies of the nation must be ferreted out with "pin-point" methods. They can be properly dealt with then. They must first be discovered. It has been truly stated that in order to make a rabbit-stew the first thing to do is to catch the rabbit. But before it is possible to catch the rabbit it is necessary to have an idea what a rabbit looks like.

It hardly seems that "pin-point" bomb-sights will be required to locate the real enemies of this nation. The "rabbits" have revealed their identity openly. The real enemies of the nation are the Marxists. Marxists are the apostles of Karl Marx. They are the disciples of Marxism. They preach humanity in a straght-jacket of the ideologies taught by Karl Marx. They boast that the American heritage will soon be replaced by a Marxists dictatorship. They proclaim the purpose, policy, and program of Marxism as the historic successor to the God-given right of every human being to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The American people today are treating symptoms. The American public, with few exceptions, are totally unaware of the truth about the disease which spells their doom. As in the case of all malignant maladies, time is working on the side of the disease. Now is the time for patriotic Americans to learn "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." Nothing is more necessary, nothing more is necessary. Less than the whole truth robs the American people of their chance to protect their priceless heritage. If it is lost now, it is lost forever.

ANTI-SEMITIC SMEAR BAD

More than 95% of the Semites were Christians and Arabs. Only the uninformed fear that smear

In explaining the "mainspring" of the world revolution, and describing the implications of its impact upon the American heritage there is neither the intention, nor the necessity, nor the desire, to cast aspersions upon any specific religious denomination nor upon any racial group. Much confusion exists on this point of view. There is great confusion on this question. This confusion is created intentionally. This confusion is intended as a "smoke-screen" behind which the "mainspring" can carry on its work without detection or opposition. The beneficiaries of this confusion are the very people who create it. They distort as "religious persecution" measures of self-defense against their aggression. The measure of their success in creating confusion to conceal their conspiracies will be the measure of their ultimate success in the war they are waging for world-domination. The time has come to put an end to this confusion. History, not propaganda, claims all the pride of authorship for the facts presented here. These facts disprove the vicious propaganda which brands resistance to aggression "religious persecution."

The B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League and other direct or indirect wheels-within-wheels of the Yiddish Marxist propaganda machine have made the word "anti-Semitic" their most deadly weapon. If an American makes a public attack upon Marxism (communism) he immediately becomes the target for numberless propagandists who brand him "anti-Semitic." The word "anti-Semitic" has been made to stand for a Christian American who hates other persons for no other reason than they worship God in a synagogue and not in a church. Christian Americans judge all people by their character and their conduct, by their attitudes and their actions, and not by the sign on the building where they enter to worship God. But God have mercy upon the person who has to earn a living when he is branded "anti-Semitic" in this country by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines.

It must be emphasized in no uncertain terms that reference to Yiddish Marxists is not intended as a reflection on individuals or groups by reason of the fact that they profess Judaism as their alleged religious belief. Neither is it intended to cast aspersions upon Judaism as practiced by countless Judaic Americans as the vehicle which, by accident of birth, brings them into closer unity with the God of all peoples. Yiddish propagandists wish Christian Americans to believe that Yiddish and Jewish have the same relationship that "wop" or "dago" have to Italian, etc. etc. Yiddish has no more connection with Jewish than Irish has with Catholic. The Irish nation was converted to Christianity in the 10th. Century. The Yiddish nation (Khazars) were converted to Judaism in the 7th. Century. When Sophie Tucker sings "My Yiddish Mama" the Yiddish people stand up and cheer. If a Christian American uses the word Yiddish he is immediately branded "anti-Semitic," it is very important to "keep the record straight" on that point. Yiddish is not Jewish!

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE & ANNA M. ROSENBERG

"Washington's female Felix Frankfurter... has had her finger in all sorts of pies."

DUPES OR DOPES, - OR BOTH! THEY? NO, WE!

There comes the time when a nation must make the decision which spells life or death. For the U.S.A. that time is NOW!

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE GEORGE C. MARSHALL AND ANNA M. ROSENBERG

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN JEWRY lists Anna M. Rosenberg as a "government executive." AMERICAN WOMEN lists her as a "government official." WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA lists Anna M. Rosenberg in business privately as, "since 1924 a Public Labor and Personnel Relations Counsel." It is obvious that her numerous public offices proved of great value to her particular type of private business enterprise. Anna M. Rosenberg, born Lederer, was born June 13, 1902 in Budapest Hungary, and received her education in the grammar schools (gymnasiums) there. WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN JEWRY states that she "came to New York City in 1916" while WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA states that she was "brought to the United States in 1912," where she attended Wadleigh High School in New York City. It appears that Anna M. Rosenberg became a naturalized citizen through her marriage in 1919 to Julius Rosenberg, an American citizen engaged in the rug business. According to her own WHO'S WHO she first entered public life as the chief-in-charge of the Recreation Center of the Debarcation Hospital, Sixth Avenue & 18th Street, New York City, during World War I. This was a great responsibility to "thrust" upon a 17-19 year old immigrant girl. With the advent of another Democratic Administration she again entered public life on a part-time basis. Her government affiliations included the following: Director, Region No. 2, and New York State Compliance Director, National Recovery Administration (NRA) 1934-1935; Director, Region No. 2 Social Security Board 1936-1943; Member Governor's Constitutional Convention Commission since 1937; Chairman sub-committee on Bill of Rights and General Welfare, New York State Constitutional Convention 1937; Member of Commission appointed by President Roosevelt to study

Industrial conditions in Great Britain and Sweden, 1938; Member Laguardia's New York City Industrial Relations Board, 1937; Member Mayor's Transit Advisory Board; Member Executive Committee Mayor's Business Advisory Commission of New York City; Member Advisory Committee on policy, Office Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs; Regional Director, War Manpower Commission 1942-1945; Consultant, Retraining and Reemployment Administration, 1941-1945; Personal representative of President Roosevelt (1944) and President Truman (1945) to European Theater of War to report on problems of returning soldiers; Member American Commission for UNESCO (Eleanor Roosevelt's baby); Member, Advisory Committee on Compulsory Military Training; Member, Film Council of America; Member, War Mobilization and Reconversion Board; Organizer and Chairman Executive Committee, New York Defense Recreation Commission; 1941-1946; Consultant on Manpower Problems to Chairman National Security Resources Board; Member, Technical Advisory Council, National Planning Association; Appointed by President Roosevelt to a top position in the Office of Civilian Defense with Henry Monckey, President of B'nai B'rith and ex-Ambassador William Bullitt; Member, Federal Advisory Council, Bureau Employment Security; Member, Executive Committee, United Seamen's Service; Member, Committee for Mental Hygiene, American Society for Public Administration; Executive Assistant for New York National Emergency Council, Philanthropic interests; National Council of Jewish Women; Executive Director, Women's Division, United Palestine Appeal; ORT Reconstruction Fund; Executive Director, Joint Distribution Committee of Jewish Charities, Scheduled speaker at (Socialist) Camp Tamiment, (New York Post, June 4, 1937).

The New York Times printed an article which establishes the interest of Mrs. Rosenberg in the communist John Reed Clubs. The New York Times gave considerable prominence to a public protest by the John Reed Clubs and Mrs. Rosenberg was one of the signers of this protest. The New York Times article bore the signatures of the signers of the protest and these included the signature of Mrs. Rosenberg. The article is reproduced in the following pages and it makes very interesting reading under the circumstances.

The John Reed Clubs were communist groups. The report of the Un-American Activities Committee on the John Reed Clubs is reproduced in the following pages of this issue. It is the duty of every loyal American to acquaint himself with the contents of that report. Any person guilty of any relationship with the John Reed Clubs is not a person to hold the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. Association with the people who were members of the John Reed Clubs is enough to disqualify anyone from holding a position of high trust in the Department of Defense under the circumstances which now exist. Mrs. Rosenberg is cited in that report.

Mrs. Rosenberg is also cited by name in Appendix IX, page 660, 939, 1782 and 1792 of the Report of the Un-American Activities Committee. In these citations reference is made to Mrs. Rosenberg's interest in a communist "front" and in a communist "transmission belt." Space will not permit reprinting in this issue the details of these additional citations. It would appear unnecessary at this time.

The appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense was not the free and willing act of the authorities who are qualified and competent to make the choice of the person to fill that office. The appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg is the result of pressure by representatives of an international group which is conducting its creeping conquest of the United States by the same methods they employed so successfully in the complete conquest of Russia, Poland, Hungary, Czecho-Slovakia, Rumania and other lesser nations and the partial conquest to date of China, England, France, Belgium, Italy and several South American countries.

The appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense of the United States in this critical hour was engineered by the representatives of an international group which is more interested in the surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union' demands than in the defense of the United States against the military might of the Soviet Union. The appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense required audacity. Karl Marx impressed upon his followers that without audacity the world revolution could not succeed. Aggression is futile without audacity. The audacity required to pressure the Administration into appointing Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense confirms the source of the aggression behind this move.

It will be a great blow to the American people if the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg is confirmed by the Senate when it reconvenes in Washington on November 27th. This confirmation by the Senate will be another step in the wrong direction. It will be another means to the end which spells disaster for the American people. It will be another victory for the representatives of the international group which plans to obtain the same control over the United States in 1952 which they obtained over Russia in 1917. The confirmation of Mrs. Rosenberg by the Senate will offer great encouragement to accelerate the program for the transformation of the United States into another Marxist state.

It cannot be emphasized too strongly that opposition to the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense is in no way influenced by the fact that Mrs. Rosenberg professes Judaism as her religious belief. That is the hue and cry which will be given forth abundantly by the high powered propaganda machines of the representatives of the international group seeking control of the Department of Defense of the United States. As usual, when they cannot deny charges they proceed to smear the persons making the charges. No American can or will object to the appointment of Mr. Lessing Rosenwald as Assistant Secretary of Defense. And there are thousands of other Americans who profess Judaism as their religious belief who can also make ideal Assistant Secretaries of Defense. Opposition to Mrs. Rosenberg is based entirely upon her background exclusive of her religious affiliations. Equal opposition would be made against the appointment of anyone with the same background if such person professed Catholicism or Protestantism instead of Judaism as their religious belief. Discrimination against or in favor of any American for political office based upon religious affiliation is un-American, non-American, and anti-American.

As fully explained in the October 15, 1950 issue of COMMON SENSE, it is an historic fact, according to the JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA, that Marxism (communism) is the creation of the Judaic population of eastern Europe better known by the name of the Yiddish people. A copy of this special twelve page issue of October 15, 1950 will be sent free of charge upon request. It is incorrect to accept Yiddish and Jewish as synonyms. The words Yiddish and Jewish have exactly the same relationship to each other that Irish and Catholic, or Turkish and Islamic have to each other. It is incorrect to assume that reference to the Yiddish people is an expression of opinion regarding persons professing Judaism as their religious belief. It is a fact that Judaism is the religious belief of all the Yiddish people excepting those who have embraced Christianity or who are atheists. There are millions of Judaic Arabs, Judaic Chinese, Judaic Indians, Judaic Africans, Judaic British, Judaic Germans, Judaic French, Judaic Italians, Judaic Irish, Judaic Portuguese, and Judaic Spaniards who have nothing in common with the Judaic Yiddish people of the eastern European countries except their religious belief. Marxism (communism) was unknown to these other Judaic native populations until it was introduced there by the great immigration of the Yiddish people from Russia to all parts of the world after the assassination of Czar Alexander II in 1881 by Marxists (communists). This great immigration was accelerated by the existing tension between the Russian government and its Yiddish population. The Marxists (communists) had failed to assassinate the Czar on three previous occasions in their program to accomplish at that time what they finally succeeded in accomplishing by their revolution in 1917.

It cannot be said that all persons professing

Judaism as their religious belief are Marxists (communists). The large percentage of Marxists (communists) among the Yiddish people is due to the fact that conditions in eastern Europe gave Marxism (communism) an appeal which it did not hold out to Judaic populations in other parts of Europe and the rest of the world. The percentage of Marxists (communists) among the non-Yiddish Judaic populations is the inverse ratio of Marxists (communists) among the Yiddish Judaic populations for the reason stated. Because Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg was born in Hungary, the cradle of Marxism (communism) in the heart of the eastern European Yiddish population it does not follow that Mrs. Rosenberg is a Marxist (communist.) That assumption would be preposterous. The fact that she was reared in that atmosphere until about 14 years of age might have conditioned her mind making it susceptible and sensitive to the influences of her former countrymen and co-religionists. Opposition to the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense is in no way related to the fact that she was born in Hungary and immigrated to this country at the age of 16. Immigrants have supplied this nation some of the nation's greatest servants and patriots.

In critical times like the present it is vital to our security that nothing inimical to the welfare of the American people be allowed to infiltrate into the Department of Defense. The tremendous power which will be invested by the laws of the land in the hands of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense is little understood by the American people. Mrs. Rosenberg will have power almost as great as that exercised by a totalitarian dictator. Sidney Fields writing in the New York Mirror of November 15, 1950 describes this power as follows:

"Tomorrow Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg assumes her duties as Assistant Secretary of Defense IN CHARGE OF THE NATION'S MANPOWER, a job which makes her BOSS OF EVERY WORKING MAN AND WOMAN IN THE COUNTRY . . . There are about 115 different government agencies and departments CONCERNED WITH MANPOWER." (Sidney Fields then goes on to quote Mrs. Rosenberg as saying), "Today we are in FOR A LONG PULL . . . No, I wouldn't dare estimate how long. NOBODY WOULD BELIEVE ME. But it's going to last A GOOD MANY YEARS."

Drew Pearson was recently appointed Co-Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal and his name appears on their full-page newspaper appeals for funds. Contributions can be made through Drew Pearson by mailing the contribution to David Karr, c/o William Weintraub Advertising Agency, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City. In this capacity Drew Pearson collaborates with Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg who is also active in the fund-raising campaigns of United Jewish Appeal. Before becoming associated with Mrs. Rosenberg in this work Drew Pearson spoke his mind more freely about Mrs. Rosenberg. In his "Washington Merry-go-round" column of April 29, 1942, Drew Pearson had this to say about Mrs. Rosenberg:

"Anna Rosenberg, Washington's female Felix Frankfurter, would not be averse to getting the job of Miss LeHand, private secretary to the President. She has had her finger in all sorts of pies lately—from guiding Nelson Rockefeller's show to picking Paul McNutt as manpower administrator."

Drew Pearson now sings a different song about Mrs. Rosenberg for a very obvious reason. In his "Washington Merry-go-round" of November 18, 1950 Drew Pearson refers to Mrs. Rosenberg as follows:

"LADY JUSTICE"

"Admirers of Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, first woman ever to be Assistant Secretary of Defense, have another promotion in mind for her—to the Supreme Court.

"Mrs. India Edwards of the Democratic National Committee, who put so many women in office, has this in mind.

"Mrs. Rosenberg was recommended by Secretary Marshall's close friend, General Bedell Smith, chief of Central Intelligence, very important in the set-up.

"Mrs. Edwards not only wants a woman appointed to the Supreme Court, but opposes Attorney-General McGrath elevated to it. She thinks he loafed on his job."

In WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN JEWRY (Vol. 3-1938-1939,) page 874, in her biographical sketch of herself, Mrs. Rosenberg states that she received her education in the gymnasium in Budapest and in high-school in New York City. There is no mention that Mrs. Rosenberg received an education in law. Mrs. Rosenberg was named Acting State Director of the National Emergency Council of the NRA, to succeed Nathan Strauss Jr. on September 15, 1934. She was named Director on November 19, 1934. At the time of her appointment as Acting Director, the New York Times stated,

"Mrs. Rosenberg . . . is a graduate of Wadleigh High School in this city. She finished her education IN EUROPE. There she made a SPECIAL STUDY OF ECONOMICS AND LEARNED TO SPEAK SEVERAL LANGUAGES FLUENTLY."

Drew Pearson should investigate the qualifications necessary for appointment to a seat upon the United States Supreme Court bench and REPORT THEM TO MRS. INDIA EDWARDS.

The following is a reprint of the Report of the Un-American Activities Committee on the John Reed Clubs in which Mrs. Rosenberg is cited;

THE JOHN REED CLUB

(National headquarters; 430 6th Ave., N.Y.C.)

"The John Reed Club is a revolutionary organization composed of artists and writers in the United States. It was organized by Communists in memory of the American bolshevik, John Reed, who was deported to Russia and died there. His remains were placed besides those of Lenin in Moscow.

"This club affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres, and is a section of the International Union of Revolutionary Writers. It has sections in all our principal cities. The New York branch was organized in November 1929. It is said to have 32 branches in New York City. Several publications are issued by the various sections. These include New Force, Left Front, and Leftward. Joseph Pass was, and possibly is yet the secretary of the press committee of the John Reed Club.

"The club cooperates in all Communist agitational and propaganda activities, including agitation against investigations, arrest of Communists, and the proposed enactment of anti-communist legislation. It sponsored the emergency committee for Southern Political Prisoners in 1930, of which Theodore Dreiser and Prof. John dos Passos, of Columbia University, were chairman and treasurer, respectively. On this committee were Sherwood Anderson, Waldo Frank, Alfred Kreymborg, Van Doren, and Edmund Wilson.

"The John Reed Club holds mass meetings each year on the anniversary of Reed's death. It calls itself the "workers' cultural front," although no workers are members of it. It cooperates with the Proletarian, Jewish proletarian writers group. The late Harry Allan Potamkin was its founder and secretary. Many "red" plays have been written by its members.

"The John Reed Club of Art, located at 430 Sixth Avenue, New York City, not only instructs its members in revolutionary art, but also in revolutionary dance and song. Many Communist Party leaders lecture at the school. This school, with the aid of the local sections of the club, turns out most of the agitational signs and floats for Communist parades and demonstrations. The club's center in Chicago is located at 505 South State Street.

"The members of the club receive a great deal of publicity, and, as a result, the public considers them great artists, great musicians, great writers, and great playwrights. This gains them a wider following than merely that provided from the inside ranks of communism. The following item, with regard to the John Reed Club, appeared in the Daily Worker (official organ of the Communist Party), February 21, 1931, page 6:

"The club, in a little over a year of its existence, has done good work in the revolutionary movement, conducting campaign against the anti-Soviet 'holy' crusade, cooperating in the campaign in defense of political prisoners, helping with posters for demonstrations, arranging pageants, and a portion of its members taking part in the Communist election campaign.

"It should broaden and enlarge its present work along the lines of the program of the Kharkov conference of revolutionary writers. It should keep closer contact with the life and everyday struggles of the working class, giving more attention to the development of proletarian literature, to the development of new worker writers and artists, as well as to winning over the radicalized intellectuals. It should become a real force in the struggle for racial equality, especially for the Negro masses, and give greater effort to exposing social-fascism and petty bourgeois tendencies to fight against imperialist war and the defense of the Soviet Union."

"The members of the John Reed Club carry on a campaign denouncing attacks on communists, which they call 'red baiting.' On May 19, 1930, the following individuals issued a signed statement in the New York Times in protest of what they called the 'red scare.'"

"Some of the above are in the New Deal Administration. Many are members of the American Civil Liberties Union and the Committee for Industrial Organization (CIO)."

"In a letter addressed to the editors of Masses, a communist publication, Harry Allan Potamkin, founder and secretary of the John Reed Club, wrote the following (July 1930):"

"The John Reed Club has continued active on the workers' cultural front. The splendid May 1, parade from Rutgers Square to Union Square included not only cartoon-posters designed and made by the artists of the John Reed Club, but also a John Reed Club division, excellent work in support of the International Labor Defense campaign for class-war prisoners. The signatures of noted writers, artists, and educators were secured for the club's statement issued later to the press. The International Labor Defense has been further supported by the John Reed Club in an entertainment arranged by the club on May 14, with Gene Schachner as chairman. Enjo Rasche directed and staged one act of Singing Jailbirds, with members and non-members participating. Gropper, Klein, Burck, entertained with satirical cartoons. An International Labor Defense benefit at Camp Nitge-daiget was attended by Mike Gold, L. Adolmyan, J. Pass, and Jacob Burck."

"The John Reed Club cooperated with writers group, in the Freiheit's Moishe Nadir celebration which filled Carnegie Hall to overflow. Gropper's cartoons were well received. Edith Siegel led the Red Dancers. Adolph Wolff greeted Nadir for the club. The club joined in hailing the first Chinese Soviet Congress; and in the United Front Conference Against Eynching, called by the New York district of the Communist Party."

"Interest in the club's work is evinced by letters from the revolutionary groups in China and the Soviet Union, and even from remote and estoteric Hollywood. 'The members' exhibit of paintings, drawings, and sculpture still continues at the clubrooms."

"Club members continue speaking at workers' clubs. Walt Carman spoke on literature and revolution in America, Joshua Kunitz on Russian literature, both at the Hungarian Workers' Club. The workers summer camps will have a number of club members in their cultural work. The writers are preparing playlets for the workers vacationing in their camps."

"The cultural work will be furthered in a workers' film movement being organized, which will carry over to the United States of America a force now active in England, Denmark, and Germany. Beginnings are being made by members writing on films—especially for the New Masses and the Daily Worker; in members' activities in the making and editing of workers' films; in talks to workers' clubs; in cooperation with working class organizations like the Workers International Relief and the International Labor Defense; and in support of meritorious pictures such as that given by the club to the Vostok- kino's Turksib. The work will be correlated and integrated: this coming fall, and a film group will be mobilized for the study of technique of picture-making and the education of the workers in the cinema as an ideological and artistic medium."

"Publishers are adding to their lists the works of club members. Charles Yale Harrison's 'Generals Die in Bed' has appeared in England, Canada, and is issued by William Morrow in New York. It will appear soon in Soviet Russia, Germany, and Japan. Michael Gold's children's story, 'Charlie Chaplin's Parade,' with illustrations by Otto Sogolow, is on Harcourt, Brace's list for the fall in drawings, film style, comes out this fall with Coward McCann."

"Many of the revolutionary writers and artists have emigrated for the summer to work on paintings for fall exhibitions and forthcoming books."

"In 1933 the John Reed Club in Boston held one of its regular meetings at which John Croll spoke against the National Recovery Administration. A proletarian dance followed. Books and pamphlets were collected from among the revolutionists for the Lawrence Workers' Circulating Library. The Little Red Stars, composed of Lawrence children of communist belief, sang rebel songs."

The national officers of the John Reed Club were:

Harry Allan Potamkin, William Siegel, Bill Sedner, (C.I.O.), Edward Dahlberg, Lester Glass, Leon Dennen, Joseph Kunitz, Robert Pfanner, and fifteen other names omitted to save space here.

The "John Reed Club" authors have been listed as follows:

A. Abramowitz, Miriam Clark, Sam Gasper, John Howard Lawson, Tille Lerner, Maxwell Rodenhelm, Melvin Levy, Ben Field, Grace Lumpkin, John Doe, Frances, Muriel Bukovsky, Regan Gilbert, M. Shumison, and fifteen other names omitted to save space here.

"In addition to the publications previously mentioned, the John Reed Club issues the Onvil (Moberly, Mo.), Blast (New York City), Cauldron Grand Rapids, Mich.), Left Review (Philadelphia), Partisan Magazine (Hollywood, Calif.), and Partisan Review (New York City). International Literature is the international journal of the International Union of Revolutionary Writers, with which the John Reed Club is affiliated (J.R.C. Bulletin, May - April 1934, p. 12)."

"The principal branches of the club are located in New York City; Chicago; Philadelphia; Hollywood Indianapolis; Detroit; Boston; St. Louis; Grand Rapids Milwaukee; Hartford, Conn.; Santa Fe; and Mead, Ark. "RED SCARE" PROTESTS ISSUED BY LIBERALS

100 Writers, Educators, and Artists Warn of Dangers In 'Hysteria' and 'Persecution'

SEE CIVIL RIGHTS AT STAKE

Statement says 1600 have been wrongfully arrested in 2 months —aid of press asked

"A protest against the imprisonment of men and women for expressing their political opinions, coupled with a warning that 'Red-baiting' is rapidly becoming a permanent condition, was voiced in a statement issued yesterday by the John Reed Club, 162 West Fourteenth street. The protest was signed by more than 100 writers, educators and artists."

"Those who endorsed the statement, which contained an appeal to the press to awaken the public to the dangers of such hysteria, included H. L. Mencken, Sherwood Anderson, Professor Franz Boaz, Carl Van Doren and John Sloan. In their declaration they maintained that the 'Red scare' was sweeping the country and threatening the complete destruction of civil liberties."

SURVEY SHOWS MANY ARRESTS

"A survey by the club revealed that more than 1600 men and women have been imprisoned within the past two months in violation of their constitutional rights, according to the statement. Cases cited included those of W. Z. Foster and the other radicals to whom bail was denied after their arrest on misdemeanor charges in connection with the riot in Union Square on March 6, and the case of Carr and Powers arrested for distributing pamphlets demanding 'work or wages' at a meeting in Atlanta, Ga. They have been charged with 'inciting to insurrection' under a law passed soon after the Civil War and since inoperative, and face the death penalty if convicted under the charge, according to the statement which continues."

"An Ohio court has actually sentenced two young girls to ten years in prison for distributing pamphlets. In California more than 900 unemployed were arrested for the crime of being out of work. In Chicago 137 are being tried for sedition for holding an indoor meeting to discuss unemployment. Milwaukee has jailed fifty-eight for participation in the March 6 unemployment demonstrations, and in the South workers are being sent to the chain-gang for organizing unions."

"To combat persecution for political opinion, concerted protest is necessary. The people of the United States must be awakened to the threatened complete destruction of their civil rights. The John Reed Club has instituted a campaign to spread information about this situation and to cooperate with the International Labor Defense, which is providing relief and legal aid to political prisoners."

Steelman Role Told In Job For Mrs. Rosenberg

Truman Aide Maneuvers Her Selection

By Walter Trohan
(Chicago Tribune Press Service)

"Washington, Nov. 12—John R. Steelman, assistant to the President maneuvered the selection of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, for the post of Assistant Defense Secretary.

"A high White House source today said the Hungarian-born woman is the protege of Steelman, President Truman's chief adviser on domestic policies, particularly on labor.

"In 1948, when Steelman, like many important government officials, expected Mr. Truman to lose the election, he had planned to enter into partnership with Mrs. Rosenberg in a New York labor advisory firm, the White House source said.

"Steelman may be planning to enter the partnership with one of the original New Dealers in 1952, according to the White House informant.

"Defense Secretary Marshall recommended Mrs. Rosenberg's appointment to the President.

"Informed sources said they expect Mr. Truman to make the formal appointment tomorrow or Tuesday and that Mrs. Rosenberg is scheduled to be sworn into office Wednesday under an interim appointment pending Senate confirmation.

"EXPECT STRONG OPPOSITION"

"It is expected the appointment will meet with marked opposition in the Senate Armed Services Committee because of Mrs. Rosenberg's record and beliefs.

"White House source said the selection was manipulated by Steelman without Presidential consultation although Mr. Truman is expected to approve Marshall's recommendation."

"Steelman is a powerful factor in Presidential appointments. He is credited with a major part in driving Defense Secretary Louis Johnson from the cabinet because the latter would not adopt his appointed recommendations.

"Steelman teamed up with State Secretary Acheson to put Johnson out of Presidential favor and make way for Gen. Marshal. New Dealers had long been after Johnson's scalp because he would not let them run his department.

"SHE CALLS FOR UMT"

"The White House source intimated that Mr. Truman might have forestalled the recommendation for appointment had he been consulted, because of the storm it may raise in Congress.

"At a conference yesterday, Mrs. Rosenberg called for universal military training. She said the nation's civilian man-power problems can be met by voluntary measures. She was, however, a New Deal consultant during World War II when the administration was considering draft of civilians for war-power needs and also was weighing the drafting of women.

"It also is remembered that Mrs. Rosenberg was the author of a scheme to establish reorientation camps for American soldiers at the close of World War II on the theory that they would be unfit to resume their normal lives at home.

"This plan was abandoned in the face of protests throughout the nation. Democrats dropped her and her plan quickly when she was charged with slandering soldiers.

"Mrs. Rosenberg has cashed in on her long association with the New Deal in various capacities. While drawing various sums from the government she has been making between $25,000 and $50,000 a year as a labor relations consultant.

"At present she is a special consultant on man-power problems to W. Stuart Symington, National Security Resources Board Chairman. At the White House it was said Symington had little to do with her designation as Assistant Defense Secretary and that the credit belongs to Steelman."

The following is a reprint of an article which appeared in the Chicago Tribune. It is to be wondered whether Mrs. Rosenberg wished the returning GIs to be placed in "reorientation" camps so that they might be "reoriented" by members of the John Reed Clubs. It follows;

(Reprint from the Chicago Tribune of November 13, 1950)

"SHE DOESN'T TRUST GIs"

"Defense Secretary Marshall, who has had difficulty remembering whether he was talking about Korea or Porto Rico at recent press conferences, has recommended the appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg of New York as Assistant Secretary. He may feel the need of someone to do his thinking for him.

"Mrs. Rosenberg is one of the old Eleanor Roosevelt clique in Washington. In 1942 she was found to be holding one full-time and one part-time government job, at total salaries of $13,500 a year, while she was accepting an additional $22,500 from two private employers. She talked her way out of that one, and then got a job from President Truman two years later to advise him on the "rehabilitation" of the American soldiers then fighting in Europe and the Pacific.

"Upon Mrs. Rosenberg's return from a visit to the European battle-fields, Brehon Somervell, the WPA general, ordered all the brass in the Pentagon to drop whatever they were doing to win the war and assemble to hear Mrs. Rosenberg's words of wisdom. Her finding was that American soldiers overseas were unfit to resume civil life, and should be subjected to "reorientation" courses before they were allowed to doff their uniforms.

"Secretary Marshall said that he wished to avail himself of Mrs. Rosenberg's experience in man-power and personnel problems. Her "reorientation" program got nowhere at the end of World War II. Perhaps she will be given a chance to try it out on the men fighting in Korea, whom Mr. Truman prevented from voting absentee ballots in the recent election. It would take quite a stay in a concentration camp to convince most of these veterans that they should vote New Deal.

"Mr. Truman complained recently that it was increasingly difficult to persuade good people to take government jobs. The Rosenberg recommendation seems to bear him out.

The American people are entitled to know the truth. The Administration has not been wholly honest with the American people. Had they been wholly honest with the American people this nation would not today be facing the grave crisis which can result in military defeat for the United States by the Soviet Union. The United States has already suffered defeat at the hands of the Soviet Union in the diplomatic field. In the diplomatic field the situation appears hopeless. The American people can only pray for a miracle while keeping their powder dry.

The American people were not told the whole truth in 1932. They were not told the whole truth in 1941. The whole truth was kept from the American people in 1945. From 1945 to date the whole truth has never been told to the American people. This fact is attested to by what has been recently revealed to the American people, against the opposition of the Administration, by Congressional investigations, exposures by Senators and Congressmen, indictments and convictions of government officials, and confessions of highly placed former government officials.

A LOOK AT GERMANY

What Did Truman Accomplish?

By Hubert H. Heath
To Common Sense

Millions of upright, thoughtful Americans are thinking that Harry plunged us into our Oriental adventure to cover up and divert attention from the devastating exposures of corruption, treason and immorality in the un-American New Deal-Fair Deal and many papers are openly printing miny letters charging just that.

Was it as simple as all that? We think not. The administration highbinders are saying that he saved the UNO by his action but that is beside the point. He is under a solemn oath to uphold and defend the Consitution and laws of the United States.

He has taken no oath to uphold and defend that institution that was formed for the express purpose of undermining the sovereignty of all nations. But what does an oath of office amount to anyway, in these degenerate days?

So, we ask, just what did he accomplish by ignoring Congress, the lawful governing authority of our nation, and assuming the power delegated to that body.

Well, to make a long story short, he did silence those deadly exposures and he did cover up for those he had placed in power and kept them where he had placed them for reasons of his own, or the reasons of those in the shadows who direct the course of all governments.

Then Congress insisted on cutting down on the billions the little man demanded but Congress forgot all that as soon as he got his bloodletting started and now he has something like ten billions more, it seems, for spending money. Nor does that begin to cover what he accomplished.

We read that Stuart Symington placed on Truman's desk a rewrite of what Harry the Hop had written, a bil to conscript men, women, children and property in the next war (which is now underway) and Hop said when it came they would ship the men where they wanted them, the women where they wanted them and the Children as we recollect, where they pleased and that all would be housed without regard to race, creed or color.

If anyone is able to throw a little light on that to enable Americans to distinguish between that sort of government and what those behind all these alien isms established in Russia and built into a world menace we would like for them to turn on the light and let us see just where the difference lies. In as much as both the work of the same internationalist group they should be able to explain.

Three things the Founding Fathers feared and dreaded. A standing army with a military machine over it; the power of international finance and the rise of a strong partisan spirit and these are the three things that have cut the heart out of our great Republic. An overwhelming majority of the members of Congress place party above loyalty to the Republic and when there is conflict invariably vote the party line.

Israel Builds Food Reserves Fears "International Situation"

According to news releases recently published in the California Jewish Voice, and other Jewish papers, Israel is preparing for the worst "considering the international situation." The Israeli government is rushing immigration and has started to "replenish its foodstocks with a view to creating a food reserve sufficient to last several months."

A credit of $5,000,000. has been extended to the Israeli government by the World Commerce Corporation of New York for the purchase of foodstuffs, fodder, and raw material, with the proviso that the total may later be raised to $7,500,000.

It has also been revealed that the Israeli Supply Ministry is presently in France negotiating for $15,000,000. worth of foodstuffs on a credit obtained there and, in addition, a number of French bankers have "extended $3,000,000. in credit to the Israeli rural and suburban settlement corporation known as Rassco."

While Israel's larders are being stocked, a series of almost hysterical headlines and speeches announces Jewdom's concern lest any of the "Chosen" be trapped in potential theatres of war and extensive plans have been made to rush immigration to Israel. Under the banner "War Spurs Plan to Bring 50,000 Youths to Israel," the July 28th California Jewish Voice carried an article which stated: "Acting under impact of the Korean war and increased tension throughout the world, the Jewish Agency has now completed plans to bring to Israel 50,000 Jewish youths from various parts of the world before world developments make such a transfer difficult."

According to a report by Yitzhak Raphael, Jewish Agency immigration chief, as published in the July 7th Voice, 2000 Jews from Persian Kurdistan have already reached Israel, and the average monthly number of Iraq Jewish immigrants is expected to rise to 4000 soon. Eighty per cent of all immigrants (Continued on Page 2)

GERMANY IS REVIVING

The Germans are coming back. The amount of construction and reconstruction now going on is tremendous. The British Land Commissioner for the area known as Land Rhein-Westphalia, which contains more than three-quarters of all the industry of Western Germany, told me that more than two hundred thousand housing units, many of them on this self-help basis, will have been built this year in his area alone.

The Germans are turning definitely away from Socialism. And this is of special significance because Germany is where most socialistic ideas first hatched. Perhaps Socialism is a disease, like measles, which, once a country gets it, must run its course. There is evidence it has run much of its course in Germany. And unless outside nations actually force fresh socialist germs into its body politic, which Socialist Britain and France and the left-wing government of the United States will try to do, there is now a fair chance that Germany will remain immune.

It's a pity one country can't learn from the mistakes of others. If America would really study what Socialism has done to Britain and Germany and France, America would avoid Socialism like the plague. But, of course, Socialism is an internationalist movement. One country can force Socialism on another. The American Socialist Labor government is using its influence to keep the Socialist Labor government in power in Britain.

Two Great Handicaps

Since the West German government was set up, the higher officials at least in both American and British zones (I did not go into the French zone) have been earnestly working with the Germans to promote recovery. But they have been working under two distinct handicaps.

First, there was the long succession of what from the American point of view, were disastrous mistakes in policy. To go no further back than 1944, there was the decision to allow Soviet Russia to take Berlin and a large part of Germany. The American and British troops were so far in advance of Russia in their military accomplishments that they could easily have taken the whole of Germany themselves.

But under mysterious pressures from sources that did not reveal themselves at the time, Mr. Roosevelt was persuaded to order American armies held back, and even to retreat in places, in order that Soviet Russia could take this territory. Thus millions of Germans—Europeans—were handed over to the tender mercies of Asiatics; and that division of Germany was made that is today responsible for the Soviet threat to Western Germany and to all of Europe.

Then there was the plan for vengeance against the German people—the scheme that bears the name of the "Morgenthau Plan." Mr. Douglas Reed, in his new book "Somewhere South of Suez," says that this plan, "the Western counterpart of the Eastern transaction about China [the Yalta Agreement], insured the spread of Soviet Power from Berlin to Vladivostok." Mr. Robert E. Sherwood, in his book "Roosevelt and Hopkins," quotes Roosevelt as admitting shortly before he died that he had "yielded to the importunities of an old and loyal friend when he affixed his initials to the document." Who this "friend" was is not stated.

But the "Morgenthau Plan" led to the Nuremberg trials and to the dismantling of manufacturing and other plants in Germany. This (Continued on Page 2) agreement by America that German plants should be destroyed was almost as fantastic as if she had agreed to destroy part of her own fleet or air force. (As a matter of fact, certain officials of the United States did order the wanton destruction of many new aircraft and other war materiel, and they were destroyed!) For sensible men knew even then that the defense of Europe against Soviet Russia, without the aid of Germany, was impossible. Mr. Cordell Hull and the late Mr. Stimson both disapproved the Morgenthau Plan at the time. But it was put across by the same ruthless crowd that have put across so many other ill-advised and high-handed schemes.

Several times, due to loud opposition to dismantling, both in and out of the American Congress, it has been announced that dismantling has stopped. But it hasn't stopped even yet. At this very moment, a responsible German official tells me, one plant in the American and part of one in the British zones are marked for immediate dismantling. The former is an aluminum plant at Töging in Bavaria, and the latter is a 6,000 ton press in Dortmund. Both these are needed not only in any preparation for the defense of the West, but for rehabilitation of Germany.

There is no question that an overwhelming majority of Congress has long been opposed to dismantling in Germany. The President's announced policy is to prepare the Western world to meet the threat of Communism. Yet there are forces in the Administration that have seen to it that dismantling has been continued in spite of everything. The Congress and the announced policy of the President have been thwarted.

The Congress of the United States could do no greater service to the American people than to find out, and make public, what these forces are.

This dismantling matter is only one of many where the expressed will of Congress has been nullified, usually by the Executive or by his knowledge. Thus when Congress by overwhelming majorities directed that a loan of $62,500,000 be extended Spain, the President announced after the law was passed that nevertheless the loan would not be made. Three or four years ago the Congress, after hearings and debate, ordered the construction of a super-airplane carrier. Construction was commenced and several millions had been spent on it when the Executive ordered that it be scrapped—thus completely nullifying an Act of Congress. Other cases could be cited.

The Second Handicap

The second handicap under which the Germans have been working, is that American policy with respect to Germany seems to be dictated, not by America's vital interests and not by the interests of the German people, but by the left-wing Socialists of Britain and France. Somehow, the Washington Administration has been unable to shake itself loose from that influence. While sometimes American representatives try feebly to overcome this French or British influence, yet in the end they knuckle down.

Probably the policies of American, French and British Government are all shaped by the same international socialists. And the fact is socialist influence has so often forced upon America policies favorable to the aims of Soviet Russia is explained by the fact that Socialism and Communism are so similar. Since the setting up of the Bolshevik government in Russia in 1917, Communism has made headway chiefly in countries where a well-defined socialist program has been developed. There is no better illustration of this than in Czechoslovakia where the Socialism of Benes and Jan Masaryk were the bridge over which Communism marched to subjugate the country.

Therefore, when Mr. Truman and his associates rail against Communism, yet proceed vigorously to press one socialist measure after another, no wonder the people are confused.

 (Editor's Note: This is the World Zionist clique working through the Rothchilds of Europe and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and Lehman Bros. in New York.)

Crusade for Freedom Has Educational Value

The movement known as the Crusade for Freedom, has appealed to large numbers of patriotic Americans as deserving of support—and they did support it. But America is dealing with very hard-headed people, when she deals with Europeans. They know war at first hand in such countries as Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Norway, Spain, Italy, and more than all else, Germany and the Iron Curtain countries.

They know the causes from which they are suffering, particularly in these central European countries. I talked objectively with persons in many ranks about the Crusade for Freedom and its possibilities of constructive accomplishment. American officials uniformly supported and praised it—perhaps they could follow no other course.

But I found few if any Germans who felt this way about it. One said that if we were against Communism, why had we demolished plants and shipped many of them to Russia? Why, another asked, are we still demolishing plants? Another observed that the Russians had more respect for force than for petitions and bells. His inference was that people, who knew this fact, as do the people of the Iron Curtain countries, would, themselves not be much impressed by such things.

Still another German, a Protestant minister, who had been against Hitler all along, spoke unfavorably of the movement, saying "What the situation needs is not petitions or signed scrolls or bells, but social justice." And he proceeded to refer not only to the dismantling, which had thrown many men out of work and destroyed the tools by which many Germans lived, but especially to the eight or nine million German refugees, for whom the Americans have done almost nothing, while being constantly solicitous about the so-called displaced persons, or "D.U.s."

D. P.'s vs. Refugees

It should be remembered that the DP's are those of Eastern European stock—not Germans at all. They include many good people. Others of them are of Eastern origin and probably will never add much to the building up and strengthening of American institutions—indeed would probably join with those already in America who are trying to undermine them. Without doubt many of them are—Communists, whom Soviet Russia purposely let slip through the Iron Curtain with the very idea that they would make their way to America.

For these DP's the Washington Administration has shown every consideration. Evidence submitted before a Congressional committee last year shows that U. S. authorities to a large extent permitted the International Refugee Organization (I.R.O.), which is alien-controlled to select those DP's that were to come to the U. S.!

There have been only a few hundred thousand of these DP's. But the Refugees, or Expellees, who are those Germans who fled from Eastern Germany when the Soviet forces entered, have received almost no aid whatever from the American Administration. They have had to be supported by the West-German population, and this support has been a crushing burden. American discrimination against the Refugees has been one more hardship we have heaped upon the defeated Germans.

As matter of fact, also there is growing unrest among these millions of Refugees. Communism has begun to make headway among them. Being Germans, they can vote. At the last election in one of the northern provinces, the Refugees ranked second among parties.

All of which illustrates beautifully the kind of thing that may happen when we permit other than American interests to dictate American policy.

Creditable Work of Americans and British in Germany

Again I wish to say that American and British personnel have carried out the policies made in Washington and London with a high average of ability and integrity. I have heard much favorable comment on this point from Germans. The troubles has been with the policy.

This policy has until recently played directly into the hands of Soviet Russia. Now, in important respects, it is playing into the hands of International Socialism. It is largely determined by the Socialist Labor government of Britain and by the Socialists of France. America, as the dispenser of much of the money and goods so greatly needed by Western Germany, can make her own terms if she has the intelligence and the will to make and insist upon them. So far, in most instances, she has shown neither.

In case of war between Russia and the United States it is doubtful whether either France or Britain would be of much assistance to our side. Meanwhile we are preparing to spend many more billions to aid them to rearm.

The rearming of Germany is much discussed by Germans. Opinion is divided. Those who oppose it say: "For five years you have been telling us that never again shall Germany be armed. You have torn down many of the plants we now need, if we are to rearm. You have humiliated us in a hundred ways. And now, you suddenly reverse yourselves and say we must rearm. You will understand why we are rather confused."

In spite of all the hate for the Communists, many Germans have no stomach for any more fighting. A chauffeur said to me: "I was in the war six years I was in Russia—was before Leningrad. I don't want any more war."

Many, of course, of the most responsible Germans fear that for Germany to set out, or permit the Western countries to set out, to build up fighting forces in Germany would invite prompt attack by Soviet Russia.

Ciechanowski Puts His Finger On It

At an Economic Council dinner in New York, October 3, 1950, former Polish Ambassador Ciechanowski made a scholarly and carefully prepared address, the burden of which was that the preservation of American security was the most important thing of the day. He was clearly speaking out of his own long experience and observation.

As an American citizen, who has always held the opinion Mr. Ciechanowski expressed, I believe the whole European mess has been due to the fact that for years we have not placed American security and welfare first. Our political leaders have permitted themselves to be pushed around by pressure groups and politicians that represented other nations and other interests. Our American policy has been made to suit their ends—not ours. We are well started on a process, which, if not stopped and reversed, will mean the liquidation of American liberty and all that America holds dear.

I do not mean that America should not take a generous and intelligent interest in other peoples. America always has. But for her to place the interests of other nations above her own—for her to plunge forward with commitments all over a campaign of vindictiveness as she has until very lately pursued toward Germany—is to invite disaster for America.

Even if our policy is reversed and we return honestly to the conception of America First, it will take consummate skill and courage to work out our problems in Europe alone.

I believe it can be done. But only if we subordinate every other interest to the vital interests of America.

Israel Builds Food Reserves

to come to Israel in the next few months will be Jews from Iran, Poland and Rumania, the immigration chief added. In the first half of 1950, it was reported, an average of 12,000 Jews reached Israel each month. This monthly average will rise to 18,000.

The Jewish press has also stated that, in view of the emergency, situation requiring increased funds to move large numbers of Jews out of Rumania, Iraq, and "other disaster centers," Jewish leaders of the National Report Conference of the United Jewish Appeal met in Chicago recently and presented a total of $11,900,000. in cash to the campaign for settlement in Israel and refugees in all parts of the world. Including these checks, a total of $53,762,000. has been raised by the United Jewish Appeal since January 1, 1950. It was also reported that the principal resolution adopted by the Chicago conference was that American Jews be informed "that campaign results and payments on pledges today are tragically inadequate to meet the increased needs that have suddenly arisen in the last few months."

The case of my good husband, Emory Burke, is well known throughout America to thousands of patriots. In the end, it will be as great a reflection on the American system of jurisprudence as the notorious Sedition Trials. It is hard for me to realize that such things can happen in America, but they are happening every day.

The Anti-Nazi League moved down to Atlanta from New York, and through its influence succeeded in having my husband railroaded to trial and to an unholy conviction based on perjured evidence. An appeal to the State Supreme Court failed because under the Georgia law, that court cannot throw out a conviction based on perjured evidence have been tried and found guilty. These same witnesses have signed affidavits that their evidence was perjured and made under duress. The Supreme Court of the United States pointed out that my husband should appeal to the Federal District Court where his case could be justly and fairly reviewed. He is now making that appeal, but in the meantime, the enemy with his tremendous influence, has demanded his pound of flesh and my husband must wait the outcome in a Georgia prison.

Having sold all our few possessions and our home to make this fight, I am now left penniless to provide for my four children. But My husband is faced with court and lawyer fees, and these must be met before his case can proceed. His complete vindication will mean much to each and every American dedicated to the principles of our Republic — Americans who are astounded at the atrocious acts being committed against Christians today. I hope those who can, will help us in this fight.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

..... Seven major Jewish organizations in the U. S. have issued statements condemning the Bill for Communist Control which was passed over President Truman's veto. They include the American Jewish Congress, The American Jewish Congress, The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, Jewish Labor Committee, Jewish War Veterans and Union of Hebrew Congregation. In the U.S. the Communist paper, "Daily Worker" is edited by Israel Reigenstreich (Zionist). The Communist press in Holland "The Truth" is edited by the Zionist, F. Schoonenberg, and in Belgium "The Red Flag" is edited by the Zionist, Felix Coenen. The Zionist Jew, Josef Revai (Rabinovitch) is editor of the Communist daily paper in Hungary the "Social Review.") Revai stated in his paper that "proletarian power" will not be shared by the peasants. Actually, of course, it never is, as this Zionist well knows. Moste Pijade, a Zionist, is the most powerful man in Yugoslavia including Marshal Tito. He is the man who actually runs Yugoslavia. In a recent issue of the Communist paper "The Daily Compass" I. F. Stone admitted while in Yugoslavia whenever he asked a difficult question he was always referred to Pijade. James P. Warburg, German born Zionist Jew, testified before the U.S. Senate on February 17, 1950 in part: "You will have World Government whether you like it or not, if not by consent, by conquest." The American people don't seem to agree with Mr. Warburg because seven states have rescinded the World Government resolution. These are Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia and California. We will bet on the American people. Maj. Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Zionist, is still in charge of the Office of Foreign Military Assistance although he was mainly responsible for the prolonged war in Korea. Lemnitzer sent $200 worth of Signal equipment to Korea after Congress appropriated $10,230,000 for arms and air planes for Korea's protection. It was Michael J. Lee (Ephraim Zionyi Liberman) Zionist Jew, appointed Chief of the Far Eastern Division of the Commerce Department, who blocked shipment of military equipment to the Chinese Nationalists. Liberman came to the U.S. from Russia in 1932 and was denied citizenship because of his communistic activities. Some time later he shows up in Washington given orders for the government. Just this week we learned that Michael J. Lee has been fired from this post.

Mr. and Mrs. Anonymous:

Of all people who are most likely to have recognition in heaven for good work done on earth surely Mr. and Mrs. Anonymous will be rewarded.

Contributions we receive from them are put to work in this important fight. We are not able to thank them for we do not know who they are. Their only satisfaction comes from the good feeling that they are doing what their Conscience tells them should be done.

We are most grateful. Our Lord knows who they are and that is the most important thing.

..... A relatively new scheme the Communists are now using to educate young Americans to the principles of Communism is to order several Red books from a publishing house and have them mailed to high school libraries. When the books come into the libraries the librarian assumes that they were ordered by the school and places them on the book shelves.

..... Every American should read "Red Masquerade" by Angela Calomiris, the girl who spent six years in the Communist Party working for the F.B.I. Once you have read this enlightening book you will understand what the Communist Party is and how it expects to take over America. Order from "Common Sense." Price $3.00. The people are still unsuspecting about the Genocide Bill which is up before Congress. The main purpose of this bill is to stop the attack against Communism. With the thousands of Zionist-Communists in our government and country working to destroy America, if this bill becomes law no one will be able to attack them for fear of being tagged anti-Semitic and imprisoned. These are the characters that are pushing this bill. Write your Congressman. Write your religious leaders. Remember that this bill can do away with all opposition to Communism. It is a very clever move and some good Christians have been tricked into supporting it. There is not the least intention of protecting anyone but the Marxist Zionists. Under this Bill anyone who causes "mental harm" to a Jew will be arrested and turned over to the United Nations to be tried in any country they choose. Samuel Kramer, Zionist, General Clay's former legal adviser (the man behind the man) is now conferring with Gen. Marshall and Acheson. Behind every American dupe in Washington we have at least one Zionist dupe giving the orders. Sidney Weinberg, Zionist Jew, one of the top men in the New Deal WPA before the war is recruiting a number of corporate executives for work in the mobilization program. The Zionists are not satisfied with starting a third World War. They are going to supervise it like they did in World War II and mobilize American boys into the greatest wholesale slaughter in history. The Zionists believe (and they are right) that one more war will level off America and bankrupt here so that she will never recover. The second World War did this for Europe, and now Communism is in power in 16 countries with all leaders being Zionist Jews.

American Jewish Congress

The American Jewish Congress recently attacked the Superintendent of Schools of Newark, New Jersey, Mr. Herron, for distributing 60 copies of "Red Channels" to New Jersey schools. This book which lists 150 entertainers who have supported Communist activities and which was written by a group of ex-F.B.I. men is now under attack by the Gestapo of Communism in America, The American Jewish Congress. This organization fought the un-American Activities Committee and every other anti-communist movement that has any effect upon Communism. Why? Simply because Zionism is the backbone of Communism. But the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai Brith and the American Jewish Congress do not want the people to realize it so all information against Communism must be kept away from the public. They want the American people to read what is to their favor. Rabbi Joachim Prinz who was run out of Germany for his Communistic activities and who sponsored O. John Rogge (Marxist) recently at a Newark Jewish center, took it upon his shoulders to stop the circulation of this expose of Communists in our country. Joel R. Jacobson (Zionist) Executive Secretary of the Essex-West Hudson CIO Council, supported Rabbi Prinz by putting pressure on Newark's Mayor Villani to have the city's Civil Rights Commission take up the issue. Keep in mind that the American Jewish Congress tried to stop the truth from being printed in COMMON SENSE by threatening six of our printers with boycott until they discontinued printing COMMON SENSE.

5 Cs Of War Called Steps To Socialism

Republished from New York Journal American
July 31, 1950

By ARTHUR CAPPER

Friends in Washington tell me that talk and thought in the National Capital today concerns itself with those five C's of a war economy—whether we actually go into a major war or not:

CONTROLS.
CONTRACTS.
CONSCRIPTION.
CONFISCATION.
CONFUSION.

Now Confusion, Conscription, Contracts, Controls, and Confiscation are the five C's on the road to state socialism.

The resultant inflation comes just ahead of the final "turn left" sign—turn left to state socialism.

In less than five years since we in America learned that we were engaged in a so-called "cold war" with Soviet Russia, we have spent some $50,000,000,000 on our military establishment.

OPEN LETTER TO CONGRESS

How To Stabilize And Restore The Confidence Of Our People And Respect Of The World How To Protect Christianity And Save Civilization

These things can still be done, but Congress must be practical. Congress must quickly learn who the enemy is, and have the courage to speak up.

A person alarmed by his poor physical condition seeks the best medical authority, learns the worst, then takes immediate measures to cure the disease or have the malignancy removed. Congress must do the same for America if our Republic is to survive.

The writer, is informed on the all-important question known as "Communism," a Zionist-Marxist worldwide conspiracy. For eighteen years the writer has made an intensive study of the evil plan for abolishment of the United States and the enslavement of Christianity. For five years the writer has used his energy and every dollar he had to educate sufficient people in order to avert the crisis which was plainly coming. The great accomplishments of COMMON SENSE, always working with insufficient funds, are due to the combined efforts of informed associates who have closely cooperated with us.

For five years we have repeatedly told all listeners that the talk about Communism being "a terrible thing" would not save the world from Marxist slavery unless people at high levels, learned by whom Communism is backed, and then had the courage to take a stand, speaking the truth.

A deceptive campaign of "tolerance" (promoted by Marxists) has kept Christian people deluded while the International Yiddish conspiracy has rallied approximately one and one-half billion people against Christianity. Within two weeks an additional four million people may be turned against us.

During this crisis, when cool, informed leaders of courage are needed to steer America through the incredibly grave situation which now confronts us, we have in charge of our government men who do not understand the International revolutionists. Those men are confused and stumbling. They are men being guided to destruction by cunning, well-organized, anti-Christian Zionist revolutionists, who have maneuvered themselves into the confidence of Christian leaders in order to make the United States part of a world government ruled by the Zionists after millions of Americans have been slaughtered, as already millions of fellow-Christians have been slaughtered in other sections of the world.

The writer is not confused and is not afraid because he understands the world-wide conspiracy which is going on. The writer knew that when allied forces reached the Manchurian border Chinese troops, directed by their Zionist-Communist masters, were set and waiting. This knowledge was not due to any know-all of military tactics; instead it was believed through the writer's knowledge of the Marxist mind and plan. Even the illustrious general, MacArthur, is undermined through Zionists operating under the cloak of UN immunity.

In Korea we are not dealing with Chinese "Communists." What the world knows as "Chinese Communists" are only deceived puppets of World Marxism which is mainly financed and directed by Zionists in the United States. They are the same Zionists who throw elaborate dinners, and have Senators and Congressmen as speakers so as to prevent the elected representatives from learning who the real plotters are.

The editor of COMMON SENSE, with the cooperation of the most correctly informed people in the world, offers this solution to preserve our freedom: Congress should immediately arrange an open hearing and allow our associates to present evidence to support the following charges:

1. Zionism is set up and governed by Asiatic Yiddish.
2. Communism is a front for anti-Christian Zionism.
3. The United Nations was devised, and is operated today, by Zionists in the background.
4. The United World Federalist organization is a front for Zionism. In the group some Christians, wanting to be good Americans, are fronting for the Yiddish plotters.
5. Israel is a Yiddish-Zionist-Communist state and — in a showdown — will favor the U.S.S.R.

Yiddish Zionist Marxists have been maneuvered by the Zionists into positions as secretaries to the representatives of U. N., U. S. Senators, Federal Judges, War Department, Navy officials, the Federal Communications Control system, the State Department, and the White House (David Niles). These Yiddish Zionist Marxists have been trained from childhood to guide trusting Christian dupes and to secure confidential information from over the world to be used in destroying governments.

The government in Washington has, for the past 15 years, been governed by Zionists using unsuspecting Christian dupes to carry out the Zionist plan. A few, like the late Honorable James Forrestal, discovered they were being used to bring about the crisis we now find ourselves in, and rebelled. Forrestal was maneuvered into death, as were a number of others.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, during his late years, was a virtual slave to the Zionists as is President Truman today. Truman is being used to condition the United States for Communism as was Eduard Benes, president of Czechoslovakia, and Mr. Truman will be maneuvered into death — as was Eduard Benes — as soon as the Zionists are through with Truman.

The following so-called "Communist countries" are today ruled by Yiddish Zionists in the open:

Matyss Rakoski (Rosenzweig) — Deputy Prime Minister (Zionist).

Peter Gabor (Beno Auspitz) — Chief of Political Police (Zionist).

Communists burned 25,000 Churches and religious institutions, massacred 400,000 Civilians. One and half million people were killed before General Franco subdued the Marxists.

ISRAEL

The following Zionists are of Asiatic Yiddish origin (Khazars). None of their ancestors ever set a foot in the Holy Land. Dr. Chaim Weizmann, First President, was BORN IN LITHUANIA. David Ben Gurion, Prime Minister of Defense, Mordechai Bentov, Minister of Labor; Isaac Guernbaum, Minister of Interior; Itche Meier Levin, Minister; Moshe Shapira, Minister of Immigration — ALL BORN IN POLAND. David Remez, Minister of Transportation and Communication; Aharon Zisling, Minister of Agriculture, Eliezer Kaplan, Minister of Finance, Moshe Shertok, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Rabbi Judah Leib, Fishman, Minister of Education and Religion — ALL BORN IN RUSSIA.

Two-thirds of the oil supply of the world is located within the 500 miles of Israel. The late Secretary of Defense, Forrestal, was afraid that in the event of war Israel would see to it that the Soviet Union secured this oil.

Communism all over the world, including the 1917 revolution in Russia, has been financed in the United States. In support of that statement, there can be no better reference than the following:

JACOB SCHIFF

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by the "Kehillah (Jewish Community) of New York," 356 Second Avenue, N. Y. (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff, head of Kuhn Loeb and Co., for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

Is the COMMON SENSE group the only one which believes the foregoing to be facts?

No. Many thousands in the United States know that the things mentioned here are facts, and at least 70% of the population suspect them, think them, and quietly say so.

COMMON SENSE knows that all the charges of a world-wide Zionist-Marxist plot (popularly known as "Communism") can be proven by what the Yiddish Marxists themselves have said in their writings.

Yiddish Marxists, mainly through their organizations — Anti-Defamation League and American Jewish Congress — have, during the last five years, intimidated six printers and forced them to stop work for COMMON SENSE. This, despite the fact that, during the first three years of the publication of the paper, no mention was made of Jews. In all the five years of COMMON SENSE'S determination to expose Communism ONLY THE YIDDISH HAVE FOUGHT US.

All other effective Anti-Communists have been fought only by the Yiddish who brand the Anti-Communists as "Anti-Semites."

We have reason to believe that we could get $100,000. — or more — to suspend publication. We will not sell, but we will turn COMMON SENSE over to the Yiddish-operated Daily Worker if the foregoing charges are not proven at a fair, open Congressional hearing.

It is time for a showdown if civilization is to endure.

Christ, Our Teacher Of Truth & Salvation

All human progress is based on teaching. To gain a better knowledge of the things concerning God than can be obtained by our natural mental equipment, we need a teacher who is in the full possession of this knowledge. For our own training as children of God, we need a teacher who is perfectly familiar with our nature, its capabilities and limitations, and with our God-ordained destination. For either, none is more perfectly qualified than Christ. Therefore St. Paul insists very emphatically that Christ be our teacher: "See to it that no one deceives you by philosophy and vain deceit, according to human traditions, according to the elements of the world and not according to Christ. For in him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead." Col. 2:8-9. Christ himself insists: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life." John 14:6.

HEBREW POET SAYS SOCIALISM IS "FRUIT OF JEWISH SPIRIT"

The following excerpts are from the July, 1933 issue of "Lines of Communication," a monthly publication described on its title page as "A Diocesan Magazine of the Anglican Church in Jerusalem, and Throughout the Holy Land, Trans Jordan, Syria, and Cyprus." Editor, Archdeacon Steward, St. Georges Close, Jerusalem, which printed the address by Mr. N. H. Bialik, described as "the most famous of Hebrew poets." Bialik was also brother-in-law of Jan Garmanik, former citizen commissar of the Soviet Army. The speech itself was delivered at Hebrew University, Jerusalem, May 11, 1933.

Bialik said: "The argument is that Judaism, by penetrating among the Gentiles (in its Christian guise or otherwise) has gradually undermined the remnants of paganism. Such penetration has not been without deliberate conniving in the shape of assistance bestowed in a thousand ways, devices and disguises. It has been effected in great measure by crypto-Jews, who have permeated Christianity and spoken through the mouth of Christianity.

"By these devices, through Jewish will and through the power of their Jewish blood and owing to an instinct for 'requital' they have gradually induced Christianity to shed what was left in it of pagan elements; and it is they who, in principle are the creators of the Renaissance, of Liberalism, of Democracy, of Socialism, and of Communism.

"All this achievement has come about chiefly through unknown and anonymous Jews, Jews in secret, either crypto-Jews who mingled among Gentiles and nurtured great thinkers from among them; or through the influence of Jews who, in the great crisis of liberty and freedom, have stood behind the scenes; or through Jewish teachers and scholars from the times of the Middle Ages. It was the disciples of Jewish teachers who headed the Protestant movement."

*(Editor's Note: Think of the swarm of students Felix Frankfurter taught in Harvard, then had F. D. R. appoint to key government positions).

"These dogs, these haters of Israel, have a keen nose. In truth, Jewish influence in Germany is powerful. It is impossible to ignore it. Marx was a Jew. His manner of thought was Jewish; and one of his forebears was a most distinguished Rabbi endowed with a powerful mind.

"The newspapers under Jewish control, obviously served as an auxiliary in all movements in favor of freedom. Not in vain have Jews been drawn toward journalism. In their hands it became a weapon highly fitted to meet their needs.

"The Gentiles have at last realized this secret — that Judaism has gradually penetrated and permeated them like a drug. The Gentile nature is in revolt and is trying to organize the final battle. Paganism is minded to organize its last war against Judaism. And there is no doubt that this warfare is being waged specifically against Democracy, against Socialism. "This is another world-wide warfare against the forces of Judaism. I venture to think that Socialism in its highest form is the fruit of the Jewish spirit, and the fruit of the world outlook of the prophets. It is they who were the first Socialists."

(Editor's note: Our sincere thanks and appreciation to M. M. of Pennsylvania for sending this revealing address to us.)

The Great Design

[A Master Plan For Supreme Power]

"The design is too complete, and too obvious, to be without designers. In the sequence of past events one may discern the framework of future developments. . . The organic evolution of a definite plan; stupendous in its conception and ruthless in its execution. . ."

Norman Gordon. "Revelation Magazine, Dec., 1948.

"When you see different pieces of material separately constructed, but each so shaped that, together they form parts of a completed whole, you cannot avoid the conclusion that there is a central purpose guiding the seemingly independent efforts of the various workers."

Abraham Lincoln (abridged)

"You call us subverters, agitators, revolution mongers and all. It is the truth. But what is that besides the unquestionable historical conspiracy which we have carried out and which we have never denied because you have never had the courage to charge us with it; but of which the full record is extant for anybody to read."

Tear That One World Banner Down!

OLIVER ALLSTORM

A ONE WORLD flag was flown today
By traitors to the U.S.A.
But bear in mind that flag's a sham
A wolf dressed up just like a lamb;
At best 'tis but a mongrel rag
That never can supplant our flag,

Tear it down! Tear it down;

Our Founding Fathers walk today
In spirit through the U.S.A.
They view with scorn and anxious eyes
The rag that darkens up our skies
And from their graves they shout and cry
That Mongrel flag must never fly—

Tear it down! Tear it down;

We hear the cry from Washington,
From Hamilton and Jefferson,
From old Ben Franklin, Putnam, Paine
From Henry, Parker, Green and Wayne
And all our Pilgrim fathers cry—
That foreign flag must never fly—

Tear it down! Tear it down;

From Yorktown, Trenton, Lexington,
We still can hear the farmers' gun.
From Concord, Valley Forge and still
From blood-red, snow-clad Bunker Hill
And all our hills ring with the cry
That Mongrel flag must never fly

Tear it down! Tear it down;

Look to the "North Church," see the light
Still burning through the darkest night
And there's a hero at our door
Still shouting as in days of yore.
Now listen and your heart can hear
The midnight cry of Paul Revere,

Tear it down! Tear it down;

Think of those fighting "Minute Men"
Whose blood made red each snowy glen.
Think of our martyrs, brave and true,
And how they died for me and you.
There's Nathan Hale and Isaac Hayne
Who from their gallows, cry again.

Tear it down! Tear it down;

And hear the Liberty Bell ring out
From Independence Hall, men shout—
Their Declaration to be free
From entanglements beyond the sea.
Repeat their cry from town to town,
Leap up and tear that banner down,

Tear it down! Tear it down;

A land divided soon shall fall
Let this be known to one and all;
So wave OLD GLORY, it's our flag
And rip that Communistic rag!
Our Liberty's at stake, We cry—
That Mongrel flag must never fly—
Not in America's glowing sky!

Tear it down! Tear it down!

RED HIGHLIGHTS

Millions of letters of protest are swarming into Washington from every state in the Union protesting the continuance in office of Secretary Dean Acheson, George Marshall, and the approval of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense. Still the New Deal Administration keeps on a steady course down the path of national destruction. It is obvious to those who are informed that the International revolutionary Zionists are in complete control and will battle the American people for absolute domination of their lives.

The New York Post (Marxist newspaper) on November 30th carried a large photo of three prominent persons who attended a birthday party in New York. From left to right they are Albert Einstein (belongs to over 50 Communist Fronts) General George C. Marshall, Secretary of Defense the Russian revolution with his money) and Mrs. Dorothy Schiff (Her grandfather started fense Did you know that in 1947 the Communists made a thorough and detailed study of major industrial centers of the United States? The study was made by Communist party squads or "cells" specially constituted for the job. As a result of their surveys the Communist party has a catalogue of strategic installations earmarked for destruction or capture in a show down fight with Russia. This large scale sabotage would seriously cripple the country's industrial power if coincided with the dropping of the Atom Bomb

Is it true that the reason why Truman went out to see MacArthur was because MacArthur knew that he was going to be double-crossed and he was going to resign? The President recently stated that the Atom Bomb might be used. Four months ago the Communist Party started a publicity program in the Daily Worker denouncing the use of the Atom Bomb. Why? It is simple. The Zionists and Communist are already in control of our government. With Marshall and Rosenberg in the Defense Department they intend to make this war a long and devastating affair so that we will never recover. Anna M. Rosenberg the appointee to Assistant Secretary of Defense made the statement recently that this was going to be a long war. That is if she has her way. The Zionist-Communists are afraid that if the Atom Bomb is dropped, the war will be over in a hurry and will be prevented from bankrupting the country and establishing a totalitarian government in America Many Americans are not aware of what the Catholic Church is going through in Palestine under the Zionist regime. Evidence of the destruction of Christianity in Palestine was recently brought to light in a letter from Brother Anthony Bruya, Amman, Transjordan. He wrote:

"The refusals to let us exercise our most sacred rights . . . the attempts to invade our property . . . the open hostility against some of our religious are greiving us deeply.

"The political phase of the Palestine issue is not of primary concern to the Franciscans, state the Custos, but they cannot remain indifferent toward those delicate questions involving shrines, our work, and our activities."

"The Custos lists material damage done to buildings and institutions directed by the Holy Land Custody, and mentions the chapel and monastery of the Cenacle on Mt. Sion in Jerusalem, from which our religious were forcibly expelled by the occupying troops."

Some people wondered why civilian air lines were banned from using the Newark, New Jersey airport during the war. According to Maj. Racey Jordan it was because one of the civilian air planes brushed up against a Russian plane. Hopkins was contacted personally in Washington, by telephone and from then on all civilian and passenger planes were prohibited from using the airport David Katz (Carr) a card-carrying Communist, according to testimony, last September, before a Senate Judiciary Committee, was a snooper for Walter Winchell before being "boosted" into the Office of War Information. After Katz was finally fired from the OWI he went to work for Drew Pearson who has the reputation of working with a sinister secret spy network and smear bund which has close ties with Socialist and Communist movements. The Zionist Defense Minister of England, Emanuel Shinwell made the statement to the world recently that Gen. Douglas MacArthur exceeded his authority by driving for the Manchurian frontier of Korea. The Zionist are organized all over the world and act as a unit for the destruction of Christianity in America

ALL FOLLOWERS OF JESUS CHRIST ARE ANTI-SEMITIC

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

COAST FLAG INCIDENT AROUSES a PATRIOT

In the World-Telegram and Sun there appeared a shocking article by the United Press. It was headed "U.N. Flag Waves Over L. A. Hecklers." It stated that a group of loyal American women in Los Angeles, rightly protesting against any flag other than our own Stars and Stripes being raised over our public buildings, were called "hecklers." If they are "hecklers" then I say every American woman in every part of the U.S.A. should become such a "heckler."

It is not only deplorable, but the flashing of a red danger signal in our country, when it reaches the point that women upholding the honor of our flag, defending and protecting it, should be called names for doing their duty. Where are our Americans? Still asleep? Well, wake up, and join these noble women. Our most-needed defense is not in Korea. It is right at home—guarding our home front. The U.N. flag belongs to the United Nations. It is not our flag. Jackson Heights, N.Y., Helen LaSalle

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Nineteen hundred and fifty years ago a saviour was born into the world. A saviour who showed a confused world the way to happiness. The teachings of Christ have never been changed and all could live happy if a frustrated world had not created it's own gods. Each one of us should give thanks that we may still celebrate the birthday of Christ. The enemies of Christ are working in an effort to wipe out the name and teachings from the earth. So let us celebrate the birthday of our saviour in a Christian fashion.

The Editor and his co-workers wish to extend to the readers of Common Sense a most Blessed Merry Christmas and a happy healthful New Year.

SMEAR-BUND RESCUES ANNA M. ROSENBERG

CHARACTER ASSASSINS ACT TO INSURE CONFIRMATION ADOPT BLACKMAIL TACTICS TO WHITEWASH SENATE INVESTIGATION
Patriotic witnesses maliciously terrorized by pitiless publicity as warning of similar treatment to volunteer witnesses.

Freedman has never made any "accusations" against Anna M. Rosenberg and consequently was never in the position to make any "retractions." Fulton Lewis Jr. is responsible for the publicity linking the name of Anna M. Rosenberg with membership in the communist John Reed Club and the Communist Party. Neither Dr. Matthews, nor Ralph DeSola, and certainly not Freedman who knew nothing about an Anna M. Rosenberg except what he had read in the press and in public records, at any time at all had even intimated that Anna M. Rosenberg had ever been a member of the communist John Reed Club or the Communist Party. Anna M. M. Rosenberg can thank Fulton Lewis Jr. for all the unpleasantness she has experienced recently. Freedman is the victim of "mistaken identity" in this situation even more so than Anna M. Rosenberg.

Fulton Lewis Jr. sneaked one of his "informers" into the home of Freedman in the late night of December 5, 1950 in the company of Senator McCarthy's investigator with a letter of introduction from Gerald L. K. Smith. Senator McCarthy's investigator arrived at Freedman's home late that night and introduced himself to Freedman orally without presenting Gerald L. K. Smith's letter to Freedman. Senator McCarthy's investigator introduced Freedman to the man who accompanied him. The Fulton Lewis Jr. "informers" came into Freedman's living-room and took a seat beside the Senator McCarthy investigator. The Fulton Lewis Jr. "informers" resorted to every trick to build up Freedman's impression that he was also an investigator sent by the Senate Armed Services Committee to New York to interview Freedman.

Senator McCarthy's investigator stated to Freedman "we would like to know what you know about Anna M. Rosenberg" or words to that effect. Freedman told him everything he knew which was not much. Freedman did have photostatic copies of the affidavit which DeSola had prepared that day for the Senate Armed Service Committee. Senator McCarthy's investigator asked if he might keep a copy of DeSola's affidavit for himself and the Fulton Lewis Jr. "informers" made the same request. Freedman gave his consent believing both men represented the Senate Armed Services Committee. Freedman also gave them his personal visiting card with an inscription on it introducing them to DeSola for what Freedman believed them to be at that time namely two Senate investigators.

Fulton Lewis Jr. went on the air on the evening of December 6, 1950 and broadcast the contents of the DeSola affidavit. Fulton Lewis Jr. was guilty of many inaccuracies in that broadcast. He stated that "My own assistant, Mr. Edward Neler, went to New York last night with an investigator for Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin, talked with Mr. DeSola at considerable length. They obtained from Mr. DeSola an affidavit sworn to before a notary public which begins as follows" and then Mr. Fulton Lewis Jr. went on to reveal over the radio the contents of the confidential affidavit prepared by DeSola for the Senate Armed Services Committee, and obtained for Fulton Lewis Jr. by his "informers" by misrepresentation and deception.

Fulton Lewis Jr. however mistated the facts. His "informers" interviewed Freedman and not DeSola on the night of December 5, 1950. Furthermore his "informers" did not obtain a copy of the affidavit from DeSola because he had no copy to give him. His "informers" obtained his copy of the DeSola affidavit from Freedman in the living-room of his home and in the presence of Freedman's wife at the time Senator McCarthy's investigator obtained his copy of DeSola's affidavit from Freedman.

If Fulton Lewis Jr. had not broadcast this confidential document on the air that night the scandal and heartaches for everybody concerned would never have occurred. But what do radio commentators care about heartaches as long as it is not their heart. Disciplinary action should be taken by Senator McCarthy against Fulton Lewis Jr. for the illegal and unauthorized use of Senator McCarthy's authority by Fulton Lewis Jr.'s "informers." Is there nothing sacred to a radio commentator except a punch in the nose? Senator McCarthy knows that answer!

Freedman's reward for his patriotic interest in this affair is a mockery of justice. Freedman rightly believed that it was the duty of every loyal, patriotic American to call the attention of the authorities to any matter which concerned the security of the nation, even if it involved his own brothers. The radio broadcasting stations are constantly blaring appeals to citizens to rush to the nearest FBI office with any clue bearing upon the nation's security. Freedman was motivated by that appeal and his common sense. The nation was only recently shocked by the cases of Judith Coplon, Alger Hiss, Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, John Abt, Charles Kramer, William Remington, Michael Lee, the Amerasia case and others too numerous to mention here.

The smear-bund is well aware of the fact that Anna M. Rosenberg was never accused of being either a member of the communist John Reed Club or a member of the Communist Party. Neither Dr. J. B. Matthews, nor Ralph DeSola, nor Benjamin H. Freedman accused Anna M. Rosenberg of anything. Inspired by the most patriotic motives they called the attention of the members of Congress in a most correct manner to the contents of the reports of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities and/or other documentary data, and to personal recollections relating to the affiliations and activities of an Anna Rosenberg or an Anna M. Rosenberg between the years 1917 and 1945.

The smear-bund screamed to high Heaven that Anna M. Rosenberg was never a member of the John Reed Club nor a member of the Communist Party. They went to great lengths to establish that Anna M. Rosenberg was innocent of charges which had never been made against her. The smear-bund made great capital of the fact that Anna M. Rosenberg was not guilty of accusations which had never had been levelled against her. The smear-bund made a martyr of Anna M. Rosenberg in the eyes of the public. The smear-bund sought to elevate Anna M. Rosenberg to the level of a New Deal-Fair Deal "Joan of Arc" at any cost to them.

Freedman is a retired business man. He is more interested in giving his time and spending his money for defense of his country against Marxism (communism) than he is in accumulating more money and seeking entertainment in his spare time. Freedman is not a wealthy man in the sense in which that term is now used. Freedman is making substantial sacrifices other than the money he has been spending. Since Freedman engaged in the task of opening the eyes of his fellow Americans to the perils of Marxism (communism) he has been the target of the most vicious smear-campaign ever conducted against a human being in the history of this nation.

Freedman made occasional visits to Washington to exchange views with members of Congress on our big international problems. Freedman planned a trip to Washington upon the return of Congress on November 27th. after the recess taken for the elections. Freedman visited Washington on Friday, December 1, 1950. On that day he had occasion to visit several members of Congress to talk over the situation in Korea.

In the course of his conversations with the members of Congress on Dec. 1, 1950 Freedman made reference to the Senate Armed Services Committee's unanimous approval of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense on November 29, 1950 at a meeting presided over by Senator Millard Tydings, Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee. These members of Congress were not aware of that confirmation and seemed rather surprised.

Further inquiry by members of Congress elicited the information that the representatives of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and AMVETS did not know of that confirmation and seemed rather surprised.

firmation. Freedman returned to New York on the afternoon train. Freedman made no charges whatsoever against Anna M. Rosenberg on that visit to Washington or at any time since that visit.

On the afternoon the next day, Saturday, December 2, 1950 Freedman telephoned to Dr. J. B. Matthews at his home in New York City. In view of the sentiment expressed in Washington based upon references to an Anna Rosenberg and an Anna M. Rosenberg in the Un-American Activities Committee reports Freedman believed that it was in the interest of national security to have a talk with Dr. Matthews. Dr. Matthews is regarded as the greatest authority in this country on communists, the Communist Party, and communist organizations. Dr. Matthews was the Research Director for the Un-American Activities Committee during the years it investigated communist activities. He is a famous man.

Freedman asked Dr. Matthews if he knew of any affiliation of Anna M. Rosenberg which might disqualify her for the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. Dr. Matthews promptly presented Freedman with a copy of a nine page memorandum about Anna M. Rosenberg which he had prepared and sent to each member of the Senate. Freedman turned this memorandum over to the Senate Armed Services Committee during his hearing on December 11, 1950. That memorandum did not endorse or recommend Anna M. Rosenberg's confirmation in her new position.

During the visit by Freedman to Dr. Matthews on Saturday, December 2, 1950 Freedman was told by Dr. Matthews of an FBI file on Anna M. Rosenberg which would disclose unfavorable information bearing upon her qualifications to fill the position as Assistant Secretary of Defense. Freedman learned of the existence of such a file only from Dr. Matthews. The FBI file on Anna M. Rosenberg was obtained subsequently by the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Dr. Matthews asked Freedman to keep his name out of the matter if he could do so. Dr. Matthews is a private investigator and publicity is not desirable in that field. Freedman attempted to comply with Dr. Matthews request. Freedman was requested on the spot in Washington by members of Congress on December 4, 1950 to make a written memorandum of his conversations with Dr. Matthews and Ralph DeSola.

Dr. Matthews became very angry upon learning of the memorandum requested by members of Congress. Freedman wrote a very meek and humble letter of apology to Dr. Matthews explaining his regret that he had been unable to keep Dr. Matthews name out of the matter. That letter of apology to Dr. Matthews has now been interpreted by the smear-bund as a "retraction" by Freedman of his "accusations against Mrs. Rosenberg."

A very reliable source put Freedman in contact with DeSola. DeSola told Freedman his story. Freedman repeated DeSola's story to members of Congress. They requested a statement from DeSola. DeSola gave that statement to Freedman to deliver to the Senate Armed Services Committee. Freedman did so as the messenger boy for Congress. Freedman took the statement of DeSola to Washington. In the meantime the "informer" from Fulton Lewis Jr.'s organization had injected himself into the picture.

After the broadcast by Fulton Lewis Jr. there was nothing else the Senate Armed Services Committee could do except to reopen their confirmation of Anna M. Rosenberg. If Fulton Lewis Jr.'s "informer" had not purloined a copy of DeSola's affidavit and given it nation-wide publicity the matter would have been quietly investigated by the Senate Armed Services Committee and acted upon according to their best judgment. The DeSola matter might have thus died aborning. But certainly it was the Senate Armed Services Committee which should have made that decision, not Fulton Lewis Jr.

Freedman reprimanded Fulton Lewis Jr.'s "informer" for his wrongful conduct. Fulton Lewis Jr. thereupon proceeded to smear Freedman on his next broadcast to discredit him before Freedman could expose the truth about this situation. Fulton Lewis Jr. broadcast to his 18,000,000 listeners on his December 12th broadcast that Freedman was a "violent anti-Semite" and made other equally untrue statements about Freedman. Was Fulton Lewis Jr. ordered by the smear-bund to discredit Freedman in the eyes of the American public?

Freedman did not go out and hunt for DeSola. Freedman's lawyer was dining at his home on the evening of December 2nd, 1950. Freedman mentioned to his lawyer the interesting visit Freedman had made that afternoon to Dr. Matthews. Freedman's lawyer informed Freedman that he had a possible source of information concerning Anna M. Rosenberg. Freedman's lawyer telephoned to several men of importance. Freedman's lawyer was given the name of De-

Sola as a person who might have some knowledge concerning Anna M. Rosenberg. Freedman's lawyer arranged to have DeSola telephone to Freedman. Pursuant to a telephone conversation with DeSola Freedman met him and heard his story. When members of Congress heard DeSola's story from Freedman they requested the story from DeSola in the form of an affidavit. DeSola prepared the affidavit voluntarily and without any assistance.

The smear-bund have attempted to whitewash Anna M. Rosenberg by creating a "red herring" issue. The smear-bund seeks to make it appear that the only issue involved in the confirmation of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense is whether or not she ever attended any meetings of one of the many John Reed Clubs. The smear-bund wishes to concentrate the entire issue of the advisability of confirming Mrs. Rosenberg in her present position on the question of did she or did she not attend meetings of one of the John Reed Clubs over twenty years ago. But that single fact is not the issue at all. The issue here is the question of the affiliations and activities of Anna M. Rosenberg since she engaged in business for herself as a labor-relations consultant in 1924 or thereabouts. The American people have a right to learn the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. This is no time to draw "red herrings" across an issue.

The smear-bund have used their heaviest artillery to convince the public that there has been "an attack upon Anna M. Rosenberg" as part of "an anti-Semitic conspiracy." But it is the smear-bund which drags the religious issue into the situation. It is un-American, non-American, and anti-American to oppose or to approve any candidate for office upon the basis of their religious affiliations. Raising that issue in this matter appears to be a smoke-screen of the smear-bund and clouds the real issues involved in the confirmation of Mrs. Rosenberg.

Freedman is virtually crucified twenty-four hours of the day and three-hundred and sixty-five days of the year by the smear-bund but not for the interest he exhibited in the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense. He is the victim of every conceivable sort of torture within the limits of the law, and sometimes beyond the limits of the law because he opened his mouth to tell the American people what he had learned about the Palestine situation. On the Palestine question Freedman was a follower of Jacob H. Schiff, Henry Morgenthau Sr., Arthur Hays Sulzberger and Lessing Rosenwald. They did not fear to tell the truth.

Jacob H. Schiff publicly stated, "I cannot for a moment concede that one can be at the same time a true American and an honest adherent of the Zionist movement." Henry Morgenthau Sr. publicly stated, "Zionism . . . is a betrayal . . . an Eastern proposal fathered in this country by American Jews . . . I refuse to allow myself to be called a Zionist, I am an American." Arthur Hays Sulzberger, the owner of the New York Times expressed the same sentiment. Lessing Rosenwald expresses himself on the subject of Zionism on behalf of over 30,000 other Judaic Americans to the point where he has been labelled the "Jewish Gerald L. K. Smith" by his Zionist co-religionists. Zionism is at the root of all the antagonism displayed in the Anna M. Rosenberg appointment.

Freedman has not been popular with the Zionists since he expressed his opinion in 1945 on the Palestine question. The smear-bund since that time has persecuted Freedman beyond the power of description. The Zionists have ordered the smear-bund to destroy the faith of Americans in Freedman. The Zionists do not want the American public to learn what Freedman can teach them. They dog his steps day and night and watch for an opportunity to smear him to the American people. Other victims of the smear-bund in all walks of life will sympathize with Freedman. But the man who has not been the target for the smear-bund cannot imagine the lengths to which they will go to silence a person who seeks to alert the American people.

Freedman never stated that he is "disgusted with the 'accusations against Mrs. Rosenberg.'" Freedman did express "disgust" but it was "disgust" for the failure of the Senate Armed Services Committee to interest themselves in the suit-case which he had with him at the hearings which was filled with data concerning the affiliations and activities of Anna M. Rosenberg from the time of her arrival in this country in 1912 down to the year 1948. That was the "disgust" expressed by Freedman in connection with the Anna M. Rosenberg affair. Freedman knew of no "accusations" against Mrs. Rosenberg about which to feel "disgusted." Freedman knew that hearing were to be held as was customary to inquire into the past affiliations and activities of the future Assistant Secretary of Defense.

For three days Freedman carried a suit-case around Washington filled with papers, records, and documents relating to affiliations and activities of an Anna M. Rosenberg from 1912 to 1948. Freedman was in the hearing before the Senate Armed Services Committee for 3½ hours with that suit-case opened on the table before him. During that entire time Freedman was not asked to submit the data which he had there on the table before him. He could not offer it!

Freedman was asked however whether he was "anti-Jewish." Freedman was asked to explain where he went when he wished to "worship." Freedman was asked whether he was the Freedman referred to in newspaper articles who had "cabled his respects to the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem." Freedman was asked whether he was the man referred to in newspaper articles as the Freedman interested in the manufacture of machine guns in Pakistan for the Arabs in Palestine. Freedman was obliged to defend himself against charges made in newspaper articles introduced into the record at the hearing which had been inserted in the newspapers by groups identified by the Un-American Activities Committee as the "legal branch" of the Communist Party to establish his "credibility." Freedman was not treated like a loyal patriot who was solely interested in preventing another Judith Coplon, Alger Hiss, Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, John Abt, Charles Kramer, Michael Lee or a development similar to the Amerasia case.

As usual, and as was to be expected, the smear-bund immediately dragged the "anti-Semitism" issue into the Senate Armed Services Committee hearings. The smear-bund pulled the throttle wide open on the "anti-Semitic" aspect of hearings to confirm an Assistant Secretary of Defense in the greatest crisis this nation ever faced. Congressman John Rankin and Gerald L. K. Smith were accused of being behind the "charges" against Anna M. Rosenberg. And of course they were smeared good and plenty as "anti-Semites."

The smear-bund attempted to put the hush-hush on the Senate Armed Services Committee hearing by implying that it was a move inspired by "anti-Semites." Freedman's name was linked to Congressman John Rankin's and to Gerald L. K. Smith's to establish the basis for calling the hearings an "anti-Semitic" conspiracy against Anna M. Rosenberg.

The smear-bund did exactly the same thing when the Garson brothers were accused of bribing Congressman Jack May during World War II. The smear-bund attempted to make "anti-Semitism" the issue in the Garson brothers-Congressman May affair. They were all found guilty and sentenced to serve a prison sentence which they did after appealing their case to the highest courts.

It is a libel against all Christian Americans, and against many Judaic Americans, to accuse them of an antipathy against any human being solely on account of his or her religious belief. The smear-bund cry of "anti-Semitism" in the past has been able to silence many charges temporarily and others permanently against many of their "sacred-cows."

The basis for the antipathy which the smear-bund characterizes as "anti-Semitism" is due to the fact that counterfeit Americans guilty of un-American attitudes and activities identify themselves incorrectly as "Jews," and their attitudes and activities incorrectly as "Jewish." One thing is certain beyond the question of a doubt. "Anti-Semitism" played no part in the Anna M. Rosenberg affair. Mrs. Rosenberg, DeSola and Freedman all have the same religious background.

Anna M. Rosenberg has stated that there was another Anna Rosenberg. We are fortunate in being able to quote here from the Official Record printed for the use of the Committee on Armed Services of the Senate. On page 10 of the hearings before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 before which Anna M. Rosenberg testified, the following is a quotation;

MRS. ROSENBERG . . . The person who was cited was an Anna Rosenberg, not Anna M. Rosenberg, and the Dies committee report said that anyone who belongs to these clubs must be a writer. It was another Anna Rosenberg.

THE CHAIRMAN . . . I mean, did they actually locate and identify the other Anna Rosenberg?

MRS. ROSENBERG . . . I believe they did. She was a writer.

THE CHAIRMAN . . . Is that shown in the record of the Dies committee?

MRS. ROSENBERG . . . I believe so.

THE CHAIRMAN . . . I mean, was her identity proven beyond doubt as being a distinct separate entity from yours?

MRS. ROSENBERG . . . I am quite sure it was as far as the gentlemen who were there at the time of that hearing."

In view of the foregoing it does not seem necessary for Freedman to put up "$10,000 reward" to locate the "other" Anna Rosenberg, or to "take full page newspaper announcements" advertising for the "other" Anna Rosenberg to come forward and clear up this confused situation. What about the Dies committee records and the FBI? Everybody should pitch in to clear the name of any innocent person. Why make Freedman the goat? Is there an Anna Rosenberg and an Anna M. Rosenberg? Let's have a look at her. Let the FBI get busy!

On page 11 of the hearings before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 when Anna M. Rosenberg testified, she denied that she had been a member of the Consumers National Federation. But there does not appear anywhere on any record claims Anna M. Rosenberg was ever charged with being a member of the Consumers National Federation. Membership in that organization involves a great many implications which are not pleasant!

Earl Browder, when he was a witness before the Special Committee on Un-American Activities in September 1939 identified the Consumers National Federation as a "transmission belt." A "transmission belt," according to the Un-American Activities Committee report, is "an organization through which the Communist Party extends its influence and ideology to groups which are broader than the party itself."

On page 660 of the Appendix-Part IX, of the report of the Un-American Activities Committee the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" appears as one of the signers of "Individual Sponsors" of the Consumers National Federation meeting of "The People vs. H.C.L." Anna M. Rosenberg should look and see if that is her "sponsorship" and who some of the other signers were. It may be another "mistaken identity."

At the hearing of the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 before which Anna M. Rosenberg testified Senator Cain evidently confused Anna M. Rosenberg. Anna M. Rosenberg volunteered the information that she does not recall having contributed an "article" to Social Work Today. The "contribution" Anna M. Rosenberg had in mind was an "article" written by her. There is no reference in the report of the Un-American Activities Committee that an "article" was ever "contributed" to Social Work Today by Anna M. Rosenberg.

In the report of the Un-American Activities Committee on page 856 of Appendix-Part IX appears the following, "The official organ of the International Workers Order publicizes in its issues the numerous front organizations set up by the Communist Party;" and then lists twenty-six fronts which include, "Social Work Today (ibid., p. 29)."

On page 1788 of the Appendix-Part IX, of the report of the Un-American Activities Committee appears an exhibit from Social Work Today of Feb. 1942, pp. 51-54, which reads, "Social Work Today Cooperators—1941, These men and women have made it possible for Social Work Today to strengthen and prepare itself for the supreme test of today," and on page 1792 lists the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" under the "cooperators" in New York State.

On page 1782 of the same Appendix-Part IX, appears an exhibit from Social Work Today, Jan. 1941, pp. 16-18, which reads as follows, "Social Work Today Cooperators, 1940," and on page 1786 appears the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" as a cash "contributor" among the "New York City contributors." This sum is evidently the "contribution" which was mistaken for a written "article" by Mrs. Rosenberg.

On page 2056 of the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the Un-American Activities Committee Report on Communist-Front Organizations, the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" listed in that Index is referred to in the following manner;

"Anna M. Rosenberg . . . 660, 939, 1786, 1792."

References to these pages show that an "Anna Rosenberg" signed a protest of the John Reed Club which was published in the New York Times, and that an "Anna M. Rosenberg" on three occasions had certain affiliations with the Consumers National Federation and Social Work Today. All four instances are referred to in the index under the name "Anna M. Rosenberg."

At no time did Freedman, or anyone to his knowledge, accuse Anna M. Rosenberg of being the "Anna Rosenberg" referred to in connection with the official record of the House of Representatives Special Committee on Un-American Activities. Freedman expressed himself in writing as follows, "Mrs. Rosenberg, if you are the victim of mistaken identity all you need to do is speak up."

That hardly sounds like an "accusation." Every reliable source of information on the subject consulted by Freedman stated to him that a doubt always existed regarding the identity of the "Anna Rosenberg" listed in spite of her exact listing in the Cumulative Index under the name of "Anna M. Rosenberg."

Reference is made to Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg in the New Yorker Magazine of September 15, 1945. The writer of the article on page 20 in that issue states that he had an interview with Mrs. Rosenberg and that he, "learned that her office hired ten thousand people for the Manhattan District, or atom-bomb, project." The atom-bomb project was so top-secret that Mrs. Rosenberg is quoted by him as saying, "I never knew what it was all about myself."

The disclosures which have appeared in the newspapers recently indicate that Mrs. Rosenberg's office did not do such a good job in screening communists out of that project. If her office had been more successful then this country would not now be living in fear of an atom-bomb blitz at any moment by the Soviet Union. Better luck this time, if it is again just going to be a matter of luck.

In the same September 15, 1950 issue of the New Yorker magazine on page 21, the writer of the article who interviewed Mrs. Rosenberg states that as he, "started out she said that one of her last manpower preoccupations had been what to do about the ADJUSTMENT of returning service men." The writer of the article goes on to relate that, "she had become highly agitated about it at a recent staff meeting." He then quotes Mrs. Rosenberg as having said to him, "When they cleared out of my office I went down the hall to see somebody and overheard one of my staff saying, 'You know, I think the boss is suffering from combat fatigue. I hope she'll be able to make an ADJUSTMENT.'" (emphasis supplied) The writer of the article then reports Mrs. Rosenberg as having replied, "She thinks she will be." How does Mrs. Rosenberg feel today about "reindoctrination" of the veterans returning from Korea?

In the April 23, 1938 issue of the New Yorker Magazine there is a "Profile" of Anna M. Rosenberg. This "Profile" of Anna M. Rosenberg covers the complete or the greater part of pages 24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29. The author commences the "Profile" by announcing that he is an "admirer" of Mrs. Rosenberg and that he visited her offices with a stenographer in order to "preserve for posterity a likeness of this animated lady."

The name of the author of the "Profile" of Mrs. Rosenberg is printed at the end of the article. The author's name appears as "Richard O. Boyer." In the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee Report, on page 1826 there appears the name "Richard O. Boyer" and reference is made after his name to pages 744, 749, 1242, 1350, 1352, 1453, and 1459. If that is the same "Richard O. Boyer" who calls himself an "admirer" of Mrs. Rosenberg it would be interesting to learn if the "admirer" was mutual.

Richard O. Boyer makes many interesting statements about Mrs. Rosenberg in his "Profile" about her. In view of the interest of the public in the political affiliations and activities of Mrs. Rosenberg prior to her present appointment no harm can possibly come to Mrs. Rosenberg by printing a few quotations from the "Profile" written by an "admirer" and published by the New Yorker Magazine which can hardly be accused of being "anti-Semitic." The following are several quotations;

"A department-store owner may be reluctant to call Sidney Hillman but is not reluctant to call Anna Rosenberg, one of Hillman's best friends. A Democratic politician who campaigned for Mahoney may have a message for the American Labor Party, and Anna, who worked with the Party in the last campaign, is virtually always the channel."

In the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee Report, on page 1932, appears the name "Sidney Hillman," and after the name "Sidney Hillman" appear references to pages 261-264, 340, 349, 384, 461 f., 481, 672, f., 679, 683, 743, 764, 940 f., 982, 1193, 1199, 1202, 1204, 1209 f., 1212 f., 1215, 1280, 1304, 1372, 1494 f., 1497-1500, 1554, 1602, 1604, and 1624. This "Sidney Hillman" may or may not be the "Sidney Hillman" referred to by Richard O. Boyer as one of Anna M. Rosenberg's "best friends."

It appears from every public record that

Anna M. Rosenberg actually acquired her great influence in the political world through her close friendship with Sidney Hillman. The late Sidney Hillman had great political power. Sidney "Clear-it-with-Sidney" Hillman is credited with having been responsible for the selection of Harry S. Truman as Vice-Presidential candidate in the 1944 elections. Sidney Hillman, according to biographies on his life, was born Schmucl Gilman in Lithuania, Russia and fled to the United States after he was sought by the Russian government for violent revolutionary activities. He is said to have been a leading member of the Bund, a Russian Marxist organization which Senator Benton's Encyclopedia Britannica describes as "the spearhead of the world-revolution." It is doubtful if this is a case of "mistaken identity." Is there another Sidney Hillman?

Further quotations from the "Profile" on Anna M. Rosenberg by Richard O. Boyer are equally enlightening. A few follow;

"Hello, Mrs. Hillman . . . I'm a little worried about Sidney. How's he doing . . . Not to worry . . . Tell him everything is all right. All he'll have to do is sign it . . . On that laundry thing. We'll have it ready by Wednesday . . . G'bye, dollink."

"She was closely associated with Tammany and managed campaigns for Tammany small fry."

"I haven't cared one damn what they thought of my supporting LaGuardia . . . I play as much politics as anybody in this town."

"Her career . . . a political jobholder, and a semiofficial settler of labor disputes."

"Governor Lehman considers her a personal friend . . . appointed her last July to head an important committee which will suggest changes in the state constitution"

"God damn all politicians."

"She has an acute awareness of herself and dons special roles for special occasions as an actress puts on costumes."

"Once there was a lie-down strike in her office. For a time she cheerfully climbed over her employees' bodies, refusing to call the police because she felt that would make martyrs of the strikers. Then she had an idea. She called four city ambulances, declaring that a delegation had been stricken by collective illness in her office."

Entirely aside from all views expressed so far regarding the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense there is the question of the propriety of selecting her for the position which she is filling. Drew Pearson, Co-Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal with Mrs. Rosenberg, said in his "Washington Merry-go-round" on December 18, 1950, that Mrs. Rosenberg "made $250,000 a year as labor adviser to the Rockefellers, Macy's and other corporations."

In the hearing before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 Mrs. Rosenberg testified that the most recent clients of her labor-consultant organization, besides the "five Rockefeller brothers," were John (Jock) Whitney, who represents the extensive Whitney interests, Lazar Freres & Co. an important cog in the international Lehman Brothers-Kuhn, Loeb & Co. banking syndicate, Albert Lasker, a close associate of Bernard M. Baruch, E. H. Macy & Co. which is headed by the brother of the president of the American Smelting & Refining Company, William Warner & Co. which owns the Richard Hudnut business and employs Walter Winchell on the radio, Alfred Vanderbilt, Senator Benton and his Encyclopedia Britannica, Britannica Milms and Musak interests, and other employers of large numbers of workers.

Other employers of large numbers of workers may have reason to question the choice of Mrs. Rosenberg to a position where Mrs. Rosenberg will be, according to Sidney Fields in the New York Mirror on November 15, 1950, "IN CHARGE OF THE NATION'S MAN-POWER, A JOB WHICH MAKES HER BOSS OF EVERY WORKING MAN AND WOMAN IN THE COUNTRY."

According to Mrs. Rosenberg's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950, Mrs. Rosenberg still retains ownership of about 43% in the labor-relations consultant organization in which until recently she has owned 66 2/3%, and in which she has been engaged nearly all her adult life. In her position as Assistant Secretary of Defense Mrs. Rosenberg has the sole dictatorial authority over distribution of workers among factories

It will be up to Mrs. Rosenberg to decide what factories working on civilian production or on war materials shall be allocated workers. It does not seem proper to have a person who owns 43% in a business which advises upon labor problems sit in the position where she acts upon requests for workers from her own clients and from non-clients. The pressure exerted upon Mrs. Rosenberg to accept her present position has placed her in this embarrassing situation.

During her hearing Mrs. Rosenberg was not asked by the Senate Armed Services Committee who her clients had been in earlier years. Mrs. Rosenberg would have served her best interests if she had insisted upon putting on the record the names of all her clients from the very first day she engaged in business for herself. The names of all her clients from the day she launched herself in business would have gone a long way in supporting Mrs. Rosenberg's statement to the Senate Armed Services Committee that, "at no time, not even in the times when some people were sympathetic to communism, or at least coddled it, I was at no time sympathetic and did not sign any statement. I have been fairly violent on that subject, and my violence has increased."

It is to be assumed that any candidate for that high office would voluntarily invite the most careful scrutiny of past affiliations and activities. A candidate with a clear record could hardly find anything objectionable in that. Only by such proceedings could doubts and misunderstandings be cleared up for the benefit of all parties concerned. Freedman's "disgust" with what had taken place at his hearing in Washington was sufficient to make him tear up contents of that suit-case and to flush them down the toilet upon his return home from Washington. The smear-bund publicity to the effect that Freedman "had a change of heart" is a figment of the imagination of the greatest propaganda machine in all the world. The smear-bund can move mountains with their propaganda.

Mrs. Rosenberg was called upon once before in her career to clear herself of the "mistaken identity" belief that she was the "Anna Rosenberg" who signed the John Reed Club protest. In the printed record of the hearings on November 29, 1950 before the Senate Armed Services Committee at which Mrs. Rosenberg testified she so stated herself. The following is from that record;

MRS. ROSENBERG. I did not know what the John Reed Clubs were, but I looked up the John Reed Clubs, and they were Communist clubs. I understand at one time, when I was up here with the Social Security Board, Congressman Engel of Michigan asked me if I knew that I had been cited by the Dies Committee to belong to some Communist club. I said I had never known, and I would appreciate if they would immediately show me the record. They showed me the record then, and it was these clubs. The person who was cited was an Anna Rosenberg, not Anna M. Rosenberg, and the Dies committee report said that anyone who belongs to these clubs must be a writer. It was another Anna Rosenberg."

The Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX of the Un-American Activities Committee Report, on Page 2151, lists the various John Reed Clubs which indicate the nature and extent of this extensive communist apparatus;

John Reed Club 297, 408, 569, 580 f, 731, 916, 939, 967, 972, 975, 1309 ff., 1535, 1542, 1634, 1663.

A secret foreign influence is being exerted over the press and radio in the United States today. It is aiding and abetting the enemies of the nation. It has also infiltrated into the government. These enemies of the United States are the international Marxists (communists). The international Marxists (communists) are dedicating their lives and their resources to bring about the surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union. They appear to be on the way to success.

Counterfeit Americans and other agents of the Soviet Union in the United States feel very secure after what has occurred in the Anna M. Rosenberg affair. They have witnessed loyal patriots mercilessly smeared in the press and over the radio only because they had the courage to call the attention of their government in a most proper manner to certain facts and clues with a possible bearing upon the security of the nation. To have done less would have been treason.

After what has happened to these loyal patriots it requires a great deal of optimism to expect any sane American to volunteer to come to the aid of his country in the same way they did. Supreme success in silencing loyal patriots is a great victory for the Soviet Union in their undeclared war against the United States.

The American people have been miserably misled on the question of "anti-Semitism." The Marxists (communists) who allegedly profess Judaism as their religious belief have no legitimate right to identify themselves before the world as "Jews." They form only a fraction of the Judiac population of the world. It is as fraudulent as though Mussolini and the Italian Fascists identified themselves before the world as "Catholics" because they allegedly professed Catholicism as their religious belief. Likewise it would be just as fraudulent if Hitler and the Nazis had identified themselves before the world as "Protestants" because they allegedly professed Protestantism as their religious belief. This question is fully explained in the COMMON SENSE issue No. 125 which will be sent free of charge to anyone upon request for a copy. Religious belief should not be confused with racial or national origin. The myth of the "Jewish race" has been exploded. Every American should inform himself correctly on that question and the "anti-Semitism" issue will dissolve and disappear into the thin air forever.

The records of Anna M. Rosenberg's background vary considerably. It all depends where you make your search. In some instances the facts stated are very conflicting. In the printed record of the hearings of the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 before which Mrs. Rosenberg testified, the following appears in the record;

THE CHAIRMAN. Have you resided in America ever since you came here with your mother sometime ago?

MRS. ROSENBERG. I have, with the exceptions of three times when I went to Europe; once on a commission for President Roosevelt, twice during the war; once for President Roosevelt, and once for President Truman, and for one month in France, 3 weeks in France; in England during May of last year.

MR. CHAIRMAN. Then you have been here all the time, except when you left on official trips in connection with your duties with the Government?

MRS. ROSENBERG. That is right.

MR. CHAIRMAN. Where were you educated?

MRS. ROSENBERG. In New York City.

The New York Times gives a slightly different version of this history. The illustrious S. J. Woolf interviewed Mrs. Rosenberg when she was sketched by him for an article which appeared in the New York Times Magazine Section. In the Sunday New York Times of March 31, 1935, in Section VII, on page 18, S. J. Woolf quotes Mrs. Rosenberg as having stated, "After the war I returned (to Europe) and continued my studies there for a short time. Then I came back here and looked for a job." At the time of the appointment when Mrs. Rosenberg was named Acting State Director of the National Emergency Council of the NRA (Blue Eagle) to succeed Nathan Strauss Jr. on September 15, 1935, The New York Times stated, "Mrs. Rosenberg . . . is a graduate of Wadleigh High School in this city. She finished her education in Europe. There she learned to speak several languages fluently." The answer to this confusion is, "You pays your money and you takes your pick."

In view of the recommendations of Mrs. Rosenberg in 1944 regarding the "reindoctrination camps" for GI's returning from World War II to private life, it would seem no more than reasonable that the veterans' groups should have had an opportunity to appear before the Senate Armed Services Committee to state the attitude of 10,000,000 veterans regarding the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg to the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. The three large veterans organizations, The Veterans of Foreign Wars, The American Legion and The AMVETS did not attend the hearings at which the Senate Armed Services Committee unanimously approved Mrs. Rosenberg for that position. They did not even know the hearings were to be held on that day. That is a detail which the veterans organizations would like to have some one explain away if they are able to do so.

Freedman was requested by members of Congress to appear before the Senate Armed Services Committee. Freedman willingly assented. Freedman requested that a subpoena be issued asking for his appearance. Appearing before a Congressional committee under subpoena gives the witness immunity against libel suits. Appearing without a subpoena exposes a witness to libel suits by parties about whom he testifies. Many members of Congress asked that Freedman be called to testify under subpoena. Freedman requested a subpoena for over two days but could not get one although he was informed there was one on its way to him. After Freedman insisted and persisted, and after several members of Congress demanded that Freedman be given a subpoena he finally received one. Evidently someone either did not wish Freedman to testify or they wished him to expose himself to libel suits. It would seem that way.

The smear-bund has given great publicity in the press and over all the radio networks to the effect that Freedman "had offered to clear the name of Anna M. Rosenberg." Freedman has made no such offer. Freedman thinks that the people who say such flattering things about Anna M. Rosenberg in print should dig into their fat bank-rolls and put up the money to "clear the name of Anna M. Rosenberg."

Senator Lehman, Senator Ives, Governor Dewey, General Eisenhower and countless others have figuratively smothered Anna M. Rosenberg with praise. Do these men expect Freedman to go out and dig up the "other" Anna Rosenberg at his own personal expense? If they refuse to do so we believe Freedman is the kind of man who will gladly foot the bill to find the "other" Anna Rosenberg in order to see fair play done. But why don't these "big shots" get busy and locate the "other" Anna Rosenberg? That should not be impossible. If she looks like Anna M. Rosenberg it will explain DeSola's identification of a woman he has not seen for almost twenty years. That is a job for the FBI!

Freedman is reported to have "retracted" charges against Anna M. Rosenberg. It is not true. Freedman is reported to have had a "change of heart." It is not true. Freedman is reported to have sent a telegram to the Senate Armed Services Committee stating that he "was disgusted with the attack upon Mrs. Rosenberg." It is not true. Freedman is reported to have offered "to clear the name of Mrs. Rosenberg." It is not true. Freedman is reported to have offered a reward of $10,000 to "vindicate" Mrs. Rosenberg. It is not true. Freedman is referred to as a "self-styled excommunicated Jew." It is not true. Freedman is described as having spent more than $100,000 "for the Arab cause" in Palestine. It is not true. Freedman is referred to as a "violent anti-Semite." It is not true. Freedman is called a "disgrace to his race." It is not true. What is the truth? What are the facts?

For his patriotic interest in this matter Freedman has been called "violent anti-Semite" in the press from coast to coast and over the radio networks. He has also been referred to as a "self-styled excommunicated Jew," a "disgrace to his race" and an assortment of other similar smear terms. Freedman invites any investigation to support or disprove those scurrilous statements. At the same time a great cry has gone up throughout the land concerning an alleged friendship between Freedman and Congressman John Rankin and Gerald L. K. Smith. Freedman is held up to disgrace by the smear-bund because he is reported to be the friend of these two "anti-Semites." Freedman has come to this conclusion. If Congressman John Rankin and Gerald L. K. Smith are no more "anti-Semites" than Freedman is an "anti-Semite" then Congressman John Rankin and Gerald L. K. Smith are two of the best friends in this country of Judiac genuine Americans. Is it possible that the word "anti-Semite" has been given a meaning to make it a deadly weapon for the smear-bund to destroy those who dare to expose their principals? That is worth looking into!

DeSola told Freedman at their first meeting he would make the sacrifice again because of the national crisis but that he knew what was going to happen to him for coming forward and talking about Anna M. Rosenberg. DeSola told Freedman that he had been through the wringer once before when he first left the Communist Party and supplied valuable information to the FBI and the Un-American Activities Committee. DeSola anticipated exactly what the smear-bund did to him. And DeSola did not exaggerate one single word. Poor fellow!

DeSola has sent several communications to the Senate Armed Services Committee offering to take the lie-detector test if Anna M. Rosenberg would take it. DeSola states that if Alger Hiss had agreed to take the lie-detector test when Whitaker Chambers offered to take it much effort and expense could have been spared the government and the taxpayers. DeSola still asks to have both himself and Anna M. Rosenberg given the lie-detector test. Will she agree to it?

It is vital to the survival of the nation that the American public learn the true inside story about the hearings on the confirmation of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense and about the smear campaign in the press and over the radio networks concerning facts and persons involved in this seeming scandal.

ANNA M. ROSENBERG WHITEWASH

Anna M. Rosenberg has been confirmed as Assistant Secretary of Defense, although the appointment met with heavy opposition from the American people in general. Many Americans exhausted every known constitutional means to stop another Zionist from slipping into the driver's seat of American government, but the Marxist New Deal government strategists obtained their objective by deception, trickery, and false publicity programs.

All of this was dictated and controlled by the same individuals who are responsible for the Chinese double-cross, Korean war, economic bankruptcy of the Country, and the general Communistic policies put forth by the New Deal administration. The manner in which the "invisible government" maneuvered Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg into the all-important position of Assistant Secretary of Defense was so deceptive that only a child would accept it without protest.

Keeping in mind that a thorough investigation proved that there were only eight Anna Rosenbergs in New York City, instead of the 40 claimed by Mrs. Rosenberg, there was only ONE Anna M. Rosenberg. This alone proves little, but when added to this the assertion by individuals in Washington that the real Anna M. Rosenberg was found in California, ALTHOUGH HER IDENTITY COULD NOT BE REVEALED, it becomes obvious that the Marxist New Deal administration will stop at nothing to take final control of the American people.

At no time in history has there been such a vital position at stake and the American people refused the truth. At no time in history has one person been given so much power with contempt for the views of the American people.

Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, a Hungarian born Zionist, who is now in charge of every man and woman in America, may not be a card-carrying Communist. Neither were Alger Hiss, William W. Remington, Harry Dexter White, John Service John Abt, Phillip Jessup and Owen Lattimore. All of these were given a strong white-wash and denied vehemently the charges thrown at them. Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg used the same type of weak denial, but was heavily supported by New Dealers and Marxists.

MRS. ROSENBERG'S RECORD

Lets look into Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg's past and see if it is possible to give her a good bill of health.

She is, or was, on the Committee of the "New York State Committee For Equality in Education." This is a group of individuals who banded together to protest the use of the New Testament in public schools because the members claim it is an anti-Semitic book. Her associates in this organization are the following: ROGER BALDWIN, manager for Henry Wallace and member of the Marxist Front, "American Civil Liberties Union," Mrs. Joseph Berenson a top member of the anti-Christian B'nai B'rith; Bruce Bliven of the Marxist Front "New Republic;" Irving Fellerman, "Free Sons of Israel;" Joseph Lash, the Marxist Front "American For Democratic Action;" Bishop G. Bromley Oxman, the Red Clergyman; Guy Emery Shipley, "The Churchman;" Meier Steinbrink, Anti-Defamation League; Dr. Stephen S.

Wise, Marxist controlled "American Jewish Congress" and Joseph Zwillinger, Communist Front "Progressive Citizens of America."

While all of the above named can be considered as leftists or Marxists, we comment on only two: Bishop G. Bromley Oxman, of the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, is well-known as a Red-liner. He has held positions in the following Communist and Marxist-front organizations . . . American League Against War and Fascism, American Civil Liberties Union, Friends of Democracy, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy and the National Religion and Labor Foundation.

Joseph Lash, pet of Eleanor Roosevelt, in the words of Columnist John O'Donnell, is the perpetual leader of Pinko youth. He was President of the Communist Fronts American Youth Congress and Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign.

Just last week, in White Plains, New York, three rabbis caused the Superintendent of Education to issue a ban on Nativity festivities in schools there.

Such anti-Christian demands have been made by Zionists in many localities before. What may be expected as soon as the Rosenbergs take over?

SOCIAL WORK TODAY COMMUNIST FRONT

At the hearing of the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 before which Anna M. Rosenberg testified Senator Cain evidently confused Anna M. Rosenberg. Anna M. Rosenberg volunteered the information that she does not recall having contributed an "article" to Social Work Today. The "contribution" Anna M. Rosenberg had in mind was an "article" written by her. There is no reference in the report of the Un-American Activities Committee that an "article" was ever "contributed" to Social Work Today by Anna M. Rosenberg.

International Workers Order publicizes in its issues the numerous front organizations set up by the Communist Party; and then lists twenty-six fronts which include, "Social Work Today (ibid., p. 29)."

On page 1788 of the Appendix-Part IX, of the report of the Un-American Activities Committee appears an exhibit from Social Work Today of Feb. 1942, pp. 51-54, which reads, "Social Work Today Cooperators—1941. These men and women have made it possible for Social Work Today to strengthen and prepare itself for the supreme test of today," and on page 1792 lists the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" under the "cooperators" in New York State.

On page 1782 of the same Appendix-Part IX, appears an exhibit from Social Work Today, Jan. 1941, pp. 16-18, which reads as follows, "Social Work Today Cooperators, 1940," and on page 1786 appears the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" as a cash "contributor" among the "New York City contributors." This sum is evidently the "contribution" which was mistaken for a written "article" by Mrs. Rosenberg.

On page 2056 of the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the Un-American Activities Committee Report on Communist-Front Organizations, the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" listed in that Index is referred to in the following manner;

"Anna M. Rosenberg . . . 660, 939, 1786, 1792."

References to these pages show that an "Anna Rosenberg" signed a protest of the John Reed Club which was published in the New York Times, and that an "Anna M. Rosenberg" on three occasions had certain affiliations with the Consumers National Federation and Social Work Today. All four instances are referred to in the index under the name "Anna M. Rosenberg."

ANNA M. ROSENBERG AND RICHARD O. BOYER

Reference is made to Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg in the New Yorker Magazine of September 15, 1945. The writer of the article on page 20 in that issue states that he had an interview with Mrs. Rosenberg and that he, "learned that her office hired ten thousand people for the Manhattan District, or atom-bomb, project." The atom-bomb project was so top-secret that Mrs. Rosenberg is quoted by him as saying, "I never knew what it was all about myself."

The disclosures which have appeared in the newspapers recently indicate that Mrs. Rosenberg's office did not do such a good job in screening communists out of that project. If her office had been more successful then this country would not now be living in fear of an atom-bomb blitz at any moment by the Soviet Union. Better luck this time, if it is again just going to be a matter of luck.

In the April 23, 1938 issue of the New Yorker Magazine there is a "Profile" of Anna M. Rosenberg. This "Profile" of Anna M. Rosenberg covers the complete or the greater part of pages 24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29. The author commences the "Profile" by announcing that he is an "admirer" of Mrs. Rosenberg and that he visited her offices with a stenographer in order to "preserve for posterity a likeness of this animated lady."

The name of the author of the "Profile" of Mrs. Rosenberg is printed at the end of the article. The author's name appears as "Richard O. Boyer." In the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee Report, on page 1826 there appears the name "Richard O. Boyer" and reference is made after his name to pages 744, 749, 1242, 1350, 1352, 1453, and 1459. If that is the same "Richard O. Boyer" who calls himself an "admirer" of Mrs. Rosenberg it would be interesting to learn if the "admiration" was mutual.

Richard O. Boyer makes many interesting statements about Mrs. Rosenberg in his "Profile" about her. In view of the interest of the public in the political affiliations and activities of Mrs. Rosenberg prior to her present appointment no harm can possibly come to Mrs. Rosenberg by printing a few quotations from the "Profile" written by an "admirer" and published by the New Yorker Magazine which can hardly be accused of being "anti-Semitic." The following are several quotations;

"A department-store owner may be reluctant to call Sidney Hillman but is not reluctant to call Anna Rosenberg, one of Hillman's best friends. A Democratic politician who campaigned for Mahoney may have a message for the American Labor Party, and Anna, who worked with the Party in the last campaign, is virtually always the channel."

ANNA M. ROSENBERG AND SIDNEY HILLMAN

In the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee Report, on page 1932, appears the name "Sidney Hillman," and after the name "Sidney Hillman" appear references to pages 261-264, 340, 349, 384, 461 f., 481, 672, f., 679, 683, 743, 764, 940 f., 982, 1193, 1199, 1202, 1204, 1209 f., 1212 f., 1215, 1280, 1304, 1372, 1494 f., 1497-1500, 1554, 1602, 1604, and 1624.

It appears from every public record that Anna M. Rosenberg actually acquired her great influence in the political world through her close friendship with Sidney Hillman. The late Sidney Hillman had great political power. Sidney "Clear-it-with-Sidney" Hillman is credited with having been responsible for the selection of Harry S. Truman as Vice-Presidential candidate in the 1944 elections. Sidney Hillman, according to biographies on his life, was born Schmuell Gilman in Lithuania, Russia and fled to the United States after he was sought by the Russian government for violent revolutionary activities. He is said to have been a leading member of the Bund, a Russian Marxist organization which Senator Benton's Encyclopedia Britannica describes as "the spearhead of the world-revolution." It is doubtful if this is a case of "mistaken identity." Is there another Sidney Hillman?

According to Mrs. Rosenberg's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950, Mrs. Rosenberg still retains ownership of about 43% in the labor-relations consultant organization in which until recently she has owned 66 2/3%, and in which she has been engaged nearly all her adult life. In her position as Assistant Secretary of Defense Mrs. Rosenberg has the sole dictatorial authority over distribution of workers among factories

It will be up to Mrs. Rosenberg to decide what factories working on civilian production or on war materials shall be allocated workers. It does not seem proper to have a person who owns 43% in a business which advises upon labor problems sit in the position where she acts upon requests for workers from her own clients and from non-clients.

CONSUMERS NATIONAL FEDERATION COMMUNIST FRONT

On page 11 of the hearings before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 when Anna M. Rosenberg testified, she denied that she had been a member of the Consumers National Federation. But there does not appear anywhere on any record claims Anna M. Rosenberg was ever charged with being a member of the Consumers National Federation. Membership in that organization involves a great many implications which are not pleasant!

Earl Browder, when he was a witness before the Special Committee on Un-American Activities in September 1939 identified the Consumers National Federation as a "transmission belt." A "transmission belt," according to the Un-American Activities Committee report, is "an organization through which the Communist Party extends its influence and ideology to groups which are broader than the party itself."

1. The Consumers National Federation was cited as a Communist Front (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 155.

2. "Created by the Communist Party and used for the purpose of spreading propaganda in schools and through woman's clubs. It was first known as the Emergency Council and was established as the Consumers National Federation, 1937." (California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1943, p. 102.)

3. Cited as an organization "of Communist complexion." (New York City Council Committee investigating the Municipal Civil Service Commission.)

JOHN REED CLUBS

Mrs. Rosenberg was called upon once before in her career to clear herself of the "mistaken identity" belief that she was the "Anna Rosenberg" who signed the John Reed Club protest. In the printed record of the hearings on November 29, 1950 before the Senate Armed Services Committee at which Mrs. Rosenberg testified she so stated herself. The following is from that record;

MRS. ROSENBERG. I did not know what the John Reed Clubs were, but I looked up the John Reed Clubs, and they were Communist clubs. I understand at one time, when I was up here with the Social Security Board, Congressman Engel of Michigan asked me if I knew that I had been cited by the Dies Committee to belong to some Communist club. I said I had never known, and I would appreciate if they would immediately show me the record. They showed me the record then, and it was these clubs. The person who was cited was an Anna Rosenberg, not Anna M. Rosenberg, and the Dies committee report said that anyone who belongs to these clubs must be a writer. It was another Anna Rosenberg."

The Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX of the Un-American Activities Committee Report, on Page 2151, lists, the various John Reed Clubs which indicate the nature and extent of this extensive communist apparatus:

John Reed Club 297, 408, 569,
580 f, 731, 916, 939, 967, 972, 975,

A secret foreign influence is being exerted over the press and radio in the United States today. It is aiding and abetting the enemies of the nation. It has also infiltrated into the government. These enemies of the United States are the international Marxists (communists). The international Marxists (communists) are dedicating their lives and their resources to bring about the surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union. They appear to be on the way to success.

Counterfeit Americans and other agents of the Soviet Union in the United States feel very secure after what has occurred in the Anna M. Rosenberg affair. They have witnessed loyal patriots mercilessly smeared in the press and over the radio only because they had the courage to call the attention of their government in a most proper manner to certain facts and clues with a possible bearing upon the security of the nation. To have done less would have been treason.

After what has happened to these loyal patriots it requires a great deal of optimism to expect any sane American to volunteer to come to the aid of his country in the same way they did. Supreme success in silencing loyal patriots is a great victory for the Soviet Union in their undeclared war against the United States.

The American people have been miserably misled on the question of "anti-Semitism." The Marxists (communists) who allegedly profess Judaism as their religious belief have no legitimate right to identify themselves before the world as "Jews." They form only a fraction of the Jewish population of the world. It is as fraudulent as though Mussolini and the Italian Fascists identified themselves before the world as "Catholics" because they allegedly professed Catholicism as their religious belief. Likewise it would be just as fraudulent if Hitler and the Nazis had identified themselves before the world as "Protestants" because they allegedly professed Protestantism as their religious belief. This question is fully explained in the COMMON SENSE issue No. 125 which will be sent free of charge to anyone upon request for a copy. Religious belief should not be confused with racial or national origin. The myth of the "Jewish race" has been exploded. Every American should inform himself correctly on that question and the "anti-Semitism" issue will dissolve and disappear into the thin air forever.

The records of Anna M. Rosenberg's background vary considerably. It all depends where you make your search. In some instances the facts stated are very conflicting. In the printed record of the hearings of the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 before which Mrs. Rosenberg testified, the following appears in the record;

THE CHAIRMAN. Have you resided in America ever since you came here with your mother sometime ago?

MRS. ROSENBERG. I have, with the exceptions of three times when I went to Europe; once on a commission for President Roosevelt, twice during the war; once for President Roosevelt, and once for President Truman, and for one month in France, 3 weeks in France; in England during May of last year.

MR. CHAIRMAN. Then you have been here all the time, except when you left on official trips in connection with your duties with the Government?

MRS. ROSENBERG. That is right.

MR. CHAIRMAN. Where were you educated?

MRS. ROSENBERG. In New York City.

The New York Times gives a slightly different version of this history. The illustrious S. J. Woolf interviewed Mrs. Rosenberg when she was sketched by him for an article which appeared in the New York Times Magazine Section. In the Sunday New York Times of March 31, 1935, in Section VII, on page 18, S. J. Woolf quotes Mrs. Rosenberg as having stated, "After the war I returned (to Europe) and continued my studies there for a short time. Then I came back here and looked for a job." At the time of the appointment when Mrs. Rosenberg was named Acting State Director of the National Emergency Council of the NRA (Blue Eagle) to succeed Nathan Strauss Jr. on September 15, 1935,

We believe that Ralph DeSola stated the truth in his affidavit regarding Anna M. Rosenberg's activities in the Communist organization John Reed Club. We believe the truthfulness of this statement just as we believed Whitaker Chambers when he exposed Alger Hiss and Evelyn Bentley when she exposed Remington and when Senator McCarthy exposed the Communists in the State Department.

When another Anna Rosenberg was conveniently found but not produced it left us unimpressed. We believe Ralph DeSola in spite of the New Deal White Wash.

DeSola has sent several communications to the Senate Armed Services Committee offering to take the lie-detector test if Anna M. Rosenberg would take it. DeSola states that if Alger Hiss had agreed to take the lie-detector test when Whitaker Chambers offered to take it much effort and expense could have been spared the government and the taxpayers. DeSola still asks to have both himself and Anna M. Rosenberg given the lie-detector test. Will she agree to it?

STATEMENT BY REPRESENTATIVE JOHN E. RANKIN ON THE FLOOR OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES DECEMBER 19, 1950

"If it had not been for the Un-American Activities Committee Alger Hiss probably would be Secretary of State. But to show how the line is being followed, Anna Rosenberg at little Yiddish woman from Hungary, will now become Assistant Secretary of Defense and will have more power over the American people than was ever exercised by any American President. God save America."

QUEBEC CLOSES JEWISH CENTER

Quebec Attorney-General's Office has ordered the United Jewish People's Order center in Montreal padlocked for one year.

The provincial anti-subversive squad, assisted by Montreal police, also raided the Maurice Winchevsky Parochial School, and the home of Berel Silverberg, secretary of the UJPO, says the Canadian Press.

Deputy Director Hilaire Beauregard of the provincial police said, "An investigation revealed that for at least one year the center has been operated as the locale and general headquarters of lectures, soirees and secret meetings of Jewish Communists."

It will be remembered last October the disclosure was made that Communist indoctrination classes in Ontario were being conducted in the Morris Winchevsky Schools in Toronto.

An Open Letter To The Pres.

Re: The Jewish Minority Machine

Dear President Truman:

A careful study of Jewish history proves that the methods used by Jewish world leaders in the creation of Soviet Russia and in the destruction of the German and British Empires, is too fantastic to be understood by the casual reader. But since we now face the probability of an Atomic War with Soviet Russia and since our government is now dominated by this Jewish World Minority Machine, at last the American people must face facts.

Certainly, Mr. President, you cannot be blamed for this condition, since former leaders and the vast majority of our people have been deliberately deceived by the Marxist Minority Machine.

The record shows that the Jewish world leaders created just such a condition during the early Christian era, which caused the downfall of Jerusalem and the Roman Empire.

In his suppressed book, The Jews and Their Lies, and in other works, Martin Luther described the causes of the Holy Wars, which were similar to those faced by Jesus of Nazareth, the founder of Christianity. The Jews lost their civil rights and were confined to the ghettos and were expelled by the Catholics from Spain and Portugal because of their international religious and racial intrigue. Jews still celebrate their ancient "fifth column" victories in their religious holy days. Jesus said of the Jewish leaders "Ye are of your father the devil . . . he was a murderer from the beginning and obode not in the truth . . ." This is the history of the Jewish cult.

Such historical facts caused Benjamin Franklin to propose that Jews and the Jewish cult be barred from the United States by our constitution. He said:

"Jews are Asiatics, are a menace to this country if permitted entrance, and should be excluded by this constitution."

In his books, The International Jew—The World's Foremost Problem, the late Henry Ford proved how Benedict Arnold was a victim of Jewish bribery by the International Bankers. He also proved that August P. Belmont and Juda P. Benjamin were Rothschild agents, who operated in both the North and the South in the attempt to divide the Union. Through newspaper intrigue, such men as John Brown and Jefferson Davis were used as "Gentile fronts" by Belmont and Benjamin and their Jewish organizations in the North and South. During the Civil War, August P. Belmont became the first national chairman of the Democratic Party. The assassination of Lincoln was traced to Juda P. Benjamin, Secretary of State of the Southern Confederacy.

Authorities believe that most Jews are deceived by this one world "divide and conquer" program. However, ignorance does not excuse any Jew who finances this program nor does it excuse him for financing this mis-named "Anti-Defamation League" which was organized to smear and defame those who attempt to expose the Marxist World Program.

The approaching Atomic War and the B'nai B'rith control of the world news services may prevent our proving to the public how such Jewish Marxist leaders as August P. Belmont, Samuel Gompers, Sidney Hillman, Paul Warburg, Felix Frankfurter and others came to America to set up "Gentile fronts" and powerful political organizations for the purpose of dominating and by-passing the duly constituted authority of the Congress, the Presidency and the Supreme Court.

But, Mr. President, if civilization is to survive, you must "stall off" the present crop of Marxist War Makers until our people "get wise" to the plans of the Zionist leaders.

Sincerely,

F. C. SAMMONS

fight communism with common sense

TO OUR READERS

COMMON SENSE was started five years ago for the sole purpose of exposing the Marxist program to abolish the United States and set up a Zionist-Communist government as has been done in Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Eastern Germany and China.

COMMON SENSE is for the UNITY of ALL pro-American forces and individuals, and Marxist strategy is not going to cause us to take part in fighting anyone who has demonstrated that he is on our side even though he has made one serious mistake. WE MUST ALWAYS BEAR IN MIND THAT THE ZIONISTS LIKE TO SET ONE CHRISTIAN AGAINST ANOTHER SO AS TO RENDER THEM EASY TO TAKE OVER. NO MATTER WHAT HAPPENS WE MUST STICK TOGETHER ONE WAY OR ANOTHER. EVEN HOUGH IT IS ONLY BY THOUGHT ALONE. THE WELFARE OF THE CAUSE IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE FACT THAT ONE PERSON IS BRANDED ANTI-SEMETIC.

At the end of the first year of the publication of COMMON SENSE the editor's funds were exhausted; the last four years the work has been badly handicapped for funds. COMMON SENSE has functioned and grew in circulation with the help of small contributions only. A few issues were partly financed by one individual; however not one dollar from these issues went into maintaining the paper.

At this critical time ALL OF US should devote every hour to exposing the deceptive Marxist forces inside the United States who are aiding and directing the Communist forces outside the United States that has already caused so many casualties among our boys. Our manhood is fighting 5000 miles from home, in severe cold, against an enemy that outnumber them 30 to 1, while Zionists and their dupes in high places in Washington conspire with the foreign enemy.

Three Hundred Thousand trained Chinese soldiers want to help our American boys fight the Communists, but the Zionist trickery in Washington prevents it. Result: more of our boys are killed or freeze to death. This is the all-important problem before America at this time.

The Editor

ARE WE ANTI-SEMETIC?

The other day a party thought they were hurting our feelings by calling us anti-Semetic—NOT AT ALL.

We are proud to be called anti-Semetic because that is the brand the Marxists put on every one who energetically opposes Communism. Jesus Christ today is branded as the original anti-Semite as well as all his followers.

ALL FOLLOWERS OF JESUS CHRIST ARE ANTI-SEMETIC

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

Joseph Dunner, A Zionist in "The Republic of Israel." Page 10 Published Oct., 1950

We have been called "Red-baiters"—we are proud of that also. However, we know that people who use anti-Semetic attacks know nothing of what they are saying and are only repeating what the Communists coined. The term anti-Semetic was coined by the Marxists for the purpose of giving a bad name to Anti-Communists and discourage patriots from learning just who is responsible for Communism.

We are opposed to the people who originated and direct Marxism in the World and who label themselves Jews. These people are not Jews. THEY ARE YIDDISH ASIATICS WHO ADOPTED THE HEBREW ALPHABET IN THE SEVENTH CENTURY AND WHO ARE RELATED TO THE MARXISTS NOW DIRECTING THE SLAUGHTER OF OUR BOYS IN KOREA. The reason why they have been so successful in their revolutionary plans to conquer the world is because they work behind the smoke screen of the anti-Semetic smear campaign. The truth of the matter is that the only Semites in the world are the Egyptians and Arabs who we have great admiration for.

There is no Jewish race. 85% of the people in the U.S. who call themselves Jewish are Yiddish Mongolians of Asiatic origin.

AMERICA IN ALIEN HANDS

by Marilyn R. Allen
Salt Lake City
Utah

America, as some of us Americans used to know her, is gone, sold out: she will never be the same again in our lifetimes. The administration of government, our schools and universities, labor unions, our courts, our religious institutions—ALL avenues of life, have been permeated and infiltrated by ALIEN IDEOLOGY (usually called 'Liberal'). Most of our governmental functions are taken over by blockheads, greedy politicians, or out-right Marxists. The ALIEN MARXISTS have taken us over, lock, stock and barrel: which is pretty much what our people deserve, since they will not stand up and fight. Our newspapers and other publications have been intimidated, bought off, and silenced—WHEN THEY SHOULD BE PROCLAIMING TRUTH FROM THE ROUSTOPS. Courage and truthfulness in public life is conspicuous by its absence. Without their even being aware of it, the worse psychology and mentality of our people has been changed for the worse, by alien ideology. We have supinely accepted alien concepts and an alien flag. The U.S.A. suffers from the cancer of Marxists internationalism: her heart has been eaten out by it. There seem to be none who will rise up and save America.

Therefore, AMERICA will experience, on her own soil, all those horrors which our people have casually read about in the newspapers, as having been perpetrated in OTHER lands. But they would not heed the faint voice of the AMERICA FIRSTERS, who cried out in the wilderness, in an effort to SAVE THEM. The day of the SOWING of all these evil tares among us, is about done: COMES NOW THE HARVEST—THAT GREAT AND DREADFUL DAY OF THE LORD, when He Who is Faithful and True comes to "judge and to MAKE WAR." (Revelation 19:11). "Each man according to his works." Have YOU done "any works" to save America and Christian civilization? NO? Then prepare to reap your just reward. Let me warn you that the "Government" (meaning the ADMINISTRATION) will not save you—for the simple reason that it is the Administration itself which has been taken over by ALIENS who betray you. It is they who have engineered and brought about America's downfall. Some of us have long warned you who these people are: but, in your simple-minded ignorance and prejudice (against US, instead of against your enemies), you would not heed. NOW THEY HAVE YOU THOROUGHLY IN THEIR POWER, and you shall not escape, without the direst suffering. True, America will one day—in the distant future—be redeemed from her enemies, but most of you will not be here to see that day.

In his column of November 12, 1950, titled, "U.S. Seen Nearing War III," Constantine Brown says, "We are in a full-fledged war in Asia . . . Criticism of the unbelievable stupidity (treason aforethought is a better phrase. mra) of the Western governments in their relations with the Moscow conspirators is useless . . . the western nations are coming out second best . . . The intervention of the Chinese Communists should not have been unexpected . . . General MacArthur warned about them in repeated reports." — With all due respect to Mr. Brown, we are NOT "nearing W.W. III." WE ARE ALREADY IN IT: it will continue growing in horror and intensity UNTIL Armageddon.

There are actually TWO things you can do now: prepare as best you know how, individually, to meet the quick-coming STORM: pray with all your soul for America and for those who love her.

If our people's eyes had not been holden: IF we had great leaders who would rise up and openly name and fight our NEMY: IF our 'false shepherds' had been TRUE TO CHRIST (instead of to HIS enemy): IF we had had a FREE Press that dared to be true to CHRISTIAN AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL PRINCIPLES: THEN we might have SAVED our Country, instead of SCUTTLING her. Listen to what the Lord has said to the women:

"Rise up, ye women that are at ease: hear my voice, ye careless daughters . . . Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women . . . Tremble, ye women that are at ease: be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and bird sackcloth upon your lions." (Isaiah. 32: 9-11).

Read these passages and learn for yourselves what is to come upon you: you, the many women, who have 'taken your ease' while tens of thousands of our finest youth have been slaughtered on FOREIGN battlefields—always leaving AMERICA worse off than before.

The die is now cast: the pattern is set: even the work of WARNING THE PEOPLE IS ABOUT DONE. Prepare, 'ye who are at ease' TO TAKE UP A LIFE OF RIGORS AND HARD-SHIPS OF WHICH YOU HAVE NEVER EVEN REMITELY DREAMED! And THEN do not cry out that you were not amply warned of 'things to come!'

WHO IS LOUIS LITTLE?

The average gullible American would answer this question by shrugging his shoulders and saying, "we know, he is counsel to Congressional committees." But let's see who he really is. A suit for damages was instituted against a publisher in New York. Morris Ernst, attorney for Walter Winchell and counsel for the Communist-aiding American Civil Liberties Union, which helped to defend the eleven convicted Communist leaders, represented the publisher. When a settlement was reached one provision was that, because of its vicious libel, the book would be withdrawn from circulation. The attorney representing Morris Ernst in the negotiations was LOUIS LITTLE.

When Communist John Spivak appeared in court on a criminal charge his lawyer was LOUIS LITTLE.

One of the principle supporters of the Anti-Defamation League, Inc., in Pittsburgh is Edgar Kaufman, until recently owner of the leading department store, who is reputed to have provided bail for Spivak through the ADL agent, Dr. Marsden, a refugee and crony of LOUIS LITTLE.

Another member and major supporter of the Anti-Defamation League Inc., is Kaufman's son-in-law, Irwin Wolf.

Today Irwin Wolf is a power in the Democratic Party in Pittsburgh and Washington, D.C. One of his political henchmen is Frank Buchanan, Chairman of the House Committee to investigate lobbying.

Also a political protege is LOUIS LITTLE, Chief Counsel of the Committee. Mr. Little was so eager to secure appointment to this key post on the Committee that he at first offered to serve without salary, his expenses to be paid presumably by the Kaufman group. On second thought, Buchanan thought that this would be too much of a give-away and Little was placed on the payroll.

(Excerpts from "IT ISN'T SAFE TO BE AN AMERICAN," by Joseph Kamp. Book may be purchased from Common Sense for 50 cents.)

NOTE SENATORS AND CONGRESSMEN. It is assumed that Louis Little is a student of the Jewish bible, the Talmud. It teaches that each Jew will have 2800 Gentile slaves when they secure world control.

Go to the Congressional Library and read it in the Soncino edition of the Babylonian Talmud, printed in England in 1935 and verify this statement and hundreds of other diabolical statements like it.

We do not know Louis Little's right name, however, he admitted in a conversation some time ago that he belonged to the B'nai B'rith and that he was a Jewish American. In other words he is a Yiddish Zionist. Three men working under Little stated that they thought he was an Italian.

EVERY AMERICAN SHOULD WRITE HIS CONGRESSMAN AND DEMAND THAT LOUIS LITTLE BE IMMEDIATELY DISCHARGED FROM CONGRESSIONAL AFFAIRS.

ZIONISTS RULE DEFENSE IN WORLD AND U.S.

How does it happen that Zionists, a minority group, occupy the top government positions in the Soviet Union, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Rumania, and the Ukraine? How does it happen that Zionists control England's "Labor government" and hold key spots in France?

How does it happen that Zionists control the defense systems of these countries at this time when Marxists are taking over the world?

Write COMMON SENSE for a list of the names of the Zionist rulers.

In the United States, Marx Leva and Anna M. Rosenberg are Assistant Secretaries of Defense under the aged General Marshall, who has yet to remember where he was when the attack was made on Pearl Harbor. Marshall spent 13 months as ambassador to China, forcing Communism on Chiang Kai Chek.

The public has learned how difficult it is to prove Communist affiliations of an important person. The cases of Alger Hiss, Owen Lattimore and William W. Remington, State Department employees, give evidence of this. It is even more difficult in the Rosenberg case, for she is a Zionist.

All that is necessary to prove that Zionists like Herbert Lehman, David Niles, Felix Frankfurter, Marx Leva and Anna M. Rosenberg should not be in government positions is to have an open hearing on Zionism.

Insofar as Anna M. Rosenberg is concerned, has she ever condemned the Zionists for taking over her native Hungary? Has she condemned the trial, persecution and punishment of Cardinal Mindszenty by the Hungarian Zionist Gerson and other Zionists? Has she condemned Communist aggression and persecution over the world?

Has she opposed Marxism?

Will she condemn these Marxist moves now?

Will she deny that she is anti-Christian?

Should a Marxist Zionist of her kind be in charge of America's manpower?

How did the Communists get our atomic bomb secrets? Three of the five members of the Atomic Energy Committee were Zionists.

ZIONISM CONDEMNED

Fides, the organ of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith published at the Vatican, has denounced Zionism in which the future of Christian interests is condemned.

"Whether spiritually inspired in a 2,000 years' old revenge against Christianity, or whether atheistic or materialistic," the Vatican paper stated, "Zionism—the herald of Communism in the Middle East—will not tolerate in any form the Doctrine of Christ in its land. A feverish nationalism, illumined by the conviction of an extraordinary mission of the Jewish people and sustained by financial means which are immense in relation to Israel's size, has forced through its independence and its recognition by other countries, and before long will achieve its recognition by the United Nations."

Let's Clean House And Fumigate Every Department Of The Government

Anti - Communist Joseph Kamp Jailed

Refused Data Eagerly Sought By Zionist Anti-Defamation League

Joseph P. Kamp is in jail serving a four months' term because he was convicted of contempt when he refused to give a House Committee the names of those contributing to the Constitutional Educational League and the amounts contributed. He chose deliberately to suffer the penalty knowing that the information would have been used by Communists and organizations supporting Communism.

In an attempt to protect those who, in his opinion, are loyal Americans, contributing to the preservation of the U. S. government, Mr. Kamp did what President Truman, Acheson and McGrath have done—refused files. With this major difference: Communists have hidden under the Administration's denial of information.

It was Kamp who, seven months before the spy ring was exposed by Elizabeth Bentley and Whittaker Chambers, printed the charge that John Abt was head of the spy ring. Still, the Lobbying Committee would not even accept Kamp's statement which has, however, since been published in the Congressional Record of June 8, 1950, as "extension of remarks" by Representative Clare E. Hoffman of Michigan.

The most revealing excerpts of Kamp's statement follow:

"I am at a loss to understand on what ground this committee is interested in the private affairs of the Constitutional Educational League, Inc. which has never engaged in lobbying, and whose efforts have been confined almost solely to fighting Communism.

"To begin with, the gentlemen representing your committee who called at our office gave no reason for demanding the information he sought. He acted as though his demand was authority enough. I told him he could not see the names of our contributors or look at our files until he could show me that the League came under the authority of your committee and within the scope of your resolution.

"With equal vigor I am proud to say that I have refused to cooperate when Communist agents, without the knowledge of committee members, managed to use congressional committees for their own subversive purposes.

"My alleged record of refusing to cooperate dates back to my experience with the so-called Senate Civil Liberties Committee. This was not a congressional committee in any sense of the word. This committee was conceived by the Communists, and was born in the Cosmos Club. The master mind who wrote the resolution and then became counsel to the committee was John Abt, who has since been identified, in sworn testimony before your Committee on Un-American Activities, as the head of the original Communist Spy ring. Elizabeth Bentley testified that she met these Communist spies and received stolen Government secrets from them in Abt's New York apartment. It was Mr. Abt, in the name of the Senate committee, who first subpoenaed the names of our contributors.

"I want to make it perfectly clear that no member of this committee had the faintest idea that Abt was a Communist, or that he was the leader of the Red spy ring. He was there representing Sidney Hillman, and because Abt had held important Government jobs—had been an Assistant Attorney General—special courtesies were extended to him.

"During the hearings I informed the committee

A True Patriot!

If there were even 20 John E. Rankins in Washington there would be no need for our paper COMMON SENSE and our boys would not be dying in Korea.

Some good men have gone to Congress and some have remained honest and alert to the welfare of their Country in spite of the organized powerful minority. Unfortunately, some were bought and paid for before they were elected. They were owned by the pressure group and were not in a position to analyze the plan of the aggressive group which they must support because of their vote. Others arrive in Washington with a clean slate, but not being familiar with the clever methods used by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith to secure the support of Congressmen and Senators in conditioning the U. S. for socialism and communism, soon find themselves in a position where they are not free to oppose Marxist sponsored legislation.

How does the Anti-Defamation League place these legislators in fear of these Zionist Marxists?

The A.D.L. boasts they have 2,000 snoopers. Some of these watch members of Congress as well as all other important officials. Any impropriety—being out with the wrong woman, accepting money from certain interests—and other such carefully noted facts are recorded as to dates and witnesses, or photograph, and placed in the A.D.L. files to be used, when needed, to remind the Congressman and bring him into line. Few of these "tactics" come to light as did the Parnell Thomas case.

There have been, and are now, Senators and Congressmen who cannot be bought or bluffed and are free to stand up for America without

Speech Of Hon. John E. Rankin Of Mississippi In The House Of Representatives

Friday, August 11, 1950

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to join the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. Cox) in paying tribute to the Committee on Un-American Activities.

I know what it means to take the persecution of the enemies within our gates, because I was on the committee on Un-American Activities for 4 years. I ran parliamentary interference for Martin Dies here on the floor all the time he was head of the committee.

In my opinion if Martin Dies had had the support he should have received our boys would not be dying in Korea today, because Hiss, the man who sold us out at Yalta, would have been exposed long before that calamity occurred.

Mr. HOFFMAN of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. RANKIN. I yield for a question.

Mr. HOFFMAN of Michigan. The gentleman talked about running interference for Martin Dies. I know you did, and I know what your reward was, you and the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. HERBERT); you were thrown off the committee. That was your reward for fighting Communists.

Mr. RANKIN. I am not complaining about that. I really have all the work I can do now. But I want it known that I am still here to back this committee; and I think it is about time the administration woke up and cleaned house and fumigated every agency of the Government from the staff of the White House to the Bureau of the Census.

It is not worth anything to go to Hawaii and pick up a few Communists, or drive them underground, if you are going to leave them in key positions on the White House staff, or in the Department of State, the Department of Justice, or any other department, or even circulating around the Supreme Court of the United States.

My country comes first.

Our first duty is to this Republic, its flag, and its people. I say that it is time now for the administration to wake up, clean out these subversives, and put only "Americans on guard," as George Washington said; let us get rid of these communistic aliens, their sympathizers, and fellow travelers, who are trying to undermine and destroy this Government.

Mr. Speaker, Caesar had his Brutus, Washington had his Benedict Arnold, and America today has these enemies within her gates who are working to destroy everything our boys are told they are fighting for on foreign battlefields today.

I call on the President to join in this house cleaning and quit talking about "red herrings." Let us talk about these Reds and fellow travelers, if you please, who are on the Federal payroll in key positions.

As I said, let us clean house and fumigate every department of the Government and let the American people know that we are not going to have our country undermined and destroyed by these enemies within our gates.

The SPEAKER. The time of the gentleman from Mississippi has expired.

that Abt was the husband of Jessica Smith, 'editor of the Moscow-financed Communist propaganda magazine, Soviet Russia Today.' I also charged that subversive outsiders were meddling in the affairs of the committee, and I told the committee that I could not cooperate in what I said was an 'attempt to use the Congress to further the conspiracy to sovietize America.'

"It is understandable that the committee could not believe my charges. They sounded too impossible. So I was cited, indicted, and finally convicted and sentenced to jail for contempt of Congress.

"But on April 21, 1948, your esteemed late colleague, Representative Ralph Church, in a speech on the floor, not only verified the truth of my charges but added to them. He told how false information had been planted with the committee, how documents had been removed from the files of the committee, how important testimony had been deleted from the printed record without the knowledge of the members of the committee. He named the man who had manipulated the committee, James H. Sheldon, whom he identified as an organizer for the American League Against War and Fascism, 'the largest and most active of the Communist movements which was identified as a subversive Communist front by the Department of Justice.' He said also that Sheldon was an agent of the 'International Labor Defense which was branded as the legal arm of the Communist Party by former Attorney General Biddle.' A few months after Mr. Church made his speech Sheldon served as a delegate to an international conference—a Communist conference—behind the Iron curtain.

"What Mr. Church did not tell the House was that Sheldon was also the agent of another subversive movement which makes a practice of planting its agents on, or with, congressional committees. Four of its agents worked with the McCormack-Dickstein committee. Only one was on the payroll of the committee; the others were on the payroll of this private subversive movement while they contributed their services to the committee. The man who was on the committee's payroll called himself Richard Rollins. His real name was Isadore Rothberg. Chairman McCormack introduced one of the volunteers who used the name Frank Prince, as the chief of the investigators. Actually he was chief of an un-American gestapo. Under his real name of Morris Czech he had a long criminal record. Prince, or Czech, sabotaged the committee's investigation of Communism. Shortly thereafter another agent of this subversive un-American underground managed to get himself on the Dies committee payroll. He called himself John Metcalf. His real name was Oberwinder.

"Now this movement has an agent on your committee.

"He is your chief counsel, Louis Little. He is a member of B'nai B'rith. But, like the labor unions and the Government, the B'nai B'rith has been infiltrated by Communist agents. They are in control of its committee, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, which does the dirty work for the Communists. Aside from its pro-Communist complexion, the Anti-Defamation League is a vile racket which promotes hate, breeds intolerance and maintains its own sinister gestapo spy network. Respectable Jews are ashamed of it. Alert Americans of the Jewish faith bitterly denounce it.

"It is headed by New York Supreme Court Justice Meier Steinbrink, and has other reputable window dressing, but it is made up largely of thieves, spies, racketeers, and character assassins.

"Its principal mouthpiece and hatchetmen are Walter Winchell and Drew Pearson.

"Already private and confidential information of this committee has found its way into the hands of Winchell and Pearson, and was used by them for smearing purposes. Three months ago, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith issued its annual report in the form of a smear book (Ed. note—A Measure of Freedom) which made violent and vicious false attacks against the leading movements fighting communism in the United States.

"The book was plugged day after day by Walter Winchell.

"The author of the book and the chief director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is a man who calls himself Arnold Forster. If you can get President Truman to let you look at the FBI files, you will discover that Forster's right name is Fostenberg, and that he was a member of the Communist spy ring.

"It is a remarkable coincidence that one unit of this Anti-Defamation League network of Communist aiding snoop-and-smear organizations, the so-called Friends of Democracy, has sent a confidential memorandum to its chief supporters which names as its targets practically the same organizations which this committee wants information about from leading industrialists. This trick should be understandable when I tell you that Friends of Democracy is headed by Rex Stout, a former editor and part owner of the Communist weekly magazine New Masses, and when I explain that 17 members of the national committee of Friends of Democracy have a total of 191 Communist-front citations in the files of your House Committee on Un-American Activities, including 54 affiliations with organizations designated by the Department of Justice as Communist and subversive.

"May I suggest that the foregoing circumstances, together with the leaks from this committee to Drew Pearson and Walter Winchell, constitute a situation that cries to high heaven for a thorough investigation. The integrity of the committee, in fact the very integrity of Congress itself, demands prompt and thorough action.

"It would hardly be fair for this committee to request the appointment of a special House committee to conduct such an investigation without delay, and to include in such investigation the activities of the Communist-aiding Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and its associated movements and organizations, which constitute the most powerful lobby in the United States, with more than $7,000,000 a year to spend. They do put the heat on Congress, on the President and everybody else. They really influence legislation.

"Was that one of the reasons why a B'nai B'rith agent was placed on your committee—to make sure that nobody would get inquisitive about the Anti-Defamation League and the alarming power it wields over the Congress?

"This is a situation which demands that Congress must, to use the words of your chairman, 'find out the facts that Congress and the people are entitled to know'."

Here in America then, while our youth is dying in a war against Korean Communists, and loyal citizen Joseph P. Kamp is jailed, the largest, wealthiest RED underground police force remains in existence and—with immunity—sells highly Winchell-publicized books written by a Red agent.

It is the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai

B'rith, and the American Jewish Congress, which forced the Chicago Tribune to apologize following the Tribune's publication of an article by Trohan in which he said that Felix Frankfurter, Herbert Lehman and Henry Morgenthau, Jr., were the heads of the "secret government". (See COMMON SENSE, June 15, 1950). In connection with that incident Phineas J. Biron, in his B'nai B'rith Messenger column of June 16th, wrote:

"As a matter of fact we were told by a reliable source that the Chicago A.D.L. office did have an arrangement with the Tribune which permitted it to 'censor' the Tribune's anti-Semitic mail before publication."

In Chicago, the Anti-Defamation League was in operation as early as 1933 when, on December 13th, they addressed a letter to "Publishers of Anglo-Jewish Periodicals" telling them to boycott a book published by Scribner and Sons. Grant's "Conquest of a Continent," the Anti-Defamation League wrote "is extremely antagonistic to Jewish interests. . . . We are interested in stifling sales of this book . . . believe it can best be accomplished by refusing to be stamped into giving it publicity . . . It is our conviction that a general compliance with this request will sound the warning to other publishing houses against engaging in this type of venture."

More recently, the Anti-Defamation League has boasted that it is responsible for intimidating supporters of Merwin K. Hart's National Economic Council and Joseph P. Kamp. Under the heading "Expose Cuts Support for National Economic Council," an article in the July 14th California Jewish Voice stated:

"Merwin K. Hart's anti-Semitic activities have caused leading business firms, which in the past supported his National Economic Council, to repudiate him and withdraw their support, it was revealed today by the Anti-Defamation League. The swing-away from Hart and N.E.C. began as a result of his anti-Semitic activities published in 'A Measure of Freedom' by Arnold Forster, the A.D.L.'s national survey of prejudice in the U. S. It has since been accelerated by the revelations of the Buchanan Committee's Congressional lobbying investigation before which Hart was forced to testify."

The forementioned article also bragged that Frank H. Lee, Jr., of H. Lee hat manufacturers, Danbury, Conn., withdrew his support from Kamp's Constitutional Educational League after seeing his (Lee's) name in Arnold Forster-FASTENBERG's book.

Yes, Kamp is in jail. Where is Forster-FASTENBERG? Where are the RED members of the Anti-Defamation League?

FLASH!

Four national Jewish organizations have affirmed their OPPOSITION to the Mundt-Nixon Bill which would curb Communists. They are:

B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League
American Jewish Congress.
Jewish War Veterans
National Association of Jewish Center Workers.

It Isn't Safe To Be An American

By: Joseph P. Kamp

69 pages 50c per copy

This is the story of an American patriot's battle against Communism . . . a battle which led straight to prison.

It is a sordid story of how Communists, their agents, and "liberals," as well as "New Dealers" and "Fair Dealers" have MISused the Government, Congress and the Courts to jail an honest American who has spent 30 years fighting Communism.

Each page is a damning indictment against an imprisonment which will eventually go down in American history as one of the biggest, blackest blots this Christian nation has ever known.

Every fact in Mr. Kamp's book is a matter of official public record.

Write COMMON SENSE, Union, New Jersey, today. Enclose 50c for each copy desired and say:

"THE ZIONISTS"

By: Judge George W. Armstrong

(Editor's note: This is the 4th of the series covering the book "The Zionist." The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country other nations now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

TALMUD CONDEMNED BY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Formal accusations were made against the Talmud in 1242 before Pope Gregory IX, charging that it "contained blasphemies against God, against Jesus, and against Christianity." The Pope appointed a commission to hear the charges, the Jews were represented by "Jehiel son of Joseph of Paris" and three others; evidence was introduced and a trial was had. The commission sustained the charges and ordered the Talmud burned, and accordingly

"Twenty-four cart-loads of Hebrew books were committed to the flames in Paris . . . In 1247, at the solicitations of the Jews, the case was reopened and the Talmud condemned a second time."

"History of the Jewish People," page 378.

The Talmud was proscribed in Spain in 1415, and it was ordered burned in Italy in 1559.

Id., 445 and 507.

It is difficult for the Christian mind to conceive the depravity of the Talmud and the Protocols; the one is just as bad as the other. We can hardly realize that people with whom we mix and mingle daily and who are intelligent and of good appearance, believe in the false teaching of the Talmud, and that they plan to enslave us as set out in the Protocols. It is true. They have always been that way. We can, therefore, understand why the Jews have been driven from every Christian country in which they have resided.

The Zionists are our enemies and they must be driven from our country. Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ warned us against them. He likened them to "whited sepulchers that within are full of dead men's bones." He said that they are liars, thieves and murderers. They have not changed from that day to the present time. We must remember that they are anti-Christ and violently opposed to His teachings. Some of our mushy brained, mealy mouthed, milk and water theologians do not appear to understand the Scriptures.

"And it was said by the prophets of old that we were chosen by God himself to rule over the whole earth . . . And the weapons in our hands are limitless ambitions, burning greediness, merciless vengeance, hatreds and malice."

From Protocol 9.

This chapter is a supplement to the Protocol chapter in Zionist Wall Street. There are 24 Protocols. They set forth in detail the Zionist plan for subjugating the goi (gentle 'cattle') and establishing their Zionist Empire. A Russian bugaboo is necessary to stampede us into another war and it may be necessary for them to create another Pearl Harbor to do so.

The Talmud and Protocols are closely related; the one represents the philosophy of the Zionists; the other their plan of action. They are both founded on the false assumption that the Jews are the "chosen people" of God, that they are entitled to rule the gentiles whom they call "goi" (meaning cattle), and to possess their wealth, and that it is no offense to lie to them, to cheat them and to murder them.

They are both based on the moral and political principles of the Talmud. They are in substance the political principles of the Florentine statesman, Niccolo Machiavelli, as set forth in his book, The Prince, which was published about 400 years ago. He prescribed the rules for a diplomat, what are, (1) that promises must be made only to deceive and mislead others to sacrifice their own interest; (2) that friends or allies must be betrayed as a matter of course as soon as they have served their purpose; (3) that there must be kept up a spurious aspect of benevolence and benefit for the common man; (4) that enmity and class war must be promoted.

These are the basic principles of the Protocols and of the Marxists and their Talmud. They are the principles that now govern the world and have governed it since the adoption of the Protocols in 1897. They are the principles employed by "Zionist Wall Street" and the Zionist administration of the Russian Politburo; of the Churchill, Atlee, Cripps administrations of the British Empire, and of the Wilson, Roosevelt, Truman administrations of America. Truman is not such an accomplished diplomat as were Wilson and Roosevelt; not for lack of will but for want of ability.

The Zionists deny the authenticity of the protocols but they themselves have established their authenticity by judicial decree in the Swiss Court of Appeals. It is true, as they claim, that the trial judge, a Zionist by the name of Levy, held that the protocols are spurious, but the case was appealed and reversed by the Appellate Court. The Zionists cite the Levy decision and not the final judgment. The issue in the case was whether or not the protocols are a forgery and a slanderous reflection upon the Jews. The Swiss Court of Appeals held that this charge was not established and dismissed the case.

The protocols have been verified by the history of the world since their adoption. The Zionist historians admit that they organized politically at their world conference in Basle, Switzerland in 1897, and that Theodore Herzl was their leader. They then created a secret "inner action committee" to direct their operations. They then knew the fabulous mineral wealth of Palestine and surrounding country and determined to acquire it.

The protocols represent their plan of campaign and they have created wars and depressions in pursuance of them. The administrations of Wilson, Roosevelt and Truman in America, of Lenin and Stalin in Russia, and of Churchill and Atlee in England have all been Zionist administrations and have all promoted a Zionist Empire. The Zionists have governed the people of America, Russia and the British Empire by lies and deception.

The authenticity of the protocols has recently been confirmed by the Zionist A. L. Jubowitzky in his history of the World Jewish Congress entitled "Unity in Dispersion" (diaspora) published in 1948. He shows that the World Jewish Congress really took shape in 1840 when the Jewish Board of Deputies in Britain and France became politically powerful and thereafter when the B'nai B'rith was established "for the purpose of uniting the Jews of the world into one body." He boasts that Jewish power became absolute in the United States with the formation of the American Jewish Committee, the New York Kibbutz and the establishment of the American branch of the B'nai B'rith.

It was about 1840 that Benjamin Disraeli, a Sephardic Christian Jew, was Prime Minister of the British Empire and when the British Jews were permitted to vote and hold office. But the Jews were well established in power throughout Europe even before they were enfranchised, as a result of their money and bribery. Mr. Disraeli graphically describes their station in his book "Sidonia," a fictional history of Lionel Rothschild published in 1844. Disraeli says of the Jewish power of that period:

"You never observe a great intellectual movement in Europe in which the Jews do not greatly participate. That mysterious Russian diplomacy which so alarms Western Europe is organized and principally carried on by Jews; that mighty revolution which is at this moment preparing in Germany, and which will be in fact a second and greater Reformation, and of which so little is yet known in England, is entirely developing under the auspices of Jews, who almost monopolize the professional chairs of Germany. Neander, the founder of Spiritual Christianity, and who is Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Berlin, is a Jew. Benary, equally famous, and in the same university, is a Jew. Wehl, the Arabic Professor of Heidelberg, is a Jew . . .

"I resolved to go myself to St. Petersburg. I had on my arrival an interview with the Russian Minister of Finance, Count Cancrin; I beheld the son of a Lithuanian Jew. The loan was connected with the affairs of Spain; I resolved on repatriation to Spain from Russia. I traveled without intermission. I had an audience immediately on my arrival with the Spanish minister, Senor Mendizabel; I beheld one like myself, the son of a Nuovo Cristiano, a Jew of Arragon. In consequence of what transpired at Madrid, I went straight to Paris to consult the President of the French Council; I beheld the son of a French Jew, a hero, an imperial marshal, and very properly so, for who should be military heroes if not those who worship the Lord of Hosts? . . .

"We fixed on Prussia, and the President of the Council made application to the Prussian minister, who attended a few days after our conference. Count Arnim entered the cabinet, and I beheld a Prussian Jew. So you see, my dear Coningsby, that the world is governed by very different personages to what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

Disraeli says of Rothschild ("Sidonia"):

"No minister of state has such communication with secret agents and political spies as Sidonia. He held relations with all the clever outcasts of the world. The catalogue of his acquaintance in the shape of Greeks, Armenians, Moors secret Jews, Tartars, gypsies, wandering Poles and Carbonari, would throw a curious light on those subterranean agencies of which the world in general knows so little, but which exercises so great an influence on public events."

That was substantially the station of the Jew in 1914 when Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany initiated the first world war. It was not the Kaiser who declared war; it was his premier Bethman Holweg, a descendant of Amschel Rothschild, and his Jewish cabinet. The Kaiser was only a conceited figurehead. The first World War was for the wealth of Palestine and the creation of a Zionist Empire.

The Kaiser gave the Lenin-Trotsky party permission to cross Germany and as a result he eliminated Russia and substituted America as an ally, and lost the war. The war was not begun to avenge the murder of an Austrian duke; that was but a flimsy excuse. It was begun for the establishment of a Jewish Empire in pursuance of the plan of the Protocols. The League of Nations was only an intermediate step in that direction which has now been supplanted by the United Nations.

Nor did we enter the war for the purpose of preserving the freedom of the seas; that was also only a flimsy excuse. We entered it for Zionist purposes, viz: the establishment of a Zionist empire with the wealth of Palestine. The Zionists double-crossed the Kaiser and they have double-crossed us. Bear in mind also that the double-cross is a part of the code of the Zionist: "words should not agree with the deeds of the diplomat." It should be remembered also that the Rothschilds and their agents are the head and front of Zionism.

THE ZIONIST PLAN

"What I am about to set forth, then, is our system from the two points of view, that of ourselves and that of the GOYIM (i.e., gentiles).

"It must be noted that men with bad instincts are more in number than the good, and therefore the best results in governing them are attained by violence and terrorization and not by academic discussions. Every man aims at power, everyone would like to become a dictator if only he could, and rare indeed are the men who would not be willing to sacrifice the welfare of all for the sake of securing their own welfare . . .

Honesty and Frankness Are Vices

"The political has nothing in common with the moral. The ruler who is governed by the moral is not a skilled politician, and is therefore unstable on his throne. He who wishes to rule must have recourse both to cunning and to make believe. Great national qualities, like frankness and honesty, are vices in politics, for they bring down rulers from their thrones more effectively and more certainly than the most powerful enemy. Such qualities must be the attributes of the kingdoms of the GOYIM, but we must in no wise be guided by them . . .

Plan Is to Lead the Mob

"Before us is a plan in which is laid down strategically the line from which we cannot deviate without running the risk of seeing the labour of many centuries brought to naught.

"In order to elaborate satisfactory forms of action it is necessary to have regard to the rascality, the slackness, the instability of the mob, its lack of capacity to understand and respect the conditions of its own life, or its own welfare. It must be understood that the might of a mob is blind, senseless and unreasoning force ever at the mercy of a suggestions from any side. The blind cannot lead the blind without bringing them into the abyss; consequently, members of the mob, upstarts from the people even though they should be a genius of wisdom, yet having no understanding of the political, cannot come forward as leaders of the mob without bringing the whole nation to ruin.

"Only one trained from childhood for independent rules can have understanding of the words that can be made up of the political alphabet.

"We understand there is quite a drive going on to elicit prayers and devotion to St. Michael, the Archangel. It is thought that since He and His angels cleared the corridors of Heaven of the evil spirits, they might well do the same these days for the corridors of earth . . . clear them of the evil menaces of Communism and atheism . . . if a sufficient volume of prayers to that effect arose Heavenward. Shall we try?"

State Department Phonies

The Marxist-ruled State Department would have American citizens believe that the taxpayers' money is used in foreign countries to block the spread of Communism. Actually, those funds—as well as Marshall Plan billions—are so placed as to enable Marxist groups in foreign countries to overthrow existing governments and substitute Communism.

Just how the Communists in Korea were given assistance is graphically outlined in the following July 14th broadcast of Fulton Lewis, Jr.

SEN. BRIDGES (R-N.H.) and Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) have joined in a statement that much of the blame for the failure of the South Korean army must be laid to the 500-man U.S. military mission that trained the South Koreans.

Later Bridges said there should be an immediate investigation by Congress into all the circumstances surrounding the operation of that military mission and whether it was given due cooperation by the State Department and the Washington government generally.

He said the Armed Services Committee of the Senate, of which he is ranking Republican member, now is conducting a general inquiry into all the circumstances attending the Korean outbreak.

He will demand that special attention be given to this particular of it.

BY Way of Background:

Congress last year appropriated $110,000,000 for military aid in the Far East and of that sum Korea was to have received a major portion.

Brig. Gen. William L. Roberts, who was head of the Korean training command commission, said the Korean soldier is a good fighter but there is a shortage of officers and equipment.

Gen. Roberts said that during the training years the State Department objected to the South Koreans being given any tanks, arms, ammunition, planes or other weapons.

So anything that smacks in the slightest of being an offensive weapon was pulled out and the only material aid that we have given South Korea out of all those millions of dollars was about $52,000 worth of wire.

He said the State Department insisted that even the training given the South Korean forces had to be confined to defensive training only.

There you have it. The same State Department that sabotaged the Nationalist government of China. The State Department that held up military aid until the Communists had overrun the country and it was too late.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor:
COMMON SENSE:

I've had a day of shopping,
And now it's time a write,
A few lines to COMMON SENSE
To go with this postal note.

I bought my meat and bacon,
Then the thought occurred to me,
That I'd never have a mealtime,
If we lost our liberty.

I'm sure the tyrant Commies,
Would never let me buy,
Small things I take for granted,
Like sugar for a pie.

I'd never know a night-time,
That wasn't terror filled,
And days would have no meaning
For the loyal ones they'd killed.

I never want America
Under any rule that's RED,
So here's "five" to fight them,
Fight them, "TIL THEY'RE DEAD!!

(Editor's note: Many thanks Mrs. K. L., California, for both the verse and the contribution.)

Not during the last 50 years has there been one man in Washington more honest—more courageous and a better American than Congressman John E. Not once has he feared to stand up for America and hurl charges in the teeth of Marxists who would scrap our Constitution and end America.

Preparedness Based Upon Jungle Laws Backed By Dr. Nance

TAMPA, Aug. 4 — A college president, alarmed at world conditions, recommended today that church members follow their prayers with rifle practice.

Poor national leadership has put the country in such a position the only way to get peace now is to fight for it, Dr. E. C. Nance, president of the University of Tampa, said:

He advised leaders of groups interested in peace, including churches, to "launch a campaign of instruction in the use of firearms, civil defense, guerrilla warfare and so forth to every man woman and child in the United States.

"I believe we should have total preparedness based on the laws of the jungle—that we should learn every art and science of killing," continued the 50-year-old veteran of two World Wars, who has held pastorates in several Christian churches. He said he favored use of any kind of bomb or of bacteriological warfare, against civilians as well as armies, so that war would become so horrible the people would "rebel against the stupid leaders that lead them into war."

These views were expressed in a letter asking that his name be withdrawn from supporters of the United World Federalists, a group seeking to set up a world government through the United Nations.

He explained he had become convinced nothing "except the power of armed force can stop the Communists from their present attempt to dominate the world . . . My convictions do not admit the possibility of persuading Russia or her satellites to live by any other law than that of the jungle."

Dr. Ray E. Short of Lakeland, head of the UWF movement in Florida, to whom Dr. Nance's letter was addressed, said the educator had agreed in writing to serve on the Florida advisory board:

"I am amazed that he would turn the letter loose to the press in this fashion," Dr. Short commented.

He said the UWF recognizes the possibility Russia might not participate in a world government. Nor is the UWF "out on a limb believing that Russia will be a good boy," he added.

Dr. Nance saved some of his strongest words to describe U. S. leadership.

"Laxity, indifference, political illiteracy, stupidity and spineless surrender of our American ideals on the part of some of our leaders is responsible for the humiliating predicament with which we are now confronted in international affairs," he wrote.

Clear Vision, Steady Hands

Dr. Nance said if he occupied a pulpit today he would tell his congregation not to be too high-minded even in their prayers.

"Their prayers should be self-centered, at least for the present time. . . They should ask God to give them clear vision and steady hands.

"I would tell them that religion is not at least in our day, to help them escape the realities of life, but to help face them.

"I would say it's better to be a live sinner than a dead saint.

"After leading my congregation in prayer services, I would invite them to the rifle range for practice in firearms."
